forth above. The Indemnitors shall not, without the prior written consent of the affected Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), effect any settlement of any pending or threatened Proceeding against such Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party unless such settlement (a) includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability or claims that are the subject matter of such Proceeding and (b) does not include any statement as to any admission of fault or culpability. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnified Party shall be obligated to refund or return any and all amounts paid by the Indemnitors hereunder to such Indemnified Party for any Losses and expenses to the extent such indemnified Party is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms hereof.

9.1.4 The Indemnitors hereby constitute the Purchasers as trustees for each of the other Indemnified Parties of the Indemnitors' covenants under this indemnity with respect to those persons and the Purchasers agree to accept that trust and to hold and enforce those covenants on behalf of those persons.

9.1.5 The indemnity obligations of the Indemnitors hereunder are in addition to any liabilities which the Indemnitors may otherwise have to the Purchasers or any other Indemnified Party.

9.1.6 For the purposes of this Section 9.1, "Related Party" and "Related Parties" of an Indemnified Party mean any (or all, as the context may require) of such Indemnified Party's affiliates and controlling persons and its or their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, agents, advisors and other representatives thereof.

9.2 Right of Indemnity in Favour of Others

With respect to any party who may be indemnified pursuant to Section 9.1 above and is not a party to this Agreement, the Purchasers shall obtain and hold the rights and benefits of this Section 9 in trust for and on behalf of such Indemnified Party.

9.3 Tax Indemnity

9.3.1 If the Corporation is required by applicable law to withhold or deduct any Tax in respect of any payment made or considered or deemed under applicable laws to be made pursuant to the terms of or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, the Common Shares or the Preferred Shares, then the Corporation shall make such withholding or deduction and, if such Tax is a Tax imposed as a result of the Purchaser being resident in a country other than the country of residence of the Corporation (an "Indemnified Tax"), the Corporation shall (1) if such deduction or withholding is in respect of a payment of cash to the Purchaser, pay the Purchaser such additional amounts as may be necessary so that after making or allowing for all required withholdings and deductions (including withholdings and deductions applicable to additional amounts payable under this Section 9.3), the Purchaser has or receives an amount equal to that which the Purchaser would have had or received had no such withholdings or deductions been required or (2) if such deduction or withholding is in respect of any other payment made or considered or deemed under applicable laws to be made to the Purchaser, remit an amount in cash directly to the relevant Governmental Authority so that after taking into account the amount of such other payment as well as the amount remitted to the relevant Governmental Authority, the Purchaser's liability to such relevant Governmental Authority in respect of such other payment shall have been completely satisfied. The Corporation will timely remit any Taxes so withheld or deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, and will furnish to the Purchaser, within thirty (30) days, the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such remittance, a copy of the return reporting such remittance or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Purchaser.

9.3.2 The Corporation will indemnify a Purchaser, within twenty (20) days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Tax payable or paid by the Purchaser or required to be withheld or deducted in respect of any payment made or considered or deemed under applicable laws to be made to the Purchaser pursuant to the terms of or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, the Common Shares or the Preferred Shares, whether or not such Indemnified Tax was correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such Indemnified Tax payable or paid delivered to the Corporation by the Purchaser will be conclusive absent manifest error.

9.3.3 If a Purchaser determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by the Corporation or with respect to which the Corporation has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 9.3, the Purchaser shall pay the Corporation an amount equal to such refund, net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Purchaser and without interest (other than any net after-Tax interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). The Corporation agrees to repay to the Purchaser any amount so paid over to the Corporation (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) if the Purchaser is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. This paragraph shall not be construed to require the Purchaser to claim any available refund. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.3.3, in no event shall the Purchaser be required to pay any amount to the Corporation pursuant to this Section 9.3.3 the payment of which would place the Purchaser in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the Purchaser would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or, in the case of a Tax indemnified pursuant to Section 9.3.2, imposed, and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require the Purchaser to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the Corporation or any other person.

9.3.4 BlackRock and each Purchaser shall promptly deliver to the Corporation any Tax form, document or information reasonably requested by the Corporation in order to properly determine whether it is required by applicable law to withhold or deduct any Taxes under Section 9.3.1 as well as the rate of any such Tax including, without limitation, form NR301, NR302 or NR303, as the case may be. This paragraph shall not be construed to require BlackRock or any Purchaser to provide any such information that is not already in its possession or that it deems confidential (including, for greater certainty, the name or address of any person owning an interest or other investment in a Purchaser), nor, without limiting the generality of the forgoing, to require BlackRock or any Purchaser to complete section 7 of form NR301, section 6 of form NR302, section 6 of form NR303 or any equivalent section of any amended, updated or similar form, or to provide the Corporation with any worksheets normally included with such forms. In the event that any forms are requested and provided in accordance with the terms of this Section 9.3.4, they shall be completed by the Purchaser to the best of its knowledge only. The Purchaser shall not be liable for any Losses suffered by the Corporation as a result of any errors or omissions made by the Purchaser in complying with this Section 9.3.4.

9.4 Contribution

9.4.1 In order to provide for a just and equitable contribution in circumstances in which the indemnity provided in this Section 9 would otherwise be available in accordance with its terms but is, for any reason, unavailable to or unenforceable by the Purchasers or enforceable otherwise than in accordance with its terms or insufficient to hold any Indemnified Party harmless, the Indemnitors shall solidarily contribute to all claims suffered or incurred by any Indemnified Party in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits received by the Corporation on the one hand and any Indemnified Party on the other hand from the issue and sale of the Offered Securities but also the relative fault of the Indemnitors or any Indemnified Party as well as any relevant equitable considerations. The Indemnitors shall in any event be solidarily liable to contribute to the amount paid or payable by an Indemnified Party as a result of a claim under this Section 9, any amounts in excess of the Fee or any portion of such Fee actually received by the Indemnified Party. The Purchasers shall not in any event be liable to contribute, in the aggregate, any amounts in excess of the Fee or any portion of such Fee actually received. However, no party who has engaged in any fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation, wilful misconduct or negligence shall be entitled to claim contribution from any person who has not engaged in such fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation, wilful misconduct or negligence.

9.4.2 The rights to contribution provided in this Section 9.4 shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other right to contribution which the Purchasers may have by statute or otherwise at law.

9.4.3 With respect to any Indemnified Party who is not a party to this Agreement, it is the intention of the Indemnitors to constitute the Purchasers as trustees for such Indemnified Party of the rights and benefits of this Section 9.4 and the Purchasers agree to accept such trust and to hold the rights and benefits of this Section 9.4 in trust for an on behalf of such Indemnified Party.

9.4.4 For greater certainty, in the event of unenforceability or unavailability of the indemnity provided for in Section 9, the Indemnitors shall not have any obligation to contribute pursuant to this Section 9.4 except to the extent the indemnity given by it in Section 9 would have been applicable to such Losses in accordance with its terms, has such indemnity been found to be enforceable and available to the Indemnified Parties.

10. PURCHASERS' FEE AND WARRANTS

In consideration of the Purchasers' agreements and commitments under this Agreement, the Corporation shall pay the Purchasers a cash fee (the "Fee") equal to []% of the gross proceeds from the issuance of the Offered Preferred Shares as set forth in the Flow of Funds Closing Agreement.

In consideration of the Purchasers' agreements and commitments under this Agreement, the Corporation shall also, at or before the Closing Time, issue Warrants to the Purchasers in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

No other fee or commission is payable by the Corporation in connection with the completion of the Issuance, except for the reimbursement of the Purchasers' Expenses.

The Corporation agrees that once the Fee is paid, the Fee or any part thereof shall not be repayable under any circumstances unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Corporation and BlackRock and that BlackRock may, in their sole discretion, share all or a portion of the Fee with any other person.

11. ALL TERMS TO BE CONDITIONS

The Corporation agrees that the conditions contained in Section 5.2 will be complied with insofar as the same relate to acts to be performed or caused to be performed by the Corporation and that it will use its commercial best efforts to cause all such conditions to be complied with. Any breach or failure to comply with any of the conditions set out in Section 5.2 shall entitle any of the Purchasers to terminate its obligations hereunder, by written notice to that effect given to the Corporation at or prior to the Closing Time. It is understood that the Purchasers may waive, in whole or in part, or extend the time for compliance with, any of such terms and conditions without prejudice to the rights of the Purchasers in respect of any such terms and conditions or any other or subsequent breach or non-compliance, provided that to be binding on the Purchasers any such waiver or extension must be in writing and signed by each of the Purchasers.

12. MATERIAL CHANGES

During the period from the date hereof to the Closing Date, the Corporation shall promptly notify the Purchasers (and, if requested by any of the Purchasers, confirm such notification in writing) of (i) any Material Adverse Effect, actual or contemplated; (ii) any material change in any information provided to the Purchasers concerning the Corporation, the Target, the Acquisition, the Offered Securities, the Underlying Shares, the Common Shares or the Issuance, including any representation or warranty made in this Agreement; (iii) any notice by any judicial or regulatory authority or any stock exchange requesting any information, meeting or hearing relating to the Corporation or the Issuance; or (iv) any other event or state of affairs that may be material to the Purchasers or the securityholders of the Corporation. During the period from the date hereof to the Closing Date, the Corporation shall promptly, and in any event, within any applicable time limitation, comply with all applicable filing and other requirements under Canadian Securities Laws as a result of such change. The Corporation shall in good faith discuss with the Purchasers any fact or change in circumstances (actual, anticipated, contemplated or threatened, and financial or otherwise) which is of such a nature that there is reasonable doubt as to whether notice in writing need be given to the Purchasers pursuant to this Section 12.

 denotes redacted information.

13. PRESS RELEASES AND OTHER PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

The Corporation shall (i) provide BlackRock and its counsel with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any press release or other public communication issued by the Corporation in connection with the Acquisition and the Issuance; (ii) at BlackRock's request include a reference to BlackRock and/or its affiliates and their role in any such release or communication, and (iii) ensure that any press release concerning the Issuance complies with applicable law including United States securities law restrictions in respect of general solicitation, general advertising and directed selling efforts.

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding any of the foregoing, on or after the Closing Date, the Purchasers and/or BlackRock may publicize in its marketing materials its role and title in connection with the Transactions (which may include the reproduction of Corporation's and Target's respective logos) and other information the Corporation has publicly announced in connection with the Transactions, provided the Corporation shall have given its prior consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld) to any such disclosure (unless otherwise publicly announced by the Corporation) which includes information other than Corporation's name, description of the fundamental aspects of the Transactions and the amount of the Issuance. For the avoidance of doubt, no such consent shall be required in respect of disclosure of any such information to limited partners or investors in BlackRock or any funds or accounts managed or advised by BlackRock.

14.6 Severability

The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect or limit the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

14.7 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Québec and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

14.8 Jurisdiction

Each party to this Agreement, by its execution hereof, (a) hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdictions of the Superior Court of Quebec sitting in the District of Montreal for the purpose of any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof, (b) hereby waives to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and agrees not to assert, and agrees not to allow any of its subsidiaries to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, in any such action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named court, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that any such proceeding brought in the above-named court is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof or thereof may not be enforced in or by such court and (c) hereby agrees not to commence or maintain any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof or thereof other than before the above-named court nor to make any motion or take any other action seeking or intending to cause the transfer or removal of any such action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation to any court other than the above-named court whether on the grounds of inconvenient forum or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any party hereto is or becomes a party in any litigation in connection with which it may assert indemnification rights set forth in this agreement, the court in which such litigation is being heard shall be deemed to be included in clause (a) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any party to this Agreement may commence and maintain an action to enforce a judgment of the above-named court in any court of competent jurisdiction. The provisions of Section 7 of the BlackRock Commitment Letter shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement as if though they were set out herein in full.

L. 107-56 (signed into law on October 26, 2001) (the "PATRIOT Act"), the Purchasers or BlackRock (or other member of the BlackRock Group) may be required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Corporation, which information includes names, addresses, tax identification numbers and other information that will allow each Purchaser or other investor in the Offered Securities to identify the Corporation in accordance with the PATRIOT Act. This notice is given in accordance with the requirements of the PATRIOT Act and is effective for the Purchasers and the BlackRock Group.

14.13 Payments

All amounts and fees payable under this Agreement shall be payable in U.S.$ (except expenses reimbursement shall be in the currency so incurred, if requested by the Purchasers) in immediately available funds to the Purchasers for their own account or as directed by the Purchasers, and shall be made in the manner set forth in Section 7, with the necessary changes having been applied. All amounts and fees payable under this Agreement are exclusive of any sales tax and value added tax (including, without limitation, Canada goods and services tax and harmonized sales tax, and Quebec sales tax) or similar charge ("VAT") and if VAT is chargeable, the Corporation or the relevant Indemnitor shall also and at the same time pay to the recipient of the relevant payment an amount equal to the amount of VAT. 14.14 Currency Indemnity

If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder in U.S.$ into another currency, the parties hereto agree, to the fullest extent that they may effectively do so, that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures, the Purchasers could purchase (and remit in New York City) U.S.$ with such other currency on the business day preceding that on which final judgment is given. The Corporation's obligation in respect of any sum due hereunder shall, notwithstanding any judgment in a currency other than U.S.$, be discharged only to the extent that on the business day following its receipt of any sum adjudged to be so due in such other currency, the Purchasers may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase U.S.$ with such other currency; if the U.S.$ so purchased and remitted are less than the sum originally due to the Purchasers in U.S.$, the Corporation agrees, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment, to indemnify the relevant payee against such loss, and if the U.S.$ so purchased exceed the sum originally due in U.S.$, such excess shall be remitted to the Corporation.

14.17 Counterparts and Facsimile

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by facsimile, each of which so executed shall constitute an original and all of which taken together shall form one and the same agreement.

The subordinated debt is repayable in equal monthly instalments over a five year period. The loan bears interest at the annual rate of 14% plus an additional interest representing 1% of yearly gross sales of the Corporation for the first CDN$25,000,000 of sales and an additional 0.20% for sales over CDN$25,000,000. The subordinated debt is convertible into voting and participating shares of the Corporation on an event of default by the Corporation at the discretion of Desjardins on the terms set forth in the Loan Agreement. As amended on June 22, 2010, in the event Desjardins exercises the conversion privilege as a result of an event of default, the conversion is based on the greater of (i) the book value of the Common Shares of the Corporation on the basis of the most recent audited consolidated financial statements or, at Desjardins' sole discretion, the most recent unaudited consolidated quarterly financial statements of the Corporation, provided that such book value shall not be less than one cent per Common Share, and (ii) the minimum price authorized by the applicable rules. The first tranche was disbursed on April 30, 2010 and the second tranche will be disbursed once certain conditions of the Loan Agreement have been met.

Under the terms of the subordinated debt agreement with the lender, the Corporation is required amongst other conditions, to maintain at all times certain ratios.

Each warrant entitles the holders thereof to acquire one common share of the Corporation at a price per common share equal to CDN$19.17 at any time up to a period ending 10 years after the closing date.

In connection with the financing of the Acquisition, up to U.S.$1,050,000,000 of Preferred Shares, up to CDN$640,000,000 and U.S.$55,000,000 of Common Shares and up to 12,750,000 warrants having terms identical to the Warrants may be issued by the Corporation.

REQUIRED REGISTRATIONS.

2.1 Demand Registrations.

(a) Right to Demand. Subject to the provisions of this Section 2.1, any Holder or Holders (individually, a "Requesting Holder" and, collectively, the "Requesting Holders") at any time following the date hereof may make a written request that the Corporation effect a Public Offering of all or part of the Registrable Securities (a "Demand Registration"); provided that, for an Underwritten Offering, the anticipated aggregate offering price therefor, net of underwriting discounts and commissions, shall be at least CN$50,000,000. Subject to Section 2.2, all requests made pursuant to this Section 2.1, will specify the aggregate number or amount of Registrable Securities to be registered and will also specify the intended methods of disposition thereof, and, subject to Section 2.1(d), the jurisdiction in which such registration is requested (being (i) jurisdictions within Canada or (ii) following a U.S. Listing, the United States and jurisdictions within Canada). Subject to Section 2.1(d), the Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to effect such registration of the Registrable Securities in the jurisdiction in which the Corporation has been so requested to register.

(b) Form of Demand Registrations. Subject to Section 2.2, each registration requested pursuant to Section 2.1(a) shall be effected by the filing of a prospectus or registration statement on an applicable Short-Form Registration document, if available (or any other form which includes substantially the same information as would be required to be included in a registration statement on such form as currently constituted).

(c) Notices to Other Holders. Promptly upon receipt of any written request to the Corporation for an Underwritten Offering pursuant to Section 2.1 (but in no event more than 5 Business Days thereafter) which will or is expected to involve a road show and, other than in connection with a Bought Deal, the Corporation will serve written notice (the "Demand Notice") of such registration request to each Holder of Registrable Securities (which Demand Notice shall specify the intended method of disposition of such Registrable Securities), and the Corporation will, subject to Section 5.3, include in such registration all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Corporation has received written requests for inclusion therein within 15 days after the Demand Notice has been given to the applicable parties. The Corporation and, subject to Section 5.3, other Holders of Registrable Securities may include Registrable Securities in such registration, and such other Holders of Registrable Securities shall be given notice of the registration as set forth above. In the event that a request under Section 2.1 is made in connection with a Bought Deal, or another Public Offering which is not expected to include a road show, the notice periods set forth in this Section 2.1(c) shall not be applicable and the Corporation shall give the other Holders (each a "Receiving Holder") such notice as is practicable under the circumstances given the speed and urgency with which Bought Deals or such other Public Offerings are currently carried out in common market practice of its rights to participate thereunder and the Receiving Holder shall have only such time as is practicable under the circumstances to notify the Corporation and the Holders requesting registration that it will participate in the Bought Deal or such other Public Offering, failing which, the Holders requesting registration shall be free to pursue the Bought Deal or such other Public Offering without the participation of the Receiving Holders.

(d) Limitations. Subject to Section 2.2, 4.3, 4.22, and 5.3, the Corporation will not be required to effect any registration pursuant to Section 2.1 within three months after (i) the date of the receipt of any Canadian Prospectus or the effective date of any Registration Statement that was requested pursuant to Section 2.1, or (ii) the date of the receipt of any Canadian Prospectus or the effective date of any Registration Statement relating to an Underwritten Offering of securities of the Corporation for its own account or for the account of any holder of its securities other than pursuant to Section 2.1, provided that the Holders were provided with the opportunity to participate by way of incidental registration in accordance with Article 3 of this Agreement in connection with such offering. In addition, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Corporation will not be obligated to take any action to effect any registration pursuant to Section 2.1(a) in the United States if, at the time of such request, there is no U.S. Listing.

(e) Selection of Underwriter. If the Holders requesting the registration intend to distribute the Registrable Securities in an Underwritten Offering, they will so advise the Corporation in their request. If requested by the underwriters of such Underwritten Offering, the Corporation together with the Selling Holders will enter into an underwriting agreement with such underwriters for such offering containing such representations and warranties by the Corporation and such other terms and provisions as are customarily contained in underwriting agreements with respect to secondary distributions, including, without limitation, customary indemnity and contribution provisions. In respect of any Underwritten Offering in accordance with this Article 2, the majority of the Requesting Holders shall have the right, subject to the consultation and consent of the Corporation (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), to select the managing underwriter or underwriters to administer the offering, which managing underwriters shall be one or more firms of recognized standing in the jurisdiction or jurisdictions in which such registration and distribution are sought.

2.2 Shelf registration

(a) Canadian Shelf Registration

(i) As soon as practicable following the date hereof, the Corporation will prepare and file with the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities a base shelf preliminary short form prospectus and base shelf (final) short form prospectus (the "Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus") pursuant to the shelf prospectus provisions of National Instrument 44-102 (Shelf Distributions) of the Canadian Securities Authorities ("NI 44-102") to qualify the distribution of all of the Registrable Securities in each of the provinces and territories of Canada. The Corporation will obtain as promptly as practicable, and not more than 180 days from the date hereof, a final receipt in respect of the Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus from the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities.

(ii) The Corporation will file and obtain a final receipt for a new Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus prior to the expiry of the then current Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus such that following the obtaining of the final receipt in respect of the initial Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus as contemplated by Section 2.2(a)(i) and until termination of this Agreement, the Corporation shall have an effective Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus with enough room to allow the sale thereunder of all remaining Registrable Securities.

(iii) The Corporation will satisfy any Demand Registration at a time that a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus is effective by filing a prospectus supplement to the Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus (a "Canadian Shelf Supplement") with the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities, in accordance with NI 44-102, as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than the third Business Day after the Demand Registration is received.

(b) U.S. Shelf Registration

(i) The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to file with the SEC, within 30 Business Days after a U.S Listing, a Short-Form Registration document for the resale of Registrable Securities, which, at the discretion of the Corporation, shall be pursuant to a registration statement filed with the SEC on Form F-10 and offered pursuant to Canadian shelf prospectus offering procedures (if Form F-10 is then eligible for use by the Corporation) or in accordance with and pursuant to Rule 415 promulgated under the Securities Act (or any successor rule then in effect) (the "U.S. Shelf"). The Corporation shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the U.S. Shelf to become effective as promptly thereafter as practicable. The Corporation shall include in a prospectus supplement (that shall be deemed part of the U.S. Shelf) all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Corporation has received a Demand Registration for inclusion therein at least 5 Business Days prior to the date of filing pursuant to a Registration Notice and Questionnaire provided to Holders; provided however, that in order to be named as a selling securityholder in the prospectus supplement, each Holder must furnish to the Corporation in writing such information in writing as may be reasonably requested by the Corporation for the purpose of including such Holder's Registrable Securities in the prospectus supplement (the "Selling Holder Information"). The Corporation shall include in the prospectus supplement the Selling Holder Information received, to the extent necessary and in a manner so that, upon the filing of such prospectus supplement or promptly thereafter, any such Holder shall be named, to the extent required by the rules promulgated under the Securities Act by the SEC, as a selling securityholder and be permitted to deliver (or be deemed to deliver) a Prospectus relating to the U.S. Shelf prepared in connection with a Registration Statement to purchasers of the Registrable Securities in accordance with applicable law. If the Corporation files an amended version of the Prospectus, the Corporation shall include in such Prospectus the Selling Holder Information that was not included in any previous filed version of the Prospectus. If any Registrable Securities remain issued and outstanding after three years following the initial effective date of such U.S. Shelf, the Corporation shall, no less than 90 days prior to the expiration of such U.S. Shelf, file a new U.S. Shelf covering such Registrable Securities and shall thereafter use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be declared effective as promptly as practical, such new U.S. Shelf. The Corporation shall maintain the effectiveness of the U.S. Shelf in accordance with the terms hereof until the earlier of (a) the date as of which all Registrable Securities have been sold, and (b) the date as of which all Registrable Securities have ceased to be Registrable Securities.

(ii) If the continued use of U.S. Shelf at any time would require the Corporation, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors, to disclose material non-public information, the premature disclosure of which would materially adversely affect the Corporation or which would materially interfere with any material transaction being considered by the Corporation, the Corporation may, upon giving at least 10 days, prior written notice of such action to the Holders, suspend use of the U.S. Shelf and/or the Prospectus, as applicable, for up to 45 consecutive days (a "Shelf Suspension"); provided, however, at the expiry of such Shelf Suspension if in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors the disclosure of the material information continues to be premature and the disclosure of which would still materially adversely affect the Corporation or materially interfere with the proposed transaction if made, the Board of Directors may continue the Shelf Suspension for an additional 30 consecutive days; provided, further, however, that the Corporation shall not be permitted to utilize its suspension rights under this Section 2.2(b)(ii) for more than 90 days in total in any consecutive 12-month period. The Corporation shall immediately notify the Holders upon the termination of any Shelf Suspension, amend or supplement the U.S. Shelf and/or the Prospectus as promptly as reasonably practicable so it does not contain any untrue statement or omission and furnish to the Holders such numbers of copies of the prospectuses as so amended or supplemented as the Holders may reasonably request.

(iii) Requests for Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedowns. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 2.1(a) and 2.1(d), at any time and from time to time after the U.S. Shelf has been declared effective by the SEC, any one or more Holders of Registrable Securities may request to sell all or any portion of their Registrable Securities in an underwritten offering (including an "at-the-market offering" or a "registered direct offering") that is registered pursuant to the U.S. Shelf (each, an "Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown").

(iv) Requests for Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedowns. If a Holder desires to initiate an offering or sale of all or part of such Holder's Registrable Securities that does not constitute an Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown (a "Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown"), such Holder shall so indicate in the Demand Registration delivered to the Corporation no later than two Business Days (or in the event any amendment or supplement to the U.S. Shelf is necessary, no later than 5 Business Days) prior to the expected date of such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown, which request shall include (i) the total number of Registrable Securities expected to be offered and sold in such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown, (ii) the expected plan of distribution of such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown and (iii) the action or actions required (including the timing thereof) in connection with such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown (including the delivery of one or more stock certificates representing shares of Registrable Securities to be sold in such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown), and, to the extent necessary, the Corporation shall file and effect an amendment or supplement to its U.S. Shelf for such purpose as soon as practicable; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not be required to file an amendment or supplement to its U.S. Shelf within 30 days of a previous amendment or supplement with respect to a Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown.

(v) U.S. Demand Notices. All requests for Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedowns shall be made by giving written notice to the Corporation (the "U.S. Demand Notice"). Each U.S. Demand Notice shall specify the approximate number of Registrable Securities to be sold in the Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown and the expected price range (net of underwriting discounts and commissions) of such Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown.

INCIDENTAL REGISTRATION.

3.1 Corporation Registration. If the Corporation proposes to register any of its equity securities under Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act, for its own account or for the account of any holder of its securities ("Other Holders") other than pursuant to Section 2.1, on a form or in a manner that would permit registration of Registrable Securities for sale to the public under Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act, then prior to the initial filing of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Shelf Supplement or Registration Statement (as the case may be) the Corporation will give written notice to all Holders of its intention to do so within 10 Business Days prior to the expected date of commencement of marketing efforts in the case of an Underwritten Registration or prior to the expected date of filing the registration otherwise. Upon the written request of one or more Holders given within 7 Business Days after the Corporation provides such notice (which request will state the number or amount of Registrable Securities that is proposed to be included in such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Shelf Supplement or Registration Statement, as the case may be) the Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Registrable Securities, that the Corporation has been requested to register to be registered under Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act (as applicable) to the extent necessary to permit their sale or other disposition; provided that the Corporation will have the right to postpone or withdraw any registration initiated by the Corporation prior to a receipt being issued for the Canadian Prospectus or the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, as the case may be, pursuant to this Section 3.1 without obligation to any Holder.

3.2 Excluded Transactions. The Corporation will not be obligated to effect any registration of Registrable Securities under this Article 3 incidental to the registration of any of its securities in connection with: (a) any registration relating to employee benefit plans or dividend reinvestment plans; or (b) any registration relating to the acquisition or merger or other type of transaction described in Rule 145 under the Securities Act after the date hereof by the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries of or with any other businesses.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES.

If and whenever the Corporation is required by the provisions of this Agreement to use commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration of any of the Registrable Securities under Canadian Securities Laws or, following a U.S. Listing, the Securities Act, the Corporation and (where applicable) the Selling Holders will take the actions described below in this Article 4.

4.1 Canadian Prospectus and Prospectus. The Corporation will prepare and (in the case of a registration pursuant to Article 2 (and subject to Sections 2.1(d) and 2.2) hereof, promptly after the end of the period within which requests for registration may be delivered to the Corporation, to the extent applicable) file with, as the case may be, (a) the Canadian Securities Authorities a Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus or (b) the SEC a Registration Statement with respect to such Registrable Securities and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to become effective, or (c) both, in each case as specified by the Requesting Holders in the notice requesting such registration; provided, in each case, that the relevant Requesting Holder and Selling Holder shall have furnished to the Corporation a completed and signed Notice and Questionnaire.

4.2 Amendments and Supplements. The Corporation will prepare and file with the Securities Regulators such amendments and post-effective amendments to the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, as applicable as may be necessary (i) to keep the applicable Registrable Securities qualified for distribution in Canada for a period (A) as contemplated under 2.2(a) for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus or (B) other than for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus, of not less than 180 days after the issuance of a receipt for the Canadian Prospectus (or such shorter period which will terminate when all such Registrable Securities have been sold or distribution is otherwise terminated) and/or (ii) to keep the Registration Statement effective for a period ending on the date specified in Section 2.2(b)(i), or, if such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus relates to an Underwritten Offering, such longer period as in the opinion of counsel for the underwriters the Canadian Prospectus is required by law to be delivered in connection with sales of shares by an underwriter or dealer. The Corporation will cause the Canadian Prospectus and/or the Prospectus to be supplemented by any required supplement, and as so supplemented, to be filed pursuant to any applicable provisions of Canadian Securities Laws, Instruction II.L of Form F-10 or Rule 424 under the Securities Act, as the case may be.

4.3 Receipt / Effectiveness. The Corporation shall be deemed to have effected a Demand Registration if (i) a receipt is obtained for the Canadian Prospectus from all jurisdictions in Canada where the Registrable Securities subject to such Demand Registration are intended to be distributed and such Canadian Prospectus continues to remain in full force and effect pursuant to that receipt for a period (A) as contemplated under 2.2(a) for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus or (B) other than for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus, of 180 days (or such shorter period which will terminate when all such Registrable Securities have been sold or distribution is otherwise terminated), (ii) the Registration Statement relating to such Demand Registration is declared effective by the SEC and remains effective for a period as specified in Section 2.2(b)(i), or (iii) subject to Section 5.4(b), at any time after the Holders request a Demand Registration and prior to the issuance of a receipt for a Canadian Prospectus or effectiveness of the Registration Statement, as the case may be, the registration or distribution is discontinued or such Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement is withdrawn or abandoned, in each case after the filing of the Canadian Prospectus with applicable Canadian Securities Authorities or filing of a Registration Statement with the SEC, as the case may be, at the request of the Requesting Holders.

4.4 Cooperation. The Corporation will cooperate with the Selling Holders in the disposition of the Registrable Securities covered by such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, as applicable, including without limitation in the case of an Underwritten Offering, by causing key executives of the Corporation and its subsidiaries to participate under the direction of the managing underwriters in a “road show” scheduled by such managing underwriters in such locations and of such duration as in the judgment of such managing underwriters are appropriate for such underwritten offering.

4.5 Notice of Certain Events. The Corporation will notify the Selling Holders and the managing underwriters, if any, and (if requested) confirm such advice in writing, as soon as practicable after notice thereof is received by the Corporation (a) when (i) the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto has been filed or a receipt issued therefor by the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities and/or (ii) the Registration Statement or any amendment thereto has been filed or becomes effective or the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement to the Prospectus has been filed and, in each case, to furnish such Selling Holders and managing underwriters with copies thereof, (b) of any request by the Securities Regulators for amendments or supplements to the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement (or the related Prospectus), or for additional information, (c) of the issuance by the Securities Regulators of any stop order or cease trade order suspending the effectiveness of the Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement or any order preventing or suspending the use of any Preliminary Canadian Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or Prospectus, or the initiation or threatening of any proceedings for such purposes, and (d) of the receipt by the Corporation of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the Registrable Securities for offering or sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose.

4.6 Executed Copies of Canadian Prospectus and Registration Statement. The Corporation will furnish to each Selling Holder and each managing underwriter, without charge, one executed copy and as many conformed copies as they may reasonably request, of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement, as the case may be, and any post-effective amendment or supplement thereto, including without limitation financial statements and schedules, all documents incorporated therein by reference and all exhibits (including without limitation those incorporated by reference).

4.7 Copies of Canadian Prospectus and Prospectus. The Corporation will deliver to each Selling Holder and the underwriters, if any, without charge, as many copies of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus and the Prospectus (including without limitation each preliminary Prospectus), as the case may be, and any amendment or supplement thereto, as such Persons may reasonably request (it being understood that by such delivery the Corporation consents to the use of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus and the Prospectus, as the case may be, or any amendment or supplement thereto, by each of the Selling Holders and the underwriters, if any, in connection with the offering and sale of the shares covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus and the Prospectus, as the case may be, or any amendment or supplement thereto).

4.8 Blue Sky Qualification. The Corporation will on or prior to the date on which a Registration Statement is declared effective use commercially reasonable efforts to register or qualify, and cooperate with the Selling Holders, the managing underwriter or agent, if any, and their respective counsel in connection with the registration or qualification of such shares for offer and sale under the securities or blue sky laws of each state and other jurisdiction of the United States as any such Selling Holder, underwriter or agent reasonably requests in writing and do any and all other acts or things reasonably necessary or advisable to keep such registration or qualification in effect for so long as such Registration Statement remains in effect and so as to permit the continuance of sales therein for as long as may be necessary to complete the distribution of the Registrable Securities covered by the Registration Statement, provided that the Corporation will not be required to qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not then so qualified or to take any action which would subject it to general service of process or taxation in any such jurisdiction where it is not then so subject.

4.9 Stop Orders, Etc. The Corporation will make every reasonable effort to prevent the issuance, or obtain the withdrawal, of any stop order, cease trade order or other order suspending the use of any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or Prospectus, or suspending any qualification of the Registrable Securities covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement, as the case may be.

4.10 Free Writing Prospectus. With respect to each Free Writing Prospectus or other materials to be included in the Disclosure Package, the Corporation will ensure that no Registrable Securities be sold “by means of” (as defined in Rule 159A(b) promulgated under the Securities Act) such Free Writing Prospectus or other materials without the prior review and approval of counsel to the Holders; provided, however, the Corporation shall not be responsible or liable for any breach by a Holder that has not obtained the prior written consent of the Corporation pursuant to Section 7.15.

4.11 CUSIP. The Corporation will provide a CUSIP number for the Registrable Securities prior to the effective date of the first Registration Statement including Registrable Securities.

4.12 FINRA. The Corporation will cooperate with each Holder of Registrable Securities and each underwriter participating in the disposition of such Registrable Securities and underwriters’ counsel in connection with any filings required to be made with FINRA.

4.13 Filing Fee. The Corporation will, within the deadlines specified by the Securities Act, make all required filing fee payments in respect of any Registration Statement or Prospectus used under this Agreement (and any offering covered thereby).

4.14 Additional Information. The Corporation will, if requested by any participating Holder of Registrable Securities or the managing underwriters (if any), promptly include in a Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus supplement or amendment such information as the Holder or managing underwriters (if any) may reasonably request, including relating to the intended method of distribution of such securities, and make all required filings of such Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus supplement or such amendment as soon as reasonably practicable after the Corporation has received such request.

4.15 Certificate. The Corporation will, in the case of certificated Registrable Securities, if any, cooperate with the participating Holders of Registrable Securities and the managing underwriters (if any) to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates (not bearing any legends) representing Registrable Securities to be sold after receiving written representations satisfactory to the Corporation from each participating Holder that the Registrable Securities represented by the certificates so delivered by such Holder will be transferred in accordance with the Registration Statement, and enable such Registrable Securities to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the Holders or managing underwriters (if any) may reasonably request at least two Business Days prior to any sale of Registrable Securities.

4.16 Opinion of Counsel; Comfort Letter. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all legal opinions, auditors’ consents and comfort letters and experts’ cooperation as may be required, including without limitation (a) an opinion of counsel for the Corporation, (b) a comfort letter upon which the Selling Holder can rely signed by the independent public accountants who have audited the Corporation’s financial statements included in such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement (as the case may be), covering substantially the same matters as are customarily covered in opinions of issuer’s and the seller’s counsel and in accountants’ letters delivered to underwriters in underwritten public offerings of securities and (c) officers’ certificates and other customary closing documents.

4.17 Listing and Transfer Agent. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Common Shares covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus (or Registration Statement, as the case may be) to be listed on each securities exchange or automated quotation system on which similar securities issued by the Corporation are then listed. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to continue to be listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and following a U.S. Listing on the New York Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Stock Market, as the case may be, and to be registered with or approved by such other Governmental Authorities as may be necessary to enable the Holders to consummate the disposition of the Registrable Securities. The Corporation will provide and cause to be maintained a transfer agent and registrar for all Registrable Securities covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus (or Registration Statement, as the case may be) not later than the date a receipt is issued for the Canadian Prospectus by the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities (or the effective date of such Registration Statement, as the case may be).

4.18 Underwriters. Except as required by Law, the Corporation will refrain from naming any Holder as an underwriter in a Registration Statement without first obtaining such Holder's written consent.

4.19 General Compliance with Federal Securities Laws; Section 11(a) Earning Statement. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Securities Regulators, any governmental authority and any applicable securities exchange and make generally available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable (but not more than eighteen months) after the effective date of a Registration Statement, an earnings statement which shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and any applicable regulations thereunder, including without limitation Rule 158 under the Securities Act.

4.20 Notice of Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus Defects. The Corporation will promptly notify the Selling Holders and the managing underwriters, if any, at any time during the period of effectiveness or qualification for distribution set forth in Section 4.3 above, when the Corporation becomes aware of the happening of any event as a result of which the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Prospectus included in such Registration Statement (as then in effect), contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, or fails to constitute full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts regarding the Registrable Securities, when such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or the Prospectus was delivered or if for any other reason it shall be necessary during such time period to amend or supplement the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Prospectus, in order to comply with Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act and, in either case promptly thereafter, prepare and file with the Securities Regulators, and furnish without charge to the Selling Holders and the managing underwriters, if any, a supplement or amendment to such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus, which will correct such statement or omission or effect such compliance. Each Holder agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from the Corporation of the happening of any event of the kind described in this Section 4.20, such Holder will forthwith discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, until the supplemented or amended Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus, contemplated by this Section 4.20 has been filed, or until it is advised in writing by the Corporation that the use of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus may be resumed, and has received copies of any additional or supplemental filings which are incorporated by reference in the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus, and, if so directed by the Corporation, such Holder will deliver to the Corporation (at the Corporation's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies then in such Holder's possession, of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice.

4.21 Corporation Lock-Up. In the case of an Underwritten Offering requested to be effected by the Requesting Holders hereunder, if requested by the Underwriters, the Corporation will refrain for a period from seven days before until 90 days after pricing of such Underwritten Offering, from directly or indirectly selling, offering to sell, announcing any intention to sell, granting any option for the sale of, or otherwise disposing of any common equity or securities convertible into common equity in a public offering other than pursuant to (i) the Corporation employee equity plans, (ii) a merger, acquisition, exchange offer, or subscription offer, and (iii) Registrable Securities in accordance with this Agreement.

4.22 Delay of Registration and Suspension of Offering. If the Corporation is requested to effect a Demand Registration and the Board of Directors of the Corporation reasonably determines it would materially interfere with any material transaction being considered at the time, would require the disclosure of material non-public information, the premature disclosure of which would materially adversely affect the Corporation, or be detrimental to the Corporation and its security holders for such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus to be filed on or before the date such filing would otherwise be required hereunder, the Corporation shall have the right to defer such filing for a period of not more than 45 days after receipt of the request for such registration and at the expiry of such 45 day period the Board of Directors of the Corporation will review whether such registration would, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors, materially interfere with the proposed transaction or be detrimental to the Corporation and its security holders in which case the Board of Directors may delay such registration for an additional 30 day period, provided, that the Corporation shall not be permitted to utilize its delay rights under this Section 4.22 for more than 90 days in total in any consecutive 12-month period.

4.23 Participation by Selling Security Holders. In connection with the preparation and filing of each Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, and before filing any such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus, Registration Statement or any other document in connection therewith, the Corporation shall (a) give the Selling Holders and their underwriters, if any, and their respective counsel and accountants, a copy of such documents before filing with the Securities Regulators and the opportunity to review and comment on, and participate in the preparation of, such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus (or, as applicable, such Registration Statement and each Prospectus and Free Writing Prospectus included therein or filed with the SEC) and each amendment thereof or supplement thereto and any related underwriting agreement or other document to be filed, and give each of the aforementioned Persons such access to its books and records and such opportunities to discuss the business of the Corporation with its officers and the independent public accountants who have audited its financial statements as shall be necessary, in the opinion of such Holders, underwriters, counsel or accountants, to conduct a reasonable investigation within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act and (b) not less than 15 calendar days prior to the effective time of the Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, or such shorter time as is practicable under the circumstances, mail a Notice and Questionnaire to the Selling Holders; provided that no Holder shall be entitled to be named as a selling securityholder in the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement as of its effectiveness, and no Holder shall be entitled to use the prospectus forming a part thereof for resales of Registrable Securities at any time, unless such holder has returned a completed and signed Notice and Questionnaire to the Corporation (or its counsel) by the deadline for response set forth therein; and provided, further, that holders of Registrable Securities shall have at least 10 calendar days from the date on which the Notice and Questionnaire is first mailed or transmitted to such holders to return a completed and signed Notice and Questionnaire to the Corporation (or its counsel), or such shorter time as is practicable under the circumstances.

4.24 Other Actions. The Corporation will use its reasonable best efforts to take all other actions necessary or customarily taken by issuers to effect the registration and sale of and its commercially reasonable efforts to take all other actions necessary to effect the sale of, the Registrable Securities contemplated hereby, to the extent reasonably requested by the Underwriters.

CERTAIN OTHER PROVISIONS.

5.1 Additional Procedures. The Selling Holders will take all such actions and execute all such documents and instruments that are reasonably requested by the Corporation to effect the sale of their Registrable Securities under the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, being parties to the underwriting agreement entered into by the Corporation and any other Selling Holders in connection therewith.

5.2 Underwritten Registrations. No Person may participate in any Underwritten Registration hereunder unless such Person (a) agrees to sell such Person's securities on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements applicable to such offering and (b) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements.

5.3 Underwriter's Cutback.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if a registration involves an Underwritten Offering and the managing underwriter or underwriters of such proposed Underwritten Offering advises the Corporation in writing that in its opinion the number of securities requested to be included in such registration would adversely affect the price, timing or distribution of the securities offered, then the Corporation may limit the number of Registrable Securities to be included in the Canadian Prospectus or following a U.S. Listing, a Registration Statement, as applicable, for such offering. The number of shares that are entitled to be included in the registration and underwriting will be allocated in the following manner:

(i) if the Underwritten Offering is the result of a demand under Article 2 (i) first, shares of Corporation equity securities, other than Registrable Securities, requested to be included in such registration by shareholders will be excluded, and (ii) second, Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by the Holders will be excluded, allocated among such Holders pro rata based on the aggregate number of Registrable Securities held by such Holders;

(ii) if the Underwritten Offering is the result of an incidental registration under Article 3, the number of shares that are entitled to be included in the registration and underwriting will be allocated in the following manner: (i) first, other securities not listed in (ii) or (iii) below requested to be included in such registration will be excluded, (ii) second, Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by the Holders will be excluded, allocated among such Holders pro rata based on the aggregate number of Registrable Securities held by such Holders and (iii) third, shares of Corporation equity securities, other than Registrable Securities, proposed to be sold by the Corporation or requested to be included in such registration by Other Holders requesting such registration as applicable, will be excluded.

5.4 Registration Expenses.

(a) All expenses incident to the Corporation's performance of or compliance with this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) all registration and filing fees, and any other fees and expenses associated with filings required to be made with any stock exchange or the Securities Regulators (including without limitation FINRA), (ii) all fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or blue sky laws (including without limitation fees and disbursements of counsel for the underwriters in connection with blue sky qualifications of the Registrable Securities under the laws of such jurisdictions as the managing underwriters may designate), (iii) all printing and related messenger and delivery expenses (including without limitation expenses of printing certificates for the shares in a form eligible for deposit with CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc. and/or The Depository Trust Corporation and of printing prospectuses or similar documents), (iv) all fees and disbursements of counsel for the Corporation and of all independent certified public accountants and chartered accountants of the Corporation (including without limitation the expenses of any special opinions, audits and comfort letters required by or incident to such performance), (v) Securities Act liability insurance if available and the Corporation so desires, (vi) all fees and disbursements of underwriters customarily paid by the issuers or sellers of securities, but excluding Selling Expenses, (vii) all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the listing of the Registrable Securities on any securities exchange, and (viii) all fees and disbursements of one counsel in Canada and one counsel in the United States for each Selling Holder (all such expenses being herein called "Registration Expenses"), will be borne by the Corporation, regardless of whether a receipt is issued for the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement becomes effective. The Selling Holders shall be responsible for all underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes relating to any sale by the Selling Holders of Registrable Securities (the "Selling Expenses").

(b) The Corporation, however, shall not be required to pay for any expenses of a registration requested pursuant to Section 2.1 hereof if the registration request is withdrawn at any time at the request of Requesting Holders (in which case all Requesting Holders shall bear such expenses). However, if the Requesting Holders have learned of information (other than information known to them at the time they made their request) that, in the good faith judgment of the Requesting Holders, is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the business or prospects of the Corporation, then the Requesting Holders shall not be required to pay any of such expenses in the case of a registration requested pursuant to Section 2.1.

5.5 Limitations on Subsequent Registration Rights. The Corporation will not, without the prior written consent of the Holders holding a majority of the Registrable Securities then issued and outstanding, enter into any agreement with any holder or prospective holder of Corporation securities that grants such holder or prospective holder rights to include securities of the Corporation in any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or following a U.S. Listing, in any Registration Statement on terms more favorable to or on parity with those set forth herein, without the prior written consent of a majority of such Holders.

5.6 Transfer of Rights. The rights to cause the Corporation to register Registrable Securities pursuant to Sections 2.1(a) and Article 3, including without limitation the right to request one or more Demand Registrations, may be assigned in whole or in part by any Holder to a Permitted Transferee (as defined below), and by such Permitted Transferee to a subsequent Permitted Transferee, but only if such rights are Transferred (a) to any one or more Affiliates of such Holder (b) to one or more Holders, or (c) in connection with the sale or other Transfer of Registrable Securities having a value of the lesser of not less than (i) an aggregate of CN$50,000,000 or (ii) five percent (5%) of the total number of then outstanding Convertible Preferred Shares, or some lesser value, if such lesser value represents all the Registrable Securities then held by such Holder. Any transferee to whom rights under this Agreement are Transferred will (x) as a condition to such Transfer, deliver to the Corporation a written instrument by which such transferee agrees to be bound by the obligations imposed upon Holders under this Agreement to the same extent as if such transferee were a Holder under this Agreement and (y) be deemed to be a Holder hereunder. Any Person to whom rights under this Agreement are Transferred in accordance with this Section 5.6 shall be a "Permitted Transferee."

5.7 U.S. Private Sale and Legends.

(a) The Corporation agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Holders, at any time and from time to time, from selling or otherwise transferring Registrable Securities pursuant to a private sale or other transaction which is not registered pursuant to the Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act.

(b) At the request of a Holder and to the extent the Registrable Securities are subject to a restrictive legend, whether such securities are certificated or held in book-entry form, the Corporation shall remove from each certificate evidencing Registrable Securities, any legend if the Corporation is reasonably satisfied (based upon an opinion of counsel or, in the case of a Holder that is not an Affiliate of the Corporation proposing to transfer such securities pursuant to Rule 144(b)(1) of the Securities Act, other evidence, which may, if reasonably requested by the Corporation, be an opinion of counsel, that the securities evidenced thereby may be publicly sold without registration under the Securities Act.

5.8 Rule 144 and Rule 144A; Other Exemptions. With a view to making available to the Holders of Registrable Securities the benefits of Rule 144 and Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act and other rules and regulations of the SEC that may at any time permit a Holder of Registrable Securities to sell securities of the Corporation to the public without registration, the Corporation covenants that it will use its commercially reasonable efforts (i) to file in a timely manner all reports and other documents required, if any, to be filed by it under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder and (ii) make available information necessary to comply with Rule 144 and Rule 144A, if available with respect to resales of the Registrable Securities under the Securities Act, at all times, all to the extent required from time to time to enable such Holder to sell Registrable Securities without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by Rule 144 and Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act (if available with respect to resales of the Registrable Securities), as such rules may be amended from time to time, or any other rules or regulations that are successor provisions to Rule 144 or Rule 144A or are substantially consistent therewith.

INDEMNIFICATION.

6.1 Corporation Indemnification. Subject to the other provisions of this Article 6, the Corporation will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, jointly and severally (solidarily), to the extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless each Selling Holder, any Person who is or might be deemed to be a controlling Person of such Selling Holder or any of its subsidiaries within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or any analogous provision of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, their respective direct and indirect partners, advisory board members, directors, officers, trustees, members and shareholders, and each other Person, if any, who controls any such Selling Holder or any such holder within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or any analogous provision of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act (each such Person being a “Covered Person”) against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which such Covered Person may become subject under Canadian Securities Laws, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, state securities laws or any other securities or other law of any jurisdiction, the common law or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon (a) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained or incorporated by reference in (i) any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or (ii) any Registration Statement under which such Registrable Securities were registered under the Securities Act or the Disclosure Package, Prospectus, Free Writing Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto, (b) any omission or alleged omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein in light of the circumstance under which they were made not misleading or to provide full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts regarding the Registrable Securities; or (c) any violation or alleged violation by the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries of any applicable securities Laws in connection with the offer and sale of Registrable Securities and the Corporation will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, jointly and severally (solidarily), reimburse such Covered Person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by such Covered Person in connection with investigating, responding to or defending any such actual or alleged loss, claim, damage, liability or action; provided, however, that the Corporation will not be liable in any case to any Selling Holder to the extent that such loss, claim, damage or liability arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission in any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus, Registration Statement or Disclosure Package in reliance upon and in conformity with information concerning the Selling Holder furnished in writing to the Corporation by or on behalf of such Selling Holder specifically for use therein. The indemnities of the Corporation and of its subsidiaries contained in this Section 6.1 shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of such Covered Person and shall survive any transfer of securities. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability which the Corporation may otherwise have.

6.2 Seller Indemnification. Each Selling Holder will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless the Corporation and its subsidiaries, each of their directors and officers and each Person (other than such Selling Holder), if any, who controls the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or any analogous provision of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, and each other Selling Holder, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which the Corporation, its subsidiaries, such directors and officers, such controlling Person or such other Selling Holder, may become subject under Canadian Securities Laws, the Securities Act, Exchange Act, state securities laws or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based solely upon (a) any untrue statement of a material fact contained in (i) any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or (ii) any Registration Statement under which such Registrable Securities were registered under the Securities Act, the Disclosure Package, Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or (b) the omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein in light of the circumstance under which they were made not misleading or to provide full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts, if the statement or omission described in the foregoing clauses (a) and (b) was made in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to such Selling Holder furnished in writing to the Corporation by or on behalf of such Selling Holder, specifically for use in such (i) Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or (ii) Registration Statement, Disclosure Package, Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto; provided, however, that the obligations of such Selling Holder hereunder and under Section 6.4 will be limited to an amount equal to the net proceeds to such Selling Holder (after deducting all underwriter's discounts and commissions and all other expenses paid by such Holder in connection with the registration in question) from the disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to such registration. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the Corporation and any of its subsidiaries or any such director, officer or controlling Person and shall survive any transfer of securities.

6.3 Notice of Claims, etc. Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party of notice of the commencement of any action or proceeding involving a claim of the type referred to in the foregoing provisions of this Article 6, such indemnified party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against any indemnifying party, give written notice to each such indemnifying party of the commencement of such action; provided, however, that the failure of any indemnified party to give such notice will not relieve such indemnifying party of its obligations under this Article 6, except to the extent that such indemnifying party is materially prejudiced by such failure. In case any such action is brought against an indemnified party, each indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in and to assume the defense thereof, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified, to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party, and (subject to the following sentence) after notice from an indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, such indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the latter in connection with the defense thereof. The indemnified party may participate in such defense at such party's expense; provided, however, that the indemnifying party will pay such expense if representation of such indemnified party by the counsel retained by the indemnifying party would be inappropriate due to actual or potential conflict of interests between the indemnified party and any other party represented by such counsel in such proceeding; provided, further, that in no event will the indemnifying party be required to pay the expenses of more than one law firm as counsel for all indemnified parties pursuant to this sentence. If, within 30 days after receipt of the notice, such indemnifying party has not elected to assume the defense of the action, such indemnifying party will be responsible for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense of the action, suit, investigation, inquiry or proceeding. An indemnifying party may, in the defense of any such claim or litigation, consent to the entry of a judgment or enter into a settlement without the consent of the indemnified party only if such judgment or settlement contains a general release of the indemnified party in respect of such claims or litigation. An indemnified party may, in the defense of any such claim or litigation, consent to the entry of a judgment or enter into a settlement without the consent of the indemnifying party only if such judgment or settlement contains a general release of the indemnifying party in respect of such claims or litigation and does not involve injunctive or similar remedy likely to establish a custom or practice adverse to the continuing business interests of the indemnifying party.

6.4 Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in Section 6.1 or 6.2 hereof is unavailable to a party that would have been an indemnified party under any such Section in respect of any losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to therein, then each party that would have been an indemnifying party thereunder will, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of such indemnifying party on the one hand and such indemnified party on the other in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof). The relative fault will be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by such indemnifying party or such indemnified party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The parties agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 6.4 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the preceding sentence. The amount paid or payable by a contributing party as a result of the losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to in this Section 6.4 will include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) no Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation and, (ii) the total amount to be contributed by any Holder pursuant to this Section 6.4 shall be limited to the net proceeds (after deducting underwriters' discounts and commissions) received by such Holder in the offering to which such Public Offering relates.

MISCELLANEOUS.

7.1 Entire Agreement. Except for restrictions on Transfer of Registrable Shares set forth in other agreements, plans or other documents, including the Shareholders' Agreement, this Agreement, together with any documents, instruments and certificates explicitly referred to herein, constitutes the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior discussions, negotiations, proposals, undertakings, understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, with respect thereto.

7.2 Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended, modified, extended or terminated, and the provisions hereof may be waived, only by an agreement in writing signed by the Corporation and the Holders holding a majority of the Registrable Securities then issued and outstanding for so long as such Holders hold Registrable Securities; provided that in the event that such amendment, modification, supplement, waiver or consent would treat a Holder or group of Holders in a manner different from any other Holders, then such amendment or waiver will require the consent of such Holder or the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities of such group adversely treated. Each such amendment, modification, extension, termination and waiver shall be binding upon each party hereto. In addition, each party hereto may waive any right hereunder by an instrument in writing signed by such party or holder. Any such amendment, termination or waiver will be binding on all Holders. No waiver of any terms or conditions of this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any other breach of such terms and conditions or any other term or condition, nor shall any failure of any party to enforce any provision hereof operate or be construed as a waiver of such provision or of any other provision hereof and shall not affect the right of such party thereafter to enforce each provision of this Agreement in accordance with its terms. No written waiver hereunder, unless it by its own terms explicitly provides to the contrary, shall be construed to effect a continuing waiver of the provisions being waived and no such waiver in any instance shall constitute a waiver in any other instance or for any other purpose or impair the right of the party against whom such waiver is claimed in all other instances or for all other purposes to require full compliance with such provision.

7.3 Further Assurances. Each of the parties hereto shall execute all such further instruments and documents and take all such further action as any other party hereto may reasonably require in order to effectuate the terms and purposes of this Agreement.

7.4 Termination. The obligations of the Corporation and of any Holder, other than those obligations contained in Article 6, shall terminate with respect to the Corporation and such Holder as soon as such Holder no longer holds any Registrable Securities.

7.5 Determination of Number or Percentage of Registrable Securities. Wherever reference is made in this Agreement to a request or consent of holders of a certain number or percentage of Registrable Securities, the determination of such number or percentage will only include the number of Registrable Securities, on a fully diluted basis, assuming the exercise, exchange or conversion of the Convertible Preferred Shares, Warrants or any other outstanding securities that may from time to time be exchangeable or convertible into Common Shares, in each case outstanding and that are Registrable Securities.

7.6 Specific Performance. The Parties hereto shall have all remedies available at law, in equity or otherwise in the event of any breach or threatened breach or violation of this Agreement or any default hereunder by a party. The parties acknowledge and agree that any breach of this Agreement shall cause the other non-breaching parties irreparable harm, and that in addition to any other remedies which may be available, each of the parties hereto will be entitled, without the posting of bond, to specific performance of the obligations of the other parties hereto and, in addition, to such other equitable or injunctive remedies (including preliminary or temporary relief or injunctions) as may be appropriate in the circumstances. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies available under this Agreement or otherwise.

7.7 Authority; Effect. Each party hereto represents and warrants to and agrees with each other party that the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized on behalf of such party and do not violate any agreement or other instrument applicable to such party or by which its assets are bound. This Agreement does not, and shall not be construed to, give rise to the creation of a partnership among any of the parties hereto, or to constitute any of such parties members of a joint venture or other association.

7.8 Notices. Any notices and other communications required or permitted in this Agreement shall be effective if in writing and (a) delivered personally, (b) sent by facsimile or email, or (c) sent by Federal Express, DHL or UPS, in each case, addressed as follows:

Unless otherwise specified herein, such notices or other communications shall be deemed effective (a) on the date received, if personally delivered, (b) on the date received if delivered by facsimile or email on a Business Day, or if not delivered on a Business Day, on the first Business Day thereafter, or (c) two Business Days after being sent by Federal Express, DHL or UPS. Each of the parties hereto will be entitled to change the particulars of their respective notice address for the purposes of this Section 8.5 by giving notice as aforesaid (as may be changed from time to time in accordance with this sentence) to each of the other parties hereto.

7.9 Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings of this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, are not to be considered a part hereof and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or provisions hereof.

7.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one instrument.

7.11 Severability. In the event that any provision hereof would, under applicable law, be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, such provision shall be construed by modifying or limiting it so as to be valid and enforceable to the maximum extent compatible with, and possible under, applicable law. The provisions hereof are severable, and in the event any provision hereof should be held invalid or unenforceable in any respect, it shall not invalidate, render unenforceable or otherwise affect any other provision hereof.

7.12 Exercise of Rights and Remedies. No delay or omission in the exercise of any right, power or remedy accruing to any party as a result of any breach or default by any other party under this Agreement shall impair any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it be construed as a waiver of or acquiescence in any such breach or default, or of any similar breach or default occurring later; nor shall any such delay, omission nor waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default occurring before or after that waiver.

7.13 Governing Law. This Agreement and all claims arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof shall be governed and interpreted by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Quebec and the federal laws of Canada applicable in the Province of Quebec, including without limitation the QBCA, without reference to or giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws provision or rule that would cause the application of the domestic substantive laws of any other jurisdiction. This Agreement will be treated in all respects as a Quebec contract.

7.14 Consent to Jurisdiction. Each party to this Agreement, by its execution hereof, (a) hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdictions of the Superior Court of Quebec sitting in the District of Montreal for the purpose of any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof, (b) hereby waives to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and agrees not to assert, and agrees not to allow any of its subsidiaries to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, in any such action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named court, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that any such proceeding brought in the above-named court is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof or thereof may not be enforced in or by such court and (c) hereby agrees not to commence or maintain any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof or thereof other than before the above-named court nor to make any motion or take any other action seeking or intending to cause the transfer or removal of any such action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation to any court other than the above-named court whether on the grounds of inconvenient forum or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any party hereto is or becomes a party in any litigation in connection with which it may assert indemnification rights set forth in this agreement, the court in which such litigation is being heard shall be deemed to be included in clause (a) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any party to this Agreement may commence and maintain an action to enforce a judgment of the above-named court in any court of competent jurisdiction. Each party hereto hereby consents to service of process in any such proceeding in any manner permitted by the laws of Quebec, and agrees that service of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its address specified pursuant to Section 7.8 hereof is reasonably calculated to give actual notice.

7.15 Free Writing Prospectus Consent. No Holder shall use a Holder Free Writing Prospectus without the prior written consent of the Corporation, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

7.16 No Required Sale. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create an independent obligation on the part of any Holder to sell any Registrable Securities pursuant to any effective registration statement.

No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision (whether or not similar). No waiver will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound by the waiver. A party’s failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right. Dear Sirs:

The funds and/or accounts listed in Schedule A hereto (collectively, the "Purchasers" and each individually, a "Purchaser"), each of which is managed or advised by GSO Capital Partners LP ("GSO") or its affiliates, understand that Amaya Gaming Group Inc. (the "Corporation") proposes to issue and sell to the Purchasers (in the aggregate), on a private placement basis: (i) the Relevant Number of Preferred Shares (as defined below) of the Corporation (as set forth in Schedule A) (the "Offered Preferred Shares") at a price of CDN$1,000 per Convertible Preferred Share for aggregate gross proceeds of U.S.$600,000,000 and (ii) the Relevant Number of Common Shares of the Corporation (as set forth in Schedule A) (the "Offered Common Shares") at a price of CDN$20 per Common Share for aggregate gross proceeds of U.S.$55,000,000 (the issuance of the Offered Preferred Shares and the Offered Common Shares, together, the "Issuance"), as set forth in Schedule A hereto.

Upon and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Purchasers hereby separately (and for greater certainty, not "solidarity" within the meaning of the Civil Code of Québec) offer to purchase from the Corporation in their respective percentages set out in Schedule A and by the Corporation's acceptance hereof the Corporation agrees to sell to the Purchasers, at the Closing Time (as defined herein) all of the Offered Preferred Shares and Offered Common Shares to be issued and sold pursuant to the terms hereof. 9. INDEMNITY

9.1 Indemnity

9.1.1 The Corporation and its Material Subsidiaries (the "Indemnitors") hereby solidarity agree to indemnify and hold harmless each of the Purchasers, GSO, their respective affiliates and controlling persons and their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, agents, advisors and other representatives (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties" and individually, an "Indemnified Party") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and (in the case of a material breach or material inaccuracy of a representation or warranty of the Corporation under this Agreement, to the extent determined by a non-appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to be directly in connection with, have directly arisen from or be directly attributable to (and only to such extent) such material breach or material inaccuracy) difference in value (collectively, "Losses") to which any such Indemnified Party may become subject arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, the Offered Securities, the GSO Commitment Letter, the Issuance, the use of the proceeds thereof and the Acquisition and the Transactions (including as a result of, in connection with, arising out of, or attributable to, a material breach of, or material inaccuracy in, any representation or warranty of the Corporation under this Agreement, in which case the Indemnitors shall pay to the relevant Indemnified Party an amount (determined by a non appealable decision of a court of competent jurisdiction) equal to the Loss that would not have been suffered or incurred by such Indemnified Party had all representations and warranties of the Corporation been true, correct and accurate in all material respects) or any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing (a "Proceeding"), regardless of whether any Indemnified Party is a party thereto or whether such Proceeding is brought by Indemnitors, any of Indemnitors' affiliates or any third party, and to reimburse each Indemnified Party promptly following written demand therefor (together with reasonable backup documentation supporting such reimbursement request) for any reasonable and documented legal or other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with investigating or defending any of the foregoing (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to one counsel to such Indemnified Party (including Blackstone) taken as a whole and, solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional counsel to all affected Indemnified Party, taken as a whole (and, if reasonably necessary, to one local counsel in any relevant jurisdiction to all such persons (as well as one regulatory counsel to all such persons to the extent reasonably necessary), taken as a whole and, solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional local counsel in each relevant jurisdiction (as well as one separate regulatory counsel to the extent reasonably necessary) to all affected Indemnified Parties, taken as a whole)); provided that the foregoing indemnity will not, as to any Indemnified Party, apply to losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses to the extent they arise from the willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence of such Indemnified Party (or any of its Related Parties (as defined below)), in each case as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

9.1.2 No Indemnified Party shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by any person (other than such Indemnified Party (or its Related Parties)) of information or other materials obtained through electronic, telecommunications or other information transmission systems, except to the extent any such damages arise from the gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party (or any of its Related Parties), in each case as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. None of the Indemnified Party, Indemnitors or any of their respective affiliates or the respective directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors or other representatives of any of the foregoing shall be liable for any consequential or punitive damages in connection with this Agreement, the Offered Securities, the GSO Commitment Letter or the Issuance (including the use or intended use of the proceeds of the Issuance) or the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that nothing contained in this sentence shall limit the indemnification obligations of the Indemnitors to the extent set forth hereinabove.

9.1.3 The Indemnitors shall not be liable for any settlement of any Proceeding effected by any Indemnified Party without Corporation's written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), but if settled with Corporation's written consent, or if there is a final and non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction against an Indemnified Party in any such Proceeding, the Indemnitors agree to indemnify and hold harmless such Indemnified Party in the manner set forth above. The Indemnitors shall not, without the prior written consent of the affected Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), effect any settlement of any pending or threatened Proceeding against such Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity could have been sought hereunder by such Indemnified Party unless such settlement (a) includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability or claims that are the subject matter of such Proceeding and (b) does not include any statement as to any admission of fault or culpability. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Indemnified Party shall be obligated to refund or return any and all amounts paid by the Indemnitors hereunder to such Indemnified Party for any Losses and expenses to the extent such indemnified Party is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms hereof.

9.1.4 The Indemnitors hereby constitute the Purchasers as trustees for each of the other Indemnified Parties of the Indemnitors' covenants under this indemnity with respect to those persons and the Purchasers agree to accept that trust and to hold and enforce those covenants on behalf of those persons.

9.1.5 The indemnity obligations of the Indemnitors hereunder are in addition to any liabilities which the Indemnitors may otherwise have to the Purchasers or any other Indemnified Party.

9.1.6 For the purposes of this Section 9.1, "Related Party" and "Related Parties" of an Indemnified Party mean any (or all, as the context may require) of such Indemnified Party's affiliates and controlling persons and its or their respective directors, officers, employees, partners, agents, advisors and other representatives thereof.

9.2 Right of Indemnity in Favour of Others

With respect to any party who may be indemnified pursuant to Section 9.1 above and is not a party to this Agreement, the Purchasers shall obtain and hold the rights and benefits of this Section 9 in trust for and on behalf of such Indemnified Party.

9.3 Tax Indemnity

9.3.1 If the Corporation is required by applicable law to withhold or deduct any Tax in respect of any payment made or considered or deemed under applicable laws to be made pursuant to the terms of or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, the Common Shares or the Preferred Shares, then the Corporation shall make such withholding or deduction and, if such Tax is a Tax imposed as a result of the Purchaser being resident in a country other than the country of residence of the Corporation (an "Indemnified Tax"), the Corporation shall (1) if such deduction or withholding is in respect of a payment of cash to the Purchaser, pay the Purchaser such additional amounts as may be necessary so that after making or allowing for all required withholdings and deductions (including withholdings and deductions applicable to additional amounts payable under this Section 9.3), the Purchaser has or receives an amount equal to that which the Purchaser would have had or received had no such withholdings or deductions been required or (2)

if such deduction or withholding is in respect of any other payment made or considered or deemed under applicable laws to be made to the Purchaser, remit an amount in cash directly to the relevant Governmental Authority so that after taking into account the amount of such other payment as well as the amount remitted to the relevant Governmental Authority, the Purchaser's liability to such relevant Governmental Authority in respect of such other payment shall have been completely satisfied. The Corporation will timely remit any Taxes so withheld or deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, and will furnish to the Purchaser, within thirty (30) days, the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such remittance, a copy of the return reporting such remittance or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Purchaser.

9.3.2 The Corporation will indemnify a Purchaser, within twenty (20) days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Tax payable or paid by the Purchaser or required to be withheld or deducted in respect of any payment made or considered or deemed under applicable laws to be made to the Purchaser pursuant to the terms of or otherwise in connection with this Agreement, the Common Shares or the Preferred Shares, whether or not such Indemnified Tax was correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such Indemnified Tax payable or paid delivered to the Corporation by the Purchaser will be conclusive absent manifest error.

9.3.3 If a Purchaser determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by the Corporation or with respect to which the Corporation has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 9.3, the Purchaser shall pay the Corporation an amount equal to such refund, net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Purchaser and without interest (other than any net after-Tax interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). The Corporation agrees to repay to the Purchaser any amount so paid over to the Corporation (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) if the Purchaser is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. This paragraph shall not be construed to require the Purchaser to claim any available refund. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.3.3, in no event shall the Purchaser be required to pay any amount to the Corporation pursuant to this Section 9.3.3 the payment of which would place the Purchaser in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the Purchaser would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or, in the case of a Tax indemnified pursuant to Section 9.3.2, imposed, and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require the Purchaser to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes that it deems confidential) to the Corporation or any other person.

9.3.4 GSO and each Purchaser shall promptly deliver to the Corporation any Tax form, document or information reasonably requested by the Corporation in order to properly determine whether it is required by applicable law to withhold or deduct any Taxes under Section 9.3.1 as well as the rate of any such Tax including, without limitation, form NR301, NR302 or NR303, as the case may be. This paragraph shall not be construed to require GSO or any Purchaser to provide any such information that is not already in its possession or that it deems confidential (including, for greater certainty, the name or address of any person owning an interest or other investment in a Purchaser), nor, without limiting the generality of the forgoing, to require GSO or any Purchaser to complete section 7 of form NR301, section 6 of form NR302, section 6 of form NR303 or any equivalent section of any amended, updated or similar form, or to provide the Corporation with any worksheets normally included with such forms. In the event that any forms are requested and provided in accordance with the terms of this Section 9.3.4, they shall be completed by the Purchaser to the best of its knowledge only. The Purchaser shall not be liable for any Losses suffered by the Corporation as a result of any errors or omissions made by the Purchaser in complying with this Section 9.3.4.

9.4 Contribution

9.4.1 In order to provide for a just and equitable contribution in circumstances in which the indemnity provided in this Section 9 would otherwise be available in accordance with its terms but is, for any reason, unavailable to or unenforceable by the Purchasers or enforceable otherwise than in accordance with its terms or insufficient to hold any Indemnified Party harmless, the Indemnitors shall solidarity contribute to all claims suffered or incurred by any Indemnified Party in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits received by the Corporation on the one hand and any Indemnified Party on the other hand from the issue and sale of the Offered Securities but also the relative fault of the Indemnitors or any Indemnified Party as well as any relevant equitable considerations. The Indemnitors shall in any event be solidarity liable to contribute to the amount paid or payable by an Indemnified Party as a result of a claim under this Section 9, any amounts in excess of the Fee or any portion of such Fee actually received by the Indemnified Party. The Purchasers shall not in any event be liable to contribute, in the aggregate, any amounts in excess of the Fee or any portion of such Fee actually received. However, no party who has engaged in any fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation, wilful misconduct or negligence shall be entitled to claim contribution from any person who has not engaged in such fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation, wilful misconduct or negligence.

9.4.2 The rights to contribution provided in this Section 9.4 shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other right to contribution which the Purchasers may have by statute or otherwise at law.

9.4.3 With respect to any Indemnified Party who is not a party to this Agreement, it is the intention of the Indemnitors to constitute the Purchasers as trustees for such Indemnified Party of the rights and benefits of this Section 9.4 and the Purchasers agree to accept such trust and to hold the rights and benefits of this Section 9.4 in trust for an on behalf of such Indemnified Party.

9.4.4 For greater certainty, in the event of unenforceability or unavailability of the indemnity provided for in Section 9, the Indemnitors shall not have any obligation to contribute pursuant to this Section 9.4 except to the extent the indemnity given by it in Section 9 would have been applicable to such Losses in accordance with its terms, has such indemnity been found to be enforceable and available to the Indemnified Parties.

10. PURCHASERS' FEE AND WARRANTS

In consideration of the Purchasers' agreements and commitments under this Agreement, the Corporation shall pay GSO a cash fee (the "Fee") equal to []% of the gross proceeds from the issuance of the Offered Preferred Shares.

In consideration of the Purchasers' agreements and commitments under this Agreement, the Corporation shall also, at or before the Closing Time, issue Warrants to the Purchasers in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

No other fee or commission is payable by the Corporation in connection with the completion of the Issuance, except for the reimbursement of the Purchasers' Expenses.

The Corporation agrees that once the Fee is paid, the Fee or any part thereof shall not be repayable under any circumstances unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Corporation and GSO and that GSO may, in their sole discretion, share all or a portion of the Fee with any other person.

11. ALL TERMS TO BE CONDITIONS

The Corporation agrees that the conditions contained in Section 5.2 will be complied with insofar as the same relate to acts to be performed or caused to be performed by the Corporation and that it will use its commercial best efforts to cause all such conditions to be complied with. Any breach or failure to comply with any of the conditions set out in Section 5.2 shall entitle any of the Purchasers to terminate its obligations hereunder, by written notice to that effect given to the Corporation at or prior to the Closing Time. It is understood that the Purchasers may waive, in whole or in part, or extend the time for compliance with, any of such terms and conditions without prejudice to the rights of the Purchasers in respect of any such terms and conditions or any other or subsequent breach or non-compliance, provided that to be binding on the Purchasers any such waiver or extension must be in writing and signed by each of the Purchasers.

12. MATERIAL CHANGES

During the period from the date hereof to the Closing Date, the Corporation shall promptly notify the Purchasers (and, if requested by any of the Purchasers, confirm such notification in writing) of (i) any Material Adverse Effect, actual or contemplated; (ii) any material change in any information provided to the Purchasers concerning the Corporation, the Target, the Acquisition, the Offered Securities, the Underlying Shares, the Common Shares or the Issuance, including any representation or warranty made in this Agreement; (iii) any notice by any judicial or regulatory authority or any stock exchange requesting any information, meeting or hearing relating to the Corporation or the Issuance; or (iv) any other event or state of affairs that may be material to the Purchasers or the securityholders of the Corporation. During the period from the date hereof to the Closing Date, the Corporation shall promptly, and in any event, within any applicable time limitation, comply with all applicable filing and other requirements under Canadian Securities Laws as a result of such change. The Corporation shall in good faith discuss with the Purchasers any fact or change in circumstances (actual, anticipated, contemplated or threatened, and financial or otherwise) which is of such a nature that there is reasonable doubt as to whether notice in writing need be given to the Purchasers pursuant to this Section 12.

13. PRESS RELEASES AND OTHER PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

The Corporation shall (i) provide GSO and its counsel with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any press release or other public communication issued by the Corporation in connection with the Acquisition and the Issuance; (ii) at GSO's request include a reference to GSO and/or its affiliates and their role in any such release or communication, and (iii) ensure that any press release concerning the Issuance complies with applicable law including United States securities law restrictions in respect of general solicitation, general advertising and directed selling efforts.

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding any of the foregoing, on or after the Closing Date, the Purchasers, GSO and/or Blackstone may publicize in its marketing materials its role and title in connection with the Transactions (which may include the reproduction of Corporation's and Target's respective logos) and other information the Corporation has publicly announced in connection with the Transactions, provided the Corporation shall have given its prior consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld) to any such disclosure (unless otherwise publicly announced by the Corporation) which includes information other than Corporation's name, description of the fundamental aspects of the Transactions and the amount of the Issuance. For the avoidance of doubt, no such consent shall be required in respect of disclosure of any such information to limited partners or investors in GSO or any funds or accounts managed or advised by GSO.

14.4 Singular and Plural, etc.

Where the context so requires, words importing the singular number include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender shall include the masculine, feminine and neuter genders.

14.5 Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the only agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall supersede any and all prior negotiations and understandings. This Agreement may be amended or modified in any respect by written instrument only. All schedules attached to this Agreement are deemed to be part hereof and are hereby incorporated by reference.

14.6 Severability

The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect or limit the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

14.7 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Québec and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein.

14.8 Jurisdiction

Each party to this Agreement, by its execution hereof, (a) hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdictions of the Superior Court of Quebec sitting in the District of Montreal for the purpose of any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof, (b) hereby waives to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and agrees not to assert, and agrees not to allow any of its subsidiaries to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, in any such action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named court, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that any such proceeding brought in the above-named court is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof or thereof may not be enforced in or by such court and (c) hereby agrees not to commence or maintain any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof or thereof other than before the above-named court nor to make any motion or take any other action seeking or intending to cause the transfer or removal of any such action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation to any court other than the above-named court whether on the grounds of inconvenient forum or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any party hereto is or becomes a party in any litigation in connection with which it may assert indemnification rights set forth in this agreement, the court in which such litigation is being heard shall be deemed to be included in clause (a) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any party to this Agreement may commence and maintain an action to enforce a judgment of the above-named court in any court of competent jurisdiction. Each party hereto hereby consents to service of process in any such proceeding in any manner permitted by the laws of Quebec, and agrees that service of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its address specified pursuant to Section 14.1 hereof is reasonably calculated to give actual notice.

14.9 Successors and Assigns

The terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the Corporation and the Purchasers and their respective executors, heirs, successors and permitted assigns; provided that, except as provided herein, this Agreement shall not be assignable by any party without the written consent of the others.

Each of the parties hereto shall do or cause to be done all such acts and things and shall execute or cause to be executed all such documents, agreements and other instruments as may reasonably be necessary or desirable for the purpose of carrying out the provisions and intent of this Agreement.

14.11 Conflict and No Fiduciary Duties

The provisions of Section 7 of the GSO Commitment Letter shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement as if though they were set out herein in full.

14.12 PATRIOT Act

The Purchasers and GSO hereby notify the Corporation that, pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law on October 26, 2001) (the "PATRIOT Act"), the Purchasers or GSO (or other member of the GSO Group) may be required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Corporation, which information includes names, addresses, tax identification numbers and other information that will allow each Purchaser or other investor in the Offered Securities to identify the Corporation in accordance with the PATRIOT Act. This notice is given in accordance with the requirements of the PATRIOT Act and is effective for the Purchasers and the GSO Group.

14.13 Payments

All amounts and fees payable under this Agreement shall be payable in U.S.$ (except expenses reimbursement shall be in the currency so incurred, if requested by the Purchasers) in immediately available funds to the Purchasers for their own account or as directed by the Purchasers, and shall be made in the manner set forth in Section 7, with the necessary changes having been applied. All amounts and fees payable under this Agreement are exclusive of any sales tax and value added tax (including, without limitation, Canada goods and services tax and harmonized sales tax, and Quebec sales tax) or similar charge ("VAT") and if VAT is chargeable, the Corporation or the relevant Indemnitor shall also and at the same time pay to the recipient of the relevant payment an amount equal to the amount of VAT. In relation to any supply made by GSO or a Purchaser under this Agreement, if reasonably requested by the Corporation, that person must promptly provide the Corporation with details of that person's VAT registration and such other information as is reasonably requested in connection with the Corporation's VAT reporting requirements in relation to such supply.

14.14 Currency Indemnity

If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder in U.S.$ into another currency, the parties hereto agree, to the fullest extent that they may effectively do so, that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures, the Purchasers could purchase (and remit in New York City) U.S.$ with such other currency on the business day preceding that on which final judgment is given. The Corporation's obligation in respect of any sum due hereunder shall, notwithstanding any judgment in a currency other than U.S.$, be discharged only to the extent that on the business day following its receipt of any sum adjudged to be so due in such other currency, the Purchasers may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase U.S.$ with such other currency; if the U.S.$ so purchased and remitted are less than the sum originally due to the Purchasers in U.S.$, the Corporation agrees, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment, to indemnify the relevant payee against such loss, and if the U.S.$ so purchased exceed the sum originally due in U.S.$, such excess shall be remitted to the Corporation.

14.15 Language

The parties hereby acknowledge that they have expressly required this Agreement and all notices, statements of account and other documents required or permitted to be given or entered into pursuant hereto to be drawn up in the English language only. Les parties reconnaissent avoir expressément demandé que la présente Convention ainsi que tout avis, tout état de compte et tout autre document à être ou pouvant être donné ou conclu en vertu des dispositions des présentes, soient rédigés en langue anglaise seulement.

14.16 Effective Date

This Agreement is intended to and shall take effect as of the date first set forth above, notwithstanding its actual date of execution or delivery.

14.17 Counterparts and Facsimile

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by facsimile, each of which so executed shall constitute an original and all of which taken together shall form one and the same agreement.

On April 29, 2010, the Corporation entered into a subordinated debt agreement with Capital Regional et Cooperatif Desjardins ("Desjardins") in the amount of CDN$3,000,000 (the "Loan Agreement") which will be disbursed in two tranches of CDN$ 1,500,000, each subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Loan Agreement. The subordinated debt is repayable in equal monthly instalments over a five year period. The loan bears interest at the annual rate of 14% plus an additional interest representing 1% of yearly gross sales of the Corporation for the first CDN$25,000,000 of sales and an additional 0.20% for sales over CDN$25,000,000. The subordinated debt is convertible into voting and participating shares of the Corporation on an event of default by the Corporation at the discretion of Desjardins on the terms set forth in the Loan Agreement. As amended on June 22, 2010, in the event Desjardins exercises the conversion privilege as a result of an event of default, the conversion is based on the greater of (i) the book value of the Common Shares of the Corporation on the basis of the most recent audited consolidated financial statements or, at Desjardins' sole discretion, the most recent unaudited consolidated quarterly financial statements of the Corporation, provided that such book value shall not be less than one cent per Common Share, and (ii) the minimum price authorized by the applicable rules. The first tranche was disbursed on April 30, 2010 and the second tranche will be disbursed once certain conditions of the Loan Agreement have been met.

Under the terms of the subordinated debt agreement with the lender, the Corporation is required amongst other conditions, to maintain at all times certain ratios.

On May 15, 2014, the Corporation's wholly-owned subsidiary, Cadillac Jack, Inc. ("Cadillac Jack") obtained credited facilities from FS Investment Corporation and FS Investment Corporation II for the purpose of financing working capital expenses and general corporate purposes of the Corporation and its subsidiaries (the "Credit Facilities"). The Credit Facilities provide for (i) an incremental U.S.$80 million term loan to Cadillac Jack's existing U.S.$160 million senior term loan, and (ii) a mezzanine debt in the form of a subordinated term loan in the aggregate principal amount of U.S.$100 million (the "Mezzanine Facility"). In connection with the Mezzanine Facility, the Corporation granted 4 million common share purchase warrants (to the lenders). Each warrant entitles the holders thereof to acquire one common share of the Corporation at a price per common share equal to CDN$19.17 at any time up to a period ending 10 years after the closing date.

2.1 Demand Registrations.

(a) Right to Demand. Subject to the provisions of this Section 2.1, any Holder or Holders (individually, a "Requesting Holder" and, collectively, the "Requesting Holders") at any time following the date hereof may make a written request that the Corporation effect a Public Offering of all or part of the Registrable Securities (a "Demand Registration"); provided that, for an Underwritten Offering, the anticipated aggregate offering price therefor, net of underwriting discounts and commissions, shall be at least CN$50,000,000. Subject to Section 2.2, all requests made pursuant to this Section 2.1, will specify the aggregate number or amount of Registrable Securities to be registered and will also specify the intended methods of disposition thereof, and, subject to Section 2.1(d), the jurisdiction in which such registration is requested (being (i) jurisdictions within Canada or (ii) following a U.S. Listing, the United States and jurisdictions within Canada). Subject to Section 2.1(d), the Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to effect such registration of the Registrable Securities in the jurisdiction in which the Corporation has been so requested to register.

(b) Form of Demand Registrations. Subject to Section 2.2, each registration requested pursuant to Section 2.1(a) shall be effected by the filing of a prospectus or registration statement on an applicable Short-Form Registration document, if available (or any other form which includes substantially the same information as would be required to be included in a registration statement on such form as currently constituted).

(c) Notices to Other Holders. Promptly upon receipt of any written request to the Corporation for an Underwritten Offering pursuant to Section 2.1 (but in no event more than 5 Business Days thereafter) which will or is expected to involve a road show and, other than in connection with a Bought Deal, the Corporation will serve written notice (the "Demand Notice") of such registration request to each Holder of Registrable Securities (which Demand Notice shall specify the intended method of disposition of such Registrable Securities), and the Corporation will, subject to Section 5.3, include in such registration all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Corporation has received written requests for inclusion therein within 15 days after the Demand Notice has been given to the applicable parties. The Corporation and, subject to Section 5.3, other Holders of Registrable Securities may include Registrable Securities in such registration, and such other Holders of Registrable Securities shall be given notice of the registration as set forth above. In the event that a request under Section 2.1 is made in connection with a Bought Deal, or another Public Offering which is not expected to include a road show, the notice periods set forth in this Section 2.1(c) shall not be applicable and the Corporation shall give the other Holders (each a "Receiving Holder") such notice as is practicable under the circumstances given the speed and urgency with which Bought Deals or such other Public Offerings are currently carried out in common market practice of its rights to participate thereunder and the Receiving Holder shall have only such time as is practicable under the circumstances to notify the Corporation and the Holders requesting registration that it will participate in the Bought Deal or such other Public Offering, failing which, the Holders requesting registration shall be free to pursue the Bought Deal or such other Public Offering without the participation of the Receiving Holders.

(d) Limitations. Subject to Section 2.2, 4.3, 4.22, and 5.3, the Corporation will not be required to effect any registration pursuant to Section 2.1 within three months after (i) the date of the receipt of any Canadian Prospectus or the effective date of any Registration Statement that was requested pursuant to Section 2.1, or (ii) the date of the receipt of any Canadian Prospectus or the effective date of any Registration Statement relating to an Underwritten Offering of securities of the Corporation for its own account or for the account of any holder of its securities other than pursuant to Section 2.1, provided that the Holders were provided with the opportunity to participate by way of incidental registration in accordance with Article 3 of this Agreement in connection with such offering. In addition, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Corporation will not be obligated to take any action to effect any registration pursuant to Section 2.1(a) in the United States if, at the time of such request, there is no U.S. Listing.

(e) Selection of Underwriter. If the Holders requesting the registration intend to distribute the Registrable Securities in an Underwritten Offering, they will so advise the Corporation in their request. If requested by the underwriters of such Underwritten Offering, the Corporation together with the Selling Holders will enter into an underwriting agreement with such underwriters for such offering containing such representations and warranties by the Corporation and such other terms and provisions as are customarily contained in underwriting agreements with respect to secondary distributions, including, without limitation, customary indemnity and contribution provisions. In respect of any Underwritten Offering in accordance with this Article 2, the majority of the Requesting Holders shall have the right, subject to the consultation and consent of the Corporation (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), to select the managing underwriter or underwriters to administer the offering, which managing underwriters shall be one or more firms of recognized standing in the jurisdiction or jurisdictions in which such registration and distribution are sought.

The Corporation will obtain as promptly as practicable, and not more than 180 days from the date hereof, a final receipt in respect of the Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus from the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities.

(ii) The Corporation will file and obtain a final receipt for a new Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus prior to the expiry of the then current Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus such that following the obtaining of the final receipt in respect of the initial Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus as contemplated by Section 2.2(a)(i) and until termination of this Agreement, the Corporation shall have an effective Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus with enough room to allow the sale thereunder of all remaining Registrable Securities.

(iii) The Corporation will satisfy any Demand Registration at a time that a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus is effective by filing a prospectus supplement to the Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus (a "Canadian Shelf Supplement") with the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities, in accordance with NI 44-102, as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than the third Business Day after the Demand Registration is received.

(b) U.S. Shelf Registration

(i) The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to file with the SEC, within 30 Business Days after a U.S Listing, a Short-Form Registration document for the resale of Registrable Securities, which, at the discretion of the Corporation, shall be pursuant to a registration statement filed with the SEC on Form F-10 and offered pursuant to Canadian shelf prospectus offering procedures (if Form F-10 is then eligible for use by the Corporation) or in accordance with and pursuant to Rule 415 promulgated under the Securities Act (or any successor rule then in effect) (the "U.S. Shelf"). The Corporation shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the U.S. Shelf to become effective as promptly thereafter as practicable. The Corporation shall include in a prospectus supplement (that shall be deemed part of the U.S. Shelf) all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Corporation has received a Demand Registration for inclusion therein at least 5 Business Days prior to the date of filing pursuant to a Registration Notice and Questionnaire provided to Holders; provided however, that in order to be named as a selling securityholder in the prospectus supplement, each Holder must furnish to the Corporation in writing such information in writing as may be reasonably requested by the Corporation for the purpose of including such Holder's Registrable Securities in the prospectus supplement (the "Selling Holder Information"). The Corporation shall include in the prospectus supplement the Selling Holder Information received, to the extent necessary and in a manner so that, upon the filing of such prospectus supplement or promptly thereafter, any such Holder shall be named, to the extent required by the rules promulgated under the Securities Act by the SEC, as a selling securityholder and be permitted to deliver (or be deemed to deliver) a Prospectus relating to the U.S. Shelf prepared in connection with a Registration Statement to purchasers of the Registrable Securities in accordance with applicable law. If the Corporation files an amended version of the Prospectus, the Corporation shall include in such Prospectus the Selling Holder Information that was not included in any previous filed version of the Prospectus. If any Registrable Securities remain issued and outstanding after three years following the initial effective date of such U.S. Shelf, the Corporation shall, no less than 90 days prior to the expiration of such U.S. Shelf, file a new U.S. Shelf covering such Registrable Securities and shall thereafter use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be declared effective as promptly as practical, such new U.S. Shelf. The Corporation shall maintain the effectiveness of the U.S. Shelf in accordance with the terms hereof until the earlier of (a) the date as of which all Registrable Securities have been sold, and (b) the date as of which all Registrable Securities have ceased to be Registrable Securities.

(ii) If the continued use of U.S. Shelf at any time would require the Corporation, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors, to disclose material non-public information, the premature disclosure of which would materially adversely affect the Corporation or which would materially interfere with any material transaction being considered by the Corporation, the Corporation may, upon giving at least 10 days' prior written notice of such action to the Holders, suspend use of the U.S. Shelf and/or the Prospectus, as applicable, for up to 45 consecutive days (a "Shelf Suspension"); provided, however, at the expiry of such Shelf Suspension if in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors the disclosure of the material information continues to be premature and the disclosure of which would still materially adversely affect the Corporation or materially interfere with the proposed transaction if made, the Board of Directors may continue the Shelf Suspension for an additional 30 consecutive days; provided, further, however, that the Corporation shall not be permitted to utilize its suspension rights under this Section 2.2(b)(ii) for more than 90 days in total in any consecutive 12-month period. The Corporation shall immediately notify the Holders upon the termination of any Shelf Suspension, amend or supplement the U.S. Shelf and/or the Prospectus as promptly as reasonably practicable so it does not contain any untrue statement or omission and furnish to the Holders such numbers of copies of the prospectuses as so amended or supplemented as the Holders may reasonably request.

(iii) Requests for Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedowns. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 2.1(a) and 2.1(d), at any time and from time to time after the U.S. Shelf has been declared effective by the SEC, any one or more Holders of Registrable Securities may request to sell all or any portion of their Registrable Securities in an underwritten offering (including an "at-the-market offering" or a "registered direct offering") that is registered pursuant to the U.S. Shelf (each, an "Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown").

(iv) Requests for Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedowns. If a Holder desires to initiate an offering or sale of all or part of such Holder's Registrable Securities that does not constitute an Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown (a "Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown"), such Holder shall so indicate in the Demand Registration delivered to the Corporation no later than two Business Days (or in the event any amendment or supplement to the U.S. Shelf is necessary, no later than 5 Business Days) prior to the expected date of such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown, which request shall include (i) the total number of Registrable Securities expected to be offered and sold in such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown, (ii) the expected plan of distribution of such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown and (iii) the action or actions required (including the timing thereof) in connection with such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown (including the delivery of one or more stock certificates representing shares of Registrable Securities to be sold in such Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown), and, to the extent necessary, the Corporation shall file and effect an amendment or supplement to its U.S. Shelf for such purpose as soon as practicable; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not be required to file an amendment or supplement to its U.S. Shelf within 30 days of a previous amendment or supplement with respect to a Non-Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown.

(v) U.S. Demand Notices. All requests for Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedowns shall be made by giving written notice to the Corporation (the "U.S. Demand Notice"). Each U.S. Demand Notice shall specify the approximate number of Registrable Securities to be sold in the Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown and the expected price range (net of underwriting discounts and commissions) of such Underwritten U.S. Shelf Takedown.

INCIDENTAL REGISTRATION.

3.1 Corporation Registration. If the Corporation proposes to register any of its equity securities under Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act, for its own account or for the account of any holder of its securities ("Other Holders") other than pursuant to Section 2.1, on a form or in a manner that would permit registration of Registrable Securities for sale to the public under Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act, then prior to the initial filing of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Shelf Supplement or Registration Statement (as the case may be) the Corporation will give written notice to all Holders of its intention to do so within 10 Business Days prior to the expected date of commencement of marketing efforts in the case of an Underwritten Registration or prior to the expected date of filing the registration otherwise. Upon the written request of one or more Holders given within 7 Business Days after the Corporation provides such notice (which request will state the number or amount of Registrable Securities that is proposed to be included in such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Shelf Supplement or Registration Statement, as the case may be) the Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Registrable Securities, that the Corporation has been requested to register to be registered under Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act (as applicable) to the extent necessary to permit their sale or other disposition; provided that the Corporation will have the right to postpone or withdraw any registration initiated by the Corporation prior to a receipt being issued for the Canadian Prospectus or the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, as the case may be, pursuant to this Section 3.1 without obligation to any Holder.

3.2 Excluded Transactions. The Corporation will not be obligated to effect any registration of Registrable Securities under this Article 3 incidental to the registration of any of its securities in connection with: (a) any registration relating to employee benefit plans or dividend reinvestment plans; or (b) any registration relating to the acquisition or merger or other type of transaction described in Rule 145 under the Securities Act after the date hereof by the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries of or with any other businesses.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES.

If and whenever the Corporation is required by the provisions of this Agreement to use commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration of any of the Registrable Securities under Canadian Securities Laws or, following a U.S. Listing, the Securities Act, the Corporation and (where applicable) the Selling Holders will take the actions described below in this Article 4.

4.1 Canadian Prospectus and Prospectus. The Corporation will prepare and (in the case of a registration pursuant to Article 2 (and subject to Sections 2.1(d) and 2.2) hereof, promptly after the end of the period within which requests for registration may be delivered to the Corporation, to the extent applicable) file with, as the case may be, (a) the Canadian Securities Authorities a Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus or (b) the SEC a Registration Statement with respect to such Registrable Securities and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to become effective, or (c) both, in each case as specified by the Requesting Holders in the notice requesting such registration; provided, in each case, that the relevant Requesting Holder and Selling Holder shall have furnished to the Corporation a completed and signed Notice and Questionnaire.

4.2 Amendments and Supplements. The Corporation will prepare and file with the Securities Regulators such amendments and post-effective amendments to the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, as applicable as may be necessary (i) to keep the applicable Registrable Securities qualified for distribution in Canada for a period (A) as contemplated under 2.2(a) for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus or (B) other than for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus, of not less than 180 days after the issuance of a receipt for the Canadian Prospectus (or such shorter period which will terminate when all such Registrable Securities have been sold or distribution is otherwise terminated) and/or (ii) to keep the Registration Statement effective for a period ending on the date specified in Section 2.2(b)(i), or, if such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus relates to an Underwritten Offering, such longer period as in the opinion of counsel for the underwriters the Canadian Prospectus is required by law to be delivered in connection with sales of shares by an underwriter or dealer. The Corporation will cause the Canadian Prospectus and/or the Prospectus to be supplemented by any required supplement, and as so supplemented, to be filed pursuant to any applicable provisions of Canadian Securities Laws, Instruction II.L of Form F-10 or Rule 424 under the Securities Act, as the case may be.

4.3 Receipt / Effectiveness. The Corporation shall be deemed to have effected a Demand Registration if (i) a receipt is obtained for the Canadian Prospectus from all jurisdictions in Canada where the Registrable Securities subject to such Demand Registration are intended to be distributed and such Canadian Prospectus continues to remain in full force and effect pursuant to that receipt for a period (A) as contemplated under 2.2(a) for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus or (B) other than for a Canadian Base Shelf Prospectus, of 180 days (or such shorter period which will terminate when all such Registrable Securities have been sold or distribution is otherwise terminated), (ii) the Registration Statement relating to such Demand Registration is declared effective by the SEC and remains effective for a period as specified in Section 2.2(b)(i), or (iii) subject to Section 5.4(b), at any time after the Holders request a Demand Registration and prior to the issuance of a receipt for a Canadian Prospectus or effectiveness of the Registration Statement, as the case may be, the registration or distribution is discontinued or such Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement is withdrawn or abandoned, in each case after the filing of the Canadian Prospectus with applicable Canadian Securities Authorities or filing of a Registration Statement with the SEC, as the case may be, at the request of the Requesting Holders.

4.4 Cooperation. The Corporation will cooperate with the Selling Holders in the disposition of the Registrable Securities covered by such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus and Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, as applicable, including without limitation in the case of an Underwritten Offering, by causing key executives of the Corporation and its subsidiaries to participate under the direction of the managing underwriters in a “road show” scheduled by such managing underwriters in such locations and of such duration as in the judgment of such managing underwriters are appropriate for such underwritten offering.

4.5 Notice of Certain Events. The Corporation will notify the Selling Holders and the managing underwriters, if any, and (if requested) confirm such advice in writing, as soon as practicable after notice thereof is received by the Corporation (a) when (i) the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto has been filed or a receipt issued therefor by the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities and/or (ii) the Registration Statement or any amendment thereto has been filed or becomes effective or the Prospectus or any amendment or supplement to the Prospectus has been filed and, in each case, to furnish such Selling Holders and managing underwriters with copies thereof, (b) of any request by the Securities Regulators for amendments or supplements to the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement (or the related Prospectus), or for additional information, (c) of the issuance by the Securities Regulators of any stop order or cease trade order suspending the effectiveness of the Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement or any order preventing or suspending the use of any Preliminary Canadian Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or Prospectus, or the initiation or threatening of any proceedings for such purposes, and (d) of the receipt by the Corporation of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the Registrable Securities for offering or sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose.

4.6 Executed Copies of Canadian Prospectus and Registration Statement. The Corporation will furnish to each Selling Holder and each managing underwriter, without charge, one executed copy and as many conformed copies as they may reasonably request, of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement, as the case may be, and any post-effective amendment or supplement thereto, including without limitation financial statements and schedules, all documents incorporated therein by reference and all exhibits (including without limitation those incorporated by reference).

4.7 Copies of Canadian Prospectus and Prospectus. The Corporation will deliver to each Selling Holder and the underwriters, if any, without charge, as many copies of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus and the Prospectus (including without limitation each preliminary Prospectus), as the case may be, and any amendment or supplement thereto, as such Persons may reasonably request (it being understood that by such delivery the Corporation consents to the use of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus and the Prospectus, as the case may be, or any amendment or supplement thereto, by each of the Selling Holders and the underwriters, if any, in connection with the offering and sale of the shares covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus and the Prospectus, as the case may be, or any amendment or supplement thereto).

4.8 Blue Sky Qualification. The Corporation will on or prior to the date on which a Registration Statement is declared effective use commercially reasonable efforts to register or qualify, and cooperate with the Selling Holders, the managing underwriter or agent, if any, and their respective counsel in connection with the registration or qualification of such shares for offer and sale under the securities or blue sky laws of each state and other jurisdiction of the United States as any such Selling Holder, underwriter or agent reasonably requests in writing and do any and all other acts or things reasonably necessary or advisable to keep such registration or qualification in effect for so long as such Registration Statement remains in effect and so as to permit the continuance of sales therein for as long as may be necessary to complete the distribution of the Registrable Securities covered by the Registration Statement, provided that the Corporation will not be required to qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not then so qualified or to take any action which would subject it to general service of process or taxation in any such jurisdiction where it is not then so subject.

4.9 Stop Orders, Etc. The Corporation will make every reasonable effort to prevent the issuance, or obtain the withdrawal, of any stop order, cease trade order or other order suspending the use of any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or Prospectus, or suspending any qualification of the Registrable Securities covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement, as the case may be.

4.10 Free Writing Prospectus. With respect to each Free Writing Prospectus or other materials to be included in the Disclosure Package, the Corporation will ensure that no Registrable Securities be sold "by means of" (as defined in Rule 159A(b) promulgated under the Securities Act) such Free Writing Prospectus or other materials without the prior review and approval of counsel to the Holders; provided, however, the Corporation shall not be responsible or liable for any breach by a Holder that has not obtained the prior written consent of the Corporation pursuant to Section 7.15.

4.11 CUSIP. The Corporation will provide a CUSIP number for the Registrable Securities prior to the effective date of the first Registration Statement including Registrable Securities.

4.12 FINRA. The Corporation will cooperate with each Holder of Registrable Securities and each underwriter participating in the disposition of such Registrable Securities and underwriters' counsel in connection with any filings required to be made with FINRA.

4.13 Filing Fee. The Corporation will, within the deadlines specified by the Securities Act, make all required filing fee payments in respect of any Registration Statement or Prospectus used under this Agreement (and any offering covered thereby).

4.14 Additional Information. The Corporation will, if requested by any participating Holder of Registrable Securities or the managing underwriters (if any), promptly include in a Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus supplement or amendment such information as the Holder or managing underwriters (if any) may reasonably request, including relating to the intended method of distribution of such securities, and make all required filings of such Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus supplement or such amendment as soon as reasonably practicable after the Corporation has received such request.

4.15 Certificate. The Corporation will, in the case of certificated Registrable Securities, if any, cooperate with the participating Holders of Registrable Securities and the managing underwriters (if any) to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates (not bearing any legends) representing Registrable Securities to be sold after receiving written representations satisfactory to the Corporation from each participating Holder that the Registrable Securities represented by the certificates so delivered by such Holder will be transferred in accordance with the Registration Statement, and enable such Registrable Securities to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the Holders or managing underwriters (if any) may reasonably request at least two Business Days prior to any sale of Registrable Securities.

4.16 Opinion of Counsel; Comfort Letter. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all legal opinions, auditors' consents and comfort letters and experts' cooperation as may be required, including without limitation (a) an opinion of counsel for the Corporation, (b) a comfort letter upon which the Selling Holder can rely signed by the independent public accountants who have audited the Corporation's financial statements included in such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement (as the case may be), covering substantially the same matters as are customarily covered in opinions of issuer's and the seller's counsel and in accountants' letters delivered to underwriters in underwritten public offerings of securities and (c) officers' certificates and other customary closing documents.

4.17 Listing and Transfer Agent. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Common Shares covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus (or Registration Statement, as the case may be) to be listed on each securities exchange or automated quotation system on which similar securities issued by the Corporation are then listed. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to continue to be listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and following a U.S. Listing on the New York Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Stock Market, as the case may be, and to be registered with or approved by such other Governmental Authorities as may be necessary to enable the Holders to consummate the disposition of the Registrable Securities. The Corporation will provide and cause to be maintained a transfer agent and registrar for all Registrable Securities covered by the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus (or Registration Statement, as the case may be) not later than the date a receipt is issued for the Canadian Prospectus by the applicable Canadian Securities Authorities (or the effective date of such Registration Statement, as the case may be).

4.18 Underwriters. Except as required by Law, the Corporation will refrain from naming any Holder as an underwriter in a Registration Statement without first obtaining such Holder's written consent.

4.19 General Compliance with Federal Securities Laws: Section 11(a) Earning Statement. The Corporation will use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Securities Regulators, any governmental authority and any applicable securities exchange and make generally available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable (but not more than eighteen months) after the effective date of a Registration Statement, an earnings statement which shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and any applicable regulations thereunder, including without limitation Rule 158 under the Securities Act.

4.20 Notice of Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus Defects. The Corporation will promptly notify the Selling Holders and the managing underwriters, if any, at any time during the period of effectiveness or qualification for distribution set forth in Section 4.3 above, when the Corporation becomes aware of the happening of any event as a result of which the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Prospectus included in such Registration Statement (as then in effect), contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, or fails to constitute full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts regarding the Registrable Securities, when such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or the Prospectus was delivered or if for any other reason it shall be necessary during such time period to amend or supplement the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, the Canadian Prospectus or the Prospectus, in order to comply with Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act and, in either case promptly thereafter, prepare and file with the Securities Regulators, and furnish without charge to the Selling Holders and the managing underwriters, if any, a supplement or amendment to such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus, which will correct such statement or omission or effect such compliance. Each Holder agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from the Corporation of the happening of any event of the kind described in this Section 4.20, such Holder will forthwith discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, until the supplemented or amended Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus, contemplated by this Section 4.20 has been filed, or until it is advised in writing by the Corporation that the use of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus may be resumed, and has received copies of any additional or supplemental filings which are incorporated by reference in the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus, and, if so directed by the Corporation, such Holder will deliver to the Corporation (at the Corporation's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies then in such Holder's possession, of the Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice.

4.21 Corporation Lock-Up. In the case of an Underwritten Offering requested to be effected by the Requesting Holders hereunder, if requested by the Underwriters, the Corporation will refrain for a period from seven days before until 90 days after pricing of such Underwritten Offering, from directly or indirectly selling, offering to sell, announcing any intention to sell, granting any option for the sale of, or otherwise disposing of any common equity or securities convertible into common equity in a public offering other than pursuant to (i) the Corporation employee equity plans, (ii) a merger, acquisition, exchange offer, or subscription offer, and (iii) Registrable Securities in accordance with this Agreement.

4.22 Delay of Registration and Suspension of Offering. If the Corporation is requested to effect a Demand Registration and the Board of Directors of the Corporation reasonably determines it would materially interfere with any material transaction being considered at the time, would require the disclosure of material non-public information, the premature disclosure of which would materially adversely affect the Corporation, or be detrimental to the Corporation and its security holders for such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus to be filed on or before the date such filing would otherwise be required hereunder, the Corporation shall have the right to defer such filing for a period of not more than 45 days after receipt of the request for such registration and at the expiry of such 45 day period the Board of Directors of the Corporation will review whether such registration would, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors, materially interfere with the proposed transaction or be detrimental to the Corporation and its security holders in which case the Board of Directors may delay such registration for an additional 30 day period, provided, that the Corporation shall not be permitted to utilize its delay rights under this Section 4.22 for more than 90 days in total in any consecutive 12-month period.

4.23 Participation by Selling Security Holders. In connection with the preparation and filing of each Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, and before filing any such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus, Registration Statement or any other document in connection therewith, the Corporation shall (a) give the Selling Holders and their underwriters, if any, and their respective counsel and accountants, a copy of such documents before filing with the Securities Regulators and the opportunity to review and comment on, and participate in the preparation of, such Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus (or, as applicable, such Registration Statement and each Prospectus and Free Writing Prospectus included therein or filed with the SEC) and each amendment thereof or supplement thereto and any related underwriting agreement or other document to be filed, and give each of the aforementioned Persons such access to its books and records and such opportunities to discuss the business of the Corporation with its officers and the independent public accountants who have audited its financial statements as shall be necessary, in the opinion of such Holders, underwriters, counsel or accountants, to conduct a reasonable investigation within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act and (b) not less than 15 calendar days prior to the effective time of the Canadian Prospectus or Registration Statement, or such shorter time as is practicable under the circumstances, mail a Notice and Questionnaire to the Selling Holders; provided that no Holder shall be entitled to be named as a selling securityholder in the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement as of its effectiveness, and no Holder shall be entitled to use the prospectus forming a part thereof for resales of Registrable Securities at any time, unless such holder has returned a completed and signed Notice and Questionnaire to the Corporation (or its counsel) by the deadline for response set forth therein; and provided, further, that holders of Registrable Securities shall have at least 10 calendar days from the date on which the Notice and Questionnaire is first mailed or transmitted to such holders to return a completed and signed Notice and Questionnaire to the Corporation (or its counsel), or such shorter time as is practicable under the circumstances.

4.24 Other Actions. The Corporation will use its reasonable best efforts to take all other actions necessary or customarily taken by issuers to effect the registration and sale of and its commercially reasonable efforts to take all other actions necessary to effect the sale of, the Registrable Securities contemplated hereby, to the extent reasonably requested by the Underwriters.

ARTICLES 5
CERTAIN OTHER PROVISIONS.

5.1 Additional Procedures. The Selling Holders will take all such actions and execute all such documents and instruments that are reasonably requested by the Corporation to effect the sale of their Registrable Securities under the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, being parties to the underwriting agreement entered into by the Corporation and any other Selling Holders in connection therewith.

5.2 Underwritten Registrations. No Person may participate in any Underwritten Registration hereunder unless such Person (a) agrees to sell such Person's securities on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements applicable to such offering and (b) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements.

5.3 Underwriter's Cutback.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if a registration involves an Underwritten Offering and the managing underwriter or underwriters of such proposed Underwritten Offering advises the Corporation in writing that in its opinion the number of securities requested to be included in such registration would adversely affect the price, timing or distribution of the securities offered, then the Corporation may limit the number of Registrable Securities to be included in the Canadian Prospectus or following a U.S. Listing, a Registration Statement, as applicable, for such offering. The number of shares that are entitled to be included in the registration and underwriting will be allocated in the following manner:

(i) if the Underwritten Offering is the result of a demand under Article 2 (i) first, shares of Corporation equity securities, other than Registrable Securities, requested to be included in such registration by shareholders will be excluded, and (ii) second, Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by the Holders will be excluded, allocated among such Holders pro rata based on the aggregate number of Registrable Securities held by such Holders;

(ii) if the Underwritten Offering is the result of an incidental registration under Article 3, the number of shares that are entitled to be included in the registration and underwriting will be allocated in the following manner: (i) first, other securities not listed in (ii) or (iii) below requested to be included in such registration will be excluded, (ii) second, Registrable Securities requested to be included in such registration by the Holders will be excluded, allocated among such Holders pro rata based on the aggregate number of Registrable Securities held by such Holders and (iii) third, shares of Corporation equity securities, other than Registrable Securities, proposed to be sold by the Corporation or requested to be included in such registration by Other Holders requesting such registration as applicable, will be excluded.

5.4 Registration Expenses.

(a) All expenses incident to the Corporation's performance of or compliance with this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) all registration and filing fees, and any other fees and expenses associated with filings required to be made with any stock exchange or the Securities Regulators (including without limitation FINRA), (ii) all fees and expenses of compliance with state securities or blue sky laws (including without limitation fees and disbursements of counsel for the underwriters in connection with blue sky qualifications of the Registrable Securities under the laws of such jurisdictions as the managing underwriters may designate), (iii) all printing and related messenger and delivery expenses (including without limitation expenses of printing certificates for the shares in a form eligible for deposit with CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc. and/or The Depository Trust Corporation and of printing prospectuses or similar documents), (iv) all fees and disbursements of counsel for the Corporation and of all independent certified public accountants and chartered accountants of the Corporation (including without limitation the expenses of any special opinions, audits and comfort letters required by or incident to such performance), (v) Securities Act liability insurance if available and the Corporation so desires, (vi) all fees and disbursements of underwriters customarily paid by the issuers or sellers of securities, but excluding Selling Expenses, (vii) all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the listing of the Registrable Securities on any securities exchange, and (viii) all fees and disbursements of one counsel in Canada and one counsel in the United States for each Selling Holder (all such expenses being herein called "Registration Expenses"), will be borne by the Corporation, regardless of whether a receipt is issued for the Canadian Prospectus or the Registration Statement becomes effective. The Selling Holders shall be responsible for all underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes relating to any sale by the Selling Holders of Registrable Securities (the "Selling Expenses").

(b) The Corporation, however, shall not be required to pay for any expenses of a registration requested pursuant to Section 2.1 hereof if the registration request is withdrawn at any time at the request of Requesting Holders (in which case all Requesting Holders shall bear such expenses). However, if the Requesting Holders have learned of information (other than information known to them at the time they made their request) that, in the good faith judgment of the Requesting Holders, is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the business or prospects of the Corporation, then the Requesting Holders shall not be required to pay any of such expenses in the case of a registration requested pursuant to Section 2.1.

5.5 Limitations on Subsequent Registration Rights. The Corporation will not, without the prior written consent of the Holders holding a majority of the Registrable Securities then issued and outstanding, enter into any agreement with any holder or prospective holder of Corporation securities that grants such holder or prospective holder rights to include securities of the Corporation in any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus or following a U.S. Listing, in any Registration Statement on terms more favorable to or on parity with those set forth herein, without the prior written consent of a majority of such Holders.

5.6 Transfer of Rights. The rights to cause the Corporation to register Registrable Securities pursuant to Sections 2.1(a) and Article 3, including without limitation the right to request one or more Demand Registrations, may be assigned in whole or in part by any Holder to a Permitted Transferee (as defined below), and by such Permitted Transferee to a subsequent Permitted Transferee, but only if such rights are Transferred (a) to any one or more Affiliates of such Holder (b) to one or more Holders, or (c) in connection with the sale or other Transfer of Registrable Securities having a value of the lesser of not less than (i) an aggregate of CN$50,000,000 or (ii) five percent (5%) of the total number of then outstanding Convertible Preferred Shares, or some lesser value, if such lesser value represents all the Registrable Securities then held by such Holder. Any transferee to whom rights under this Agreement are Transferred will (x) as a condition to such Transfer, deliver to the Corporation a written instrument by which such transferee agrees to be bound by the obligations imposed upon Holders under this Agreement to the same extent as if such transferee were a Holder under this Agreement and (y) be deemed to be a Holder hereunder. Any Person to whom rights under this Agreement are Transferred in accordance with this Section 5.6 shall be a "Permitted Transferee."

5.7 U.S. Private Sale and Legends.

(a) The Corporation agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Holders, at any time and from time to time, from selling or otherwise transferring Registrable Securities pursuant to a private sale or other transaction which is not registered pursuant to the Canadian Securities Laws or the Securities Act.

(b) At the request of a Holder and to the extent the Registrable Securities are subject to a restrictive legend, whether such securities are certificated or held in book-entry form, the Corporation shall remove from each certificate evidencing Registrable Securities, any legend if the Corporation is reasonably satisfied (based upon an opinion of counsel or, in the case of a Holder that is not an Affiliate of the Corporation proposing to transfer such securities pursuant to Rule 144(b)(1) of the Securities Act, other evidence, which may, if reasonably requested by the Corporation, be an opinion of counsel, that the securities evidenced thereby may be publicly sold without registration under the Securities Act.

5.8 Rule 144 and Rule I44A; Other Exemptions. With a view to making available to the Holders of Registrable Securities the benefits of Rule 144 and Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act and other rules and regulations of the SEC that may at any time permit a Holder of Registrable Securities to sell securities of the Corporation to the public without registration, the Corporation covenants that it will use its commercially reasonable efforts (i) to file in a timely manner all reports and other documents required, if any, to be filed by it under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder and (ii) make available information necessary to comply with Rule 144 and Rule 144A, if available with respect to resales of the Registrable Securities under the Securities Act, at all times, all to the extent required from time to time to enable such Holder to sell Registrable Securities without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by Rule 144 and Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act (if available with respect to resales of the Registrable Securities), as such rules may be amended from time to time, or any other rules or regulations that are successor provisions to Rule 144 or Rule 144A or are substantially consistent therewith.

INDEMNIFICATION.

6.1 Corporation Indemnification. Subject to the other provisions of this Article 6, the Corporation will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, jointly and severally (solidarily), to the extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless each Selling Holder, any Person who is or might be deemed to be a controlling Person of such Selling Holder or any of its subsidiaries within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or any analogous provision of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, their respective direct and indirect partners, advisory board members, directors, officers, trustees, members and shareholders, and each other Person, if any, who controls any such Selling Holder or any such holder within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or any analogous provision of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act (each such Person being a “Covered Person”) against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which such Covered Person may become subject under Canadian Securities Laws, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, state securities laws or any other securities or other law of any jurisdiction, the common law or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon (a) any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained or incorporated by reference in (i) any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or (ii) any Registration Statement under which such Registrable Securities were registered under the Securities Act or the Disclosure Package, Prospectus, Free Writing Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto, (b) any omission or alleged omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein in light of the circumstance under which they were made not misleading or to provide full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts regarding the Registrable Securities; or (c) any violation or alleged violation by the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries of any applicable securities Laws in connection with the offer and sale of Registrable Securities and the Corporation will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, jointly and severally (solidarily), reimburse such Covered Person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by such Covered Person in connection with investigating, responding to or defending any such actual or alleged loss, claim, damage, liability or action; provided, however, that the Corporation will not be liable in any case to any Selling Holder to the extent that such loss, claim, damage or liability arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission in any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus, Canadian Prospectus, Registration Statement or Disclosure Package in reliance upon and in conformity with information concerning the Selling Holder furnished in writing to the Corporation by or on behalf of such Selling Holder specifically for use therein. The indemnities of the Corporation and of its subsidiaries contained in this Section 6.1 shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of such Covered Person and shall survive any transfer of securities. This indemnity agreement will be in addition to any liability which the Corporation may otherwise have.

6.2 Seller Indemnification. Each Selling Holder will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless the Corporation and its subsidiaries, each of their directors and officers and each Person (other than such Selling Holder), if any, who controls the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries within the meaning of Canadian Securities Laws or any analogous provision of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, and each other Selling Holder, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which the Corporation, its subsidiaries, such directors and officers, such controlling Person or such other Selling Holder, may become subject under Canadian Securities Laws, the Securities Act, Exchange Act, state securities laws or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based solely upon (a) any untrue statement of a material fact contained in (i) any Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or (ii) any Registration Statement under which such Registrable Securities were registered under the Securities Act, the Disclosure Package, Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or (b) the omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein in light of the circumstance under which they were made not misleading or to provide full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts, if the statement or omission described in the foregoing clauses (a) and (b) was made in reliance upon and in conformity with information relating to such Selling Holder furnished in writing to the Corporation by or on behalf of such Selling Holder, specifically for use in such (i) Canadian Preliminary Prospectus or Canadian Prospectus or (ii) Registration Statement, Disclosure Package, Prospectus, or any amendment or supplement thereto; provided, however, that the obligations of such Selling Holder hereunder and under Section 6.4 will be limited to an amount equal to the net proceeds to such Selling Holder (after deducting all underwriter's discounts and commissions and all other expenses paid by such Holder in connection with the registration in question) from the disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to such registration. Such indemnity shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the Corporation and any of its subsidiaries or any such director, officer or controlling Person and shall survive any transfer of securities.

6.3 Notice of Claims, etc. Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party of notice of the commencement of any action or proceeding involving a claim of the type referred to in the foregoing provisions of this Article 6, such indemnified party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against any indemnifying party, give written notice to each such indemnifying party of the commencement of such action; provided, however, that the failure of any indemnified party to give such notice will not relieve such indemnifying party of its obligations under this Article 6, except to the extent that such indemnifying party is materially prejudiced by such failure. In case any such action is brought against an indemnified party, each indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in and to assume the defense thereof, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified, to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party, and (subject to the following sentence) after notice from an indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, such indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the latter in connection with the defense thereof. The indemnified party may participate in such defense at such party's expense; provided, however, that the indemnifying party will pay such expense if representation of such indemnified party by the counsel retained by the indemnifying party would be inappropriate due to actual or potential conflict of interests between the indemnified party and any other party represented by such counsel in such proceeding; provided, further, that in no event will the indemnifying party be required to pay the expenses of more than one law firm as counsel for all indemnified parties pursuant to this sentence. If, within 30 days after receipt of the notice, such indemnifying party has not elected to assume the defense of the action, such indemnifying party will be responsible for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense of the action, suit, investigation, inquiry or proceeding. An indemnifying party may, in the defense of any such claim or litigation, consent to the entry of a judgment or enter into a settlement without the consent of the indemnified party only if such judgment or settlement contains a general release of the indemnified party in respect of such claims or litigation. An indemnified party may, in the defense of any such claim or litigation, consent to the entry of a judgment or enter into a settlement without the consent of the indemnifying party only if such judgment or settlement contains a general release of the indemnifying party in respect of such claims or litigation and does not involve injunctive or similar remedy likely to establish a custom or practice adverse to the continuing business interests of the indemnifying party.

6.4 Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in Section 6.1 or 6.2 hereof is unavailable to a party that would have been an indemnified party under any such Section in respect of any losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to therein, then each party that would have been an indemnifying party thereunder will, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of such indemnifying party on the one hand and such indemnified party on the other in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof). The relative fault will be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by such indemnifying party or such indemnified party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The parties agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 6.4 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the preceding sentence. The amount paid or payable by a contributing party as a result of the losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to in this Section 6.4 will include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such indemnified party in connection with investigating or defending any such action or claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) no Person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation and, (ii) the total amount to be contributed by any Holder pursuant to this Section 6.4 shall be limited to the net proceeds (after deducting underwriters' discounts and commissions) received by such Holder in the offering to which such Public Offering relates.

MISCELLANEOUS.

7.1 Entire Agreement. Except for restrictions on Transfer of Registrable Shares set forth in other agreements, plans or other documents, including the Shareholders' Agreement, this Agreement, together with any documents, instruments and certificates explicitly referred to herein, constitutes the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior discussions, negotiations, proposals, undertakings, understandings and agreements, whether written or oral, with respect thereto.

7.2 Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement may be amended, modified, extended or terminated, and the provisions hereof may be waived, only by an agreement in writing signed by the Corporation and the Holders holding a majority of the Registrable Securities then issued and outstanding for so long as such Holders hold Registrable Securities; provided that in the event that such amendment, modification, supplement, waiver or consent would treat a Holder or group of Holders in a manner different from any other Holders, then such amendment or waiver will require the consent of such Holder or the Holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities of such group adversely treated. Each such amendment, modification, extension, termination and waiver shall be binding upon each party hereto. In addition, each party hereto may waive any right hereunder by an instrument in writing signed by such party or holder. Any such amendment, termination or waiver will be binding on all Holders. No waiver of any terms or conditions of this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any other breach of such terms and conditions or any other term or condition, nor shall any failure of any party to enforce any provision hereof operate or be construed as a waiver of such provision or of any other provision hereof and shall not affect the right of such party thereafter to enforce each provision of this Agreement in accordance with its terms. No written waiver hereunder, unless it by its own terms explicitly provides to the contrary, shall be construed to effect a continuing waiver of the provisions being waived and no such waiver in any instance shall constitute a waiver in any other instance or for any other purpose or impair the right of the party against whom such waiver is claimed in all other instances or for all other purposes to require full compliance with such provision.

7.3 Further Assurances. Each of the parties hereto shall execute all such further instruments and documents and take all such further action as any other party hereto may reasonably require in order to effectuate the terms and purposes of this Agreement.

7.4 Termination. The obligations of the Corporation and of any Holder, other than those obligations contained in Article 6, shall terminate with respect to the Corporation and such Holder as soon as such Holder no longer holds any Registrable Securities.

7.5 Determination of Number or Percentage of Registrable Securities. Wherever reference is made in this Agreement to a request or consent of holders of a certain number or percentage of Registrable Securities, the determination of such number or percentage will only include the number of Registrable Securities, on a fully diluted basis, assuming the exercise, exchange or conversion of the Convertible Preferred Shares, Warrants or any other outstanding securities that may from time to time be exchangeable or convertible into Common Shares, in each case outstanding and that are Registrable Securities.

7.6 Specific Performance. The Parties hereto shall have all remedies available at law, in equity or otherwise in the event of any breach or threatened breach or violation of this Agreement or any default hereunder by a party. The parties acknowledge and agree that any breach of this Agreement shall cause the other non-breaching parties irreparable harm, and that in addition to any other remedies which may be available, each of the parties hereto will be entitled, without the posting of bond, to specific performance of the obligations of the other parties hereto and, in addition, to such other equitable or injunctive remedies (including preliminary or temporary relief or injunctions) as may be appropriate in the circumstances. All rights and remedies existing under this Agreement are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies available under this Agreement or otherwise.

7.7 Authority; Effect. Each party hereto represents and warrants to and agrees with each other party that the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized on behalf of such party and do not violate any agreement or other instrument applicable to such party or by which its assets are bound. This Agreement does not, and shall not be construed to, give rise to the creation of a partnership among any of the parties hereto, or to constitute any of such parties members of a joint venture or other association.

Unless otherwise specified herein, such notices or other communications shall be deemed effective (a) on the date received, if personally delivered, (b) on the date received if delivered by facsimile or email on a Business Day, or if not delivered on a Business Day, on the first Business Day thereafter, or (c) two Business Days after being sent by Federal Express, DHL or UPS. Each of the parties hereto will be entitled to change the particulars of their respective notice address for the purposes of this Section 8.5 by giving notice as aforesaid (as may be changed from time to time in accordance with this sentence) to each of the other parties hereto.

7.9 Descriptive Headings. The descriptive headings of this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, are not to be considered a part hereof and shall not be construed to define or limit any of the terms or provisions hereof.

7.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one instrument.

7.11 Severability. In the event that any provision hereof would, under applicable law, be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, such provision shall be construed by modifying or limiting it so as to be valid and enforceable to the maximum extent compatible with, and possible under, applicable law. The provisions hereof are severable, and in the event any provision hereof should be held invalid or unenforceable in any respect, it shall not invalidate, render unenforceable or otherwise affect any other provision hereof.

7.12 Exercise of Rights and Remedies. No delay or omission in the exercise of any right, power or remedy accruing to any party as a result of any breach or default by any other party under this Agreement shall impair any such right, power or remedy, nor shall it be construed as a waiver of or acquiescence in any such breach or default, or of any similar breach or default occurring later; nor shall any such delay, omission nor waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default occurring before or after that waiver.

7.13 Governing Law. This Agreement and all claims arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof shall be governed and interpreted by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Quebec and the federal laws of Canada applicable in the Province of Quebec, including without limitation the QBCA, without reference to or giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws provision or rule that would cause the application of the domestic substantive laws of any other jurisdiction. This Agreement will be treated in all respects as a Quebec contract.

7.14 Consent to Jurisdiction. Each party to this Agreement, by its execution hereof, (a) hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdictions of the Superior Court of Quebec sitting in the District of Montreal for the purpose of any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof, (b) hereby waives to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and agrees not to assert, and agrees not to allow any of its subsidiaries to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, in any such action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of the above-named court, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that any such proceeding brought in the above-named court is improper, or that this Agreement or the subject matter hereof or thereof may not be enforced in or by such court and (c) hereby agrees not to commence or maintain any action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation arising out of or based upon this Agreement or relating to the subject matter hereof or thereof other than before the above-named court nor to make any motion or take any other action seeking or intending to cause the transfer or removal of any such action, claim, cause of action or suit (in contract, delict or otherwise), inquiry, proceeding or investigation to any court other than the above-named court whether on the grounds of inconvenient forum or otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any party hereto is or becomes a party in any litigation in connection with which it may assert indemnification rights set forth in this agreement, the court in which such litigation is being heard shall be deemed to be included in clause (a) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any party to this Agreement may commence and maintain an action to enforce a judgment of the above-named court in any court of competent jurisdiction. Each party hereto hereby consents to service of process in any such proceeding in any manner permitted by the laws of Quebec, and agrees that service of process by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its address specified pursuant to Section 7.8 hereof is reasonably calculated to give actual notice.

7.15 Free Writing Prospectus Consent. No Holder shall use a Holder Free Writing Prospectus without the prior written consent of the Corporation, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

7.16 No Required Sale. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create an independent obligation on the part of any Holder to sell any Registrable Securities pursuant to any effective registration statement.

A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right. Sending a copy of a notice or other communication to a party's legal counsel as contemplated above is for information purposes only and does not constitute delivery of the notice or other communication to that party. The failure to send a copy of a notice or other communication to legal counsel does not invalidate delivery of that notice or other communication to a party.

4.7 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, that provision will be severed from this Agreement and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the fullest extent possible.

4.8 Successors and Assigns

(a) This Agreement becomes effective only when executed by the Company and the Subscribers. After that time, it will be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the Company and the Subscribers and their respective successors, permitted assigns and legal personal representatives. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement will not apply to transferees of Subject Securities.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights or obligations under this Agreement are assignable or transferable by any party without the prior written consent of the other parties.

4.9 Expenses

Each party shall pay all costs and expenses (including the fees and disbursements of legal counsel and other advisers) it incurs in connection with the negotiation, preparation and execution of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.10 Independent Legal Advice

Each of the parties hereby acknowledges that it has been afforded the opportunity to obtain independent legal advice and confirms by the execution and delivery of this Agreement that they have either done so or waived their right to do so in connection with the entering into of this Agreement.

4.11 Further Assurances

The parties hereto shall, with reasonable diligence, do all things and provide all such reasonable assurances as may be required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and each party shall provide such further documents or instruments required by the other party as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to effect the purpose of this Agreement and carry out its provisions.

Each request by the Borrowers for the issuance or amendment of a Letter of Credit shall be deemed to be a representation by the Borrowers that the L/C Credit Extension so requested complies with the conditions set forth in the proviso to the preceding sentence. Within the foregoing limits, and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Borrowers' ability to obtain Letters of Credit shall be fully revolving, and accordingly the Borrowers or any Subsidiary may, during the foregoing period, obtain Letters of Credit to replace Letters of Credit that have expired or that have been drawn upon and reimbursed. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any letter of credit application or other agreement submitted by Borrowers to, or entered into by the Borrowers with, the L/C Issuer relating to any Letter of Credit, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control.

(ii) The L/C Issuer shall not issue any Letter of Credit, if:

(A) subject to Section 2.05(b)(iii), the expiry date of such requested Letter of Credit would occur more than twelve months after the date of issuance or last extension; or

(B) the expiry date of such requested Letter of Credit would occur after the Letter of Credit Expiration Date in the sole discretion of the L/C Issuer.

(iii) The L/C Issuer shall not be under any obligation to issue any Letter of Credit if:

(A) any order, judgment or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator shall by its terms purport to enjoin or restrain the L/C Issuer from issuing such Letter of Credit, or any Requirement of Law applicable to the L/C Issuer or any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over the L/C Issuer shall prohibit, or request that the L/C Issuer refrain from, the issuance of letters of credit generally or such Letter of Credit in particular or shall impose upon the L/C Issuer with respect to such Letter of Credit any restriction, reserve or capital requirement (for which the L/C Issuer is not otherwise compensated hereunder) not in effect on the Closing Date, or shall impose upon the L/C Issuer any unreimbursed loss, cost or expense which was not applicable on the Closing Date and which the L/C Issuer in good faith deems material to it;

(B) the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate one or more policies of the L/C Issuer applicable to letters of credit generally;

(C) except as otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent and the L/C Issuer, such Letter of Credit is in an initial stated amount less than $100,000;

(D) such Letter of Credit contains any provisions for automatic reinstatement of the stated amount after any drawing thereunder; or

(E) any Revolving Facility Lender is at such time a Defaulting Lender hereunder, unless the L/C Issuer has entered into satisfactory arrangements with the Borrowers or such Revolving Facility Lender to eliminate the L/C Issuer's risk with respect to such Revolving Facility Lender, including the delivery of Cash Collateral, satisfactory to the L/C Issuer (in its sole discretion) with the Borrowers or such Lender to eliminate the L/C Issuer's actual or potential Fronting Exposure (after giving effect to Section 2.05(1)) with respect to the Defaulting Lender arising from either the Letter of Credit then proposed to be issued or that Letter of Credit and all other L/C Obligations as to which the L/C Issuer has actual or potential Fronting Exposure, as it may elect in its sole discretion.

(iv) The L/C Issuer shall not amend any Letter of Credit if the L/C Issuer would not be permitted at such time to issue such Letter of Credit in its amended form under the terms hereof.

(v) The L/C Issuer shall be under no obligation to amend any Letter of Credit if (A) the L/C Issuer would have no obligation at such time to issue such Letter of Credit in its amended form under the terms hereof, or (B) the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit does not accept the proposed amendment to such Letter of Credit.

(vi) The L/C Issuer shall act on behalf of the Revolving Facility Lenders with respect to any Letters of Credit issued by it and the documents associated therewith, and the L/C Issuer shall have all of the benefits and immunities (A) provided to the Administrative Agent in Article VIII with respect to any acts taken or omissions suffered by the L/C Issuer in connection with Letters of Credit issued by it or proposed to be issued by it and Issuer Documents pertaining to such Letters of Credit as fully as if the term "Administrative Agent" as used in Article VIII included the L/C Issuer with respect to such acts or omissions, and (B) as additionally provided herein with respect to the L/C Issuer.

(b) Procedures for Issuance and Amendment of Letters of Credit; Auto-Extension Letters of Credit.

(i) Each Letter of Credit shall be a sight Letter of Credit and shall be issued, amended, renewed or extended as the case may be, upon the request of the Borrowers delivered to the L/C Issuer (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) in the form of a Letter of Credit Application, appropriately completed and signed by a Responsible Officer of the Dutch Borrower. Such Letter of Credit Application must be received by the L/C Issuer and the Administrative Agent not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, at least five (5) Business Days (or such later date and time as the Administrative Agent and the L/C Issuer may agree in a particular instance in their sole discretion) prior to the proposed issuance date or date of amendment, as the case may be. In the case of a request for an initial issuance of a Letter of Credit, such Letter of Credit Application shall specify in form and detail reasonably satisfactory to the L/C Issuer: (A) the proposed issuance date of the requested Letter of Credit (which shall be a Business Day); (B) the amount and currency thereof; (C) the expiry date thereof (which shall not be later than the close of business on the Letter of Credit Expiration Date); (D) the name and address of the beneficiary thereof; (E) whether the Letter of Credit is to be issued for its own account or for the account of one of its Subsidiaries (provided that the Borrowers shall be co-applicants, and therefore jointly and severally liable, with respect to each Letter of Credit issued for the account of a Subsidiary); (F) the documents to be presented by such beneficiary in case of any drawing thereunder; (G) the full text of any certificate to be presented by such beneficiary in case of any drawing thereunder; (H) the amount of each Letter of Credit that is, to the Borrowers' knowledge, outstanding immediately prior to such request; and (i) such other matters as the L/C Issuer may reasonably request. In the case of a request for an amendment, renewal or extension of any outstanding Letter of Credit, such Letter of Credit Application shall specify in form and detail reasonably satisfactory to the L/C Issuer (A) the Letter of Credit to be amended, renewed or extended; (B) the proposed date of amendment, renewal or extension thereof (which shall be a Business Day); (C) the nature of the proposed amendment, renewal or extension; and (D) such other matters as the L/C Issuer may reasonably request. Additionally, the Borrowers shall furnish to the L/C Issuer and the Administrative Agent such other documents and information pertaining to such requested Letter of Credit issuance, amendment, renewal or extension including any Issuer Documents, as the L/C Issuer or the Administrative Agent may reasonably request.

(ii) Promptly after receipt of any Letter of Credit Application, the L/C Issuer will confirm with the Administrative Agent (by telephone or in writing) that the Administrative Agent has received a copy of such Letter of Credit Application from the Borrowers and, if not, the L/C Issuer will provide the Administrative Agent with a copy thereof. Unless the L/C Issuer has received written notice from any Revolving Facility Lender, the Administrative Agent or any Loan Party, at least one (1) Business Day prior to the requested date of issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of the applicable Letter of Credit, that one or more applicable conditions contained in Section 4.01 shall not then be satisfied, then, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the L/C Issuer shall, on the requested date, issue a Letter of Credit for the account of the applicable Borrower (or the applicable Subsidiary) or enter into the applicable amendment, renewal or extension as the case may be, in each case in accordance with the L/C Issuer's usual and customary business practices. Immediately upon the issuance of each Letter of Credit, each Revolving Facility Lender shall be deemed to, and hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to, purchase from the L/C Issuer a risk participation in such Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the product of such Lender's Revolving Facility Percentage times the amount of such Letter of Credit.

(iii) If the Borrowers so request in any applicable Letter of Credit Application, the L/C Issuer may, in its sole and absolute discretion, agree to issue a Letter of Credit that has automatic extension provisions (each, an "Auto-Extension Letter of Credit"); provided that any such Auto-Extension Letter of Credit must permit the L/C Issuer to prevent any such extension at least once in each twelve-month period (commencing with the date of issuance of such Letter of Credit) by giving prior notice to the beneficiary thereof not later than a day (the "Non-Extension Notice Date") in each such twelve-month period to be agreed upon at the time such Letter of Credit is issued. Unless otherwise directed by the L/C Issuer, the Borrowers shall not be required to make a specific request to the L/C Issuer for any such extension. Once an Auto-Extension Letter of Credit has been issued, the Revolving Facility Lenders shall be deemed to have authorized (but may not require) the L/C Issuer to permit the extension of such Letter of Credit at any time to an expiry date not later than the earlier of (i) one year from the original expiry date of such Letter of Credit and (ii) the Letter of Credit Expiration Date; provided, however, that the L/C Issuer shall not permit any such extension if (A) the L/C Issuer has determined that it would not be permitted at such time to issue such Letter of Credit in its revised form (as extended) under the terms hereof (by reason of the provisions of clause (ii) of Section 2.05(a) or otherwise), or (B) it has received notice (which may be by telephone or in writing) on or before the day that is five (5) Business Days before the Non-Extension Notice Date (1) from the Administrative Agent that the Majority Lenders under the Revolving Facility have elected not to permit such extension or (2) from the Administrative Agent, any Revolving Facility Lender or the Borrowers that one or more of the applicable conditions specified in Section 4.01 is not then satisfied, and in each such case directing the L/C Issuer not to permit such extension.

(iv) If the Borrowers so request in any applicable Letter of Credit Application, an L/C Issuer may, in its sole and absolute discretion, agree to issue a Letter of Credit that permits the automatic reinstatement of all or a portion of the stated amount thereof after any drawing thereunder (each, an "Auto-Reinstatement Letter of Credit"). Unless otherwise directed by the L/C Issuer, the Borrowers shall not be required to make a specific request to the L/C Issuer to permit such reinstatement. Once an Auto-Reinstatement Letter of Credit has been issued, except as provided in the following sentence, the Revolving Facility Lenders shall be deemed to have authorized (but may not require) the L/C Issuer to reinstate all or a portion of the stated amount thereof in accordance with the provisions of such Letter of Credit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such Auto-Reinstatement Letter of Credit permits the L/C Issuer to decline to reinstate all or any portion of the stated amount thereof after a drawing thereunder by giving notice of such non-reinstatement within a specified number of days after such drawing (the "Non-Reinstatement Deadline"), the L/C Issuer shall not permit such reinstatement if it has received a notice (which may be by telephone or in writing) on or before the day that is five (5) Business Days before the Non-Reinstatement Deadline (A) from the Administrative Agent that the Majority Lenders under the Revolving Facility have elected not to permit such reinstatement or (B) from the Administrative Agent, any Revolving Facility Lender or the Borrowers that one or more of the applicable conditions specified in Section 4.01 is not then satisfied (treating such reinstatement as an L/C Credit Extension for purposes of this clause) and, in each case, directing the L/C Issuer not to permit such reinstatement.

(v) Upon the issuance of any Letter of Credit or amendment, renewal, extension or modification to a Letter of Credit, the L/C Issuer shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent, who shall promptly notify each Revolving Facility Lender, thereof, which notice shall be accompanied by a copy of such Letter of Credit or amendment, renewal, extension or modification to a Letter of Credit and the amount of such Lender's respective participation in such Letter of Credit pursuant to Section 2.05(c). If the L/C Issuer is not the same person as the Administrative Agent, on the first Business Day of each calendar month, the L/C Issuer shall provide to the Administrative Agent a report listing all outstanding Letters of Credit and the amounts and beneficiaries thereof and the Administrative Agent shall promptly provide such report to each Revolving Facility Lender.

(c) Drawings and Reimbursements: Funding of Participations.

(i) Upon payment of a compliant drawing to the beneficiary of any Letter of Credit due to a compliant drawing under such Letter of Credit, the L/C Issuer shall notify the Dutch Borrower and the Administrative Agent thereof. In the case of a Letter of Credit denominated in an Alternate Currency, the Borrower shall reimburse the L/C Issuer in Dollars unless the L/C Issuer shall have specified in such notice that it will accept reimbursement in the Alternate Currency in which such Letter of Credit was so denominated. In the case of any such reimbursement in Dollars of a drawing under a Letter of Credit denominated in an Alternate Currency, the L/C Issuer shall notify the Borrower of the Dollar Equivalent of the amount of the drawing promptly following the determination thereof. Not later than (1) 3:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date that the L/C Issuer provides notice to the Dutch Borrower of any payment by the L/C Issuer under a Letter of Credit denominated in Dollars or the Applicable Time in the case of any Letter of Credit denominated in an Alternate Currency (if such notice is provided by 11:00 a.m. on such date) or (2) 3:00 p.m., New York City time, on the next succeeding Business Day or the Applicable Time on such next succeeding Business Day, as the case may be (if such notice is provided after 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the date such notice is given) (each such applicable date, an "Honor Date"), the Borrowers shall reimburse the L/C Issuer (and the L/C Issuer shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent of any failure by the Borrowers to so reimburse the L/C Issuer by such time) in an amount equal to the amount of such drawing and in the applicable currency. If the Borrowers fail to so reimburse the L/C Issuer by such time, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Revolving Facility Lender of the Honor Date, the amount of the unreimbursed drawing (expressed in Dollars in the amount of the Dollar Equivalent thereof in the case of a Letter of Credit denominated in an Alternate Currency) (the "Unreimbursed Amount"), and the amount of such Lender's Revolving Facility Percentage thereof. In such event, the Borrowers shall be deemed to have requested a Borrowing of ABR Revolving Loans to be disbursed on the Honor Date in an amount equal to the Unreimbursed Amount, without regard to the minimum Borrowing Minimums or Borrowing Multiples, but subject to the amount of the unutilized portion of the applicable Revolving Facility Commitments and the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 (other than the delivery of a Borrowing Request). Any notice given by the L/C Issuer or the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 2.05(c)(i) may be given by telephone if immediately confirmed in writing; provided that the lack of such an immediate confirmation shall not affect the conclusiveness or binding effect of such notice.

(ii) Each Revolving Facility Lender shall upon any notice pursuant to Section 2.05(c)(i) make funds available to the Administrative Agent for the account of the L/C Issuer, in Dollars or in the applicable Alternate Currency, as applicable, at the Administrative Agent's Office payments in an amount equal to its Revolving Facility Percentage of the Unreimbursed Amount not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Business Day specified in such notice by the Administrative Agent (or, if such Revolving Facility Lender shall have received such notice later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on any day, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the immediately following Business Day), whereupon, subject to the provisions of Section 2.05(c)(iii), each Revolving Facility Lender that so makes funds available shall be deemed to have made an ABR Revolving Loan to the Borrowers in such amount. The Administrative Agent will promptly pay, in Dollars or in the applicable Alternate Currency, as applicable, to the L/C Issuer any amounts received by it from the Borrowers pursuant to the above paragraph prior to the time that any Revolving Facility Lender makes any payment pursuant to the preceding sentence and any such amounts received by the Administrative Agent from the Borrowers thereafter will be promptly remitted by the Administrative Agent to the Revolving Facility Lenders that shall have made such payments and to the L/C Issuer, as appropriate.

(iii) With respect to any Unreimbursed Amount that is not fully refinanced by a Borrowing of ABR Revolving Loans because the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 cannot be satisfied or for any other reason, the Borrowers shall be deemed to have incurred from the L/C Issuer an L/C Borrowing in the amount of the Unreimbursed Amount that is not so refinanced, which L/C Borrowing shall be due and payable on demand (together with interest) and shall bear interest at the rate specified in Section 2.14(c). In such event, each Revolving Facility Lender's payment to the Administrative Agent for the account of the L/C Issuer pursuant to Section 2.05(c)(ii) shall be deemed payment in respect of its participation in such L/C Borrowing and shall constitute an L/C Advance from such Revolving Facility Lender in satisfaction of its participation obligation under this Section 2.05.

(iv) Until each Revolving Facility Lender funds its ABR Revolving Loan or L/C Advance pursuant to this Section 2.05(c) to reimburse the L/C Issuer for any amount drawn under any Letter of Credit, interest in respect of such Lender's Revolving Facility Percentage of such amount shall be solely for the account of the L/C Issuer.

(v) Each Revolving Facility Lender's obligation to make ABR Revolving Loans or L/C Advances to reimburse the L/C Issuer for amounts drawn under Letters of Credit, as contemplated by this Section 2.05(c), shall be absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance, including (A) any amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit; (B) any setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other right which such Revolving Facility Lender may have against the L/C Issuer, the Borrowers, any Subsidiary, or any other person for any reason whatsoever; (C) the occurrence or continuance of a Default or Event of Default; (D) the expiration, termination or cash collateralization of any Letter of Credit or (E) any other occurrence, event or condition, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing and each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever; provided, however, that each Lender's obligation to make ABR Revolving Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(c) is subject to the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 (other than delivery by the Dutch Borrower of a Borrowing Request). No such making of an L/C Advance shall relieve or otherwise impair the obligation of the Borrowers to reimburse the L/C Issuer for the amount of any payment made by the L/C Issuer under any Letter of Credit, together with interest as provided herein.

(vi) If any Revolving Facility Lender fails to make available to the Administrative Agent for the account of the L/C Issuer any amount required to be paid by such Lender pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section 2.05(c) by the time specified in Section 2.05(c)(ii), the L/C Issuer shall be entitled to recover from such Lender (acting through the Administrative Agent) and the Borrowers severally, on demand, interest on such amount, for each day from and including the date such amount is required to be paid in accordance with the foregoing to but excluding the date such amount is paid, to the Administrative Agent for the account of the L/C Issuer at (i) in the case of the Borrowers, the rate per annum set forth in Section 2.14(c) and (ii) in the case of such Lender, at a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules or practices on interbank compensation. If such Lender pays such amount (with interest and fees as aforesaid), the amount so paid shall constitute such Lender's ABR Revolving Loan included in the relevant Borrowing or L/C Advance in respect of the relevant L/C Borrowing, as the case may be. A certificate of the L/C Issuer submitted to any Revolving Facility Lender (through the Administrative Agent) with respect to any amounts owing under this clause (vi) shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Repayment of Participations.

(i) At any time after the L/C Issuer has made a payment under any Letter of Credit and has received from any Revolving Facility Lender such Revolving Facility Lender's L/C Advance in respect of such payment in accordance with Section 2.05(c), if the Administrative Agent receives for the account of the L/C Issuer any payment in respect of the related Unreimbursed Amount or interest thereon (whether directly from the Borrowers or otherwise, including proceeds of Cash Collateral applied thereto by the Administrative Agent), the Administrative Agent will distribute to such Revolving Facility Lender its Revolving Facility Percentage in Dollars and in the same funds as those received by the Administrative Agent.

(ii) If any payment received by the Administrative Agent for the account of the L/C Issuer pursuant to Section 2.05(c)(i) is required to be returned under any of the circumstances described in Section 8.11 (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by the L/C Issuer in its discretion), each Revolving Facility Lender shall pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of the L/C Issuer its Revolving Facility Percentage thereof on demand of the Administrative Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such amount is returned by such Revolving Facility Lender, at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Overnight Rate from time to time in effect. The obligations of the Revolving Facility Lenders under this clause shall survive the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

(e) Obligations Absolute. The obligation of the Borrowers to reimburse the L/C Issuer for each drawing under each Letter of Credit and to repay each L/C Borrowing shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be paid strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement under all circumstances, including the following:

(i) any lack of validity or enforceability of such Letter of Credit, this Agreement, or any other Loan Document;

(ii) the existence of any claim, counterclaim, setoff, defense or other right that the Borrowers or any Subsidiary may have at any time against any beneficiary or any transferee of such Letter of Credit (or any person for whom any such beneficiary or any such transferee may be acting), the L/C Issuer or any other person, whether in connection with this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or by such Letter of Credit or any agreement or instrument relating thereto, or any unrelated transaction;

(iii) any draft, demand, certificate or other document presented under such Letter of Credit that appears on its face to be valid proving to be forged, fraudulent, invalid or insufficient in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect; or any loss or delay in the transmission or otherwise of any document required in order to make a drawing under such Letter of Credit;

(iv) any payment by the L/C Issuer under such Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or certificate that does not strictly comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit; or any payment made by the L/C Issuer under such Letter of Credit to any person purporting to be a trustee in bankruptcy, debtor-in-possession, assignee for the benefit of creditors, liquidator, receiver or other representative of or successor to any beneficiary or any transferee of such Letter of Credit, including any arising in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law;

(v) any adverse change in the relevant exchange rates or in the availability of the relevant Alternate Currency to the Borrowers or any Subsidiary or in the relevant currency markets generally;

(vi) any other circumstance or happening whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, including any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, the Borrowers or any Subsidiary's obligations hereunder;

(vii) the fact that a Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing; or (viii) any material adverse change in the business, property, results of operations, prospects or condition, financial or otherwise, of the Borrowers and the Subsidiaries.

None of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Lenders, the L/C Issuer or any of their Affiliates or Related Parties shall have any liability or responsibility by reason of or in connection with the issuance or transfer of any Letter of Credit or any payment or failure to make any payment thereunder (irrespective of any of the circumstances referred to in the preceding sentence), or any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit (including any document required to make a drawing thereunder), any error in interpretation of technical terms or any consequence arising from causes beyond the control of the L/C Issuer. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, the parties agree that, with respect to documents presented which appear on their face to be in substantial compliance with the terms of a Letter of Credit, the L/C Issuer may, in its sole discretion, either accept and make payment upon such documents without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary, or refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is expressly understood and agreed that the absolute and unconditional obligation of the Borrowers hereunder to reimburse L/C Disbursements will not be excused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the applicable L/C Issuer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to excuse such L/C Issuer from liability to the Borrowers to the extent of any direct damages (as opposed to consequential damages, claims in respect of which are hereby waived by the Borrowers to the extent permitted by applicable law) suffered by the Borrowers that are caused by such L/C Issuer's gross negligence or willful misconduct in determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof.

(f) Role of L/C Issuer. Each Revolving Facility Lender and the Borrowers agree that, in paying any drawing under a Letter of Credit, the L/C Issuer shall not have any responsibility to obtain any document (other than any sight draft, certificates and documents expressly required by the Letter of Credit) or to ascertain or inquire as to the validity or accuracy of any such document or the authority of the person executing or delivering any such document. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, the L/C Issuer may accept documents that appear on their face to be in order, without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary, and the L/C Issuer shall not be responsible for the validity or sufficiency of any instrument transferring or assigning or purporting to transfer or assign a Letter of Credit or the rights or benefits thereunder or proceeds thereof, in whole or in part, which may prove to be invalid or ineffective for any reason.

(g) Cash Collateral.

(i) At any time that there shall exist a Defaulting Lender, within one (1) Business Day following the written request of the Administrative Agent or the L/C Issuer (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), the Borrowers shall Cash Collateralize the L/C Issuer's Fronting Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender (determined after giving effect to Section 2.05(1) and any Cash Collateral provided by such Defaulting Lender) in an amount equal to 103% of the L/C Issuer's Fronting Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender.

(ii) The Borrowers, and to the extent provided by any Defaulting Lender, such Defaulting Lender, hereby grants to the Administrative Agent, for the benefit of the L/C Issuer, and agrees to maintain, a first priority security interest in all such Cash Collateral and proceeds thereof as security for the Defaulting Lender's obligation to fund participations in respect of L/C Obligations, to be applied pursuant to clause (iii) below. If at any time the Administrative Agent determines that Cash Collateral is subject to any right or claim of any Person other than the Administrative Agent and the L/C Issuer as herein provided, or that the total amount of such Cash Collateral is less than 103% of the L/C Issuer's Fronting Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender, the Borrowers will, promptly upon demand by the Administrative Agent, pay or provide to the Administrative Agent additional Cash Collateral in an amount sufficient to eliminate such deficiency (after giving effect to any Cash Collateral provided by the Defaulting Lender).

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Cash Collateral provided under this Section 2.05(g) or Section 2.26 in respect of Letters of Credit shall be applied to the satisfaction of the Defaulting Lender's obligation to fund participations in respect of L/C Obligations (including, as to Cash Collateral provided by a Defaulting Lender, any interest accrued on such obligation) for which the Cash Collateral was so provided, prior to any other application of such property as may otherwise be provided for herein.

(iv) Cash Collateral (or the appropriate portion thereof) provided to reduce the L/C Issuer's Fronting Exposure shall no longer be required to be held as Cash Collateral pursuant to this Section 2.05(g) following (i) the elimination of the applicable Fronting Exposure (including by the termination of Defaulting Lender status of the applicable Lender), or (ii) the determination by the Administrative Agent and the L/C Issuer that there exists excess Cash Collateral.

(v) Upon the request of the Administrative Agent if, as of the Letter of Credit Expiration Date, any L/C Obligation for any reason remains outstanding, the Borrowers shall promptly Cash Collateralize the then Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations.

(vi) If any Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, on the Business Day that Dutch Borrower receives notice from the Administrative Agent or the Required Lenders (or, if the maturity of the Loans has been accelerated, Revolving Facility Lenders holding participations in outstanding Letters of Credit representing greater than 50% of the aggregate undrawn amount of all outstanding Letters of Credit) demanding the deposit of Cash Collateral pursuant to this paragraph, the Borrowers shall deposit on terms and in accounts reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, in the name of the Collateral Agent and for the benefit of the Revolving Facility Lenders, an amount in cash equal to the Letter of Credit Commitment as of such date plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon; provided that the obligation to deposit such Cash Collateral shall become effective immediately, and such deposit shall become immediately due and payable, without demand or other notice of any kind, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default with respect to the Borrowers described in Section 7.01(h). Funds so deposited shall be applied by the Collateral Agent to reimburse the L/C Issuer for L/C Disbursements for which it has not been reimbursed and, to the extent not so applied, shall be held for the satisfaction of outstanding reimbursement Obligations or, if the maturity of the Loans has been accelerated (but subject to the consent of Revolving Facility Lenders holding participations in outstanding Letters of Credit representing greater than 50% of the aggregate undrawn amount of all Letters of Credit), be applied to satisfy other Obligations of the Borrowers under this Agreement. If the Borrowers are required to provide an amount of Cash Collateral under this Section 2.05(g) as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default, such amount plus any accrued interest or realized profits with respect to such amounts (to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to the Dutch Borrower within three (3) Business Days after all Events of Default have been cured or waived.

(vii) For purposes of this Section 2.05, "Cash Collateralize" means to pledge and deposit with or deliver to the Administrative Agent, for the benefit of the L/C Issuer and the Revolving Facility Lenders, as collateral for the L/C Obligations, or obligations of the Revolving Facility Lenders to fund participations in respect of the L/C Obligations, cash or deposit account balances or, if the Administrative Agent and the L/C Issuer shall agree in their sole discretion, other credit support, in each case pursuant to documentation in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the L/C Issuer." "Cash Collateral" shall have a meaning correlative to the foregoing and shall include the proceeds of such cash collateral and other credit support.

(h) Applicability of ISP and UCP. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by the L/C Issuer and the Borrowers when a Letter of Credit is issued, (i) the rules of the ISP shall apply to each standby Letter of Credit, and (ii) the rules of the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, as most recently published by the International Chamber of Commerce at the time of issuance shall apply to each commercial Letter of Credit.

(i) Conflict with Issuer Documents. In the event of any conflict between the terms hereof and the terms of any Issuer Document, the terms hereof shall control.

(j) Letters of Credit Issued for Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding that a Letter of Credit issued or outstanding hereunder is in support of any obligations of, or is for the account of, a Subsidiary, the Borrowers shall be jointly and severally liable and obligated to reimburse the L/C Issuer hereunder for any and all drawings under such Letter of Credit. The Borrowers hereby acknowledge that the issuance of Letters of Credit for the account of Subsidiaries inures to the benefit of the Borrowers, and that the Borrowers' business derives substantial benefits from the businesses of such Subsidiaries.

(k) Additional L/C Issuers. From time to time, the applicable Borrower may by notice to the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Administrative Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and the applicable Revolving Facility Lender designate such Revolving Facility Lender (in addition to Deutsche Bank) to act as an L/C Issuer hereunder. In the event that there shall be more than one L/C Issuer hereunder, each reference to "the L/C Issuer" hereunder with respect to any L/C Issuer shall refer to the person that issued such Letter of Credit and each such additional L/C Issuer shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement as an L/C Issuer to the same extent as if it had been originally named as the L/C Issuer hereunder. Promptly after its delivery of any Letter of Credit or any amendment to a Letter of Credit to an advising bank with respect thereto or to the beneficiary thereof, each L/C Issuer (other than Deutsche Bank) will also deliver to the Administrative Agent a true and complete copy of such Letter of Credit or amendment.

(l) Reallocation of Applicable Percentages to Reduce Fronting Exposure. During any period in which there is a Defaulting Lender, for purposes of computing the amount of the obligation of each non-Defaulting Lender to acquire, refinance or fund participations in Letters of Credit pursuant to Sections 2.04 and 2.05, the "Revolving Facility Percentage" of each non-Defaulting Lender shall be computed without giving effect to the Commitment of that Defaulting Lender; provided that, (i) each such reallocation shall be given effect only to the extent that the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 are satisfied at the time of such reallocation (and, unless the Borrowers shall have otherwise notified the Administrative Agent at such time, the Borrowers shall be deemed to have represented and warranted that such conditions are satisfied at such time), and (ii) the aggregate obligation of each non-Defaulting Lender to acquire, refinance or fund participations in Letters of Credit shall not exceed the positive difference, if any, of (1) the Commitment of that non-Defaulting Lender minus (2) the aggregate Revolving Facility Credit Exposure of that non-Defaulting Lender. If the reallocation described above cannot, or can only partially, be effected, the Borrowers shall, without prejudice to any right or remedy available to it hereunder or under law, Cash Collateralize the L/C Issuer's Fronting Exposure in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.05(g). If the reallocation described above can be effected, the Borrowers shall not be required to Cash Collateralize the L/C Issuer's Fronting Exposure in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.05(g). No reallocation hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder against a Defaulting Lender arising from that Lender having become a Defaulting Lender, including any claim of a Non-Defaulting Lender as a result of such Non-Defaulting Lender's increased exposure following such reallocation.

(m) Resignation or Removal of the L/C Issuer. The L/C Issuer may resign as L/C Issuer hereunder at any time upon at least 30 days' prior notice to the Lenders, the Administrative Agent and the Borrowers. The L/C Issuer may be replaced at any time by written agreement among the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the replaced L/C Issuer and the successor L/C Issuer. The Administrative Agent shall notify the Lenders of any such replacement of the L/C Issuer. At the time any such resignation of the L/C Issuer shall become effective, the Borrowers shall pay all unpaid fees accrued for the account of the retiring L/C Issuer pursuant to Section 2.13(b). From and after the effective date of any such resignation or replacement, (i) the successor L/C Issuer shall have all the rights and obligations of the L/C Issuer under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit to be issued by it thereafter and (ii) references herein to the term "L/C Issuer" shall be deemed to refer to such successor or to any previous L/C Issuer, or to such successor and all previous L/C Issuers, as the context shall require. After the resignation or replacement of an L/C Issuer, the replaced L/C Issuer shall remain a party hereto and shall continue to have all the rights and obligations of an L/C Issuer under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit issued by it prior to such resignation or replacement, but shall not be required to issue additional Letters of Credit.

SECTION 2.06 [Reserved].

SECTION 2.07 Funding of Borrowings.

(a) Each Lender shall make each Term Loan or Revolving Facility Loan to be made by it hereunder available to the Administrative Agent in Same Day Funds at the Administrative Agent's Office not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time in the case of any Loan denominated in Dollars or Euro, and not later than the Applicable Time specified by the Administrative Agent in the case of any Revolving Facility Loan denominated in any other Alternate Currency, in each case, on the Business Day specified in the applicable Borrowing Request. The Administrative Agent will make such Loans available to the Dutch Borrower by promptly crediting the amounts so received, in like funds, to an account of the Dutch Borrower as specified in the Borrowing Request; provided, however, that if, on the date the Borrowing Request with respect to a Revolving Facility Borrowing is given by the Dutch Borrower, there are L/C Borrowings outstanding, then the proceeds of such Borrowing, first, shall be applied to the payment in full of any such L/C Borrowings, and, second, shall be made available to the applicable Borrower as provided above.

(b) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the proposed date of any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans (or, in the case of any Borrowing of ABR Loans, prior to 12:00 noon, New York City time, on the date of such Borrowing) that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's share of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such share available on such date in accordance with Section 2.07(a) (or, in the case of a Borrowing of ABR Loans, that such Lender has made such share available in accordance with and at the time required by Section 2.07(a)) and may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Dutch Borrower a corresponding amount. In such event, if a Lender has not in fact made its share of the applicable Borrowing available to the Administrative Agent, then the applicable Lender and the Borrowers severally (and jointly and severally with respect to the Borrowers) agree to pay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount in Same Day Funds with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is made available to the Borrowers to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at (A) in the case of a payment to be made by such Lender, the Overnight Rate, plus any administrative, processing or similar fees customarily charged by the Administrative Agent in connection with the foregoing, and (B) in the case of a payment to be made by the Borrowers, the interest rate applicable to ABR Loans under the applicable Facility. If the Borrowers and such Lender shall pay such interest to the Administrative Agent for the same or an overlapping period, the Administrative Agent shall promptly remit to the Borrowers the amount of such interest paid by the Borrowers for such period. If such Lender pays its share of the applicable Borrowing to the Administrative Agent, then the amount so paid shall constitute such Lender's Loan included in such Borrowing. Any payment by the Borrowers shall be without prejudice to any claim the Borrowers may have against a Lender that shall have failed to make such payment to the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 2.08 Type; Interest Elections.

(a) Each Borrowing of Revolving Facility Loans or Term Loans initially shall be of the Type, and under the applicable Class, specified in the applicable Borrowing Request and, in the case of a Eurocurrency Borrowing, shall have an initial Interest Period as specified in such Borrowing Request. Thereafter, the Dutch Borrower may elect to convert such Borrowing to a different Type (to the extent such Borrowing is denominated in Dollars) or to continue such Borrowing and, in the case of a Eurocurrency Borrowing, may elect Interest Periods therefor, all as provided in this Section; provided that except as otherwise provided herein, a Eurocurrency Loan may be continued or converted only on the last day of an Interest Period for such Eurocurrency Loan. The Borrowers may elect different options with respect to different portions of the affected Revolving Facility Borrowing or Term Borrowing, in which case each such portion shall be allocated ratably among the Lenders holding the Loans comprising such Borrowing, and the Loans comprising each such portion shall be considered a separate Borrowing.

(b) To make an election pursuant to this Section, the Dutch Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such election by telephone by the time that a Borrowing Request would be required under Section 2.03 if the Borrowers were requesting a Borrowing of the Type resulting from such election to be made on the effective date of such election. Each such telephonic Interest Election Request shall be irrevocable and shall be confirmed promptly by hand delivery, facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif") to the Administrative Agent of a written Interest Election Request in the form of Exhibit C and signed by a Responsible Officer of the applicable Borrower.

(c) Each telephonic and written Interest Election Request shall be irrevocable and shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(i) the Borrowing to which such Interest Election Request applies and, if different options are being elected with respect to different portions thereof, the portions thereof to be allocated to each resulting Borrowing (in which case the information to be specified pursuant to clauses (iii) and (iv) below shall be specified for each resulting Borrowing);

(ii) the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Interest Election Request, which shall be a Business Day;

(iii) whether the resulting Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing (solely to the extent such Borrowing is denominated in Dollars) or a Eurocurrency Borrowing; and

(iv) if the resulting Borrowing is a Eurocurrency Borrowing, the Interest Period to be applicable thereto after giving effect to such election, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term "Interest Period.

If any such Interest Election Request requests a Eurocurrency Borrowing but does not specify an Interest Period, then the Borrowers shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration.

(d) Promptly following receipt of an Interest Election Request, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender to which such Interest Election Request relates of the details thereof and of such Lender's portion of each resulting Borrowing.

(e) If the Dutch Borrower fails to deliver a timely Interest Election Request with respect to a Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in Dollars prior to the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, then, unless such Borrowing is repaid as provided herein, at the end of such Interest Period such Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing; provided that any Loan denominated in an Alternate Currency shall instead be continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing with an Interest Period of one month's duration. Notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Administrative Agent, at the written request (including a request through electronic means) of the Required Lenders, so notifies the Dutch Borrower, then, so long as an Event of Default is continuing (i) no outstanding Borrowing may be converted to or continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing and (ii) unless repaid, each Eurocurrency Borrowing shall (A) in the case of such a Borrowing made in Dollars, be converted to an ABR Borrowing at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto and (B) in the case of such a Borrowing made in an Alternate Currency be continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing with an Interest Period of one month's duration.

SECTION 2.09 Termination and Reduction of Commitments.

(a) Unless previously terminated, (i) the Revolving Facility Commitments of each Class shall terminate on the applicable Revolving Facility Maturity Date for such Class and (ii) on the Closing Date (after giving effect to the funding of the Initial Term Loans to be made on such date), the Initial Term Loan Commitments of each Term Lender as of the Closing Date, shall terminate.

(b) The Dutch Borrower may at any time, without penalty or premium, terminate, or from time to time reduce the Revolving Facility Commitments of any Class; provided that (i) each such reduction of the Revolving Facility Commitments of any Class shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of $1,000,000 and not less than $5,000,000 (or, if less, the remaining amount of the Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class) and (ii) the Dutch Borrower shall not terminate or reduce the Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class if, after giving effect to any concurrent prepayment of the Revolving Facility Loans in accordance with Section 2.12, the total Revolving Facility Credit Exposure of such Class would exceed the total Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class.

(c) The Dutch Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of any election to terminate or reduce the Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class under clause (b) of this Section at least three (3) Business Days prior to the effective date of such termination or reduction (or such shorter period acceptable to the Administrative Agent), specifying such election and the effective date thereof. Promptly following receipt of any notice, the Administrative Agent shall advise the applicable Lenders of the contents thereof. Each notice delivered by the Dutch Borrower pursuant to this Section shall be irrevocable; provided that a notice of termination or reduction of all of the Revolving Facility Commitments of any Class delivered by the Dutch Borrower may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other credit facilities, indentures or similar agreements or other transactions refinancing all or any portion of such Revolving Facility Commitments, in which case such notice may be revoked by the Dutch Borrower (by notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. Any termination or reduction of the Commitments of any Class shall be permanent. Each reduction of the Commitments shall be made ratably among the applicable Lenders in accordance with their respective Commitments of such Class.

SECTION 2.10 Repayment of Loans; Evidence of Debt.

(a) Each Borrower hereby jointly and severally unconditionally promises to pay (i) to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Facility Lender the then unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Facility Loan on the Revolving Facility Maturity Date applicable to such Revolving Facility Loans and (ii) to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Lender the then unpaid principal amount of each Term Loan of such Lender as provided in Section 2.11.

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of the Borrowers to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time hereunder.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it shall record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Facility Class, Type and currency thereof, and the Interest Period (if any) applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrowers to each Lender hereunder and (iii) any amount received by the Administrative Agent hereunder for the account of the Lenders and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of this Section shall be prima facie evidence (absent manifest error) of the existence and amounts of the obligations recorded therein; provided that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligation of the Borrowers to repay the Loans in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a promissory note (a "Note"). In such event, the Borrowers shall prepare, execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) and in a form approved by the Administrative Agent and reasonably acceptable to the Dutch Borrower. Thereafter, unless otherwise agreed to by the applicable Lender, the Loans evidenced by such promissory note and interest thereon shall at all times (including after assignment pursuant to Section 9.04) be represented by one or more promissory notes in such form payable to the payee named therein (or, if such promissory note is a registered note, to such payee and its registered assigns).

SECTION 2.11 Repayment of Term Loans and Revolving Facility Loans.

(a) Subject to the other clauses of this Section 2.11,

(i) The Borrowers shall repay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of the Term Lenders, in consecutive, quarterly installments on the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December, commencing on December 31, 2014 (each such Business Day, an "Initial Term Loan Installment Date"), a principal amount in respect of the Initial Term Loans equal to 0.25% of the original principal amount of the Initial Term Loans (each such scheduled installment payment, including the final installment payment on the Initial Term B Facility Maturity Date or the Initial Euro Term Facility Maturity Date, as applicable, an "Initial Term Loan Repayment Amount"), with the final installment on the Initial Term B Facility Maturity Date or the Initial Euro Term Facility Maturity Date, as applicable, equal to the remaining Outstanding Amount of the Initial Term Loans. In the event that any Loans are prepaid by the Borrowers pursuant to Section 2.25, then the Initial Term Loan Repayment Amounts (other than the final installment payment on the Initial Term B Facility Maturity Date or the Initial Euro Term Facility Maturity Date, as applicable) that were outstanding prior to and that remain outstanding after such prepayment pursuant to Section 2.25 will not be reduced by such prepayment);

(ii) in the event that any Other Term Loans are made, the Borrowers shall repay such Other Term Loans on the dates and in the amounts set forth in the related Incremental Assumption Agreement, Extension Amendment or Refinancing Amendment (each such date being referred to as an "Other Term Loan Installment Date"); and

(iii) to the extent not previously paid, outstanding Term Loans shall be due and payable on the applicable Term Facility Maturity Date.

(b) To the extent not previously paid, all outstanding Revolving Facility Loans shall be due and payable on the Revolving Facility Maturity Date.

(c) Prepayment of the Loans from:

(i) Net Proceeds pursuant to Section 2.12(b) and Excess Cash Flow pursuant to Section 2.12(c) shall be applied to the prepayment of Term Loans pro rata among each Term Facility, with the application thereof being applied to the remaining installments thereof as directed by the Dutch Borrower, or, if not so directed, in direct order of maturity; provided that subject to the pro rata application to Loans outstanding within any Class of Term Loans, the Borrowers may allocate such prepayment in their sole discretion among the Class or Classes of Term Loans as the Dutch Borrower may specify; provided further, however, that no payment shall be made on any Term Loan without providing for at least a pro rata payment of the Initial Term Loans substantially concurrently with such payment. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event there are no Term Loans outstanding, all Net Proceeds pursuant to Section 2.12(b) (1) and Excess Cash Flow pursuant to Section 2.12(c) shall be applied first to prepay outstanding Revolving Facility Loans (without a corresponding permanent reduction of Revolving Facility Commitments), second to Cash Collateralize outstanding Letters of Credit (without a corresponding permanent reduction of Revolving Facility Commitments) and third, subject to Section 6.09, as required by the Second Lien Credit Agreement or if such agreement or Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness is no longer outstanding, such amounts may be retained by the Borrowers for any purpose not prohibited by this Agreement.

(ii) Any optional prepayments of the Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(a) shall be applied to the remaining installments of the Term Loans as the Dutch Borrower may direct under the applicable Class or Classes as the Dutch Borrower may direct.

(d) Any mandatory prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(b) or (c) shall be applied as set forth in clauses (c)(i) above, irrespective of whether such outstanding Term Loans are ABR Loans or Eurocurrency Loans; provided that if no Lenders exercise the right to waive a given mandatory prepayment of the Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(d), then, with respect to such mandatory prepayment, prior to the repayment of any Term Loan, the Dutch Borrower may select the Borrowing or Borrowings to be repaid and shall notify the Administrative Agent by telephone (confirmed by hand delivery, facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif")) of such selection not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, (i) in the case of an ABR Borrowing, one (1) Business Day before the scheduled date of such repayment and (ii) in the case of a Eurocurrency Borrowing, three (3) Business Days before the scheduled date of such repayment.

SECTION 2.12 Prepayment of Loans.

(a) The Borrowers shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Loan in whole or in part (subject to the requirements of this Section and Section 2.17) in an aggregate principal amount that is an integral multiple of the Borrowing Multiple and not less than the Borrowing Minimum or, if less, the amount outstanding, upon prior notice to the Administrative Agent by telephone (confirmed by hand delivery, facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif")) (x) in the case of an ABR Loan, not later than 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on the Business Day of prepayment, (y) in the case of Eurocurrency Loans denominated in Dollars or Euro, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, three (3) Business Days prior to the date of prepayment and (z) in the case of a Eurocurrency Revolving Loan denominated in an Alternate Currency (other than Euro), not less than four (4) Business Days prior to the date of prepayment, which notice shall be irrevocable except to the extent conditioned on a refinancing of all or any portion of the Facilities. Each such notice shall be signed by a Responsible Officer of the Dutch Borrower and shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment and the Class(es) and the Type(s) of Loans to be prepaid and, if Eurocurrency Loans are to be prepaid, the Interest Period(s) of such Loans. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each applicable Lender of its receipt of each such notice, and of the amount of such Lender's pro rata share of such prepayment. Each optional prepayment of any Loan pursuant to this Section 2.12(a) shall be made without premium or penalty except that if any Repricing Event occurs prior to the date occurring six months after the Closing Date, the Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each Term Lender with Initial Term Loans that are subject to such Repricing Event (including any Term Lender which is replaced pursuant to Section 2.20 as a result of its refusal to consent to an amendment giving rise to such Repricing Event), a prepayment premium in an amount equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the Initial Term Loans subject to such Repricing Event.

(b) The Borrowers shall apply (1) all Net Proceeds (other than Net Proceeds of the kind described in the following clause (2)) within five (5) Business Days after receipt thereof to prepay Term Loans in accordance with clauses (c) and (d) of Section 2.11 and (2) all Net Proceeds from any issuance or incurrence of Refinancing Notes, Refinancing Term Loans and Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments (other than solely by means of extending or renewing then existing Refinancing Notes, Refinancing Term Loans and Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments without resulting in any Net Proceeds), no later than three (3) Business Days after the date on which such Refinancing Notes, Refinancing Term Loans and Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments are issued or incurred, to prepay Term Loans and/or Revolving Facility Commitments in accordance with Section 2.23 and the definition of "Refinancing Notes" (as applicable).

(c) Not later than five (5) Business Days after the date on which the annual financial statements are delivered under Section 5.04(a) with respect to each Excess Cash Flow Period, the Borrowers shall calculate Excess Cash Flow for such Excess Cash Flow Period and shall apply an amount equal to (i) the Required Percentage of such Excess Cash Flow, minus (ii) the sum of (A) the amount of any voluntary prepayments of principal of Term Loans made with the proceeds of internally generated cash during such Excess Cash Flow Period (in each case, excluding prepayments made with the proceeds of any Indebtedness, issuances of Equity Interests, Net Proceeds, the Cumulative Credit (in the case of the Cumulative Retained Excess Cash Flow Amount, only to the extent attributable to a time prior to such Excess Cash Flow Period) or Excluded Contributions) and (B) the amount of any permanent voluntary reductions during such Excess Cash Flow Period of Revolving Facility Commitments to the extent that an equal amount of Revolving Facility Loans was simultaneously repaid, to prepay Term Loans in accordance with clauses (c) and (d) of Section 2.11. Not later than the date on which the payment is required to be made pursuant to the foregoing sentence for each applicable Excess Cash How Period, the Borrowers will deliver to the Administrative Agent a certificate signed by a Financial Officer of the Dutch Borrower setting forth the amount, if any, of Excess Cash Flow for such fiscal year and the calculation thereof in reasonable detail.

(d) Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event the Borrowers are required to make any mandatory prepayment (a "Waivable Mandatory Prepayment") of the Term Loans, not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, three (3) Business Days prior to the date (the "Required Prepayment Date") on which the Borrowers elect (or are otherwise required) to make such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment, the Dutch Borrower shall notify Administrative Agent of the amount of such prepayment, and Administrative Agent will promptly thereafter notify each Lender holding an outstanding Term Loan of the amount of such Lender's pro rata share of such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment and such Lender's option to refuse such amount. Each such Lender may exercise such option by giving written notice to the Administrative Agent of its election to do so not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, the second Business Day prior to the Required Prepayment Date (it being understood that any Lender which does not notify the Administrative Agent of its election to exercise such option on or before the first Business Day prior to the Required Prepayment Date shall be deemed to have elected, as of such date, not to exercise such option). On the Required Prepayment Date, the Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent the amount of the Waivable Mandatory Prepayment less the amount of the Declined Proceeds, which amount shall be applied by the Administrative Agent to prepay the Term Loans of those Lenders that have elected to accept such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment (each, an "Accepting Lender") (which prepayment shall be applied to the scheduled installments of principal of the Term Loans in the applicable Class(es) of Term Loans in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d) of Section 2.11). The portion of the Waivable Mandatory Prepayment otherwise payable to those Lenders that have elected to exercise such option and decline such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment (such declined amounts, the "Declined Proceeds") shall be applied as required under the Second Lien Credit Agreement, or if such agreement or Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness in respect thereof is no longer outstanding, such amounts may be retained by the Borrowers and used for any purpose not prohibited by this Agreement.

(e) In the event that the aggregate amount of Revolving Facility Credit Exposure of any Class exceeds the total Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class (other than solely as a result of changes in currency exchange rates), the Borrowers shall prepay Revolving Facility Borrowings of such Class (or, if no such Borrowings are outstanding, provide Cash Collateral in respect of outstanding Letters of Credit pursuant to Section 2.05(g)) in an aggregate amount equal to such excess.

(f) If solely as a result of changes in currency exchange rates, on any Revaluation Date, the Dollar Equivalent of the total Revolving Facility Credit Exposure of any Class exceeds the total Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class, the Borrowers shall, at the request of the Administrative Agent (provided, that such a request shall be deemed to have been made if the Dollar Equivalent of the total Revolving Facility Credit Exposure of the respective Class is more than 105% of the total Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class (on any Revaluation Date), within 5 days of such Revaluation Date (A) prepay Revolving Facility Borrowings or (B) provide Cash Collateral pursuant to Section 2.05(g), in an aggregate amount such that the applicable exposure does not exceed the applicable commitment set forth above.

SECTION 2.13 Fees.

(a) Subject to Section 2.13(c), the Borrowers agree jointly and severally to pay to each Revolving Facility Lender, through the Administrative Agent, on the date that is the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December in each year, and the date on which the Revolving Facility Commitments of all the Revolving Facility Lenders shall be terminated as provided herein, a commitment fee (the "Commitment Fee") in Dollars on the daily amount of the Available Unused Commitment of such Lender under the Revolving Facility during the preceding quarter (or other period commencing with the Closing Date or ending with the date on which the last of the Revolving Facility Commitments of such Lender shall be terminated) at a rate equal to the Applicable Commitment Fee. All Commitment Fees shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days. The Commitment Fee due to each Revolving Facility Lender shall commence to accrue on the Closing Date and shall cease to accrue on the date on which the last of the Commitments of such Revolving Facility Lender shall be terminated as provided herein.

(b) The Borrowers from time to time jointly and severally agree to pay (i) to each Revolving Facility Lender, through the Administrative Agent, on the date that is the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December of each year and on the date on which the Revolving Facility Commitments of all the Lenders shall be terminated as provided herein, a fee in Dollars (an "L/C Participation Fee") on such Lender's Revolving Facility Percentage of the daily aggregate Outstanding Amount of L/C Obligations (excluding the portion thereof attributable to Unreimbursed Amounts in respect of Letters of Credit) during the preceding quarter (or shorter period commencing with the Closing Date or ending with the Revolving Facility Maturity Date or the date on which the applicable Revolving Facility Commitments of such Class shall be terminated) at the rate per annum equal to the Applicable Margin for Eurocurrency Revolving Facility Borrowings of such Class effective for each day in such period; provided, however, any L/C Participation Fee otherwise payable for the account of a Defaulting Lender with respect to any Letter of Credit as to which such Defaulting Lender has not provided Cash Collateral satisfactory to the L/C Issuer, shall be payable, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, to the other Lenders in accordance with the upward adjustments in their respective Revolving Facility Percentage allocable to such Letter of Credit pursuant to Section 2.05(l), with the balance of such fee, if any, payable to the L/C Issuer for its own account and (ii) to each L/C Issuer, for its own account on the date that is the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December of each year and on the date on which the Revolving Facility Commitments of all the Lenders shall be terminated as provided herein, a fronting fee in Dollars in respect of each Letter of Credit issued by such L/C Issuer for the period from and including the date of issuance of such Letter of Credit to and including the termination of such Letter of Credit, computed at a rate equal to 0.125% per annum of the daily stated amount of such Letter of Credit), plus (y) in connection with the issuance, amendment or transfer of any such Letter of Credit or any drawing thereunder, such L/C Issuer's customary documentary and processing fees and charges (collectively, "L/C Issuer Fees"). All L/C Participation Fees and L/C Issuer Fees shall be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days.

(c) During the period commencing at the time any Lender became a Defaulting Lender until such time, if any, as such Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, no Commitment Fee shall accrue with respect to any of the applicable Revolving Facility Commitments of such Defaulting Lender. Any Commitment Fees owing to any Defaulting Lender which accrued during the period prior to the time such Lender became a Defaulting Lender and unpaid at such time shall be deferred and shall be payable only if and when such Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender.

(d) The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Administrative Agent, the "First Lien Administrative Agent Fee" as set forth in the Fee Letter (the "Administrative Agent Fees").

(e) All Fees shall be paid on the dates due, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent for distribution, if and as appropriate, among the Lenders, except that L/C Issuer Fees shall be paid directly to the applicable L/C Issuers and Administrative Agent Fees shall be for the account of the Administrative Agent. Once paid, none of the Fees shall be refundable under any circumstances.

(f) The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay on the Closing Date to the Administrative Agent, for the account of each Term Lender on the Closing Date, as fee compensation for the funding of such Term Lender's Initial Term Loans, a closing fee in an amount equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of such Term Lender's Initial Term Loans funded as of the Closing Date.

(g) The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay on Closing Date to the Administrative Agent, for the account of each Revolving Facility Lender party to the Credit Agreement, as fee compensation for the commitments of such Revolving Facility Lender, a closing fee in an amount equal to 0.50% of the aggregate principal amount of such Revolving Facility Lender's Revolving Facility Commitments as of the Closing Date.

SECTION 2.14 Interest.

(a) The Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing shall bear interest at (i) ABR plus (ii) the Applicable Margin.

(b) The Loans comprising each Eurocurrency Borrowing shall bear interest at (i) the Adjusted LIBO Rate for the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing plus (ii) the Applicable Margin.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any principal of or interest on any Loan or any Fees or other amount payable by the Borrowers hereunder is not paid when due, whether at stated maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise, such overdue amount shall bear interest, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to (i) in the case of overdue principal of any Loan, 2.00% plus the rate otherwise applicable to such Loan as provided in the preceding paragraphs of this Section or (ii) in the case of any other amount, 2.00% plus the rate applicable to ABR Loans as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section; provided that this paragraph (c) shall not apply to any Event of Default that has been waived by the Lenders pursuant to Section 9.08.

(d) Accrued interest on each Loan shall be payable in arrears (i) on each Interest Payment Date for such Loan, (ii) in the case of Revolving Facility Loans, upon termination of the applicable Revolving Facility Commitments and (iii) in the case of the Term Loans, on the applicable Term Facility Maturity Date; provided that (i) interest accrued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section shall be payable on demand, and (ii) in the event of any repayment or prepayment of any Loan (other than a prepayment of an ABR Loan prior to the Revolving Facility Maturity Date), accrued interest on the principal amount repaid or prepaid shall be payable on the date of such repayment or prepayment.

(e) Except as otherwise specifically provided for herein, all interest hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days, except that (i) interest computed by reference to the ABR at times when the ABR is based on the Prime Rate shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year) and (ii) in the case of interest in respect of Eurocurrency Loans denominated in Alternative Currencies as to which market practice (as reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent) differs from the foregoing, such interest will be calculated in accordance with such market practice, and in each case shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). The applicable ABR or Adjusted LIBO Rate shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.15 Alternate Rate of Interest.

If prior to the commencement of any Interest Period for a Eurocurrency Borrowing:

(a) the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) that adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Adjusted LIBO Rate for such Interest Period with respect to a Dollar or Euro Borrowing; or

(b) the Administrative Agent determines or is advised in writing by the Required Lenders or the Majority Lenders under the Revolving Facility that the Adjusted LIBO Rate for such Interest Period will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of making or maintaining their Loans included in such Borrowing for such Interest Period;

then the Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to the Dutch Borrower and the applicable Lenders by telephone or facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif") as promptly as practicable thereafter and, until the Administrative Agent notifies the Dutch Borrower and the applicable Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice no longer exist, (i) any Interest Election Request that requests the conversion of any Borrowing to, or continuation of any Borrowing as, a Eurocurrency Borrowing denominated in the applicable currency shall be ineffective and (A) in the case of any Borrowing denominated in Dollars, on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto such Borrowing shall be converted to or continued as an ABR Borrowing and (B) in the case of any Revolving Facility Borrowing denominated in an Alternate Currency, such Borrowing shall be repaid at the end of the then current Interest Period, and (ii) (x) if any Borrowing Request requests a Eurocurrency Borrowing in Dollars, such Borrowing shall be made as an ABR Borrowing and (y) if any Borrowing Request requests a Borrowing denominated in Euro, then such Borrowing shall be made as a Eurocurrency Borrowing with the rate thereof denominated in accordance with the definition of "Adjusted LIBO Rate".

SECTION 2.16 Increased Costs.

(a) If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Lender (except any such reserve requirement reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate) or L/C Issuer;

(ii) subject any Recipient to any Taxes (except for (A) Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes indemnifiable under Section 2.18 or (B) any Excluded Taxes) on or in respect of any Loan Documents or any loans, letters of credit, commitments, or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(iii) impose on any Lender or the L/C Issuer or the London interbank market any other condition affecting this Agreement or Eurocurrency Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein not relating to Taxes; and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any Eurocurrency Loan (or any Loan in the case of clause (ii) above) or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan or to increase the cost to such Lender or L/C Issuer of participating in, issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or L/C Issuer hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise), then the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or L/C Issuer, as applicable, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or L/C Issuer, as applicable, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) If any Lender or L/C Issuer determines that any Change in Law regarding liquidity or capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's or L/C Issuer's capital or on the capital of such Lender's or L/C Issuer's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by, or participations in Letters of Credit held by, such Lender, or the Letters of Credit issued by such L/C Issuer, to a level below that which such Lender or such L/C Issuer or such Lender's or such L/C Issuer's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's or such L/C Issuer's policies and the policies of such Lender's or such L/C Issuer's holding company with respect to liquidity or capital adequacy), then from time to time the Borrowers shall pay to such Lender or such L/C Issuer, as applicable, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such L/C Issuer or such Lender's or such L/C Issuer's holding company for any such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender or an L/C Issuer setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or L/C Issuer or its holding company, as applicable, as specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section shall be delivered to the Borrowers and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender or L/C Issuer, as applicable, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 15 days after receipt thereof.

(d) Promptly after any Lender or any L/C Issuer has determined that it will make a request for increased compensation pursuant to this Section 2.16, such Lender or L/C Issuer shall notify the Borrowers thereof. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or L/C Issuer to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or L/C Issuer's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender or an L/C Issuer pursuant to this Section for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender or L/C Issuer, as applicable, notifies the Borrowers of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's or L/C Issuer's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided, further, that if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.16, no Lender shall demand compensation for any increased costs under this Section 2.16 if it shall not be the general policy or practice of such Lender to demand such compensation in similar circumstances and unless such demand is generally consistent with such Lender's treatment of comparable borrowers of such Lender in the United States with respect to similarly affected commitments or loans.

SECTION 2.17 Break Funding Payments.

In the event of (a) the payment, whether optional or mandatory, of any principal of any Eurocurrency Loan other than on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto (including as a result of an Event of Default), (b) the conversion of a Eurocurrency Loan on any day other than the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, (c) the failure to borrow, convert, continue or prepay any Eurocurrency Loan on the date specified in any notice delivered pursuant hereto or (d) the assignment of any Eurocurrency Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto as a result of a request by the Borrowers pursuant to Section 2.20, then, in any such event, the Dutch Borrower shall compensate each Lender for any reasonable and actual loss, cost and expense attributable to such event, including, any actual loss or expense arising from the liquidation or reemployment of funds (but excluding loss of margin or anticipated profits) obtained by it to maintain such Loan or from fees payable to terminate the deposits from which such funds were obtained. In any such event, such loss, cost or expense to any Lender shall be deemed to be the amount determined by such Lender (it being understood that the deemed amount shall not exceed the actual amount) to be the excess, if any, of (i) the amount of interest which would have accrued on the principal amount of such Loan had such event not occurred, at the Adjusted LIBO Rate that would have been applicable to such Loan, for the period from the date of such event to the last day of the then current Interest Period therefor (or, in the case of a failure to borrow, convert or continue a Eurocurrency Loan, for the period that would have been the Interest Period for such Loan), over (ii) the amount of interest which would accrue on such principal amount for such period at the interest rate which such Lender would bid were it to bid, at the commencement of such period, for deposits in dollars of a comparable amount and period from other banks in the Eurocurrency market. For the purposes of calculating the amounts payable under this Section 2.17, any "floor" reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate shall be disregarded. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts that such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section shall be delivered to the Borrowers and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 15 days after receipt thereof.

SECTION 2.18 Taxes.

(a) Unless otherwise required by applicable laws, any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Loan Party hereunder or under any other Loan Documents shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for any Taxes; provided that if the applicable withholding agent shall be required to deduct any Taxes from such payments, then (i) if the Tax in question is an Indemnified Tax or Other Tax, the sum payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased as necessary so that after all required deductions (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.18) have been made, the Recipient receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions been made, (ii) the applicable withholding agent shall make such deductions and (iii) the applicable withholding agent shall timely pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) In addition, the Borrowers shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(c) The Loan Parties shall, jointly and severally, indemnify each Recipient, within 20 days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes payable by the Recipient with respect to any Loan Documents (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 2.18) and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Borrowers by a Recipient on its own behalf, on behalf of another Agent or on behalf of another Recipient, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by a Loan Party to a Governmental Authority, such Loan Party shall deliver to the Administrative Agent, if available, the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(e) Each U.S. Lender shall deliver to the Dutch Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before the date on which it becomes a party to this Agreement two properly completed and duly signed original copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding and each Foreign Lender shall deliver to the Dutch Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before the date on which it becomes a party to this Agreement two properly completed and duly signed original copies of any applicable IRS Form W-8. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.18(e), a Lender shall not be required to deliver any documentation that such Lender is not legally eligible to deliver.

(f) If any Recipient determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by a Loan Party or with respect to which such Loan Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.18, it shall pay over such refund to such Loan Party (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Loan Party under this Section 2.18 with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Recipient (including any Taxes imposed with respect to such refund) as is determined by the Recipient in good faith and in its sole discretion, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided that such Loan Party, upon the request of the Recipient agrees to repay as soon as reasonably practicable the amount paid over to such Loan Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to such Recipient in the event the Recipient is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in no event will any Recipient be required to pay any amount to a Loan Party the payment of which would place the Recipient in a less favorable net after-tax position than such the Recipient would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This Section 2.18(f) shall not be construed to require any Recipient to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes which it deems confidential) to the Loan Parties or any other person.

(g) All amounts expressed to be payable under any Loan Document by any Party to a Recipient which (in whole or in part) constitute the consideration for any supply for VAT purposes are deemed to be exclusive of any VAT which is chargeable on that supply, and accordingly, subject to Section 2.18(h) below, if VAT is or becomes chargeable on any supply made by any Recipient to any Party under any Loan Document and such Recipient is required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT, that Party must pay to such Recipient (in addition to and at the same time as paying any other consideration for such supply) an amount equal to the amount of the VAT upon receipt of an appropriate VAT invoice issued by such Recipient to that Party.

(h) If VAT is or becomes chargeable on any supply made by any Recipient (the "Supplier") to any other Recipient (the "Receiver") under any Loan Document, and any Party other than the Receiver (the "Relevant Party") is required by the terms of any Loan Document to pay an amount equal to the consideration for that supply to the Supplier (rather than being required to reimburse or indemnify the Receiver in respect of that consideration):

(A) where the Supplier is the person required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT, the Relevant Party must also pay to the Supplier (at the same time as paying that amount) an additional amount equal to the amount of the VAT. The Receiver must (where this Section 2.18(h)(A) applies) promptly pay to the Relevant Party an amount equal to any credit or repayment the Receiver receives from the relevant tax authority which the Receiver reasonably determines relates to the VAT chargeable on that supply; and

(B) where the Receiver is the person required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT, the Relevant Party must promptly, following demand from the Receiver, pay to the Receiver an amount equal to the VAT chargeable on that supply but only to the extent that the Receiver reasonably determines that it is not entitled to credit or repayment from the relevant tax authority in respect of that VAT.

(i) Where any Loan Document requires any Party to reimburse or indemnify a Recipient for any cost or expense, that Party shall reimburse or indemnify (as the case may be) such Recipient for the full amount of such cost or expense, including such part thereof as represents VAT, save to the extent that such Recipient reasonably determines that it is entitled to credit or repayment in respect of such VAT from the relevant tax authority.

(j) Any reference in Sections 2.18(g), (h), (i) and (k) to any Party shall, at any time when such Party is treated as a member of a group or unity (or fiscal unity) for VAT purposes, include (where appropriate and unless the context otherwise requires) a reference to the person who is treated at that time as making the supply, or (as appropriate) receiving the supply, under the grouping rules (provided for in Article 11 of Council Directive 2006/112/EC (or as implemented by the relevant member state of the European Union) or any other similar provision in any jurisdiction which is not a member state of the European Union) so that a reference to a Party shall be construed as a reference to that Party or the relevant group or unity (or fiscal unity) of which that Party is a member for VAT purposes at the relevant time or the relevant representative member (or head) of that group or unity (or fiscal unity) at the relevant time (as the case may be).

(k) In relation to any supply made by a Recipient to any Party under any Loan Document, if reasonably requested by such Recipient, that Party must promptly provide such Recipient with details of that Party's VAT registration and such other information as is reasonably requested in connection with such Recipient's VAT reporting requirements in relation to such supply.

SECTION 2.19 Payments Generally; Pro Rata Treatment; Sharing of Set-offs.

(a) The Borrowers shall make each payment required to be made by it hereunder (whether of principal, interest, fees or reimbursement of drawings under Letters of Credit, or of amounts payable under Section 2.16, 2.17, or 2.18, or otherwise) without condition or deduction for any defense, recoupment, set-off or counterclaim. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein and except with respect to principal of and interest on Revolving Facility Loans denominated in an Alternate Currency, all payments by the Borrowers hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the respective Lenders to which such payment is owed, at the applicable Administrative Agent's Office in Dollars and in Same Day Funds not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date specified herein. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all payments by the Borrowers hereunder with respect to principal and interest on Loans denominated in an Alternate Currency shall be made to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the respective Lenders to which such payment is owed, at the applicable Administrative Agent's Office in such Alternate Currency and in Same Day Funds not later than the Applicable Time specified by the Administrative Agent on the dates specified herein. If for any reason the Borrowers are prohibited by Requirements of Law from making any required payment hereunder in Euro, the Borrowers shall make such payment in Dollars in the Dollar Equivalent of the Euro payment amount. Any amounts received after such time on any date may, in the reasonable discretion of the Administrative Agent, be deemed to have been received on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. All such payments shall be made to the Administrative Agent to the applicable account designated to the Dutch Borrower by the Administrative Agent, except payments to be made directly to the applicable L/C Issuer as expressly provided herein and except that payments pursuant to Sections 2.16, 2.17, 2.18 and 9.05 shall be made directly to the persons entitled thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent may require that any payments due under this Agreement be made in the continental United States. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. If any payment hereunder shall be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the date for payment shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day, and, in the case of any payment accruing interest, interest thereon shall be payable for the period of such extension. All payments made under the Loan Documents shall be made in the currency borrowed or as otherwise specified herein. Any payment required to be made by the Administrative Agent hereunder shall be deemed to have been made by the time required if the Administrative Agent shall, at or before such time, have taken the necessary steps to make such payment in accordance with the regulations or operating procedures of the clearing or settlement system used by the Administrative Agent to make such payment.

(b) If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Administrative Agent from the Borrowers to pay fully all amounts of principal, Unreimbursed Amounts, interest and fees then due from the Borrowers hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first, towards payment of interest and fees then due from the Borrowers hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of interest and fees then due to such parties and (ii) second, towards payment of principal of Loans, and Unreimbursed Amounts then due from the Borrowers hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of principal, and Unreimbursed Amounts then due to such parties.

(c) If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of set-off or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Term Loans, Revolving Facility Loans, or participations in Letters of Credit resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Term Loans, Revolving Facility Loans, and participations in Letters of Credit and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other Lender, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase participations in the Term Loans, Revolving Facility Loans, and participations in Letters of Credit, as applicable, of other Lenders to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Term Loans, Revolving Facility Loans, and participations in Letters of Credit; provided that (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this paragraph (c) shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by the Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 2.12(e), 2.23, 2.24 and 2.25) or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans or participations in Letters of Credit to any assignee or participant. The Borrowers consent to the foregoing and agree, to the extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against the Borrowers rights of set-off and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of the Borrowers in the amount of such participation.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Dutch Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders or the applicable L/C Issuer hereunder that the Borrowers will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrowers have made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders or the applicable L/C Issuer, as applicable, the amount due. In such event, if the Borrowers have not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders or the applicable L/C Issuer, as applicable, severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender or L/C Issuer with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the Overnight Rate.

SECTION 2.20 Mitigation Obligations; Replacement of Lenders.

(a) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.16 or has delivered a notice under Section 2.21, or if the Borrowers are required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.18, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different Lending Office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.16 or 2.18 or illegality under Section 2.21, as applicable, in the future and (ii) would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender in any material respect. The Borrowers hereby jointly and severally agree to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(b) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.16, or if the Borrowers are required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.18, or if any Lender is a Defaulting Lender or has delivered a notice under Section 2.21, then the Borrowers may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.04), all its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement to an assignee that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that (i) the Dutch Borrower shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (and, if in respect of any Revolving Facility Commitment or Revolving Facility Loan and the L/C Issuer), which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld, conditioned or delayed, (ii) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, and participations in L/C Obligations, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder, from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrowers (in the case of all other amounts) and (iii) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 2.16 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 2.18, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments. Nothing in this Section 2.20 shall be deemed to prejudice any rights that the Borrowers may have against any Lender that is a Defaulting Lender. No action by or consent of the removed Lender shall be necessary in connection with such assignment, which shall be immediately and automatically effective upon payment of such purchase price. In connection with any such assignment the Borrowers, Administrative Agent, such removed Lender and the replacement Lender shall otherwise comply with Section 9.04; provided that if such removed Lender does not comply with Section 9.04 within one (1) Business Day after the Dutch Borrower's request, compliance with Section 9.04 shall not be required to effect such assignment.

(c) If any Lender (such Lender, a "Non-Consenting Lender") has failed to consent to a proposed amendment, waiver, discharge or termination which pursuant to the terms of Section 9.08 requires the consent of all of the Lenders affected and with respect to which the Required Lenders shall have granted their consent, then the Borrowers shall have the right (unless such Non-Consenting Lender grants such consent) at its sole expense (including with respect to the processing and recordation fee referred to in Section 9.04(b)(ii)(B)) to replace such Non-Consenting Lender by deeming such Non-Consenting Lender to have assigned its Loans and its Commitments (or, at the Borrower's option, the Loans and Commitments under the Facility that is the subject of the proposed amendment, waiver, discharge or termination) hereunder to one or more assignees reasonably acceptable to (i) the Administrative Agent (unless such assignee is a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund) and (ii) if in respect of any Revolving Facility Commitment or Revolving Facility Loan and, the L/C Issuer; provided that (without duplication): (i) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, and participations in L/C Obligations, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder, from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrowers (in the case of all other amounts) and (ii) the assignee shall consent to the proposed amendment, waiver, discharge or termination. No action by or consent of the Non-Consenting Lender shall be necessary in connection with such assignment, which shall be immediately and automatically effective upon payment of such purchase price. In connection with any such assignment the Borrowers, Administrative Agent, such Non-Consenting Lender and the replacement Lender shall otherwise comply with Section 9.04; provided that if such Non-Consenting Lender does not comply with Section 9.04 within one (1) Business Day after the Dutch Borrower's request, compliance with Section 9.04 shall not be required to effect such assignment.

SECTION 2.21 Illegality.

If any Lender reasonably determines that any Change in Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted after the Closing Date that it is unlawful, for any Lender or its applicable Lending Office to make or maintain any Eurocurrency Loans in any currency, then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Dutch Borrower through the Administrative Agent, any obligations of such Lender to make or continue Eurocurrency Loans in such currency or to convert ABR Borrowings to Eurocurrency Borrowings in such currency shall be suspended until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrowers that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrowers shall upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), either (x) (i) in the case of Eurocurrency Loans denominated in Dollars if the affected Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Loans as Eurocurrency Loans until the last day of such Interest Period, convert all Eurocurrency Loans of such Lender to ABR Loans or to Eurocurrency Loans in a different currency on the last day of such Interest Period (or, otherwise, immediately convert such Eurocurrency Loans to ABR Loans or to Eurocurrency Loans in a different currency) or (ii) prepay such Eurocurrency Loans or (y) in the case of Eurocurrency Loans denominated in Euro, if the affected Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Eurocurrency Loans, prepay such Loans or the last day of the Interest Period therefor, or if the affected Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Loans, immediately prepay such Loans. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrowers shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

SECTION 2.22 Incremental Commitments.

(a) The Borrowers may, by written notice to the Administrative Agent from time to time, request Incremental Term Loan Commitments and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments, as applicable, denominated at the option of the Borrowers in Dollars and/or Euro and, in the case of any Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments, any Alternate Currency in an amount not to exceed the Incremental Amount available at the time such Incremental Commitments are established from one or more Incremental Term Lenders and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Lenders (which may include any existing Lender) willing to provide such Incremental Term Loans and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments, as the case may be, in their own discretion, provided that each Incremental Revolving Facility Lender shall be subject to the approval of the Administrative Agent unless such Incremental Revolving Lender is a Revolving Facility Lender, an Affiliate of a Revolving Facility Lender or an Approved Fund of a Revolving Facility Lender (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) unless no consent would be required for an assignment to such person pursuant to Section 9.04(b)(i)(B). Such notice shall set forth (i) the amount of the Incremental Term Loan Commitments and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments being requested (which shall be (x) in minimum increments of $5,000,000 and a minimum amount of $25,000,000 and (y) minimum increments of €5,000,000 and a minimum amount of €25,000,000 if such Incremental Loans are denominated in Euro or equal to the remaining Incremental Amount), (ii) the date on which such Incremental Term Loan Commitments and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments are requested to become effective, and (iii) (a) in the case of Incremental Term Loan Commitments, whether such Incremental Term Loan Commitments are to be (x) commitments to make term loans with terms identical to (and which together with any then outstanding Initial Term Loans form a single Class of) Initial Term B Loans or (y) commitments to make term loans with pricing, maturity, amortization, participation in mandatory prepayments and/or other terms different from the Initial Term Loans ("Other Incremental Term Loans") and (b) in the cash of Incremental Revolving Facility Commitment, whether such Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments are to be (x) Initial Revolving Facility Commitments or (y) commitments to make revolving loans with pricing and final maturity different from the Revolving Facility Loans ("Other Incremental Revolving Loans").

(b) The Borrowers and each Incremental Term Lender and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Lender shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Incremental Assumption Agreement and, such other documentation as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably specify to evidence the Incremental Term Loan Commitment of such Incremental Term Lender and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitment of such Incremental Revolving Facility Lender. Each Incremental Assumption Agreement shall specify the terms of the applicable Incremental Term Loans and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments; provided that (i) except as to pricing, amortization and final maturity date (which shall, subject to clauses (ii), (iii) and (v) of this proviso, be determined by the Borrowers and the Incremental Term Lenders in their sole discretion), the Other Incremental Term Loans shall have (A) substantially the same terms as the Initial Term Loans or (B) such other terms as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (ii) the final maturity date of any Other Incremental Term Loans shall be no earlier than the then Latest Maturity Date and no Incremental Revolving Facility shall have a final maturity date, any scheduled amortization or any mandatory commitment reduction that occurs prior to the Latest Maturity Date of the Initial Revolving Facility, (iii) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any Other Incremental Term Loans shall be no shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Term Loans, (iv) except as to pricing and final maturity date (which shall, subject to clause (ii) and (vi) of this proviso, be determined by the Borrowers and the Incremental Revolving Facility Lenders in their sole discretion), the Other Incremental Revolving Loans shall have (A) substantially the same terms as the Initial Revolving Facility or (B) such other terms as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (v) in the event that the All-in-Yield for such Incremental Term Loan Commitments is greater than the All-in-Yield for the existing Initial Term B Loans by more than 50 basis points, then the Applicable Margin for the existing Term Loans, shall be increased to the extent necessary so that the All-in-Yield for such Incremental Term Loan Commitments is no more than 50 basis points higher than the All-in-Yield for the existing Initial Term B Loans, (vi) in the case of any Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments in effect prior to the one year anniversary of the Closing Date, in the event that the All-in-Yield (at any analogous point in the Pricing Grid) for such Incremental Revolving Facility Commitment is greater than the All-in-Yield for the existing Revolving Facility by more than 50 basis points, then the Applicable Margin for the existing Revolving Facility shall be increased so that the All-in-Yield for the existing Revolving Facility is no more than 50 basis points less than the All-in-Yield for the Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments, (vii) at the time of and immediately after giving effect to such Incremental Term Loan Commitments and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments, as applicable, no Event of Default or Default shall have occurred and be continuing and (viii) the representations and warranties set forth in the Loan Documents shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such date (except to the extent such representations and warranties are qualified by "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect," in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all respects), as applicable, with the same effect as though made on and as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date (in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date). The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Incremental Assumption Agreement. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that, upon the effectiveness of any Incremental Assumption Agreement, this Agreement shall be amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to reflect the existence and terms of the Incremental Term Loan Commitments and/or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments evidenced thereby as provided for in Section 9.08(e). Any such deemed amendment may be memorialized in writing by the Administrative Agent with the Dutch Borrower's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) and furnished to the other parties hereto.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Incremental Term Loan Commitment or Incremental Revolving Facility Commitment shall become effective under this Section 2.22 unless (i) on the date of such effectiveness, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing or would result therefrom and (ii) except as otherwise specified in the applicable amendment, the Administrative Agent shall have received (with sufficient copies for each of the Lenders providing such Other Incremental Term Loans or Incremental Revolving Loan Commitments) legal opinions with respect to customary matters, board resolutions, Notes and other customary closing certificates reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent and consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date under subsection 4.02.

(d) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that the Administrative Agent may take any and all action as may be reasonably necessary to ensure that (i) all Incremental Term Loans (other than Other Incremental Term Loans) in the form of additional Initial Term Loans, when originally made, are included in each Borrowing of outstanding Initial Term Loans on a pro rata basis, and (ii) all Revolving Facility Loans in respect of Incremental Revolving Facility Commitments that are Revolving Facility Commitments, when originally made, are included in each Borrowing of outstanding Initial Revolving Facility Loans on a pro rata basis. The Borrowers agree that Section 2.17 shall apply to any conversion of Eurocurrency Loans to ABR Loans reasonably required by the Administrative Agent to effect the foregoing.

(e) The Incremental Term Loans and Incremental Revolving Loans shall rank pari passu in right of payment and of security with the Term Loans and Revolving Facility Loans and shall have the same Guarantees.

SECTION 2.23 Refinancing Amendments.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including Section 2.19(c) (which provisions shall not be applicable to this Section 2.23), the Borrowers may by written notice to the Administrative Agent establish one or more additional tranches of term loans denominated at the option of the Borrowers, in Dollars or Euro, under this Agreement (such loans, "Refinancing Term Loans"), all Net Proceeds of which are used to Refinance in whole or in part any Class of Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(b)(2). Each such notice shall specify the date (each, a "Refinancing Effective Date") on which the Borrowers propose that the Refinancing Term Loans shall be made, which shall be a date not earlier than five Business Days after the date on which such notice is delivered to the Administrative Agent (or such shorter period agreed to by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion); provided, that:

(i) before and after giving effect to the borrowing of such Refinancing Term Loans on the Refinancing Effective Date each of the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 shall be satisfied;

(ii) the final maturity date of the Refinancing Term Loans shall be no earlier than the Term Facility Maturity Date of the refinanced Term Loans;

(iii) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Refinancing Term Loans shall be no shorter than the then-remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the refinanced Term Loans;

(iv) the aggregate principal amount of the Refinancing Term Loans shall not exceed the outstanding principal amount of the refinanced Term Loans plus amounts used to pay fees, premiums, costs and expenses (including original issue discount) and accrued interest associated therewith;

(v) all other terms applicable to such Refinancing Term Loans (other than provisions relating to original issue discount, upfront fees, interest rates and any other pricing terms (which original issue discount, upfront fees, interest rates and other pricing terms shall not be subject to the provisions set forth in Section 2.22(b)(v)) and optional prepayment or mandatory prepayment or redemption terms, which shall be as agreed between the Borrowers and the Lenders providing such Refinancing Term Loans) taken as a whole shall (as determined by the Dutch Borrower in good faith) be substantially similar to, or not materially less favorable to the Parent and its Subsidiaries than, the terms, taken as a whole, applicable to the Term Loans being refinanced (except to the extent such covenants and other terms apply solely to any period after the Latest Maturity Date or are otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent);

(vi) with respect to Refinancing Term Loans secured by Liens on the Collateral that rank junior in right of security to the Initial Term Loans, such Liens will be subject to a Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement;

(vii) there shall be no direct or contingent obligor in respect of such Refinancing Term Loans except (x) the borrowers shall be comprised solely of the Dutch Borrower (with the Co-Borrower a joint and several co-borrower as provided in this Agreement) and (y) the guarantors shall constitute the Guarantors hereunder;

(viii) Refinancing Term Loans shall not be secured by any asset of the Parent and its subsidiaries other than the Collateral; and

(ix) Refinancing Term Loans may participate on a pro rata basis or on a less than pro rata basis (but not on a greater than pro rata basis) in any mandatory prepayments (other than as provided otherwise in the case of such prepayments pursuant to Section 2.12(b)(2) hereunder, as specified in the applicable Refinancing Amendment.

(b) The Borrowers may approach any Lender or any other person that would be a permitted Assignee pursuant to Section 9.04 to provide all or a portion of the Refinancing Term Loans; provided, that any Lender offered or approached to provide all or a portion of the Refinancing Term Loans may elect or decline, in its sole discretion, to provide a Refinancing Term Loan. Any Refinancing Term Loans made on any Refinancing Effective Date shall be designated an additional Class of Term Loans for all purposes of this Agreement; provided, further, that any Refinancing Term Loans may, to the extent provided in the applicable Refinancing Amendment governing such Refinancing Term Loans, be designated as an increase in any previously established Class of Term Loans made to the Borrowers.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including Section 2.19(c) (which provisions shall not be applicable to this Section 2.23), the Borrowers may by written notice to the Administrative Agent establish one or more additional Facilities ("Replacement Revolving Facilities") providing for revolving commitments ("Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments" and the revolving loans thereunder, "Replacement Revolving Loans"), which replace in whole or in part any

Class of Revolving Facility Commitments under this Agreement. Each such notice shall specify the date (each, a "Replacement Revolving Facility Effective Date") on which the Borrowers propose that the Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments shall become effective, which shall be a date not less than five Business Days after the date on which such notice is delivered to the Administrative Agent (or such shorter period agreed to by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion); provided that: (i) before and after giving effect to the establishment of such Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments on the Replacement Revolving Facility Effective Date, each of the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 shall be satisfied; (ii) after giving effect to the establishment of any Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments and any concurrent reduction in the aggregate amount of any other Revolving Facility Commitments, the aggregate amount of Revolving Facility Commitments shall not exceed the aggregate amount of the Revolving Facility Commitments outstanding immediately prior to the applicable Replacement Revolving Facility Effective Date; (iii) no Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments shall have a final maturity date (or require commitment reductions or amortizations) prior to the Revolving Facility Maturity Date in effect at the time of incurrence for the Revolving Facility Commitments being replaced; (iv) all other terms applicable to such Replacement Revolving Facility (other than provisions relating to (x) fees, interest rates and other pricing terms and prepayment and commitment reduction and optional redemption terms which shall be as agreed between the Borrowers and the Lenders providing such Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments and (y) the amount of any letter of credit sublimit and swingline commitment under such Replacement Revolving Facility, which shall be as agreed between the Borrowers, the Lenders providing such Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments, the Administrative Agent and the replacement issuing bank and swingline lender, if any, under such Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments) taken as a whole shall (as determined by the Dutch Borrower in good faith) be substantially similar to, or not materially more favorable to the Lenders providing such Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments than, those, taken as a whole, applicable to the Initial Revolving Loans (except to the extent such covenants and other terms apply solely to any period after the latest Revolving Facility Maturity Date in effect at the time of incurrence or are otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent); (v) there shall be no direct or contingent obligor in respect of such Replacement Revolving Facility except (x) the borrowers shall be comprised solely of the Dutch Borrower (with the Co-Borrower a joint and several co-borrower as provided in this Agreement) and (y) the guarantors shall constitute the Guarantors hereunder; and (vi) Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments and extensions of credit thereunder shall not be secured by any asset of the Parent and its subsidiaries other than the Collateral, and any such Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments shall be secured on the same basis as the Revolving Facility Commitments being replaced. Solely to the extent that an L/C Issuer is not a replacement issuing bank, as the case may be, under a Replacement Revolving Facility, it is understood and agreed that such L/C Issuer shall not be required to issue any letters of credit under such Replacement Revolving Facility and, to the extent it is necessary for such L/C Issuer to withdraw as an L/C Issuer, as the case may be, at the time of the establishment of such Replacement Revolving Facility, such withdrawal shall be on terms and conditions reasonably satisfactory to such L/C Issuer, as the case may be, in its sole discretion. The Borrowers agree to reimburse each L/C Issuer, as the case may be, in full upon demand, for any reasonable and documented out-of-pocket cost or expense attributable to such withdrawal.

(d) The Borrowers may approach any Lender or any other person that would be a permitted Assignee of a Revolving Facility Commitment pursuant to Section 9.04 to provide all or a portion of the Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments; provided that any Lender offered or approached to provide all or a portion of the Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments may elect or decline, in its sole discretion, to provide a Replacement Revolving Facility Commitment. Any Replacement Revolving Facility Commitment made on any Replacement Revolving Facility Effective Date shall be designated an additional Class of Revolving Facility Commitments for all purposes of this Agreement; provided that any Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments may, to the extent provided in the applicable Refinancing Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Class of Revolving Facility Commitments.

(e) The Borrowers and each Lender providing the applicable Refinancing Term Loans and/or Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments (as applicable) shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an amendment to this Agreement (a "Refinancing Amendment") and such other documentation as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably specify to evidence such Refinancing Term Loans and/or Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments (as applicable). For purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (A) if a Lender is providing a Refinancing Term Loan, such Lender will be deemed to have an Other Term Loan having the terms of such Refinancing Term Loan and (B) if a Lender is providing a Replacement Revolving Facility Commitment, such Lender will be deemed to have an Other Revolving Facility Commitment having the terms of such Replacement Revolving Facility Commitment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including without limitation this Section 2.23), (i) the aggregate amount of Refinancing Term Loans and Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments will not be included in the calculation of the Incremental Amount, (ii) no Refinancing Term Loan or Replacement Revolving Facility Commitment is required to be in any minimum amount or any minimum increment, (iii) there shall be no condition to any incurrence of any Refinancing Term Loan or Replacement Revolving Facility Commitment at any time or from time to time other than those set forth in clauses (a) or (c) above, as applicable, and (iv) all Refinancing Term Loans, Replacement Revolving Facility Commitments and all obligations in respect thereof shall be Obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents that rank equally and ratably in right of security with the Initial Term Loans and other Loan Obligations (other than Other Incremental Term Loans and Refinancing Term Loans that rank junior in right of security with the Initial Term Loans, and except to the extent any such Refinancing Term Loans are secured by the Collateral on a junior lien basis in accordance with the provisions above).

SECTION 2.24 Extensions of Loans and Commitments.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including Section 2.19(c) (which provisions shall not be applicable to this Section 2.24), pursuant to one or more offers made from time to time by the Borrowers to all Lenders of any Class of Term Loans and/or Revolving Facility Commitments, in each case having a like Term Facility Maturity Date or Revolving Facility Maturity Date (as applicable) on a pro rata basis (based, in the case of an offer to the Lenders under any Class of Term Loans, on the aggregate outstanding Term Loans of such Class and, in the case of an offer to the Lenders under any Revolving Facility, on the aggregate outstanding Revolving Facility Commitments under such Revolving Facility, as applicable) and on the same terms to each such Lender ("Pro Rata Extension Offers"), the Borrowers are hereby permitted to consummate transactions with individual Lenders from time to time to extend the maturity date of such Lender's Loans and/or Commitments of such Class and to otherwise modify the terms of such Lender's Loans and/or Commitments of such Class pursuant to the terms of the relevant Pro Rata Extension Offer (including, without limitation, increasing the interest rate or fees payable in respect of such Lender's Loans and/or Commitments and/or modifying the amortization schedule in respect of such Lender's Loans). For the avoidance of doubt, the reference to "on the same terms" in the preceding sentence shall mean, (i) in the case of an offer to the Lenders under any Class of Term Loans, that all of the Term Loans of such Class are offered to be extended for the same amount of time and that the interest rate changes and fees payable with respect to such extension are the same and (ii) in the case of an offer to the Lenders under any Revolving Facility, that all of the Revolving Facility Commitments of such Facility are offered to be extended for the same amount of time and that the interest rate changes and fees payable with respect to such extension are the same. Any such extension (an "Extension") agreed to between the Borrowers and any such Lender (an "Extending Lender") will be established under this Agreement by implementing an Other Term Loan for such Lender if such Lender is extending an existing Term Loan (such extended Term Loan, an "Extended Term Loan") or an Other Revolving Facility Commitment for such Lender if such Lender is extending an existing Revolving Facility Commitment (such extended Revolving Facility Commitment, an "Extended Revolving Facility Commitment", and any Revolving Facility Loan made pursuant to such Extended Revolving Facility Commitment, an "Extended Revolving Loan"). Each Pro Rata Extension Offer shall specify the date on which the Borrowers propose that the Extended Term Loan shall be made or the proposed Extended Revolving Facility Commitment shall become effective, which shall be a date not earlier than five Business Days after the date on which notice is delivered to the Administrative Agent (or such shorter period agreed to by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion).

(b) The Borrowers and each Extending Lender shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an amendment to this Agreement (an "Extension Amendment") and such other documentation as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably specify to evidence the Extended Term Loans and/or Extended Revolving Facility Commitments of such Extending Lender. Each Extension Amendment shall specify the terms of the applicable Extended Term Loans and/or Extended Revolving Facility Commitments; provided, that (i) except as to interest rates, fees and any other pricing terms, and amortization, final maturity date and participation in prepayments and commitment reductions (which shall, subject to clauses (ii) and (iii) of this proviso, be determined by the Borrowers and set forth in the Pro Rata Extension Offer), the Extended Term Loans shall have (x) the same terms as the existing Class of Term Loans from which they are extended or (y) such other terms as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (ii) the final maturity date of any Extended Term Loans shall be no earlier than the latest Term Facility Maturity Date in effect on the date of incurrence, (iii) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any Extended Term Loans shall be no shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Class of Term Loans to which such offer relates, (iv) except as to interest rates, fees, any other pricing terms and final maturity (which shall be determined by the Borrowers and set forth in the Pro Rata Extension Offer), any Extended Revolving Facility Commitment shall have (x) the same terms as the existing Class of Revolving Facility Commitments from which they are extended or (y) have such other terms as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and, in respect of any other terms that would affect the rights or duties of any L/C Issuer, such terms as shall be reasonably satisfactory to such L/C Issuer, and (v) any Extended Term Loans may participate on a pro rata basis or a less than pro rata basis (but not a greater than pro rata basis) than the Initial Term Loans in any mandatory prepayment hereunder. Upon the effectiveness of any Extension Amendment, this Agreement shall be amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to reflect the existence and terms of the Extended Term Loans and/or Extended Revolving Facility Commitments evidenced thereby as provided for in Section 9.08(e). Any such deemed amendment may be memorialized in writing by the Administrative Agent with the Borrowers' consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) and furnished to the other parties hereto. If provided in any Incremental Assumption Agreement with respect to any Extended Revolving Facility Commitments, and with the consent of each L/C Issuer, participations in Letters of Credit shall be reallocated to lenders holding such Extended Revolving Facility Commitments in the manner specified in such Incremental Assumption Agreement, including upon effectiveness of such Extended Revolving Facility Commitment or upon or prior to the maturity date for any Class of Revolving Facility Commitments.

(c) Upon the effectiveness of any such Extension, the applicable Extending Lender's Term Loan will be automatically designated an Extended Term Loan and/or such Extending Lender's Revolving Facility Commitment will be automatically designated an Extended Revolving Facility Commitment. For purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, (i) if such Extending Lender is extending a Term Loan, such Extending Lender will be deemed to have an Other Term Loan having the terms of such Extended Term Loan and (ii) if such Extending Lender is extending a Revolving Facility Commitment, such Extending Lender will be deemed to have an Other Revolving Facility Commitment having the terms of such Extended Revolving Facility Commitment.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including without limitation this Section 2.24), (i) the aggregate amount of Extended Term Loans and Extended Revolving Facility Commitments will not be included in the calculation of the Incremental Amount, (ii) no Extended Term Loan or Extended Revolving Facility Commitment is required to be in any minimum amount or any minimum increment, (iii) any Extending Lender may extend all or any portion of its Term Loans and/or Revolving Facility Commitment pursuant to one or more Pro Rata Extension Offers (subject to applicable proration in the case of over participation) (including the extension of any Extended Term Loan and/or Extended Revolving Facility Commitment), (iv) there shall be no condition to any Extension of any Loan or Commitment at any time or from time to time other than notice to the Administrative Agent of such Extension and the terms of the Extended Term Loan or Extended Revolving Facility Commitment implemented thereby, (v) all Extended Term Loans, Extended Revolving Facility Commitments and all obligations in respect thereof shall be Loan Obligations of the relevant Loan Parties under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents that rank equally and ratably in right of security with all other Obligations of the Class being extended (and all other Obligations secured by Other First Liens), (vi) no L/C Issuer shall be obligated to issue Letters of Credit under such Extended Revolving Facility Commitments unless it shall have consented thereto and (vii) there shall be no obligor in respect of any such Extended Term Loans or Extended Revolving Facility Commitments except (x) the borrowers shall be comprised solely of the Dutch Borrower (with the Co-Borrower a joint and several co-borrower as provided in this Agreement) and (y) the guarantors shall constitute the Guarantors hereunder.

(e) Each Extension shall be consummated pursuant to procedures set forth in the associated Pro Rata Extension Offer; provided, that the Borrowers shall cooperate with the Administrative Agent prior to making any Pro Rata Extension Offer to establish reasonable procedures with respect to mechanical provisions relating to such Extension, including, without limitation, timing, rounding and other adjustments.

SECTION 2.25 Loan Repurchases.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to below, the Dutch Borrower may from time to time, at its sole discretion, conduct modified Dutch auctions in order to purchase its Term Loans of one or more Classes (as determined by the Dutch Borrower) (each, a "Purchase Offer") at a discount to par, each such Purchase Offer to be managed exclusively by the Administrative Agent (or such other financial institution chosen by Holdings and reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent) (in such capacity, the "Auction Manager"), so long as the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) each Purchase Offer shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures, terms and conditions set forth in this Section 2.25 and the Auction Procedures;

(ii) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of the delivery of each notice of an auction and at the time of (and immediately after giving effect to) the purchase of any Term Loans in connection with any Purchase Offer;

(iii) the principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of each and all Classes of Term Loans that the Dutch Borrower offers to purchase in any such Purchase Offer shall be no less than U.S. $25,000,000 (or €25,000,000 in the case of Term Loans denominated in Euro) (unless another amount is agreed to by the Administrative Agent) (across all such Classes);

(iv) the aggregate principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans of the applicable Class or Classes so purchased by the Dutch Borrower shall automatically be cancelled and retired by the Dutch Borrower on the settlement date of the relevant purchase (and may not be resold), and in no event shall the Dutch Borrower be entitled to any vote hereunder in connection with such Term Loans;

(v) no more than one Purchase Offer with respect to any Class may be ongoing at any one time;

(vi) the Dutch Borrower represents and warrants that no Loan Party shall have any material non-public information with respect to the Loan Parties or the Subsidiaries, or with respect to the Loans or the securities of any such person, that (A) has not been previously disclosed in writing to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders (other than because such Lender does not wish to receive such material non-public information) prior to such time and (B) could reasonably be expected to have a material effect upon, or otherwise be material to, a Lender's decision to participate in the Purchase Offer;

(vii) at the time of each purchase of Term Loans through a Purchase Offer, the Dutch Borrower shall have delivered to the Auction Manager an officer's certificate of a Responsible Officer certifying as to compliance with the preceding clause (vi);

(viii) any Purchase Offer with respect to any Class shall be offered to all Term Lenders holding Term Loans of such Class on a pro rata basis;

(ix) no purchase of any Term Loans shall be made from the proceeds of any Revolving Facility Loan;

(x) immediately prior to and after giving effect to any purchase pursuant to this Section 2.25, the sum of the unused Revolving Facility Commitments plus unrestricted cash and cash equivalents held by Loan Parties shall not be less than $50,000,000; and

(xi) the Dutch Borrower is in Pro Forma Compliance (whether or not the Financial Covenant was required to be tested on the last date of the applicable fiscal quarter).

(b) The Dutch Borrower must terminate any Purchase Offer if it fails to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of purchase of Term Loans pursuant to such Purchase Offer. If the Dutch Borrower commences any Purchase Offer (and all relevant requirements set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the commencement of such Purchase Offer have in fact been satisfied), and if at such time of commencement the Dutch Borrower reasonably believes that all required conditions set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the consummation of such Purchase Offer shall be satisfied, then the Dutch Borrower shall have no liability to any Term Lender for any termination of such Purchase Offer as a result of its failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of consummation of such Purchase Offer, and any such failure shall not result in any Default or Event of Default hereunder. With respect to all purchases of Term Loans of any Class or Classes made by the Dutch Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.25, (x) the Dutch Borrower shall pay on the settlement date of each such purchase all accrued and unpaid interest (except to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant offering documents), if any, on the purchased Term Loans of the applicable Class or Classes up to the settlement date of such purchase and (y) such purchases (and the payments made by the Dutch Borrower and the cancellation of the purchased Loans, in each case in connection therewith) shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of Section 2.11 hereof.

(c) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to the Purchase Offers and the other transactions effected pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.25; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no Lender shall have an obligation to participate in any such Purchase Offer. For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that the provisions of Sections 2.16, 2.18 and 9.04 will not apply to the purchases of Term Loans pursuant to Purchase Offers made pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.25. The Auction Manager acting in its capacity as such hereunder shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article VIII and Section 9.05 to the same extent as if each reference therein to the "Agents" were a reference to the Auction Manager, and the Administrative Agent shall cooperate with the Auction Manager as reasonably requested by the Auction Manager in order to enable it to perform its responsibilities and duties in connection with each Purchase Offer.

(d) This Section 2.25 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.18 or 9.06 to the contrary.

SECTION 2.26 Defaulting Lenders.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as such Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

(a) such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the definition of Majority Lenders and Required Lenders;

(b) any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Article VII or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 9.06 shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, to the payment on a pro rata basis of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to any L/C Issuer hereunder; third, to Cash Collateralize any L/C Issuer's Fronting Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender in accordance with Section 2.05(g); fourth, as the Borrowers may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; fifth, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrowers, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to (x) satisfy such Defaulting Lender's potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement and (y) Cash Collateralize any L/C Issuer's future Fronting Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender with respect to future Letters of Credit issued under this Agreement, in accordance with Section 2.05(g); sixth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Lenders, the L/C Issuer as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by any Lender or, the L/C Issuer against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; seventh, so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrowers as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrowers against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and eighth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if (x) such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans or L/C Disbursements in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share, and (y) such Loans were made or the related Letters of Credit were issued at a time when the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 were satisfied or waived, such payment shall be applied solely to pay the Loans of, and L/C Disbursements owed to, all Non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of, or L/C Disbursements owed to, such Defaulting Lender until such time as all Loans and funded and unfunded participations in L/C Obligations are held by the Lenders pro rata in accordance with the Commitments under the applicable Facility without giving effect to Section 2.05(1). Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender or to post Cash Collateral pursuant to this Section 2.26(b) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(l) (i) any material provision of any Loan Document (other than the Intercreditor Agreement) shall for any reason be asserted in writing by any Loan Party not to be a legal, valid and binding obligation of any party thereto, (ii) any security interest purported to be created by any Security Document shall cease to be, or shall be asserted in writing by any Loan Party not to be, a valid and perfected security interest (perfected as or having the priority required by this Agreement or the relevant Security Document and subject to such limitations and restrictions as are set forth herein and therein) in the securities, assets or properties covered thereby, except to the extent that any such loss of security interest, perfection or priority affects assets with a fair market value under the Threshold Amount or is required by the Intercreditor Agreement, (iii) any Guarantee by Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers and any material Subsidiary Loan Party of any of the Obligations shall cease to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms thereof), or shall be asserted in writing by any Loan Party not to be in effect or not to be legal, valid and binding obligations (other than in accordance with the terms thereof), except in any case as required by the Intercreditor Agreement or (iv) the Intercreditor Agreement is not or ceases to be binding on or enforceable against any party thereto (or against any person on whose behalf any such party makes any covenants or agreements therein), or shall otherwise not be effective to create the rights and obligations purported to be created thereunder;

(m) any Subordinated Indebtedness in excess of the Threshold Amount shall cease (or any Loan Party or an Affiliate of any Loan Party shall so assert), for any reason, to be validly subordinated to the Obligations (other than as permitted under this Agreement);

then, and in every such event (other than an event with respect to the Borrowers described in paragraph (h) or (i) above), and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such event, the Administrative Agent may, and at the request of the Required Lenders, shall, by notice to the Dutch Borrower, take any or all of the following actions, at the same or different times: (i) terminate forthwith the Commitments, (ii) declare the Loans then outstanding to be forthwith due and payable in whole or in part, whereupon the principal of the Loans so declared to be due and payable, together with accrued interest thereon and any unpaid accrued Fees and all other liabilities of the Borrowers accrued hereunder and under any other Loan Document, shall become forthwith due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrowers, anything contained herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary notwithstanding and (iii) if the Loans have been declared due and payable pursuant to clause (ii) above, demand cash collateral pursuant to Section 2.05(g); and in any event with respect to the Borrowers described in paragraph (h) or (i) above, the Commitments shall automatically terminate, the principal of the Loans then outstanding, together with accrued interest thereon and any unpaid accrued Fees and all other liabilities of the Borrowers accrued hereunder and under any other Loan Document, shall automatically become due and payable and the Administrative Agent shall be deemed to have made a demand for Cash Collateral to the full extent permitted under Section 2.05(g), without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrowers, anything contained herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 7.02 Right to Cure.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 7.01, in the event that Dutch Borrower fails (or, but for the operation of this Section 7.02, would fail) to comply with the Financial Performance Covenant as of the last day of any fiscal quarter in which the Financial Performance Covenant is required to be tested pursuant to Section 6.10, at any time after such last day until the day that is ten (10) Business Days after the date the certificate calculating the Financial Performance Covenant for such fiscal quarter is required to be delivered pursuant to Section 5.04(c) or, if earlier, on the date on which such certificate is delivered, Parent, any Parent Entity and/or Holdings shall have the right to issue Permitted Cure Securities for cash or otherwise receive cash contributions to the capital of Dutch Borrower, (collectively, the "Cure Right"), which cash shall be contributed as common equity to Dutch Borrower (such contributed amount, the "Cure Amount"), such Financial Performance Covenant shall be recalculated by increasing EBITDA with respect to such fiscal quarter and any four-quarter period that contains such fiscal quarter, solely for the purpose of measuring the Financial Performance Covenant and not for any other purpose under this Agreement (including any "baskets", the Cumulative Credit, Excluded Contribution or the Pricing Grid), by an amount equal to the Cure Amount; provided that, (i) in each four-fiscal-quarter period there shall be no more than two fiscal quarters in which the Cure Right is exercised, (ii) no more than five Cure Rights will be exercised in the aggregate during the term of this Agreement, (iii) for purposes of this Section 7.02, the Cure Amount shall be no greater than the amount required for purposes of complying with the Financial Performance Covenant, (iv) no Lender shall be required to make any Borrowing or L/C Credit Extension during the ten (10) Business Day period referred to above unless Dutch Borrower has received the Cure Amount and (v) for the avoidance of doubt, in recalculating the Financial Performance Covenant by increasing EBITDA as set forth above, there shall be no pro forma effect given to any reduction of Indebtedness with the Cure Amount in such recalculation of the Financial Performance Covenant. If, after giving effect to the adjustments in this paragraph, Dutch Borrower shall then be in compliance with the requirements of the Financial Performance Covenant, Dutch Borrower shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements of the Financial Performance Covenant as of the relevant date of determination with the same effect as though there had been no failure to comply therewith at such date, and the applicable breach or default of the Financial Performance Covenant that had occurred shall be deemed cured for the purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03 Application of Funds.

After the exercise of remedies provided for in the last paragraph of Section 7.01 (or after an actual or deemed entry of an order for relief with respect to any Borrower under any Debtor Relief Law), any amounts received on account of the Obligations shall, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.05(g) and 2.26 be applied by the Administrative Agent in the following order:

(a) first, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (including fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel payable under Section 9.05 and amounts payable under Sections 2.16, 2.17, 2.18 and 2.21 and amounts owing in respect of (x) the preservation of Collateral or the Collateral Agent's security interest in the Collateral or (y) with respect to enforcing the rights of the Secured Parties under the Loan Documents) payable to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in their respective capacity as such;

(b) second, to payment in full of Unfunded Advances/Participations (the amounts so applied to be distributed between or among, as applicable, the Administrative Agent and the L/C Issuers pro rata in accordance with the amounts of Unfunded Advances/Participations owed to them on the date of any such distribution);

(c) third, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting fees, indemnities, expenses and other amounts (other than principal, interest and Letter of Credit fees) payable to the Lenders and the L/C Issuers (including fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel payable under Section 9.05) arising under the Loan Documents and amounts payable under Sections 2.16, 2.17, 2.18 and 2.21, ratably among them in proportion to the respective amounts described in this clause (c) held by them;

(d) fourth, to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting accrued and unpaid Letter of Credit fees and interest on the Loans and L/C Borrowings, ratably among the Lenders and the L/C Issuers in proportion to the respective amounts described in this clause (d) held by them;

(e) fifth, (i) to payment of that portion of the Obligations constituting unpaid principal of the Loans, the L/C Borrowings and obligations of the Loan Parties then owing under Secured Hedge Agreements and the Secured Cash Management Agreements and (ii) to Cash Collateralize that portion of L/C Obligations comprising the aggregate undrawn amount of Letters of Credit to the extent not otherwise Cash Collateralized by the Borrowers pursuant to Sections 2.05, ratably among the Lenders, the L/C Issuers, the Hedge Banks party to such Secured Hedge Agreements and the Cash Management Banks party to such Secured Cash Management Agreements in proportion to the respective amounts described in this clause (e) held by them; provided, that (x) any such amounts applied pursuant to the foregoing subclause (ii) shall be paid to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the applicable L/C Issuers to Cash Collateralize such L/C Obligations, (y) subject to Sections 2.05(c) and 2.05(g), amounts used to Cash Collateralize the aggregate undrawn amount of Letters of Credit pursuant to this clause (e) shall be applied to satisfy drawings under such Letters of Credit as they occur and (z) upon the expiration of any Letter of Credit, the pro rata share of Cash Collateral attributable to such expired Letter of Credit shall be applied by the Administrative Agent in accordance with the priority of payments set forth in this Section 7.03;

(f) sixth, to the payment of all other Obligations of the Loan Parties owing under or in respect of the Loan Documents that are then due and payable to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties, ratably based upon the respective aggregate amounts of all such Obligations then owing to the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties; and

(g) last, after all of the Obligations have been paid in full (other than contingent indemnification obligations not yet due and owing), to the Borrowers or as otherwise pursuant to Requirements of Law.

If any amount remains on deposit as Cash Collateral after all Letters of Credit have either been fully drawn or expired, such remaining amount shall be applied to the other Obligations, if any, in accordance with the priority of payments set forth above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Obligations arising under Secured Cash Management Agreements and Secured Hedge Agreements shall be excluded from the application of payments described above if the Administrative Agent has not received written notice thereof, together with such supporting documentation as the Administrative Agent may reasonably request, from the applicable Cash Management Bank or Hedge Bank, as the case may be. Each Cash Management Bank or Hedge Bank not a party to this Agreement that has given the notice contemplated by the preceding sentence shall, by such notice, be deemed to have acknowledged and accepted the appointment of the Administrative Agent pursuant to the terms of Article VII for itself and its Affiliates as if a "Lender" party hereto.

It is understood and agreed by each Loan Party and each Secured Party that the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall have no liability for any determinations made by it in this Section 7.03, in each case except to the extent resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision). Each Loan Party and each Secured Party also agrees that the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may (but shall not be required to), at any time and in its sole discretion, and with no liability resulting therefrom, petition a court of competent jurisdiction regarding any application of Collateral in accordance with the requirements hereof, and the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to wait for, and may conclusively rely on, any such determination.

ARTICLE VIII

THE AGENTS

SECTION 8.01 Appointment.

(a) Each of the Lenders and each L/C Issuer (and the other Secured Parties by the acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) hereby irrevocably designates and appoints the Administrative Agent as its agent under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent, in such capacity, to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. In addition, to the extent required under the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United States, each of the Lenders and each L/C Issuer (and the other Secured Parties by their acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) hereby grants to the Collateral Agent any powers of attorney required to execute any Security Document governed by the laws of such jurisdiction on such Lender's or L/C Issuer's (or such other Secured Party's) behalf. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities, except those expressly set forth herein, or any fiduciary relationship with any Lender or L/C Issuer (or other Secured Party), and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Loan Document or otherwise exist against the Administrative Agent.

(b) Each of the Secured Parties irrevocably designates and appoints the Collateral Agent as its agent with respect to the Collateral, and each of the Secured Parties irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent, in such capacity, to take such action on its behalf under the provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, to exercise such powers and perform such duties as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, together with such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto and to execute and deliver any documents necessary or appropriate to create the rights of pledge pursuant to the Security Documents. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary elsewhere in this Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth herein, or any fiduciary relationship with any of the Secured Parties, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or any other Loan Document or otherwise exist against the Collateral Agent.

(c) Terms in connection with Security Documents governed by the laws of the Province of Québec:

(i) Without limiting the powers of the Collateral Agent, each of the Secured Parties hereby irrevocably constitutes the Collateral Agent as the holder of an irrevocable power of attorney (fondé de pouvoir within the meaning of Article 2692 of the Civil Code of Québec) in order to hold the hypothecs granted on the Collateral pursuant to any deeds of hypothec governed by the laws of the Province of Québec in order to secure obligations of any Loan Party under any bond, debenture or similar title of indebtedness, issued by any Loan Party, and hereby agrees that the Collateral Agent may act as the holder and mandatary (i.e. agent) with respect to any bond, debenture or similar title of indebtedness that may be issued by any Loan Party and pledged in favour of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties. The execution by the Collateral Agent, acting as fondé de pouvoir, prior to this Agreement of any deeds of hypothec is hereby ratified and confirmed.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 32 of An Act respecting the special powers of legal persons (Québec), the Administrative Agent may acquire and be the holder of any bond or debenture issued by any Loan Party (i.e. notwithstanding that it also acts as the fondé de pouvoir under any deed of hypothec made by any Loan Party).

(iii) The constitution of the Collateral Agent as fondé de pouvoir, and of the Administrative Agent as holder and mandatary with respect to any bond or debenture that may be issued and pledged from time to time to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, shall be deemed to have been ratified and confirmed by each Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents, or by the compliance with other formalities, as the case may be, pursuant to which it becomes a successor Collateral Agent under this Agreement.

(iv) The Collateral Agent acting as fondé de pouvoir shall have the same rights, powers, immunities, indemnities and exclusions from liability as are prescribed in favour of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent in this Agreement, which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Collateral Agent acting in its capacity as fondé de pouvoir.

(v) This Section 8.01(c) shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Quebec.

(d) The provisions of this Article are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Collateral Agent acting in its capacity as fondé de pouvoir, the Lenders and each L/C Issuer, and none of the Borrowers nor any other Loan Party shall have rights as a third party beneficiary of any of such provisions.

SECTION 8.02 Parallel Debt.

(a) For the purpose of ensuring the validity and enforceability of any right of pledge governed by Netherlands law, each Loan Party hereby irrevocably and unconditionally undertakes to pay to the Collateral Agent an amount equal to the aggregate amount due by it in respect of the Corresponding Obligations as they may exist from time to time. The payment undertaking of each Loan Party under this Section 8.02 (a) is to be referred to as its "Parallel Debt."

(b) The Parallel Debt will be payable in the currency or currencies of the Corresponding Obligations and will become due and payable (opeisbaar) as and when and to the extent one or more of the Corresponding Obligations become due and payable. An Event of Default in respect of the Corresponding Obligations shall constitute a default (verzuim) within the meaning of section 3:248 NCC with respect to the Parallel Debt without any notice being required.

(c) Each Party hereto hereby acknowledges that:

(i) the Parallel Debt constitutes an undertaking, obligation and liability to the Collateral Agent which is separate and independent from, and without prejudice to, the Corresponding Obligations; and

(ii) the Parallel Debt represents the Collateral Agent's own separate and independent claim to receive payment of the Parallel Debt from each Loan Party, it being understood, in each case, that pursuant to this Section 8.02 (c) the amount which may become payable by a Loan Party as the Parallel Debt shall never exceed the total of the amounts which are payable under or in connection with the Corresponding Obligations.

(d) The Collateral Agent, not only in its own name and on behalf of itself but also as agent on behalf of each Secured Party, hereby confirms and accepts that to the extent the Collateral Agent irrevocably receives any amount in payment of the Parallel Debt, the Collateral Agent shall distribute that amount among the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties that are creditors of the Corresponding Obligations in accordance with the relevant provision of the Loan Documents. The Collateral Agent hereby agrees and confirms that upon irrevocable receipt by the Collateral Agent of any amount in payment of the Parallel Debt (a "Received Amount"), the Corresponding Obligations towards the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties shall be reduced, if necessary pro rata in respect of Collateral Agent and each Secured Party individually, by amounts totaling an amount (a "Deductible Amount") equal to the Received Amount in the manner as if the Deductible Amount were received by the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties as a payment of the Corresponding Obligations on the date of receipt by the Collateral Agent of the Received Amount.

(e) For the purpose of this Section 8.02, other than the second sentence of paragraph(d) of this Section 8.02, the Collateral Agent acts in its own name and on behalf of itself and not as agent, representative or trustee of any other Secured Party.

(f) Nothing in this Section 8.02 shall in any way increase the total amount payable by any Loan Party to the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and any other Secured Party under this Agreement and other Transaction Documents (excluding any obligation under this Section 8.02).

SECTION 8.03 Delegation of Duties.

The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may each execute any of its duties under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents by or through agents, subagents (including a subagent which is a non-U.S. Affiliate) or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such duties. Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it with reasonable care. The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and any such subagent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such subagent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and any such subagent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent.

SECTION 8.04 Exculpatory Provisions.

Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent, nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates

(i) shall be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(ii) shall have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Loan Documents that the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents); provided that the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its judgment or the judgment of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable Requirements of Law; and

(iii) shall, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to Parent or any Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the person serving as Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (x) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.08) or (y) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until notice describing such Default or Event of Default is given to the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent by Parent, the Borrowers, a Lender or an L/C Issuer.

Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, (v) the creation, perfection or priority of Liens on the Collateral or the existence, value or sufficiency of the Collateral, (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article IV or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such Agent, or (vii) the properties, books or records of any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the use of the term "agent" in this Agreement with reference to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law. Instead, such term us used merely as a matter of market custom and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties.

Each party to this Agreement acknowledges and agrees that the Administrative Agent may use an outside service provider for the tracking of all UCC financing statements required to be filed pursuant to the Loan Documents and notification to the Administrative Agent, of, among other things, the upcoming lapse or expiration thereof, and that any such service provider will be deemed to be acting at the request and on behalf of Borrowers and the other Loan Parties. Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by any such service provider.

SECTION 8.05 Reliance by Agents.

The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any instrument, writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, telecopy, telex or teletype message, facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif"), statement, order or other document or instruction reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper person or persons and upon advice and statements of legal counsel (including counsel to the Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Administrative Agent may deem and treat the Lender specified in the Register with respect to any amount owing hereunder as the owner thereof for all purposes unless a written notice of assignment, negotiation or transfer thereof shall have been filed with the Administrative Agent. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, or the issuance of a Letter of Credit, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender or an L/C Issuer, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender or L/C Issuer unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender or L/C Issuer prior to the making of such Loan or the issuance of such Letter of Credit. The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for Parent and/or the Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall be entitled to rely upon the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with such advice in good faith.

The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action under this Agreement or any other Loan Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders as it deems appropriate or it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders against any and all liability and expense that may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents in accordance with a request of the Required Lenders, and such request and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding upon all the Lenders and all future holders of the Loans.

SECTION 8.06 Notice of Default.

Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default hereunder unless the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent has received notice from a Lender, Parent and/or the Borrowers referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a "notice of default." In the event that the Administrative Agent receives such a notice, it shall give notice thereof to the Lenders and the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by the Required Lenders, provided that unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received such directions, the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interests of the Lenders except to the extent that this Agreement requires that such action be taken only with the approval of the Required Lenders or each of the Lenders, as applicable.

SECTION 8.07 Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and Other Lenders.

Each Lender and each L/C Issuer (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) expressly acknowledge that neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates has made any representations or warranties to it and that no act by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereinafter taken, including any review of the affairs of Parent, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to any Lender, any L/C Issuer or any other Secured Party. Each Lender and each L/C Issuer (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) represent to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, any other Lender or any other Secured Party, and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own appraisal of and investigation into the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Parent, the Borrowers and other Loan Parties and made its own decision to make its Loans hereunder and enter into this Agreement or otherwise with respect to Parent, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties. Each Lender and each L/C Issuer (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) also represent that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and to make such investigation as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Parent, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties. Except for notices, reports and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders by the Administrative Agent hereunder, neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender or any other Secured Party with any credit or other information concerning the business, assets, operations, properties, financial condition, prospects or creditworthiness of Parent, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party that may come into the possession of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Related Parties.

SECTION 8.08 Indemnification.

The Lenders agree to indemnify the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, each in its capacity as such (to the extent required to be but not reimbursed by the Borrowers and without limiting the obligation of the Borrowers to do so), ratably according to their respective portions of the total Term Loans and Revolving Facility Commitments (or, if the Revolving Facility Commitments shall have terminated, in accordance the Revolving Facility Commitments in effect immediately prior to such termination) held on the date on which indemnification is sought, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind whatsoever that may at any time (including at any time following the payment of the Loans) be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (or their respective Related Parties) in any way relating to or arising out of the Commitments, this Agreement, any of the other Loan Documents, or any documents (including any intercreditor agreement) contemplated by or referred to herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or any action taken or omitted by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under or in connection with any of the foregoing, provided that no Lender shall be liable for the payment of any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent's or the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The agreements in this Section 8.08 shall survive the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

SECTION 8.09 Agents in their Individual Capacity.

The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and their Affiliates may make loans to, accept deposits from and generally engage in any kind of business with Parent, the Borrowers and any other Loan Party as though such persons were not the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents. With respect to the Loans made by it, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall each have the same rights and powers under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as any Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, and the terms "Lender" and "Lenders" and any other similar terms shall include the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in their individual capacities.

SECTION 8.10 Successor Agents.

Each of the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders, the L/C Issuer and the Dutch Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, subject to the reasonable consent of the Dutch Borrower so long as no Event of Default under Section 7.01(h) or (i) is continuing, to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Agent may on behalf of the Lenders and the L/C Issuer, appoint a successor Agent meeting the qualifications and subject to the consent requirements set forth above; provided that if the retiring

Agent shall notify the Dutch Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying person has accepted such appointment, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (1) the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except in the case of the Collateral Agent holding collateral security on behalf of any Secured Parties, the retiring Collateral Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security as nominee until such time as a successor Collateral Agent is appointed) and (2) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through such Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender and the L/C Issuer directly, until such time as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Agent as provided for above in this Section. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as the case may be, hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section). The fees payable by the Borrowers (following the effectiveness of such appointment) to such Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrowers and such successor. After the retiring Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article VIII and Section 9.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Agent was acting as an Agent. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that any resignation by the Collateral Agent is not effective with respect to its rights and obligations under the Parallel Debt until such rights and obligations have been assumed by the successor Collateral Agent.

If the Person serving as Administrative Agent is a Defaulting Lender, the Required Lenders may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, by notice in writing to the Dutch Borrower and such Person remove such Person as Administrative Agent and, in consultation with the Dutch Borrower, appoint a successor. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Removal Effective Date"), then such removal shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice on the Removal Effective Date.

Any resignation by Deutsche Bank as Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section shall, unless Deutsche Bank gives notice to the Dutch Borrower otherwise, also constitute its resignation as L/C Issuer and, and such resignations as and L/C Issuer shall become effective simultaneously with the discharge of the Administrative Agent from its duties and obligations as set forth in the immediately preceding paragraph (except as to already outstanding Letters of Credit and L/C Obligations, as to which the L/C Issuer shall continue in such capacities until the L/C Obligations relating thereto shall be reduced to zero, or until the successor Administrative Agent shall succeed to the roles of L/C Issuer in accordance with the next sentence and perform the actions required by the next sentence). Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder, unless Deutsche Bank and such successor gives notice to the Dutch Borrower otherwise, (i) such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring L/C Issuer and (ii) the successor L/C Issuer shall issue letters of credit in substitution for the Letters of Credit, if any, outstanding at the time of such succession or make other arrangements satisfactory to the retiring L/C Issuer to effectively assume the obligations of the retiring L/C Issuer with respect to such Letters of Credit. At the time any such resignation of the L/C Issuer shall become effective, the Borrowers shall pay all unpaid fees accrued for the account of the retiring L/C Issuer pursuant to Section 2.13(b).

SECTION 8.11 Payments Set Aside.

To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Borrowers is made to the Administrative Agent, an L/C Issuer or any Lender, or the Administrative Agent, such L/C Issuer or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by the Administrative Agent, such L/C Issuer or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party, in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or otherwise, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and (b) each Lender and each L/C Issuer severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share (without duplication) of any amount so recovered from or repaid by the Administrative Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Overnight Rate from time to time in effect. The obligations of the Lenders and each L/C Issuer under clause (b) of the preceding sentence shall survive the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.12 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim.

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan or L/C Obligation shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrowers) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise

(i) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans, L/C Obligations and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders, the L/C Issuer and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders, the L/C Issuer and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders, the L/C Issuer and the Administrative Agent under Article II or Section 9.05) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(ii) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender and the L/C Issuer to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, if the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders and the L/C Issuer, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Article II and Section 9.05.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or the L/C Issuer any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or the L/C Issuer to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or the L/C Issuer or in any such proceeding.

SECTION 8.13 Collateral and Guarantee Matters.

The Lenders and each L/C Issuer (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits of the Loan Documents) irrevocably authorize the Collateral Agent, at its option and in its discretion, to release or subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Loan Document if permitted, approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 9.08, or pursuant to Section 9.18 or if required by the Intercreditor Agreement. Upon request by the Collateral Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing the Collateral Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property in accordance with this Section. The Lenders and each L/C Issuer (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits of the Loan Documents) irrevocably agree that (x) the Collateral Agent may, without any further consent of any Lender or any other Secured Party, enter into or amend the Intercreditor Agreement or any other intercreditor agreement with the collateral agent or other representatives of the holders of Indebtedness that is permitted to be secured by a Junior Lien on the Collateral that is permitted under this Agreement; provided that any amendment of the Intercreditor Agreement or such other intercreditor agreement that is materially adverse to the interests of the Secured Parties shall require the consent of the Required Lenders, (y) the Collateral Agent may rely exclusively on a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Dutch Borrower as to whether any such other Liens are permitted and (z) any such intercreditor agreement or amendment thereto referred to in clause (x) above, entered into by the Collateral Agent, shall be binding on the Secured Parties.

SECTION 8.14 Arrangers.

None of the Arrangers shall have any duties or responsibilities hereunder in its capacity as such, but shall be entitled to the indemnities and exculpatory provisions of the Administrative Agent set forth in Section 8.04, 8.07, 8.08 and 8.09 as if such provisions referred to the Arrangers mutatis mutandis. The Arrangers are express third party beneficiaries of the Loan Documents to the extent applicable.

SECTION 8.15 Intercreditor Agreements and Collateral Matters.

The Lenders and each L/C Issuer (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits of the Loan Documents) hereby (a) authorize and instruct the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to enter into the Intercreditor Agreement and any other intercreditor agreement contemplated herein, (b) agree not to assert any claim (including as a result of any conflict of interest) against the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent arising from the role of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under the Intercreditor Agreement or such other intercreditor agreement so long as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent is either acting in accordance with the express terms of such documents or otherwise has not engaged in gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction and (c) acknowledge that each of the Intercreditor Agreement and such other intercreditor agreement is binding upon them and agree that they will take no actions contrary to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement or such other intercreditor agreement.

SECTION 8.16 Withholding Taxes.

To the extent required by any applicable law (as determined in good faith by the Administrative Agent), the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender or under any Loan Document an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. Without limiting or expanding the provisions of Section 2.18, each Lender shall, and does hereby, indemnify the Administrative Agent against, and shall make payable in respect thereof within 30 days after demand therefor, any and all Taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Administrative Agent) incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority as a result of the failure of the Administrative Agent to properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender or for any reason (including because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective). A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender or by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender or under this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any amount due the Administrative Agent under this Section 8.16. The agreements in this Section 8.16 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender or, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations. For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of this Section 8.16, the term "Lender" shall include any L/C Issuer.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 9.01 Notices; Communications.

(a) Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in Section 9.01(b) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif") as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(i) if to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent or the L/C Issuer, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such person on Schedule 9.01; and

(ii) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire.

(b) Each Loan Party hereby agrees that it will provide to the Administrative Agent all information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders pursuant to this Agreement and any other Loan Document, including all notices, requests, financial statements, financial and other reports, certificates and other information materials (the "Communications"), by transmitting them in an electronic medium in a format reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent at such e-mail address(es) provided to the Dutch Borrower from time to time or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall require. In addition, each Loan Party agrees to continue to provide the Communications to the Administrative Agent in the manner specified in this Agreement or any other Loan Document or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably require. Nothing in this Section 9.01 shall prejudice the right of the Agents, the L/C Issuer, any Lender or any Loan Party to give any notice or other communication pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document in any other manner specified in this Agreement or any other Loan Document or as any such Agent or the L/C Issuer, as the case may be, shall reasonably require.

(c) Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement); provided that if such notice or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient, and

(ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(d) To the extent consented to by the Administrative Agent in writing from time to time, the Administrative Agent agrees that receipt of the Communications (other than any such Communication that (i) relates to a request for a new, or a conversion of an existing, Borrowing or other extension of credit (including any election of an interest rate or interest period relating thereto), (ii) relates to the payment of any principal or other amount due under this Agreement prior to the scheduled date therefor, (iii) provides notice of any Default or Event of Default under this Agreement or (iv) is required to be delivered to satisfy any condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement and/or any borrowing or other extension of credit hereunder) by the Administrative Agent at its e-mail address(es) set forth above shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to the Administrative Agent for purposes of the Loan Documents.

(e) Notices sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received. Notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient). Notices or communications (i) sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received when delivered and (ii) posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefore.

(f) Any party hereto may change its address or facsimile number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent from time to time to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, facsimile number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender.

(g) Documents required to be delivered pursuant to Section 5.04 may be delivered electronically (including as set forth in Section 9.17) and if so delivered, shall be deemed to have been delivered on the date (i) on which Holdings posts such documents, or provides a link thereto on Holdings' or the Borrowers' website on the Internet at the website address listed on Schedule 9.01, or (ii) on which such documents are posted on Holdings' or the Borrowers' behalf on an Internet or intranet website, if any, to which each Lender and the Administrative Agent have access (whether a commercial, third-party website or whether sponsored by the Administrative Agent); provided that (A) Holdings shall deliver paper copies of such documents to the Administrative Agent or any Lender that requests Parent to deliver such paper copies until a written request to cease delivering paper copies is given by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, and (B) the Dutch Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent (by facsimile or electronic mail) of the posting of any such documents and provide to the Administrative Agent by electronic mail electronic versions (i.e., soft copies) of such documents. Except for certificates required by Section 5.04(c), the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to request the delivery or to maintain copies of the documents referred to above, and in any event shall have no responsibility to monitor compliance by Holdings or the Borrowers with any such request for delivery, and each Lender shall be solely responsible for requesting delivery to it or maintaining its copies of such documents.

SECTION 9.02 Survival of Agreement.

All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties herein, in the other Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Lenders and each L/C Issuer and shall survive the making by the Lenders of the Loans, the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents and the issuance of the Letters of Credit, regardless of any investigation made by such persons or on their behalf, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of or any accrued interest on any Loan or L/C Obligation or any Fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement or any other Loan Document is outstanding and unpaid or any Letter of Credit is outstanding and so long as the Commitments have not been terminated. Without prejudice to the survival of any other agreements contained herein, indemnification and reimbursement obligations contained herein (including pursuant to Sections 2.16, 2.18, 2.19, 8.07 and 9.05) shall survive the payment in full of the principal and interest hereunder, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the expiration of the Letters of Credit and the termination of the Commitments or this Agreement.

SECTION 9.03 Binding Effect.

This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by Holdings, Parent, the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received copies hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Holdings, Parent, the Borrowers, each L/C Issuer, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each Lender and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

SECTION 9.04 Successors and Assigns.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby (including any Affiliate of the L/C Issuer that issues any Letter of Credit), except that (i) the Borrowers may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrowers without such consent shall be null and void and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 9.04. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby (including any Affiliate of the L/C Issuer that issues any Letter of Credit), Participants (to the extent provided in clause (c) of this Section 9.04), and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Agents, the L/C Issuer and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in clause (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more assignees (each, an "Assignee") all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) of:

(A) the Borrowers (provided that the Dutch Borrower shall be deemed to have consented to any such assignment unless it shall object thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within ten (10) Business Days after having received notice thereof); provided that no consent of the Borrowers shall be required for an assignment of Term Loans to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender, an Approved Fund (as defined below) or, if an Event of Default under Section 7.01(b), (c), (h) or (i) has occurred and is continuing, any other person; provided, further, that no consent of the Borrowers shall be required during the primary syndication of the Loans and Commitments to persons identified by the Administrative Agent to the Dutch Borrower on or prior to the Closing Date; and provided, further, that no consent of the Borrowers shall be required for an assignment of Revolving Facility Loans to a Revolving Facility Lender or an Affiliate of a Revolving Facility Lender, or, if an Event of Default under Section 7.01(b), (c), (h) or (i) has occurred and is continuing, any other person;

(B) the Administrative Agent; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment of all or any portion of a Term Loan to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund; and

(C) the L/C Issuer; provided that no consent of the L/C Issuer shall be required for an assignment of all or any portion of a Term Loan.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitments or Loans under any Facility, the amount of the Commitments or Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent (the "Trade Date")) shall not be less than $1.0 million if such Loans are denominated in Dollars or €1.0 million if such Loans are denominated in Euro (and shall be in an amount of an integral multiple thereof), unless each of the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent otherwise consent; provided that (1) no such consent of the Borrowers shall be required if an Event of Default under Section 7.01(b), (c), (h) or (i) has occurred and is continuing and (2) such amounts shall be aggregated in respect of each Lender and its Affiliates or Approved Funds (with simultaneous assignments to or by two or more Related Funds shall be treated as one assignment), if any;

(B) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if required by the Administrative Agent, manually), and shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced in the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent);

(C) the Assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire and any Tax forms required to be delivered pursuant to Section 2.18;

(D) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitment assigned;

(E) no assignment to Parent, Holdings or any of the Subsidiaries or to a natural person shall be permitted; and

(F) notwithstanding the foregoing, assignment of Loans with respect to a Dutch Borrower pursuant to this Section 9.04 shall only be permitted if the person to whom such Loans or L/C Obligations are transferred is a Non-Public Lender.

For the purposes of this Section 9.04, "Approved Fund" means any person (other than a natural person) that is engaged in making, purchasing, holding or investing in bank loans and similar extensions of credit in the ordinary course of its activities and that is administered or managed by (a) a Lender, (b) an Affiliate of a Lender or (c) an entity or an Affiliate of an entity that administers or manages a Lender. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, no Lender shall be permitted to assign or transfer any portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to (A) any Ineligible Institution, (B) any Defaulting Lender or any of its Subsidiaries, or any person who, upon becoming a Lender hereunder, would constitute any of the foregoing persons described in this clause (B), or (C) a natural person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Loan Party and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Administrative Agent shall not have any responsibility or obligation to determine whether any Lender or potential Lender is an Ineligible Institution and the Administrative Agent shall have no liability with respect to any assignment made to an Ineligible Institution.

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to paragraph (b)(v) below, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption the Assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.16, 2.17, 2.18 and 9.05 (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections)). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 9.04 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) of this Section 9.04.

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, shall maintain at one of its offices a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amount (and related interest amounts) of the Loans and L/C Obligations owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive (absent manifest error), and the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the L/C Issuer and the Lenders shall treat each person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers, the L/C Issuer and any Lender (solely with respect to its own entry and not the entry of any other Lender), at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Assumption executed by an assigning Lender and an Assignee, the Assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the Assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), all applicable Tax forms, the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) of this Section and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b) of this Section, the Administrative Agent promptly shall accept such Assignment and Assumption and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment, whether or not evidenced by a promissory note, shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (b)(v).

(c) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than Parent, Holdings, any of the Subsidiaries or any Ineligible Institution, to the extent that the list of Ineligible Institutions has been made available to all Lenders) (a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (C) the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the L/C Issuer and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents; provided that (x) such agreement may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver that (1) requires the consent of each Lender directly affected thereby pursuant to clause (i), (ii), (iii) or (vi) of the first proviso to Section 9.08(b) and (2) directly affects such Participant (but, for the avoidance of doubt, not any waiver of any Default or Event of Default) and (y) no other agreement with respect to amendment, modification or waiver may exist between such Lender and such Participant. Subject to paragraph (c)(ii) of this Section 9.04, the Borrowers agree that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.16, 2.17 and 2.18 (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections and Section 2.20 and it being understood that the documentation required under Section 2.18(e) shall be delivered solely to the participating Lender) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 9.04. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 9.06 as though it were a Lender, provided such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.19(c) as though it were a Lender. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers', maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal and interest amounts with respect to such Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Loan Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary in connection with a Tax audit or proceeding to establish that such commitment, loan, letter of credit or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1 (c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and the Borrowers and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such Loan or other obligation hereunder as the owner thereof for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Loan Party and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Administrative Agent shall not have any responsibility or obligation to determine whether any Participant or potential Participant is an Ineligible Institution and the Administrative Agent shall have no liability with respect to any participation made to an Ineligible Institution.

(i) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.16, 2.17 or 2.18 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, except to the extent the entitlement to a greater payment results from a Change in Law occurring after such Participant becomes a Participant.

(ii) Subject to paragraph (c)(i) and (ii) of this Section 9.04, voting rights of Participants shall be limited to matters in respect of (A) increases to all or a portion of their respective Commitments, (B) reductions of principal, interest or fees payable to such Participants, (C) extensions of Term Loan Installment Dates and the payment of interest on any Loan or any L/C Obligation or any Fees , (D) extensions of final maturity or amortizations of the Loans or Commitments in which such Participants participate, (E) releases of all or substantially all of the Collateral or of all or substantially all of the value of the guarantees by Parent or the Subsidiary Loan Parties except as required by the Intercreditor Agreement and (F) modification of voting percentages (or any of the applicable definitions related thereto).

(d) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank and in the case of any Lender that is an Approved Fund, any pledge or assignment to any holders of obligations owed, or securities issued, by such Lender, including to any trustee for, or any other representative of, such holders, and this Section 9.04 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or Assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(e) The Borrowers, at their expense and upon receipt of written notice from the relevant Lender, agree to issue Notes to any Lender requiring Notes to facilitate transactions of the type described in paragraph (d) above.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Conduit Lender may assign any or all of the Loans it may have funded hereunder to its designating Lender without the consent of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent. Each of the Borrowers, each Lender and the Administrative Agent hereby confirms that it will not institute against a Conduit Lender or join any other person in instituting against a Conduit Lender any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceeding under any state bankruptcy or similar law, for one year and one day after the payment in full of the latest maturing commercial paper note issued by such Conduit Lender; provided, however, that each Lender designating any Conduit Lender hereby agrees to indemnify, save and hold harmless each other party hereto and each Loan Party for any loss, cost, damage or expense arising out of its inability to institute such a proceeding against such Conduit Lender during such period of forbearance.

(g) If the Borrowers wish to replace the Loans or Commitments in full under any Facility with ones having different terms, it shall have the option, with the consent of the Administrative Agent and subject to at least three (3) Business Days' advance notice to the Lenders under such Facility, instead of prepaying the Loans or reducing or terminating the Commitments to be replaced, to (i) require the Lenders under such Facility to assign such Loans or Commitments to the Administrative Agent or its designees and (ii) amend the terms thereof in accordance with Section 9.08 (with such replacement, if applicable, being deemed to have been made pursuant to Section 9.08(d)). Pursuant to any such assignment, all Loans and Commitments to be replaced shall be purchased at par (plus any applicable premium) by the lenders providing any such replacement facility (allocated among the Lenders under such Facility in the same manner as would be required if such Loans were being optionally prepaid or such Commitments were being optionally reduced or terminated by the Borrowers), accompanied by payment of any accrued interest and fees thereon and any amounts owing pursuant to Section 9.05(a). By receiving such purchase price, the Lenders under such Facility shall automatically be deemed to have assigned the Loans or Commitments under such Facility pursuant to the terms of the form of Assignment and Assumption attached hereto as Exhibit A, and accordingly no other action by such Lenders shall be required in connection therewith. The provisions of this paragraph (g) are intended to facilitate the maintenance of the perfection and priority of existing security interests in the Collateral during any such replacement.

(h) If any assignment or participation is made to any Ineligible Institution without the Borrowers' prior written consent in violation of clause (i) above, or if any Person becomes an Ineligible Institution after the applicable Trade Date, the Borrowers may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice to the applicable Ineligible Institution and the Administrative Agent, (A) terminate any Revolving Facility Commitment of such Ineligible Institution and repay all obligations of the Borrowers owing to such Ineligible Institution in connection with such Revolving Facility Commitment, (B) in the case of outstanding Term Loans held by Ineligible Institutions, purchase or prepay such Term Loan by paying the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Ineligible Institution paid to acquire such Term Loans, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder and/or (C) require such Ineligible Institution to assign, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in this Section 9.04), all of its interest, rights and obligations under this Agreement to one or more Assignees at the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Ineligible Institution paid to acquire such interests, rights and obligations, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Ineligible Institutions (A) will not (x) have the right to receive information, reports or other materials provided to Lenders by the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent or any other Lender, (y) be permitted to attend or participate in meetings attended by the Lenders and the Administrative Agent, or (z) be permitted to access any electronic site established for the Lenders or confidential communications from counsel to or financial advisors of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders and (B) (x) for purposes of any consent to any amendment, waiver or modification of, or any action under, and for the purpose of any direction to the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) under this Agreement or any other Loan Document, each Ineligible Institution will be deemed to have consented in the same proportion as the Lenders that are not Ineligible Institutions consented to such matter and (y) for purposes of voting on any Debtor Relief Plan, each Ineligible Institution party hereto hereby agrees (1) not to vote on such Debtor Relief Plan, (2) if such Ineligible Institution does vote on such Debtor Relief Plan notwithstanding the restriction in the foregoing clause (1), such vote will be deemed not to be in good faith and shall be "designated" pursuant to Section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws), and such vote shall not be counted in determining whether the applicable class has accepted or rejected such Debtor Relief Plan in accordance with Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws) and (3) not to contest any request by any party for a determination by the Bankruptcy Court (or other applicable court of competent jurisdiction) effectuating the foregoing clause (2).

SECTION 9.05 Expenses; Indemnity.

(a) If the Closing Date occurs, the Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Arrangers in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, or, with respect to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, in connection with the syndication of commitments (including the obtaining and maintaining of CUSIP numbers for the Loans) or administration of this Agreement and any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof, including (i) in connection with post-closing searches to confirm that security filings and recordations have been properly made and including any costs and expenses of the service provider referred to in Section 8.03, (ii) all reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred by the L/C Issuer in connection with the issuance, amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit or any demand for payment thereunder, (iii) expenses incurred in connection with due diligence, (iv) the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP, counsel for the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Arrangers, and the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of one local counsel per jurisdiction, and (v) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Arrangers, Agents, the L/C Issuer or any Lender in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents in connection with the Loans made or Letters of Credit issued hereunder, including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Agents and the Lenders; provided that legal fees pursuant to this Section 9.05(a) shall be limited to the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP, counsel for the Agents and the Arrangers, and, if reasonably necessary or advisable, the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of one local counsel per jurisdiction and one additional counsel for each group of affected persons, taken as a whole, to the extent of any actual or perceived conflict of interest.

The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to indemnify the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Arrangers, each L/C Issuer, each Lender, each of their respective Affiliates and each of their respective successors and assigns and their respective directors, partners, controlling persons, officers, employees, agents, trustees, advisors and members of the foregoing (each such person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses, including reasonable counsel fees, charges and disbursements (limited to one counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties and one local counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties in each applicable jurisdiction and, solely in the event of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each applicable material jurisdiction to the other Indemnitees) (except the allocated costs of in-house counsel), incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto and thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of or otherwise relating to the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans or the use of any Letter of Credit or (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by Parent or any of the Subsidiaries, Affiliates or equity holders; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from (1) the gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of such Indemnitee, (2) a material breach of obligations by such Indemnitee or (3) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding that does not involve an act or omission of any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates and that is brought by an Indemnitee against any other Indemnitee (other than any claim, actions, suits, inquiries, litigation, investigation or proceeding against the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any Arranger, any L/C Issuer, or any other agent in its capacity as such with respect to any of the Loan Documents or arising out of any act or omission on the part of the Borrowers or their Subsidiaries or Affiliates). Subject to and without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the Borrowers jointly and severally agree to indemnify each Indemnitee against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses, including reasonable counsel or consultant fees, charges and disbursements (limited to one counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties and one local counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties in each applicable jurisdiction and, solely in the event of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each applicable material jurisdiction to the other Indemnitees) (except the allocated costs of in-house counsel), incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (A) any claim or liability arising under Environmental Laws and related to Parent or any of the Subsidiaries, or (B) any actual or alleged presence, Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Materials at, under, on, from or to any property currently or formerly owned, operated or leased by any of them; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from (1) the gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Parties, (2) a material breach of Obligations by such Indemnitee or (3) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding that does not involve an act or omission of any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates and that is brought by an Indemnitee against any other Indemnitee (other than any claim, actions, suits, inquiries, litigation, investigation or proceeding against the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any Arranger, any L/C Issuer, or any other agent in its capacity as such with respect to any of the Loan Documents or arising out of any act or omission on the part of the Borrowers or their Subsidiaries or Affiliates). None of the Indemnitees (or any of their respective Affiliates) shall be responsible or liable to the Parent, Holdings or any of the Subsidiaries, Affiliates or stockholders or any other person or entity for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages, which may be alleged as a result of the Facilities or the Transactions. None of the Parent, Holdings or any of the Subsidiaries, Affiliates or stockholders shall be responsible or liable to the Indemnitees (or any of their respective Affiliates) or any other person or entity for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages, which may be alleged by an Indemnitee in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as an administrative agent or arranger or any similar role under this Agreement (other than in respect of any such damages incurred or paid by an Indemnitee to a third party for which such Indemnitee is otherwise entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Section 9.05). The provisions of this Section 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Obligations, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any Arranger, any L/C Issuer or any Lender. All amounts due under this Section 9.05 shall be payable within 30 days following written demand therefor accompanied by reasonable documentation with respect to any reimbursement, indemnification or other amount requested.

(b) Except as expressly provided in Section 9.05(a) with respect to Other Taxes, which shall not be duplicative of any amounts paid pursuant to Section 2.18, this Section 9.05 shall not apply to Taxes, except Taxes that represent damages or losses resulting from a non-Tax claim.

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, none of Parent, Holdings or the Subsidiaries shall assert, and hereby waive, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof. No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(d) The agreements in this Section 9.05 shall survive the resignation of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any L/C Issuer, the replacement of any Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the other Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 9.06 Right of Set-off.

If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender and each L/C Issuer is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other indebtedness at any time owing by such Lender or such L/C Issuer to or for the credit or the account of Parent, the Borrowers or any Subsidiary against any of and all the obligations of Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any Subsidiary now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document held by such Lender or such L/C Issuer, irrespective of whether or not such Lender or such L/C Issuer shall have made any demand under this Agreement or such other Loan Document and although the obligations may be contingent or unmatured or are owed to a branch or office of such Lender or the L/C Issuer different from the branch or office holding such deposit or obligated on such indebtedness; provided that in the event that any Defaulting Lender shall exercise any such right of set-off, (x) all amounts so set off shall be paid over immediately to the Administrative Agent for further application in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.26 and, pending such payment, shall be segregated by such Defaulting Lender from its other funds and deemed held in trust for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, each L/C Issuer and the Lenders, and (y) the Defaulting Lender shall provide promptly to the Administrative Agent a statement describing in reasonable detail the Obligations owing to such Defaulting Lender as to which it exercised such right of set-off. Each Lender that exercises such right of set-off shall give prompt notice to the Dutch Borrower; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application. The rights of each Lender and each L/C Issuer under this Section 9.06 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of set-off) that such Lender or such L/C Issuer may have.

SECTION 9.07 Applicable Law.

THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING SECTION 9.15 AND ARTICLE X BUT EXCLUDING SECTION 8.01(C)) AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 9.08 Waivers; Amendment.

(a) No failure or delay of the Administrative Agent, any L/C Issuer or any Lender in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, each L/C Issuer and the Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or consent to any departure by Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by clause (b) below, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party in any case shall entitle such person to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except (x) as provided in Sections 2.22, 2.23 and 2.24, (y) in the case of this Agreement, as may be required by the Intercreditor Agreement or pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by Holdings, Parent, the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent (and consented to by the Required Lenders or, in the case of a waiver of the Financial Covenant, each of the Revolving Facility Lenders or, in the case of an amendment or modification of the Financial Covenant as it applies to any Facility, the Majority Lenders of such Facility), and (z) in the case of any other Loan Document, pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each party thereto and consented to by the Required Lenders; provided, however, that no such agreement shall:

(i) decrease or forgive the principal amount of, or extend the final maturity of, or decrease the rate of interest on, or decrease any prepayment premium on, or decrease any fees or reimbursement obligations payable on any Loan or any L/C Obligation, extend the stated expiration of any Letter of Credit beyond the Revolving Facility Maturity Date, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly adversely affected thereby (which, notwithstanding the foregoing, such consent of such Lender directly adversely affected thereby shall be the only consent required hereunder to make such modification); provided that a non-payment default waiver, waiver of default interest under Section 2.14(c) hereof, change to a financial covenant ratio or modification to Section 2.22(b)(iv)(B) hereof shall not constitute a reduction in the rate of interest for purposes of this clause (i),

(ii) increase or extend the Commitment of any Lender or (y) decrease the Commitment Fees or L/C Participation Fees or other fees of any Lender without the prior written consent of such Lender (which, notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of clause (y), such consent of such Lender shall be the only consent required hereunder to make such modification) (it being understood that waivers or modifications of conditions precedent, covenants, Defaults or Events of Default shall not constitute an increase of the Commitments of any Lender),

(iii) extend or waive any Term Loan Installment Date, reduce the amount due on any Term Loan Installment Date, or extend any date on which payment of interest on any Loan or any L/C Obligation or any Fees is due or increase the maximum duration of any Interest Period permitted hereunder, in each case, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly adversely affected thereby (which, notwithstanding the foregoing, such consent of such Lender directly adversely affected thereby shall be the only consent required hereunder to make such modification),

(iv) amend the provisions of Section 2.19(b), Section 2.19(c) or Section 7.03, or any analogous provision of any Security Document, in a manner that would by its terms alter the pro rata sharing of payments required thereby, without the prior written consent of each Lender adversely affected thereby,

(v) reduce the voting rights of any Lender under this Section 9.08 or any other provision hereof specifying the number or percentage of Lenders required to waive, amend or modify any rights hereunder or make any determination or grant any consent hereunder, without the prior written consent of such Lender (it being understood that, with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders on substantially the same basis as the Loans and Commitments are included on the Closing Date),

(vi) release all or substantially all of the Collateral or release all or substantially all of the value of the guarantees by Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or the Subsidiary Loan Parties, unless, in each case, to the extent sold or otherwise disposed of in a transaction permitted by this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or required by the Intercreditor Agreement, without the prior written consent of each Lender;

(vii) effect any waiver, amendment or modification that by its terms adversely affects the rights in respect of payments or collateral of Lenders participating in any Facility differently from those of Lenders participating in another Facility, without the consent of the Majority Lenders participating in the adversely affected Facility (it being agreed that the Required Lenders may waive, in whole or in part, any prepayment required by Section 2.12 so long as the application of any prepayment still required to be made is not changed); provided, further, that (A) no such amendment shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent or an L/C Issuer hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent or such L/C Issuer acting as such at the effective date of such amendment, as applicable, (B) no amendment, waiver or consent shall amend, modify or waive any condition precedent to any extension of credit under the Revolving Facility set forth in Section 4.01 without the written consent of the Majority Lenders under such Revolving Facility (it being understood that (i) amendments, modifications or waivers of any other provision of any Loan Document, including any representation or warranty, any covenant or any Default or Event of Default, shall be deemed to be effective for purposes of determining whether the conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.01 have been satisfied regardless of whether the Majority Lenders under the Revolving Facility shall have consented to such amendment, modification or waiver and (ii) such consent of the Majority Lenders under the applicable Revolving Facility shall be the only consent required hereunder to make such modifications to the conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.01), and (C) only the consent of the Majority Lenders under the Revolving Facility shall be needed to amend, modify or waive the requirements of (including any Default), Section 6.10. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no consent of any Defaulting Lender shall be required for any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender, except that (x) the Commitment of any Defaulting Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender and (y) any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each directly and adversely affected Lender that by its terms materially and adversely affects any Defaulting Lender to a greater extent than other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender. Each Lender shall be bound by any waiver, amendment or modification authorized by this Section 9.08 and any consent by any Lender pursuant to this Section 9.08 shall bind any successor or assignee of such Lender.

(c) Without the consent of any Lender or L/C Issuer, the Loan Parties and the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent may (in their respective sole discretion, or shall, to the extent required by any Loan Document) enter into any amendment, modification or waiver of any Loan Document, or enter into any new agreement or instrument, to effect the granting, perfection, protection, expansion or enhancement of any security interest in any Collateral or additional property to become Collateral for the benefit of the Secured Parties, or as required by local law to give effect to, or protect any security interest for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in any property or so that the security interests therein comply with applicable law or this Agreement or in each case to otherwise enhance the rights or benefits of any Lender under any Loan Document.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be amended (or amended and restated) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent, Parent, the Holdings and the Borrowers (i) to add one or more additional credit or debit facilities to this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with the Term Loans and the Revolving Facility Loans and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof and (ii) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit or debit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders or Majority Lenders.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, technical and conforming modifications to the Loan Documents may be made with the consent of Parent, the Holdings, the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent to the extent necessary (A) to integrate any Incremental Term Loans, any Incremental Revolving Loans, any Refinancing Term Loans, any Modified Term Loans or any Replacement Revolving Loans on substantially the same basis as the Term Loans or Revolving Facility Loans, as applicable, or (B) to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be amended, with the written consent of only each Revolving Facility Lender, the Administrative Agent, the Holdings and the Borrowers to the extent necessary to integrate any Alternate Currency.

SECTION 9.09 Interest Rate Limitation.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the applicable interest rate, together with all fees and charges that are treated as interest under applicable law (collectively, the "Charges"), as provided for herein or in any other document executed in connection herewith, or otherwise contracted for, charged, received, taken or reserved by any Lender or any L/C Issuer, shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the "Maximum Rate") that may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by such Lender in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable hereunder, together with all Charges payable to such Lender or such L/C Issuer, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate; provided that such excess amount shall be paid to such Lender or such L/C Issuer on subsequent payment dates to the extent not exceeding the legal limitation.

SECTION 9.10 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement, the other Loan Documents and the agreements regarding certain Fees referred to herein constitute the entire contract between the parties relative to the subject matter hereof. Any previous agreement among or representations from the parties or their Affiliates with respect to the subject matter hereof is superseded by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Engagement Letter shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect. Nothing in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto and thereto any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 9.11 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

SECTION 9.12 Severability.

In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9.13 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original but all of which, when taken together, shall constitute but one contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 9.03. Delivery of an executed counterpart to this Agreement by facsimile transmission (or other electronic transmission pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent) shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed original.

SECTION 9.14 Headings.

Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 9.15 Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process.

(a) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or federal court of the United States sitting in New York City in the borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof (collectively, "New York Courts"), in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement (including Article X) or the other Loan Documents (other than as expressly set forth in other Loan Documents), or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents in the courts of any jurisdiction, except that each of the Loan Parties agrees that (a) it will not bring any such action or proceeding in any court other than New York Courts (it being acknowledged and agreed by the parties hereto that any other forum would be inconvenient and inappropriate in view of the fact that more of the Lenders who would be affected by any such action or proceeding have contacts with the State of New York than any other jurisdiction), and (b) in any such action or proceeding brought against any Loan Party in any other court, it will not assert any cross-claim, counterclaim or set-off, or seek any other affirmative relief, except to the extent that the failure to assert the same will preclude such Loan Party from asserting or seeking the same in the New York Courts.

(b) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents in any New York State or federal court. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) By the execution and delivery of this Agreement, each Loan Party agrees that service of process upon such Loan Party and written notice of said service to any Loan Party in accordance with the manner provided for notices in Section 9.01 shall be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon such Loan Party, in any such suit or proceeding. To the extent that any Loan Party has or hereafter may acquire any immunity from jurisdiction of any court of (i) any jurisdiction in which it owns or leases property or assets, or (ii) the United States or the State of New York or any political subdivision thereof or from any legal process (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, execution or otherwise) with respect to itself or its property and assets or this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents or actions to enforce judgments in respect of any thereof, such Loan Party hereby irrevocably waives such immunity in respect of its obligations under the above-referenced documents, to the extent permitted by law. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

(d) Each of the Parent, Holdings and each Borrower hereby irrevocably and unconditionally appoints Corporation Service Company, with an office on the date hereof at 1180 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 210, New York, NY 10036-8401 and its successors hereunder (the "Process Agent"), as its agent to receive on behalf of the Parent, Holdings and such Borrower and their respective property all writs, claims, process and summonses in any action or proceeding brought against it in the State of New York. Such service may be made by mailing or delivering a copy of such process to the Parent, Holdings or the respective Borrower (as applicable) in care of the Process Agent at the address specified above for the Process Agent, and each of the Parent, Holdings and each Borrower irrevocably authorizes and directs the Process Agent to accept such service on its behalf. Failure by the Process Agent to give notice to the Parent, Holdings or either or both Borrowers or failure of the Parent, Holdings or either or both Borrowers to receive notice of such service of process shall not impair or affect the validity of such service on the Process Agent or the Parent, Holdings or either Borrower, or of any judgment based thereon. The Parent, Holdings and each Borrower each covenant and agree that it shall take any and all reasonable action, including the execution and filing of any and all documents, that may be necessary to continue the delegation of the Process Agent above in full force and effect, and to cause the Process Agent to act as such. Nothing herein shall in any way be deemed to limit the ability to serve any such writs, process or summonses in any other manner permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 9.16 Confidentiality.

Each of the Lenders, each L/C Issuer and each of the Agents agrees that it shall maintain in confidence any Information (as defined below) relating to Parent, Holdings and any Subsidiary furnished to it by or on behalf of Parent, Holdings or any Subsidiary and shall not reveal the same to anyone other than to its Affiliates, officers, members, directors, trustees, officers, agents, employees and advisors with a need to know or to any person that approves or administers the Loans on behalf of such Lender (so long as each such person shall have been instructed to keep the same confidential), except (A) information that has become available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by such party in breach of this Section 9.16, (B) information that has been independently developed by such Lender, such L/C Issuer or such Agent without violating this Section 9.16, (C) information that was or becomes available to such Lender, such L/C Issuer or such Agent from a third party which, to such person's knowledge, had not breached an obligation of confidentiality to Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party), (D) to the extent necessary to comply with law, subpoena or any legal process or the requirements of any Governmental Authority, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or of any securities exchange on which securities of the disclosing party or any Affiliate of the disclosing party are listed or traded, (E) as part of normal reporting or review procedures to, or examinations by, Governmental Authorities or self-regulatory authorities, including the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, (F) in order to enforce its rights under any Loan Document in a legal proceeding, (G) to any pledgee under Section 9.04(d) or any other prospective assignee of, or prospective Participant in, any of its rights under this Agreement (so long as such person shall have been instructed to keep the same confidential in accordance with this Section 9.16 or terms substantially similar to this Section), (H) to any direct or indirect contractual counterparty in Swap Agreements or such contractual counterparty's professional advisor (so long as such contractual counterparty or professional advisor to such contractual counterparty agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.16 or terms substantially similar to this Section), (I) to any rating agency for the purpose of obtaining a credit rating applicable to any Lender (so long as such disclosure is limited to the material terms of the Facilities and such agency agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.16 or terms substantially similar to this Section) and (J) with the consent of Borrowers. For purposes of this Section only, "Information" means all information received from the Borrowers or any of the Subsidiaries relating to Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any of the Subsidiaries or any of their respective businesses. Any person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such person would accord information to its own confidential information.

SECTION 9.17 Platform; Borrower Materials.

The Borrowers hereby acknowledge that (a) the Administrative Agent and/or the Arrangers will make available to the Lenders and the L/C Issuer materials and/or information provided by or on behalf of the Borrowers hereunder (collectively, "Borrower Materials") by posting the Borrower Materials on IntraLinks, SyndTrak or another similar electronic system (the "Platform"), and (b) certain of the Lenders may be "public-side" Lenders (i.e., Lenders that do not wish to receive material non-public information with respect to the Borrowers or its securities) (each, a "Public Lender"). The Borrowers hereby agree that they will use commercially reasonable efforts to identify that portion of the Borrower Materials that may be distributed to the Public Lenders and that (i) all such Borrower Materials shall be clearly and conspicuously marked "PUBLIC" which, at a minimum, shall mean that the word "PUBLIC" shall appear prominently on the first page thereof, (ii) by marking Borrower Materials "PUBLIC," the Borrowers shall be deemed to have authorized the Administrative Agent, the Arrangers, the L/C Issuer and the Lenders to treat such Borrower Materials as either publicly available information or not material information (although it may be sensitive and proprietary) with respect to the Borrowers or its securities for purposes of United States Federal and state securities laws, (iii) all Borrower Materials marked "PUBLIC" are permitted to be made available through a portion of the Platform designated "Public Investor" and (iv) the Administrative Agent and the Arrangers shall be entitled to treat any Borrower Materials that are not marked "PUBLIC" as being suitable only for posting on a portion of the Platform not designated "Public Investor."

THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties") have any liability to the Borrowers, any Lender, any L/C Issuer or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrowers' or the Administrative Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet.

Each Lender acknowledges that United States federal and state securities laws prohibit any person from purchasing or selling securities on the basis of material, non-public information concerning the issuer of such securities or, subject to certain limited exceptions, from communicating such information to any other person. Each Lender confirms that it has developed procedures designed to ensure compliance with these securities laws.

Each Lender acknowledges that circumstances may arise that require it to refer to Information that may contain material non-public Information (such Information, "Private Side Information"). Accordingly, each Lender agrees that it will use commercially reasonable efforts to designate at least one individual to receive Private Side Information on its behalf in compliance with its procedures and applicable law and identify such designee (including such designee's contact information) on such Lender's Administrative Questionnaire. Each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent in writing from time to time of such Lender's designee's e-mail address to which notice of the availability of Private Side Information may be sent by electronic transmission.

Each Lender that elects not to be given access to Private Side Information does so voluntarily and, by such election, (i) acknowledges and agrees that the Agents and other Lenders may have access to Private Side Information that such electing Lender does not have and (ii) takes sole responsibility for the consequences of, and waives any and all claims based on or arising out of, not having access to Private Side Information.

SECTION 9.18 Release of Liens, Guarantees and Pledges.

In the event that any Loan Party conveys, sells, leases, assigns, transfers or otherwise disposes of all or any portion of any Equity Interests or assets to a person that is not (and is not required to become) a Loan Party in a transaction not prohibited by this Agreement, any Liens created by any Loan Document in respect of such Equity Interests or assets shall be automatically released (provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any disposal consisting of an operating lease or license, the underlying property retained by such Loan Party will not be so released) and the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall promptly (and the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to) take such action and execute any such documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent or the Borrowers and at the Borrowers' expense in connection with the release of any Liens created by any Loan Document in respect of such Equity Interests or assets, and, in the case of a disposition of the Equity Interests of any Subsidiary Loan Party in a transaction not prohibited by this Agreement and as a result of which such Subsidiary Loan Party would cease to be a Subsidiary, such Subsidiary Loan Party's obligations under the Loan Documents shall be automatically terminated and the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall promptly (and the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to) take such action and execute any such documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent, the Holdings or the Dutch Borrower to terminate such Subsidiary Loan Party's obligations under the Loan Documents in each case, subject to the receipt of a certification by the Borrowers and such Subsidiary Loan Party stating that such transaction is in compliance with the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents and as to such other matters as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent may reasonably request. In addition, the Administrative Agent agrees to take such actions as are reasonably requested by Parent, the Holdings or the Dutch Borrower and at the Borrowers' expense to terminate the Liens and security interests created by the Loan Documents when all the Obligations (other than contingent indemnification Obligations and expense reimbursement claims to the extent no claim therefor has been made) are paid in full and all Letters of Credit and Commitments are terminated.

SECTION 9.19 Judgment Currency.

If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder or any other Loan Document in one currency into another currency, the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures the Administrative Agent could purchase the first currency with such other currency on the Business Day preceding that on which final judgment is given. The obligation of the Borrowers in respect of any such sum due from it to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders hereunder or under the other Loan Documents shall, notwithstanding any judgment in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") other than that in which such sum is denominated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement (the "Agreement Currency"), be discharged only to the extent that on the Business Day following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Judgment Currency, the Administrative Agent may in accordance with normal banking procedures purchase the Agreement Currency with the Judgment Currency. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent from the Borrowers in the Agreement Currency, such Borrower agrees, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment, to indemnify the Administrative Agent or the person to whom such obligation was owing against such loss. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent in such currency, the Administrative Agent agrees to return the amount of any excess to such Borrowers (or to any other person who may be entitled thereto under applicable law).

SECTION 9.20 USA PATRIOT Act Notice.

Each Lender that is subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Borrowers that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Loan Party in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act.

SECTION 9.21 No Advisory or Fiduciary Responsibility.

In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby, Parent, Holdings and the Borrowers acknowledge and agree that: (i) the credit facilities provided for hereunder and any related arranging or other services in connection therewith (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document) are an arm's-length commercial transaction between the Borrowers, the other Loan Parties and their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders, on the other hand, and Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties are capable of evaluating and understanding and understand and accept the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Loan Documents (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or thereof); (ii) in connection with the process leading to such transaction, each Agent, each Arranger and each Lender is and has been acting solely as a principal and is not the financial advisor, agent or fiduciary, for Parent, the Borrowers, any Loan Party or any of their respective Affiliates, stockholders, creditors or employees or any other person; (iii) none of the Agents, any Arranger or any Lender has assumed or will assume an advisory, agency or fiduciary responsibility in favor of Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby or the process leading thereto, including with respect to any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document (irrespective of whether any Agent, any Joint Lead Arranger or any Lender has advised or is currently advising Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party or their respective Affiliates on other matters) and none of the Agents, any Arranger or any Lender has any obligation to the Borrowers, the other Loan Parties or their respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents; (iv) the Agents, the Arrangers, the Lenders and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties and their respective Affiliates, and none of the Agents, any Arranger or any Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests by virtue of any advisory, agency or fiduciary relationship; and (v) the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders have not provided and will not provide any legal, accounting, regulatory or tax advice with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document) and the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties have consulted their own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent they deemed appropriate. Parent, Holdings and the Borrowers each hereby waives and releases, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims that it may have against the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty.

SECTION 9.22 Application of Gaming Laws.

(a) This Agreement and the other Loan Documents are subject to Gaming Laws. Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding anything herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary, the Lenders, Agents and Secured Parties acknowledge that (i) they are subject to the jurisdiction of the Gaming Authorities, in their discretion, for licensing, qualification or findings of suitability or to file or provide other information, and (ii) all rights, remedies and powers in or under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, including with respect to the Collateral (including the pledge and delivery of the Pledged Collateral (as defined in the applicable Security Documents)), any Mortgaged Property and the ownership and operation of facilities, are, in each case, subject to the jurisdiction of the Gaming Authorities, and may be exercised only to the extent that the exercise thereof does not violate any applicable provisions of the Gaming Laws and only to the extent that required approvals (including prior approvals) are obtained from the relevant Gaming Authorities.

(b) The Lenders, Agents and Secured Parties agree to cooperate with all Gaming Authorities in connection with the provision in a timely manner of such documents or other information as may be requested by such Gaming Authorities relating to the Loan or Loan Documents.

(c) The Lenders acknowledge and agree that if the Borrower receives a notice from any applicable Gaming Authority that any Lender is a Disqualified holder (and such Lender is notified by the Borrower in writing of such Disqualification), the Borrower shall, following any available appeal of such determination by such Gaming Authority (unless the rules of the applicable Gaming Authority do not permit such Lender to retain its Loans or Commitments pending appeal of such determination), have the right to (i) cause such Disqualified holder to transfer and assign, without recourse all of its interests, rights and obligations in its Loans and Commitments or (ii) in the event that (A) the Borrower is unable to assign such Loan or Commitments after using its best efforts to cause such an assignment and (B) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, prepay such Disqualified holder's Loan and terminate such Disqualified holder's Commitments, as applicable. Notice to such Disqualified holder shall be given ten days prior to the required date of assignment or prepayment, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by evidence demonstrating that such transfer or prepayment is required pursuant to Gaming Laws. If reasonably requested by any Disqualified holder, the Borrower will use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with any such holder that is seeking to appeal such determination and to afford such holder an opportunity to participate in any proceedings relating thereto. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any prepayment of a Loan shall be at a price that, unless otherwise directed by a Gaming Authority, shall be equal to the sum of the principal amount of such Loan and interest to the date on which such Lender or holder became a Disqualified holder (plus any fees and other amounts accrued for the account of such Disqualified holder to the date such Lender or holder became a Disqualified holder).

(d) If during the existence of an Event of Default hereunder or any of the other Loan Documents, it shall become necessary or, in the opinion of the Administrative Agent, advisable for an agent, supervisor, receiver or other representative of the Lenders to become licensed or found qualified under any Gaming Law as a condition to receiving the benefit of any Collateral encumbered by the Loan Documents or to otherwise enforce the rights of the Agents, Secured Parties and the Lenders under the Loan Documents, the Borrower hereby agrees to consent to the application for such license or qualification and to execute such further documents as may be required in connection with the evidencing of such consent.

SECTION 9.23 Enforcement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Loan Documents against the Loan Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 7.01 for the benefit of Secured Parties; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (a) the Administrative Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (b) any L/C Issuer from exercising the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as L/C Issuer) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (c) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 9.06 (subject to the terms of Section 2.19(c)), or (d) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Loan Party under any Debtor Relief Law; and provided, further, that if at any time there is no Person acting as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, then (i) the Required Lenders shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 7.01 and (ii) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 2.19(c), any Lender may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Required Lenders. In the event of a foreclosure by the Collateral Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private sale (including pursuant to any sale conducted under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code), the Collateral Agent or any Lender may be the purchaser (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) of any or all of such Collateral at any such sale and the Collateral Agent, as agent for and representative of the Secured Parties (but not any Lender or Lenders, or any other Secured Party or Secured Parties, in its or their respective individual capacities unless the Required Lenders shall otherwise agree in writing) shall be entitled, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such public sale, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by the Collateral Agent at such sale.

SECTION 9.24 Co-Borrower.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree that the Co-Borrower shall be a co-borrower with respect to all Loans and other Obligations of the Dutch Borrower hereunder, and each reference herein to "the Dutch Borrower" or to the "Borrower" with respect to any Loans or Obligations of the Dutch Borrower hereunder shall be deemed to be a reference to each of the Dutch Borrower and the Co-Borrower, jointly and severally. Each of the Dutch Borrower and the Co-Borrower shall be jointly and severally liable for all such Loans and other Obligations, regardless of which Borrower actually receives the benefit thereof or the manner in which they account for such Loans and Obligations on their books and records. Upon the commencement and during the continuation of any Event of Default, the Agents and the applicable Lenders may (in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents) proceed directly and at once, without notice, against either the Dutch Borrower or the Co-Borrower, or both, to collect and recover the full amount, or any portion of, such Obligations, without first proceeding against the other Borrower or any other person, or any security or collateral for such Obligations. Each of the Dutch Borrower and the Co-Borrower consents and agrees that neither the Agents nor the Lenders shall be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Borrower or against or in payment of any or all of such Obligations.

SECTION 9.25 Electronic Signatures.

The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in any Loan Document shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable Requirement of Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 9.26 Representation of a Dutch Loan Party.

If, in respect of a Dutch Loan Party, this Agreement or any other Transaction Document is signed or executed by another Person (a "Dutch Attorney-in-Fact") acting on behalf of such Dutch Loan Party pursuant to a power of attorney executed and delivered by such Dutch Loan Party, it is hereby expressly acknowledged and accepted in accordance with article 14 of the Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Agency of 14 March 1978 by the other parties to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document that the existence and extent of such Attorney-in-Fact's authority and the effects of such Dutch Attorney-in-Fact's exercise or purported exercise of his or her authority shall be governed by the laws of the Netherlands.

ARTICLE X

PARENT AND HOLDINGS GUARANTEE

SECTION 10.01 Parent and Holdings Guarantee.

Parent and Holdings hereby guarantee to each Secured Party as hereinafter provided, as primary obligors and not as surety, the payment of the Obligations in full in cash when due (whether at stated maturity, as a mandatory prepayment, by acceleration, as a mandatory cash collateralization or otherwise) strictly in accordance with the terms thereof. Parent and Holdings hereby further agree that if any of the Obligations are not paid in full in cash when due (whether at stated maturity, as a mandatory prepayment, by acceleration, as a mandatory cash collateralization or otherwise), Parent or Holdings will promptly pay the same, without any demand or notice whatsoever, and that in the case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any of the Obligations, the same will be promptly paid in full in cash when due (whether at extended maturity, as a mandatory prepayment, by acceleration, as a mandatory cash collateralization or otherwise) in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal.

SECTION 10.02 Obligations Unconditional.

(a) The obligations of Parent and Holdings under Section 10.01 are absolute and unconditional, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations, or any substitution, release, impairment or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for any of the Obligations, and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or guarantor (other than payment in full in cash of the Obligations, other than contingent indemnification, tax gross up, expense reimbursement or yield protection obligations, in each case, for which no claim has been made), it being the intent of this Section 10.02 that the obligations of Parent and Holdings hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional under any and all circumstances. Parent and Holdings agree that either shall have no right of subrogation, indemnity, reimbursement or contribution against a Borrower or any other Guarantor for amounts paid under this Article X until such time as the Obligations have been paid in full in cash and the Commitments have expired or terminated.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is agreed that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the occurrence of any one or more of the following shall not alter or impair the liability of Parent or Holdings hereunder, which shall remain absolute and unconditional as described above:

(i) at any time or from time to time, without notice to Parent or Holdings, the time for any performance of or compliance with any of the Obligations shall be extended, or such performance or compliance shall be waived;

(ii) any of the acts mentioned in any of the provisions of any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations shall be done or omitted;

(iii) the maturity of any of the Obligations shall be accelerated, or any of the Obligations shall be modified, supplemented or amended in any respect, or any right under any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations shall be waived or any other guarantee of any of the Obligations or any security therefor shall be released, impaired or exchanged in whole or in part or otherwise dealt with;

(iv) any Lien granted to, or in favor of, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other holder of the Obligations as security for any of the Obligations shall fail to attach or be perfected;

(v) any of the Obligations shall be determined to be void or voidable (including, without limitation, for the benefit of any creditor of the Parent or Holdings) or shall be subordinated to the claims of any person (including, without limitation, any creditor of Parent or Holdings); or

(vi) the lack of enforceability or validity of the Obligations or any part thereof or the genuineness, enforceability or validity of any agreement relating thereto or with respect to any collateral securing the Obligations or any part thereof, or any other invalidity or unenforceability relating to or against Parent, Holdings, any Borrower or any other guarantor of any of the Obligations, for any reason related to this Agreement, any other Loan Document, any Secured Hedge Agreement, any Secured Cash Management Agreement or any provision of applicable law, decree, order or regulation of any jurisdiction purporting to prohibit the payment by Parent, Holdings, any Borrower or any other guarantor of the Obligations, of any of the Obligations or otherwise affecting any term of any of the Obligations.

(c) With respect to its obligations hereunder, Parent and Holdings hereby expressly waive diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest and all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other holder of the Obligations exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against any person under any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations, or against any other person under any other guarantee of, or security for, any of the Obligations.

SECTION 10.03 Reinstatement.

The obligations of Parent and Holdings under this Article X shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of any person in respect of the Obligations is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of any of the Obligations, whether as a result of any proceedings under any Debtor Relief Law, and Parent and Holdings each agree that it will indemnify the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each holder of the Obligations on demand for all reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, the fees, charges and disbursements of counsel) incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or such holder of the Obligations in connection with such rescission or restoration, including any such costs and expenses incurred in defending against any claim alleging that such payment constituted a preference, fraudulent transfer or similar payment under any proceedings under any Debtor Relief Law.

SECTION 10.04 Certain Additional Waivers.

Parent and Holdings each further agree that it shall have no right of recourse to security for the Obligations, except through the exercise of rights of subrogation pursuant to Section 10.02 and through the exercise of rights of contribution pursuant to Section 10.06.

SECTION 10.05 Remedies.

Parent and Holdings each agree that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as between Parent or Holdings, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the other holders of the Obligations, on the other hand, the Obligations may be declared to be forthwith due and payable as provided in Article VII (and shall be deemed to have become automatically due and payable in the circumstances provided in said Article VII) for purposes of Section 10.01 notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such declaration (or preventing the Obligations from becoming automatically due and payable) as against any other person and that, in the event of such declaration (or the Obligations being deemed to have become automatically due and payable), the Obligations (whether or not due and payable by any other person) shall forthwith become due and payable by Parent or Holdings for purposes of Section 10.01. Parent and Holdings each acknowledge and agree that its obligations hereunder are secured in accordance with the terms of the Security Documents and that the holders of the Obligations may exercise their remedies thereunder in accordance with the terms thereof.

SECTION 10.06 Rights of Contribution.

Parent and Holdings each agree that, in connection with payments made hereunder, Parent, Holdings and each other Guarantor shall have contribution rights against the other Guarantors as permitted under applicable law. Such contribution rights shall be subordinate and subject in right of payment to the obligations of such Guarantors under the Loan Documents and no Guarantor shall exercise such rights of contribution until all Obligations have been paid in full in cash and the Commitments have terminated.

SECTION 10.07 Guarantee of Payment; Continuing Guarantee.

The guarantee given by Parent and Holdings in this Article X is a guarantee of payment and not of collection, is a continuing guarantee, and shall apply to all Obligations whenever arising.

SECTION 2.01 Commitments.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein:

(a) each Lender agrees, severally and not jointly to make Initial Term B Loans to the Dutch Borrower on the Closing Date in a principal amount not to exceed its Initial Term B Loan Commitment. The full amount of the Initial Term B Loan Commitments must be drawn in a single drawing on the Closing Date, and amounts of Term Loans borrowed under Section 2.01(a) or Section 2.01(c) that are repaid or prepaid may not be reborrowed.

(b) [Reserved].

(c) Each Lender having an Incremental Term Loan Commitment agrees, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the applicable Incremental Assumption Agreement, to make Incremental Term Loans to the Dutch Borrower in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed its Incremental Term Loan Commitment.

SECTION 2.02 Loans and Borrowings.

(a) Each Loan shall be made as part of a Borrowing consisting of Loans under the same Facility and of the same Type and currency made by the Lenders ratably in accordance with their respective Commitments under the applicable Facility. The failure of any Lender to make any Loan required to be made by it shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligations hereunder; provided that the Commitments of the Lenders are several and no Lender shall be responsible for any other Lender's failure to make Loans as required.

(b) Subject to Section 2.15, each Borrowing shall be comprised entirely of ABR Loans or Eurocurrency Loans as the Borrowers may request in accordance herewith. Each Lender at its option may make any ABR Loan or Eurocurrency Loan by causing any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make such Loan; provided that (i) any exercise of such option shall not affect the obligation of the Borrowers to repay such Loan in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, (ii) such Lender shall not be entitled to any amounts payable under Section 2.16 solely in respect of increased costs or Section 2.18 resulting from such exercise and existing at the time of such exercise, (iii) each such Lender shall remain liable and responsible for the performance of all obligations assumed by any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender so nominated by it and (iv) the non-performance of a Lender's obligations by any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender so nominated by it shall not relieve the Lender from its obligations under this Agreement.

(c) At the time that each Term Borrowing is made, such Borrowing shall be in an aggregate amount that is not less than the Borrowing Minimum. Borrowings of more than one Type and Class may be outstanding at the same time; provided, however, that the Borrowers shall not be entitled to request any Borrowing that, if made, would result in more than 10 Eurocurrency Borrowings outstanding under all Term Facilities at any time.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the initial Borrowing from any Lender shall be provided by a Lender that is a Non-Public Lender.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Borrowers shall not be entitled to request, or to elect to convert or continue, any Borrowing of any Class if the Interest Period requested with respect thereto would end after the Term Facility Maturity Date for such Class.

SECTION 2.03 Requests for Borrowings.

To request a Term Borrowing, the Dutch Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such request in writing (a) in the case of a Eurocurrency Borrowing, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, three (3) Business Days before the date of any proposed Borrowing; provided that, to request a Eurocurrency Borrowing on the Closing Date, the Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such request not later than 2:00 p.m. New York City time, one Business Day prior to the Closing Date or (b) in the case of an ABR Borrowing, not later than 2:00 p.m. New York City time, one Business Day prior to the proposed Borrowing. Each such Borrowing Request shall be irrevocable and shall be furnished by hand delivery, facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif") to the Administrative Agent in a form approved by the Administrative Agent and signed by a Responsible Officer of the Dutch Borrower. Each such Borrowing Request shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(i) whether such Borrowing is to be a Borrowing Initial Term B Loan or Other Term Loans;

(ii) the aggregate amount of the requested Borrowing;

(iii) the date of such Borrowing, which shall be a Business Day;

(vi) the location and number of the applicable Borrower's account to which funds are to be disbursed.

If no election as to the Type of Term Borrowing is specified, then the requested Borrowing shall be an ABR Borrowing. If no Interest Period is specified with respect to any requested Eurocurrency Borrowing, then the Borrowers shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration. Promptly following receipt of a Borrowing Request in accordance with this Section, the Administrative Agent shall advise each applicable Lender of the details thereof and of the amount of such Lender's Loan to be made as part of the requested Borrowing.

SECTION 2.04 [Reserved].

SECTION 2.05 [Reserved].

SECTION 2.06 [Reserved].

SECTION 2.07 Funding of Borrowings.

(a) Each Lender shall make each Term Loan to be made by it hereunder available to the Administrative Agent in Same Day Funds at the Administrative Agent's Office not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time on the Business Day specified in the applicable Borrowing Request. The Administrative Agent will make such Loans available to the Dutch Borrower by promptly crediting the amounts so received, in like funds, to an account of the Dutch Borrower as specified in the Borrowing Request.

(b) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the proposed date of any Borrowing of Eurocurrency Loans (or, in the case of any Borrowing of ABR Loans, prior to 12:00 noon, New York City time, on the date of such Borrowing) that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender's share of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such share available on such date in accordance with Section 2.07(a) (or, in the case of a Borrowing of ABR Loans, that such Lender has made such share available in accordance with and at the time required by Section 2.07(a)) and may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Dutch Borrower a corresponding amount. In such event, if a Lender has not in fact made its share of the applicable Borrowing available to the Administrative Agent, then the applicable Lender and the Borrowers severally (and jointly and severally with respect to the Borrowers) agree to pay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount in Same Day Funds with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is made available to the Borrowers to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at (A) in the case of a payment to be made by such Lender, the Overnight Rate, plus any administrative, processing or similar fees customarily charged by the Administrative Agent in connection with the foregoing, and (B) in the case of a payment to be made by the Borrowers, the interest rate applicable to ABR Loans under the applicable Facility. If the Borrowers and such Lender shall pay such interest to the Administrative Agent for the same or an overlapping period, the Administrative Agent shall promptly remit to the Borrowers the amount of such interest paid by the Borrowers for such period. If such Lender pays its share of the applicable Borrowing to the Administrative Agent, then the amount so paid shall constitute such Lender's Loan included in such Borrowing. Any payment by the Borrowers shall be without prejudice to any claim the Borrowers may have against a Lender that shall have failed to make such payment to the Administrative Agent.

SECTION 2.08 Type; Interest Elections.

(a) Each Borrowing of Term Loans initially shall be of the Type, and under the applicable Class, specified in the applicable Borrowing Request and, in the case of a Eurocurrency Borrowing, shall have an initial Interest Period as specified in such Borrowing Request. Thereafter, the Dutch Borrower may elect to convert such Borrowing to a different Type (to the extent such Borrowing is denominated in Dollars) or to continue such Borrowing and, in the case of a Eurocurrency Borrowing, may elect Interest Periods therefor, all as provided in this Section; provided that except as otherwise provided herein, a Eurocurrency Loan may be continued or converted only on the last day of an Interest Period for such Eurocurrency Loan. The Borrowers may elect different options with respect to different portions of the affected Term Borrowing, in which case each such portion shall be allocated ratably among the Lenders holding the Loans comprising such Borrowing, and the Loans comprising each such portion shall be considered a separate Borrowing.

(b) To make an election pursuant to this Section, the Dutch Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of such election in writing not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, three (3) Business Days before the date of any proposed election. Each such Interest Election Request shall be irrevocable and shall be furnished by hand delivery, facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif") to the Administrative Agent in the form of Exhibit C and signed by a Responsible Officer of the applicable Borrower.

(c) Each Interest Election Request shall be irrevocable and shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(i) the Borrowing to which such Interest Election Request applies and, if different options are being elected with respect to different portions thereof, the portions thereof to be allocated to each resulting Borrowing (in which case the information to be specified pursuant to clauses (iii) and (iv) below shall be specified for each resulting Borrowing);

(ii) the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Interest Election Request, which shall be a Business Day;

(iii) whether the resulting Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing or a Eurocurrency Borrowing; and

(iv) if the resulting Borrowing is a Eurocurrency Borrowing, the Interest Period to be applicable thereto after giving effect to such election, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term "Interest Period.

If any such Interest Election Request requests a Eurocurrency Borrowing but does not specify an Interest Period, then the Borrowers shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month's duration.

(d) Promptly following receipt of an Interest Election Request, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender to which such Interest Election Request relates of the details thereof and of such Lender's portion of each resulting Borrowing.

(e) If the Dutch Borrower fails to deliver a timely Interest Election Request with respect to a Eurocurrency Borrowing prior to the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, then, unless such Borrowing is repaid as provided herein, at the end of such Interest Period such Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing. Notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Administrative Agent, at the written request (including a request through electronic means) of the Required Lenders, so notifies the Dutch Borrower, then, so long as an Event of Default is continuing (i) no outstanding Borrowing may be converted to or continued as a Eurocurrency Borrowing and (ii) unless repaid, each Eurocurrency Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing at the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it shall record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Facility Class, Type and currency thereof, and the Interest Period (if any) applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrowers to each Lender hereunder and (iii) any amount received by the Administrative Agent hereunder for the account of the Lenders and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of this Section shall be prima facie evidence (absent manifest error) of the existence and amounts of the obligations recorded therein; provided that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligation of the Borrowers to repay the Loans in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a promissory note (a "Note"). In such event, the Borrowers shall prepare, execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) and in a form approved by the Administrative Agent and reasonably acceptable to the Dutch Borrower.

Thereafter, unless otherwise agreed to by the applicable Lender, the Loans evidenced by such promissory note and interest thereon shall at all times (including after assignment pursuant to Section 9.04) be represented by one or more promissory notes in such form payable to the payee named therein (or, if such promissory note is a registered note, to such payee and its registered assigns).

SECTION 2.11 Repayment of Term Loans.

(a) Subject to the other clauses of this Section 2.11, to the extent not previously paid, outstanding Term Loans shall be due and payable on the applicable Term Facility Maturity Date.

(b) Prepayment of the Loans from:

(i) Net Proceeds pursuant to Section 2.12(b) and Excess Cash Flow pursuant to Section 2.12(c) shall be applied to the prepayment of Loans pro rata among each Term Facility; provided that subject to the pro rata application to Loans outstanding within any Class of Term Loans, the Borrowers may allocate such prepayment in their sole discretion among the Class or Classes of Term Loans as the Dutch Borrower may specify; provided further, however, that no payment shall be made on any Term Loan without providing for at least a pro rata payment of the Initial Term Loans substantially concurrently with such payment.

(ii) Any optional prepayments of the Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(a) shall be applied to the Loans as the Dutch Borrower may direct under the applicable Class or Classes as the Dutch Borrower may direct.

Each such notice shall be signed by a Responsible Officer of the Dutch Borrower and shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment and the Class(es) and the Type(s) of Loans to be prepaid and, if Eurocurrency Loans are to be prepaid, the Interest Period(s) of such Loans. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each applicable Lender of its receipt of each such notice, and of the amount of such Lender's pro rata share of such prepayment. Each optional prepayment of any Term Loan pursuant to this Section 2.12(a) shall be made without premium or penalty except (i) in the case of any prepayment that occurs on or prior to the first anniversary of the Closing Date, the Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of each Term Lender, a prepayment premium in an amount equal to 2.00% of the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans prepaid and (ii) in the case of any prepayment that occurs after the first anniversary of the Closing Date and on or prior to the second anniversary of the Closing Date, the Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of each Term Lender, a prepayment premium in an amount equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans prepaid.

(b) The Borrowers shall apply (1) all Net Proceeds (other than Net Proceeds of the kind described in the following clause (2)) within five (5) Business Days after receipt thereof to prepay Term Loans in accordance with clauses (c) and (d) of Section 2.11 and (2) all Net Proceeds from any issuance or incurrence of Refinancing Notes and Refinancing Term Loans (other than solely by means of extending or renewing then existing Refinancing Notes and Refinancing Term Loans without resulting in any Net Proceeds), no later than three (3) Business Days after the date on which such Refinancing Notes and Refinancing Term Loans are issued or incurred, to prepay Term Loans in accordance with Section 2.23 and the definition of "Refinancing Notes" (as applicable).

(c) Not later than five (5) Business Days after the date on which the annual financial statements are delivered under Section 5.04(a) with respect to each Excess Cash Flow Period, the Borrowers shall calculate Excess Cash Flow for such Excess Cash Flow Period and shall apply an amount equal to (i) the Required Percentage of such Excess Cash Flow, minus (ii) the sum of (A) the amount of any voluntary prepayments of principal of Term Loans (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) and Term Loans hereunder, in each case made with the proceeds of internally generated cash during such Excess Cash Flow Period (in each case, excluding prepayments made with the proceeds of any Indebtedness, issuances of Equity Interests, Net Proceeds, the Cumulative Credit (in the case of the Cumulative Retained Excess Cash Flow Amount, only to the extent attributable to a time prior to such Excess Cash Flow Period) or Excluded Contributions) and (B) the amount of any permanent voluntary reductions during such Excess Cash Flow Period of Revolving Facility Commitments (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) to the extent an equal amount of Revolving Facility Loans (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement) was simultaneously repaid, to prepay Term Loans in accordance with clauses (b) and (c) of Section 2.11. Not later than the date on which the payment is required to be made pursuant to the foregoing sentence for each applicable Excess Cash Flow Period, the Borrowers will deliver to the Administrative Agent a certificate signed by a Financial Officer of the Dutch Borrower setting forth the amount, if any, of Excess Cash Flow for such fiscal year and the calculation thereof in reasonable detail.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 2.12 to the contrary, no prepayment required or permitted pursuant to Section 2.12(b) or (c) shall be required or permitted until the Discharge of First Lien Obligations (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) shall have occurred, except in the event that any such payment is waived by the lenders under the First Lien Credit Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof (the "First Lien Waived Prepayments"), such First Lien Waived Prepayment, to the extent not otherwise required to prepay Indebtedness under the First Lien Credit Agreement, shall be applied as prepayments hereunder pursuant to Section 2.12(b) or (c), as applicable. In the event the Borrowers are required to make any mandatory prepayment (a "Waivable Mandatory Prepayment") of the Term Loans, not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, three (3) Business Days prior to the date (the "Required Prepayment Date") on which the Borrowers elect (or are otherwise required) to make such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment, the Dutch Borrower shall notify Administrative Agent of the amount of such prepayment, and Administrative Agent will promptly thereafter notify each Lender holding an outstanding Loan of the amount of such Lender's pro rata share of such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment and such Lender's option to refuse such amount. Each such Lender may exercise such option by giving written notice to the Administrative Agent of its election to do so not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, the second Business Day prior to the Required Prepayment Date (it being understood that any Lender which does not notify the Administrative Agent of its election to exercise such option on or before the first Business Day prior to the Required Prepayment Date shall be deemed to have elected, as of such date, not to exercise such option). On the Required Prepayment Date, the Borrowers shall pay to the Administrative Agent the amount of the Waivable Mandatory Prepayment less the amount of the Declined Proceeds, which amount shall be applied by the Administrative Agent to prepay the Loans of those Lenders that have elected to accept such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment (which prepayment shall be applied to the principal of the Loans in the applicable Class(es) of Loans in accordance with paragraphs (c) and (d) of Section 2.11). The portion of the Waivable Mandatory Prepayment otherwise payable to those Lenders that have elected to exercise such option and decline such Waivable Mandatory Prepayment (such declined amounts, the "Declined Proceeds") may be retained by the Borrowers and used for any purpose not prohibited by this Agreement.

SECTION 2.13 Fees.

(a) The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Administrative Agent, the "Second Lien Administrative Agent Fee" as set forth in the Fee Letter (the "Administrative Agent Fees").

(b) All Fees shall be paid on the dates due, in immediately available funds to the Administrative Agent and Administrative Agent Fees shall be for the account of the Administrative Agent. Once paid, none of the Fees shall be refundable under any circumstances.

(c) The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay on the Closing Date to the Administrative Agent, for the account of each Term Lender on the Closing Date, as fee compensation for the funding of such Term Lender's Initial Term B Loans, a closing fee in an amount equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of such Term Lender's Initial Term B Loans funded as of the Closing Date.

SECTION 2.14 Interest.

(a) The Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing shall bear interest at (i) ABR plus (ii) the Applicable Margin.

(b) The Loans comprising each Eurocurrency Borrowing shall bear interest at (i) the Adjusted LIBO Rate for the Interest Period in effect for such Borrowing plus (ii) the Applicable Margin.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any principal of or interest on any Loan or any Fees or other amount payable by the Borrowers hereunder is not paid when due, whether at stated maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise, such overdue amount shall bear interest, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to (i) in the case of overdue principal of any Loan, 2.00% plus the rate otherwise applicable to such Loan as provided in the preceding paragraphs of this Section or (ii) in the case of any other amount, 2.00% plus the rate applicable to ABR Loans as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section; provided that this paragraph (c) shall not apply to any Event of Default that has been waived by the Lenders pursuant to Section 9.08.

(d) Accrued interest on each Loan shall be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Loan and on the applicable Term Facility Maturity Date; provided that (i) interest accrued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section shall be payable on demand, and (ii) in the event of any repayment or prepayment of any Loan, accrued interest on the principal amount repaid or prepaid shall be payable on the date of such repayment or prepayment.

(e) Except as otherwise specifically provided for herein, all interest hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days, except that interest computed by reference to the ABR at times when the ABR is based on the Prime Rate shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year). The applicable ABR or Adjusted LIBO Rate shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

SECTION 2.15 Alternate Rate of Interest.

If prior to the commencement of any Interest Period for a Eurocurrency Borrowing:

(a) the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) that adequate and reasonable means do not exist for ascertaining the Adjusted LIBO Rate for such Interest Period; or

(b) the Administrative Agent determines or is advised in writing by the Required Lenders that the Adjusted LIBO Rate for such Interest Period will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of making or maintaining their Loans included in such Borrowing for such Interest Period;

then the Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to the Dutch Borrower and the applicable Lenders by telephone or facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif") as promptly as practicable thereafter and, until the Administrative Agent notifies the Dutch Borrower and the applicable Lenders that the circumstances giving rise to such notice no longer exist, (i) any Eurocurrency Borrowing requested to be made on the first day of such Interest Period shall be made as an ABR Loan or, if requested by the Dutch Borrower, as an Alternative Loan, (ii) any Borrowing that were to have been converted on the first day of such Interest Period to a Eurocurrency Borrowing shall be continued as an ABR Loan and (iii) any outstanding Eurocurrency Borrowing shall be converted, on the last day of the then-current Interest Period, to an ABR Loan or, if requested by the Dutch Borrower, an Alternative Loan. "Alternative Loan" shall mean Loans at the rate of interest reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent to be the cost of funds of representative participating members in the interbank Eurodollar market.

SECTION 2.16 Increased Costs.

(a) If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Lender (except any such reserve requirement reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate);

(ii) subject any Recipient to any Taxes (except for (A) Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes indemnifiable under Section 2.18 or (B) any Excluded Taxes) on or in respect of any Loan Documents or any loans, letters of credit, commitments, or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto; or

(iii) impose on any Lender or the London interbank market any other condition affecting this Agreement or Eurocurrency Loans made by such Lender or participation therein not relating to Taxes; and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any Eurocurrency Loan (or any Loan in the case of clause (ii) above) or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise), then the Borrowers will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(b) If any Lender determines that any Change in Law regarding liquidity or capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by such Lender, to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to liquidity or capital adequacy), then from time to time the Borrowers shall pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or its holding company, as applicable, as specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of this Section shall be delivered to the Borrowers and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 15 days after receipt thereof.

(d) Promptly after any Lender has determined that it will make a request for increased compensation pursuant to this Section 2.16, such Lender shall notify the Borrowers thereof. Failure or delay on the part of any Lender to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender pursuant to this Section for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender, as applicable, notifies the Borrowers of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided, further, that if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.16, no Lender shall demand compensation for any increased costs under this Section 2.16 if it shall not be the general policy or practice of such Lender to demand such compensation in similar circumstances and unless such demand is generally consistent with such Lender's treatment of comparable borrowers of such Lender in the United States with respect to similarly affected commitments or loans.

SECTION 2.17 Break Funding Payments.

In the event of (a) the payment, whether optional or mandatory, of any principal of any Eurocurrency Loan other than on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto (including as a result of an Event of Default), (b) the conversion of a Eurocurrency Loan on any day other than the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, (c) the failure to borrow, convert, continue or prepay any Eurocurrency Loan on the date specified in any notice delivered pursuant hereto or (d) the assignment of any Eurocurrency Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto as a result of a request by the Borrowers pursuant to Section 2.20, then, in any such event, the Dutch Borrower shall compensate each Lender for any reasonable and actual loss, cost and expense attributable to such event, including, any actual loss or expense arising from the liquidation or reemployment of funds (but excluding loss of margin or anticipated profits) obtained by it to maintain such Loan or from fees payable to terminate the deposits from which such funds were obtained. In any such event, such loss, cost or expense to any Lender shall be deemed to be the amount determined by such Lender (it being understood that the deemed amount shall not exceed the actual amount) to be the excess, if any, of (i) the amount of interest which would have accrued on the principal amount of such Loan had such event not occurred, at the Adjusted LIBO Rate that would have been applicable to such Loan, for the period from the date of such event to the last day of the then current Interest Period therefor (or, in the case of a failure to borrow, convert or continue a Eurocurrency Loan, for the period that would have been the Interest Period for such Loan), over (ii) the amount of interest which would accrue on such principal amount for such period at the interest rate which such Lender would bid were it to bid, at the commencement of such period, for deposits in dollars of a comparable amount and period from other banks in the Eurocurrency market. For the purposes of calculating the amounts payable under this Section 2.17, any "floor" reflected in the Adjusted LIBO Rate shall be disregarded. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts that such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section shall be delivered to the Borrowers and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 15 days after receipt thereof.

SECTION 2.18 Taxes.

(a) Unless otherwise required by applicable laws, any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Loan Party hereunder or under any other Loan Documents shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for any Taxes; provided that if the applicable withholding agent shall be required to deduct any Taxes from such payments, then (i) if the Tax in question is an Indemnified Tax or Other Tax, the sum payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased as necessary so that after all required deductions (including deductions applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 2.18) have been made, the Recipient receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions been made, (ii) the applicable withholding agent shall make such deductions and (iii) the applicable withholding agent shall timely pay the full amount deducted to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law.

(b) In addition, the Borrowers shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, or at the option of the Administrative Agent timely reimburse it for the payment of, any Other Taxes.

(c) The Loan Parties shall, jointly and severally, indemnify each Recipient, within 20 days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes payable by the Recipient with respect to any Loan Documents (including Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section 2.18) and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to the Borrowers by a Recipient on its own behalf, on behalf of another Agent or on behalf of another Recipient, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) As soon as practicable after any payment of Taxes by a Loan Party to a Governmental Authority, such Loan Party shall deliver to the Administrative Agent, if available, the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(e) Each U.S. Lender shall deliver to the Dutch Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before the date on which it becomes a party to this Agreement two properly completed and duly signed original copies of IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding and each Foreign Lender shall deliver to the Dutch Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or before the date on which it becomes a party to this Agreement two properly completed and duly signed original copies of any applicable IRS Form W-8. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.18(e), a Lender shall not be required to deliver any documentation that such Lender is not legally eligible to deliver.

(f) If any Recipient determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by a Loan Party or with respect to which such Loan Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.18, it shall pay over such refund to such Loan Party (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Loan Party under this Section 2.18 with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Recipient (including any Taxes imposed with respect to such refund) as is determined by the Recipient in good faith and in its sole discretion, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided that such Loan Party, upon the request of the Recipient agrees to repay as soon as reasonably practicable the amount paid over to such Loan Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to such Recipient in the event the Recipient is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in no event will any Recipient be required to pay any amount to a Loan Party the payment of which would place the Recipient in a less favorable net after-tax position than such the Recipient would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This Section 2.18(f) shall not be construed to require any Recipient to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its Taxes which it deems confidential) to the Loan Parties or any other person.

(g) All amounts expressed to be payable under any Loan Document by any Party to a Recipient which (in whole or in part) constitute the consideration for any supply for VAT purposes are deemed to be exclusive of any VAT which is chargeable on that supply, and accordingly, subject to Section 2.18(h) below, if VAT is or becomes chargeable on any supply made by any Recipient to any Party under any Loan Document and such Recipient is required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT, that Party must pay to such Recipient (in addition to and at the same time as paying any other consideration for such supply) an amount equal to the amount of the VAT upon receipt of an appropriate VAT invoice issued by such Recipient to that Party.

(h) If VAT is or becomes chargeable on any supply made by any Recipient (the "Supplier") to any other Recipient (the "Receiver") under any Loan Document, and any Party other than the Receiver (the "Relevant Party") is required by the terms of any Loan Document to pay an amount equal to the consideration for that supply to the Supplier (rather than being required to reimburse or indemnify the Receiver in respect of that consideration):

(A) where the Supplier is the person required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT, the Relevant Party must also pay to the Supplier (at the same time as paying that amount) an additional amount equal to the amount of the VAT. The Receiver must (where this Section 2.18(h)(A) applies) promptly pay to the Relevant Party an amount equal to any credit or repayment the Receiver receives from the relevant tax authority which the Receiver reasonably determines relates to the VAT chargeable on that supply; and

(B) where the Receiver is the person required to account to the relevant tax authority for the VAT, the Relevant Party must promptly, following demand from the Receiver, pay to the Receiver an amount equal to the VAT chargeable on that supply but only to the extent that the Receiver reasonably determines that it is not entitled to credit or repayment from the relevant tax authority in respect of that VAT.

(i) Where any Loan Document requires any Party to reimburse or indemnify a Recipient for any cost or expense, that Party shall reimburse or indemnify (as the case may be) such Recipient for the full amount of such cost or expense, including such part thereof as represents VAT, save to the extent that such Recipient reasonably determines that it is entitled to credit or repayment in respect of such VAT from the relevant tax authority.

(j) Any reference in Sections 2.18(g), (h), (i) and (k) to any Party shall, at any time when such Party is treated as a member of a group or unity (or fiscal unity) for VAT purposes, include (where appropriate and unless the context otherwise requires) a reference to the person who is treated at that time as making the supply, or (as appropriate) receiving the supply, under the grouping rules (provided for in Article 11 of Council Directive 2006/112/EC (or as implemented by the relevant member state of the European Union) or any other similar provision in any jurisdiction which is not a member state of the European Union) so that a reference to a Party shall be construed as a reference to that Party or the relevant group or unity (or fiscal unity) of which that Party is a member for VAT purposes at the relevant time or the relevant representative member (or head) of that group or unity (or fiscal unity) at the relevant time (as the case may be).

(k) In relation to any supply made by a Recipient to any Party under any Loan Document, if reasonably requested by such Recipient, that Party must promptly provide such Recipient with details of that Party's VAT registration and such other information as is reasonably requested in connection with such Recipient's VAT reporting requirements in relation to such supply.

SECTION 2.19 Payments Generally; Pro Rata Treatment; Sharing of Set-offs.

(a) The Borrowers shall make each payment required to be made by it hereunder (whether of principal, interest, fees, or of amounts payable under Section 2.16, 2.17, or 2.18, or otherwise) without condition or deduction for any defense, recoupment, set-off or counterclaim. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all payments by the Borrowers hereunder shall be made to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the respective Lenders to which such payment is owed, at the applicable Administrative Agent's Office in Dollars and in Same Day Funds not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on the date specified herein. Any amounts received after such time on any date may, in the reasonable discretion of the Administrative Agent, be deemed to have been received on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. All such payments shall be made to the Administrative Agent to the applicable account designated to the Dutch Borrower by the Administrative Agent, except that payments pursuant to Sections 2.16, 2.17, 2.18 and 9.05 shall be made directly to the persons entitled thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent may require that any payments due under this Agreement be made in the continental United States. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. If any payment hereunder shall be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the date for payment shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day, and, in the case of any payment accruing interest, interest thereon shall be payable for the period of such extension. Any payment required to be made by the Administrative Agent hereunder shall be deemed to have been made by the time required if the Administrative Agent shall, at or before such time, have taken the necessary steps to make such payment in accordance with the regulations or operating procedures of the clearing or settlement system used by the Administrative Agent to make such payment.

(b) If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Administrative Agent from the Borrowers to pay fully all amounts of principal, interest and fees then due from the Borrowers hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first, towards payment of interest and fees then due from the Borrowers hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of interest and fees then due to such parties and (ii) second, towards payment of principal of Loans then due from the Borrowers hereunder, ratably among the parties entitled thereto in accordance with the amounts of principal then due to such parties.

(c) If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of set-off or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Term Loans resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Term Loans and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other Lender, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase participations in the Term Loans of other Lenders to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Term Loans; provided that (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this paragraph (c) shall not be construed to apply to any payment made by the Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 2.12(e), 2.23, 2.24 and 2.25) or any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant. The Borrowers consent to the foregoing and agree, to the extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against the Borrowers rights of set-off and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of the Borrowers in the amount of such participation.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Dutch Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders that the Borrowers will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrowers have made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders the amount due. In such event, if the Borrowers have not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the Overnight Rate.

SECTION 2.20 Mitigation Obligations; Replacement of Lenders.

(a) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.16 or has delivered a notice under Section 2.21, or if the Borrowers are required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.18, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different Lending Office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.16 or 2.18 or illegality under Section 2.21, as applicable, in the future and (ii) would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender in any material respect. The Borrowers hereby jointly and severally agree to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(b) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.16, or if the Borrowers are required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.18, or if any Lender is a Defaulting Lender or has delivered a notice under Section 2.21, then the Borrowers may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, require such Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.04), all its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement to an assignee that shall assume such obligations (which assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that (i) the Dutch Borrower shall have received the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, which consent shall not unreasonably be withheld, conditioned or delayed, (ii) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder, from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrowers (in the case of all other amounts) and (iii) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 2.16 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 2.18, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments. Nothing in this Section 2.20 shall be deemed to prejudice any rights that the Borrowers may have against any Lender that is a Defaulting Lender. No action by or consent of the removed Lender shall be necessary in connection with such assignment, which shall be immediately and automatically effective upon payment of such purchase price. In connection with any such assignment the Borrowers, Administrative Agent, such removed Lender and the replacement Lender shall otherwise comply with Section 9.04; provided that if such removed Lender does not comply with Section 9.04 within one (1) Business Day after the Dutch Borrower's request, compliance with Section 9.04 shall not be required to effect such assignment.

(c) If any Lender (such Lender, a "Non-Consenting Lender") has failed to consent to a proposed amendment, waiver, discharge or termination which pursuant to the terms of Section 9.08 requires the consent of all of the Lenders affected and with respect to which the Required Lenders shall have granted their consent, then the Borrowers shall have the right (unless such Non-Consenting Lender grants such consent) at its sole expense (including with respect to the processing and recordation fee referred to in Section 9.04(b)(ii)(B)) to replace such Non-Consenting Lender by deeming such Non-Consenting Lender to have assigned its Loans and its Commitments (or, at the Borrower's option, the Loans and Commitments under the Facility that is the subject of the proposed amendment, waiver, discharge or termination) hereunder to one or more assignees reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent (unless such assignee is a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund); provided that (without duplication): (i) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal of its Loans, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder, from the assignee (to the extent of such outstanding principal and accrued interest and fees) or the Borrowers (in the case of all other amounts) and (ii) the assignee shall consent to the proposed amendment, waiver, discharge or termination. No action by or consent of the Non-Consenting Lender shall be necessary in connection with such assignment, which shall be immediately and automatically effective upon payment of such purchase price. In connection with any such assignment the Borrowers, Administrative Agent, such Non-Consenting Lender and the replacement Lender shall otherwise comply with Section 9.04; provided that if such Non-Consenting Lender does not comply with Section 9.04 within one (1) Business Day after the Dutch Borrower's request, compliance with Section 9.04 shall not be required to effect such assignment.

SECTION 2.21 Illegality.

If any Lender reasonably determines that any Change in Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted after the Closing Date that it is unlawful, for any Lender or its applicable Lending Office to make or maintain any Eurocurrency Loans, then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Dutch Borrower through the Administrative Agent, any obligations of such Lender to make or continue Eurocurrency Loans or to convert ABR Borrowings to Eurocurrency Borrowings shall be suspended until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrowers that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrowers shall upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), either (i) in the case of Eurocurrency Loans if the affected Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Loans as Eurocurrency

Loans until the last day of such Interest Period, convert all Eurocurrency Loans of such Lender to ABR Loans or to Eurocurrency Loans in a different currency on the last day of such Interest Period or (ii) prepay such Eurocurrency Loans. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrowers shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

SECTION 2.22 Incremental Commitments.

(a) The Borrowers may, by written notice to the Administrative Agent from time to time, request Incremental Term Loan Commitments in an amount not to exceed the Incremental Amount available at the time such Incremental Commitments are established from one or more Incremental Term Lenders (which may include any existing Lender) willing to provide such Incremental Term Loans in their own discretion. Such notice shall set forth (i) the amount of the Incremental Term Loan Commitments being requested (which shall be in minimum increments of $5,000,000 and a minimum amount of $25,000,000), (ii) the date on which such Incremental Term Loan Commitments are requested to become effective, and (iii) in the case of Incremental Term Loan Commitments, whether such Incremental Term Loan Commitments are to be (x) commitments to make term loans with terms identical to (and which together with any then outstanding Initial Term B Loans form a single Class of) Initial Term B Loans or (y) commitments to make term loans with pricing, maturity, amortization, participation in mandatory prepayments and/or other terms different from the Initial Term B Loans ("Other Incremental Term Loans").

(b) The Borrowers and each Incremental Term Lender shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Incremental Assumption Agreement and, such other documentation as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably specify to evidence the Incremental Term Loan Commitment of such Incremental Term Lender. Each Incremental Assumption Agreement shall specify the terms of the applicable Incremental Term Loans; provided that (i) except as to pricing, amortization and final maturity date (which shall, subject to clauses (ii), (iii) and (v) of this proviso, be determined by the Borrowers and the Incremental Term Lenders in their sole discretion), the Other Incremental Term Loans shall have (A) substantially the same terms as the Initial Term B Loans or (B) such other terms as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (ii) the final maturity date of any Other Incremental Term Loans shall be no earlier than the then Latest Maturity Date, (iii) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any Other Incremental Term Loans shall be no shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Term Loans, (iv) in the event that the All-in-Yield for such Incremental Term Loan Commitments is greater than the All-in-Yield for the existing Initial Term B Loans by more than 50 basis points, then the Applicable Margin for the existing Term Loans, shall be increased to the extent necessary so that the All-in-Yield for such Incremental Term Loan Commitments is no more than 50 basis points higher than the All-in-Yield for the existing Initial Term B Loans, (v) at the time of and immediately after giving effect to such Incremental Term Loan Commitments, no Event of Default or Default shall have occurred and be continuing and (vi) the representations and warranties set forth in the Loan Documents shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such date (except to the extent such representations and warranties are qualified by "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect," in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all respects), as applicable, with the same effect as though made on and as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date (in which case such representations and warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date). The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Incremental Assumption Agreement. Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that, upon the effectiveness of any Incremental Assumption Agreement, this Agreement shall be amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to reflect the existence and terms of the Incremental Term Loan Commitments evidenced thereby as provided for in Section 9.08(e). Any such deemed amendment may be memorialized in writing by the Administrative Agent with the Dutch Borrower's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) and furnished to the other parties hereto.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Incremental Term Loan Commitment shall become effective under this Section 2.22 unless (i) on the date of such effectiveness, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing or would result therefrom and (ii) except as otherwise specified in the applicable amendment, the Administrative Agent shall have received (with sufficient copies for each of the Lenders providing such Other Incremental Term Loans) legal opinions with respect to customary matters, board resolutions, Notes and other customary closing certificates reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent and consistent with those delivered on the Closing Date under subsection 4.02.

(d) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that the Administrative Agent may take any and all action as may be reasonably necessary to ensure that all Incremental Term Loans (other than Other Incremental Term Loans) in the form of additional Initial Term B Loans, when originally made, are included in each Borrowing of outstanding Initial Term B Loans on a pro rata basis. The Borrowers agree that Section 2.17 shall apply to any conversion of Eurocurrency Loans to ABR Loans reasonably required by the Administrative Agent to effect the foregoing.

(e) The Incremental Term Loans shall rank pari passu in right of payment and of security with the Term Loans and shall have the same Guarantees.

SECTION 2.23 Refinancing Amendments.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including Section 2.19(c) (which provisions shall not be applicable to this Section 2.23), the Borrowers may by written notice to the Administrative Agent establish one or more additional tranches of term loans denominated at the option of the Borrowers under this Agreement (such loans, "Refinancing Term Loans"), all Net Proceeds of which are used to Refinance in whole or in part any Class of Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.12(b)(2). Each such notice shall specify the date (each, a "Refinancing Effective Date") on which the Borrowers propose that the Refinancing Term Loans shall be made, which shall be a date not earlier than five Business Days after the date on which such notice is delivered to the Administrative Agent (or such shorter period agreed to by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion); provided, that:

(i) before and after giving effect to the borrowing of such Refinancing Term Loans on the Refinancing Effective Date each of the conditions set forth in Section 4.01 shall be satisfied;

(ii) the final maturity date of the Refinancing Term Loans shall be no earlier than the Term Facility Maturity Date of the refinanced Term Loans;

(iii) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Refinancing Term Loans shall be no shorter than the then-remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the refinanced Term Loans;

(iv) the aggregate principal amount of the Refinancing Term Loans shall not exceed the outstanding principal amount of the refinanced Term Loans plus amounts used to pay fees, premiums, costs and expenses (including original issue discount) and accrued interest associated therewith;

(v) all other terms applicable to such Refinancing Term Loans (other than provisions relating to original issue discount, upfront fees, interest rates and any other pricing terms (which original issue discount, upfront fees, interest rates and other pricing terms shall not be subject to the provisions set forth in Section 2.22(b)(v)) and optional prepayment or mandatory prepayment or redemption terms, which shall be as agreed between the Borrowers and the Lenders providing such Refinancing Term Loans) taken as a whole shall (as determined by the Dutch Borrower in good faith) be substantially similar to, or not materially less favorable to the Parent and its Subsidiaries than, the terms, taken as a whole, applicable to the Term Loans being refinanced (except to the extent such covenants and other terms apply solely to any period after the Latest Maturity Date or are otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent);

(vi) with respect to Refinancing Term Loans secured by Liens on the Collateral that rank junior in right of security to the Initial Term B Loans, such Liens will be subject to a Permitted Junior Intercreditor Agreement;

(vii) there shall be no direct or contingent obligor in respect of such Refinancing Term Loans except (x) the borrowers shall be comprised solely of the Dutch Borrower (with the Co-Borrower a joint and several co-borrower as provided in this Agreement) and (y) the guarantors shall constitute the Guarantors hereunder;

(viii) Refinancing Term Loans shall not be secured by any asset of the Parent and its subsidiaries other than the Collateral; and

(ix) Refinancing Term Loans may participate on a pro rata basis or on a less than pro rata basis (but not on a greater than pro rata basis) in any mandatory prepayments (other than as provided otherwise in the case of such prepayments pursuant to Section 2.12(b)(2) hereunder, as specified in the applicable Refinancing Amendment.

(b) The Borrowers may approach any Lender or any other person that would be a permitted Assignee pursuant to Section 9.04 to provide all or a portion of the Refinancing Term Loans; provided, that any Lender offered or approached to provide all or a portion of the Refinancing Term Loans may elect or decline, in its sole discretion, to provide a Refinancing Term Loan. Any Refinancing Term Loans made on any Refinancing Effective Date shall be designated an additional Class of Term Loans for all purposes of this Agreement; provided, further, that any Refinancing Term Loans may, to the extent provided in the applicable Refinancing Amendment governing such Refinancing Term Loans, be designated as an increase in any previously established Class of Term Loans made to the Borrowers.

(c) The Borrowers and each Lender providing the applicable Refinancing Term Loans shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an amendment to this Agreement (a "Refinancing Amendment") and such other documentation as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably specify to evidence such Refinancing Term Loans. For purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, if a Lender is providing a Refinancing Term Loan, such Lender will be deemed to have an Other Term Loan having the terms of such Refinancing Term Loan. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including without limitation this Section 2.23), (i) the aggregate amount of Refinancing Term Loans will not be included in the calculation of the Incremental Amount, (ii) no Refinancing Term Loan is required to be in any minimum amount or any minimum increment, (iii) there shall be no condition to any incurrence of any Refinancing Term Loan at any time or from time to time other than those set forth in clauses (a) or (c) above, as applicable, and (iv) all Refinancing Term Loans and all obligations in respect thereof shall be Obligations under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents that rank equally and ratably in right of security with the Initial Term B Loans and other Loan Obligations (other than Other Incremental Term Loans and Refinancing Term Loans that rank junior in right of security with the Initial Term B Loans, and except to the extent any such Refinancing Term Loans are secured by the Collateral on a junior lien basis in accordance with the provisions above).

SECTION 2.24 Extensions of Loans and Commitments.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, including Section 2.19(c) (which provisions shall not be applicable to this Section 2.24), pursuant to one or more offers made from time to time by the Borrowers to all Lenders of any Class of Term Loans having a like Term Facility Maturity Date on a pro rata basis (based, in the case of an offer to the Lenders under any Class of Term Loans, on the aggregate outstanding Term Loans of such Class) and on the same terms to each such Lender ("Pro Rata Extension Offers"), the Borrowers are hereby permitted to consummate transactions with individual Lenders from time to time to extend the maturity date of such Lender's Loans and/or Commitments of such Class and to otherwise modify the term of such Lender's Loans and/or Commitments of such Class pursuant to the terms of the relevant Pro Rata Extension Offer (including, without limitation, increasing the interest rate or fees payable in respect of such Lender's Loans and/or Commitments and/or modifying the amortization schedule in respect of such Lender's Loans). For the avoidance of doubt, the reference to "on the same terms" in the preceding sentence shall mean, in the case of an offer to the Lenders under any Class of Term Loans, that all of the Term Loans of such Class are offered to be extended for the same amount of time and that the interest rate changes and fees payable with respect to such extension are the same. Any such extension (an "Extension") agreed to between the Borrowers and any such Lender (an "Extending Lender") will be established under this Agreement by implementing an Other Term Loan for such Lender if such Lender is extending an existing Term Loan (such extended Term Loan, an "Extended Term Loan"). Each Pro Rata Extension Offer shall specify the date on which the Borrowers propose that the Extended Term Loan shall be made, which shall be a date not earlier than five Business Days after the date on which notice is delivered to the Administrative Agent (or such shorter period agreed to by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion).

(b) The Borrowers and each Extending Lender shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an amendment to this Agreement (an "Extension Amendment") and such other documentation as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably specify to evidence the Extended Term Loans of such Extending Lender. Each Extension Amendment shall specify the terms of the applicable Extended Term Loans; provided, that (i) except as to interest rates, fees and any other pricing terms, and amortization, final maturity date and participation in prepayments and commitment reductions (which shall, subject to clauses (ii) and (iii) of this proviso, be determined by the Borrowers and set forth in the Pro Rata Extension Offer), the Extended Term Loans shall have (x) the same terms as the existing Class of Term Loans from which they are extended or (y) such other terms as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent, (ii) the final maturity date of any Extended Term Loans shall be no earlier than the latest Term Facility Maturity Date in effect on the date of incurrence, (iii) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of any Extended Term Loans shall be no shorter than the remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Class of Term Loans to which such offer relates and (iv) any Extended Term Loans may participate on a pro rata basis or a less than pro rata basis (but not a greater than pro rata basis) than the Initial Term B Loans in any mandatory prepayment hereunder. Upon the effectiveness of any Extension Amendment, this Agreement shall be amended to the extent (but only to the extent) necessary to reflect the existence and terms of the Extended Term Loans evidenced thereby as provided for in Section 9.08(e). Any such deemed amendment may be memorialized in writing by the Administrative Agent with the Borrowers' consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) and furnished to the other parties hereto.

(c) Upon the effectiveness of any such Extension, the applicable Extending Lender's Term Loan will be automatically designated an Extended Term Loan. For purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, if such Extending Lender is extending a Term Loan, such Extending Lender will be deemed to have an Other Term Loan having the terms of such Extended Term Loan.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or any other Loan Document (including without limitation this Section 2.24), (i) the aggregate amount of Extended

Term Loans will not be included in the calculation of the Incremental Amount, (ii) no Extended Term Loan is required to be in any minimum amount or any minimum increment, (iii) any Extending Lender may extend all or any portion of its Term Loans pursuant to one or more Pro Rata Extension Offers (subject to applicable proration in the case of over participation) (including the extension of any Extended Term Loan), (iv) there shall be no condition to any Extension of any Loan or Commitment at any time or from time to time other than notice to the Administrative Agent of such Extension and the terms of the Extended Term Loan implemented thereby, (v) all Extended Term Loans and all obligations in respect thereof shall be Loan Obligations of the relevant Loan Parties under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents that rank equally and ratably in right of security with all other Obligations of the Class being extended (and all other Obligations secured by pari passu Liens) and (vi) there shall be no obligor in respect of any such Extended Term Loans except (x) the borrowers shall be comprised solely of the Dutch Borrower (with the Co-Borrower a joint and several co-borrower as provided in this Agreement) and (y) the guarantors shall constitute the Guarantors hereunder.

(e) Each Extension shall be consummated pursuant to procedures set forth in the associated Pro Rata Extension Offer; provided, that the Borrowers shall cooperate with the Administrative Agent prior to making any Pro Rata Extension Offer to establish reasonable procedures with respect to mechanical provisions relating to such Extension, including, without limitation, timing, rounding and other adjustments.

SECTION 2.25 Loan Repurchases.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to below, the Dutch Borrower may from time to time, at its sole discretion, conduct modified Dutch auctions in order to purchase its Term Loans of one or more Classes (as determined by the Dutch Borrower) (each, a "Purchase Offer") at a discount to par, each such Purchase Offer to be managed exclusively by the Administrative Agent (or such other financial institution chosen by Holdings and reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent) (in such capacity, the "Auction Manager"), so long as the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) each Purchase Offer shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures, terms and conditions set forth in this Section 2.25 and the Auction Procedures;

(ii) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of the delivery of each notice of an auction and at the time of (and immediately after giving effect to) the purchase of any Term Loans in connection with any Purchase Offer;

(iii) the principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of each and all Classes of Term Loans that the Dutch Borrower offers to purchase in any such Purchase Offer shall be no less than U.S. $25,000,000 (unless another amount is agreed to by the Administrative Agent) (across all such Classes);

(iv) the aggregate principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans of the applicable Class or Classes so purchased by the Dutch Borrower shall automatically be cancelled and retired by the Dutch Borrower on the settlement date of the relevant purchase (and may not be resold), and in no event shall the Dutch Borrower be entitled to any vote hereunder in connection with such Term Loans;

(v) no more than one Purchase Offer with respect to any Class may be ongoing at any one time;

(vi) the Dutch Borrower represents and warrants that no Loan Party shall have any material non-public information with respect to the Loan Parties or the Subsidiaries, or with respect to the Loans or the securities of any such person, that (A) has not been previously disclosed in writing to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders (other than because such Lender does not wish to receive such material non-public information) prior to such time and (B) could reasonably be expected to have a material effect upon, or otherwise be material to, a Lender's decision to participate in the Purchase Offer;

(vii) at the time of each purchase of Term Loans through a Purchase Offer, the Dutch Borrower shall have delivered to the Auction Manager an officer's certificate of a Responsible Officer certifying as to compliance with the preceding clause (vi);

(viii) any Purchase Offer with respect to any Class shall be offered to all Term Lenders holding Term Loans of such Class on a pro rata basis;

(ix) no purchase of any Term Loans shall be made from the proceeds of any Revolving Facility Loan (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement); and

(x) immediately prior to and after giving effect to any purchase pursuant to this Section 2.25, the sum of the unused Revolving Facility Commitments (as defined in the First Lien Credit Agreement), plus unrestricted cash and cash equivalents held by Loan Parties shall not be less than $50,000,000.

(b) The Dutch Borrower must terminate any Purchase Offer if it fails to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of purchase of Term Loans pursuant to such Purchase Offer. If the Dutch Borrower commences any Purchase Offer (and all relevant requirements set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the commencement of such Purchase Offer have in fact been satisfied), and if at such time of commencement the Dutch Borrower reasonably believes that all required conditions set forth above which are required to be satisfied at the time of the consummation of such Purchase Offer shall be satisfied, then the Dutch Borrower shall have no liability to any Term Lender for any termination of such Purchase Offer as a result of its failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of consummation of such Purchase Offer, and any such failure shall not result in any Default or Event of Default hereunder. With respect to all purchases of Term Loans of any Class or Classes made by the Dutch Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.25, (x) the Dutch Borrower shall pay on the settlement date of each such purchase all accrued and unpaid interest (except to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant offering documents), if any, on the purchased Term Loans of the applicable Class or Classes up to the settlement date of such purchase and (y) such purchases (and the payments made by the Dutch Borrower and the cancellation of the purchased Loans, in each case in connection therewith) shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of Section 2.11 hereof.

(c) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to the Purchase Offers and the other transactions effected pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.25; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no Lender shall have an obligation to participate in any such Purchase Offer. For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that the provisions of Sections 2.16, 2.18 and 9.04 will not apply to the purchases of Term Loans pursuant to Purchase Offers made pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.25. The Auction Manager acting in its capacity as such hereunder shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article VIII and Section 9.05 to the same extent as if each reference therein to the "Agents" were a reference to the Auction Manager, and the Administrative Agent shall cooperate with the Auction Manager as reasonably requested by the Auction Manager in order to enable it to perform its responsibilities and duties in connection with each Purchase Offer.

(d) This Section 2.25 shall supersede any provisions in Section 2.18 or 9.06 to the contrary.

SECTION 2.26 Defaulting Lenders.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as such Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

(a) such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the definition of Majority Lenders and Required Lenders;

(b) any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Article VII or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 9.06 shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, as the Borrowers may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; third, so long as no Default or Event of Default exists, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrowers as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrowers against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and fourth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

SECTION 8.05 Reliance by Agents.

The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely, and shall be fully protected in relying, upon any instrument, writing, resolution, notice, consent, certificate, affidavit, letter, telecopy, telex or teletype message, facsimile or other electronic transmission (including “.pdf” or “.tif”), statement, order or other document or instruction reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed, sent or made by the proper person or persons and upon advice and statements of legal counsel (including counsel to the Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Administrative Agent may deem and treat the Lender specified in the Register with respect to any amount owing hereunder as the owner thereof for all purposes unless a written notice of assignment, negotiation or transfer thereof shall have been filed with the Administrative Agent. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Loan. The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for Parent and/or the Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall be entitled to rely upon the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with such advice in good faith.

The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action under this Agreement or any other Loan Document unless it shall first receive such advice or concurrence of the Required Lenders as it deems appropriate or it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders against any and all liability and expense that may be incurred by it by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents in accordance with a request of the Required Lenders, and such request and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding upon all the Lenders and all future holders of the Loans.

SECTION 8.06 Notice of Default.

Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default hereunder unless the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent has received notice from a Lender, Parent and/or the Borrowers referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a "notice of default." In the event that the Administrative Agent receives such a notice, it shall give notice thereof to the Lenders and the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by the Required Lenders, provided that unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received such directions, the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such action, or refrain from taking such action, with respect to such Default or Event of Default as it shall deem advisable in the best interests of the Lenders except to the extent that this Agreement requires that such action be taken only with the approval of the Required Lenders or each of the Lenders, as applicable.

SECTION 8.07 Non-Reliance on Administrative Agent. Collateral Agent and Other Lenders.

Each Lender (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) expressly acknowledge that neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Affiliates has made any representations or warranties to it and that no act by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereinafter taken, including any review of the affairs of Parent, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to any Lender or any other Secured Party. Each Lender (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) represent to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, any other Lender or any other Secured Party, and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own appraisal of and investigation into the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Parent, the Borrowers and other Loan Parties and made its own decision to make its Loans hereunder and enter into this Agreement or otherwise with respect to Parent, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties. Each Lender (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits under the Loan Documents) also represent that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any other Lender, and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and to make such investigation as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of Parent, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties. Except for notices, reports and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders by the Administrative Agent hereunder, neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender or any other Secured Party with any credit or other information concerning the business, assets, operations, properties, financial condition, prospects or creditworthiness of Parent, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party that may come into the possession of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys-in-fact or Related Parties.

SECTION 8.08 Indemnification.

The Lenders agree to indemnify the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, each in its capacity as such (to the extent required to be but not reimbursed by the Borrowers and without limiting the obligation of the Borrowers to do so), ratably according to their respective portions of the total Term Loans held on the date on which indemnification is sought, from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind whatsoever that may at any time (including at any time following the payment of the Loans) be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent (or their respective Related Parties) in any way relating to or arising out of the Commitments, this Agreement, any of the other Loan Documents, or any documents (including any intercreditor agreement) contemplated by or referred to herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or any action taken or omitted by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under or in connection with any of the foregoing, provided that no Lender shall be liable for the payment of any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent's or the Collateral Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The agreements in this Section 8.08 shall survive the payment of the Loans and all other amounts payable hereunder.

SECTION 8.09 Agents in their Individual Capacity.

The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and their Affiliates may make loans to, accept deposits from and generally engage in any kind of business with Parent, the Borrowers and any other Loan Party as though such persons were not the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents. With respect to the Loans made by it, the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall each have the same rights and powers under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents as any Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, and the terms "Lender" and "Lenders" and any other similar terms shall include the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent in their individual capacities.

SECTION 8.10 Successor Agents.

Each of the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders and the Dutch Borrower. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, subject to the reasonable consent of the Dutch Borrower so long as no Event of Default under Section 7.01(h) or (i) is continuing, to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Agent may on behalf of the Lenders appoint a successor Agent meeting the qualifications and subject to the consent requirements set forth above; provided that if the retiring Agent shall notify the Dutch Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying person has accepted such appointment, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (1) the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents (except in the case of the Collateral Agent holding collateral security on behalf of any Secured Parties, the retiring Collateral Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security as nominee until such time as a successor Collateral Agent is appointed) and (2) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through such Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender, until such time as the Required Lenders appoint a successor Agent as provided for above in this Section. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as the case may be, hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section). The fees payable by the Borrowers (following the effectiveness of such appointment) to such Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrowers and such successor. After the retiring Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article VIII and Section 9.05 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Agent was acting as an Agent. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that any resignation by the Collateral Agent is not effective with respect to its rights and obligations under the Parallel Debt until such rights and obligations have been assumed by the successor Collateral Agent.

If the Person serving as Administrative Agent is a Defaulting Lender, the Required Lenders may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, by notice in writing to the Dutch Borrower and such Person remove such Person as Administrative Agent and, in consultation with the Dutch Borrower, appoint a successor. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days (or such earlier day as shall be agreed by the Required Lenders) (the "Removal Effective Date"), then such removal shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice on the Removal Effective Date.

SECTION 8.11 Payments Set Aside.

To the extent that any payment by or on behalf of the Borrowers is made to the Administrative Agent or any Lender, or the Administrative Agent or any Lender exercises its right of setoff, and such payment or the proceeds of such setoff or any part thereof is subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside or required (including pursuant to any settlement entered into by the Administrative Agent or such Lender in its discretion) to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party, in connection with any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or otherwise, then (a) to the extent of such recovery, the obligation or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such setoff had not occurred, and

(b) each Lender severally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent upon demand its applicable share (without duplication) of any amount so recovered from or repaid by the Administrative Agent, plus interest thereon from the date of such demand to the date such payment is made at a rate per annum equal to the applicable Overnight Rate from time to time in effect. The obligations of the Lenders under clause (b) of the preceding sentence shall survive the payment in full of the Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.12 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim.

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrowers) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise

(i) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Article II or Section 9.05) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(ii) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, if the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Article II and Section 9.05.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or in any such proceeding.

SECTION 8.13 Collateral and Guarantee Matters.

The Lenders (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits of the Loan Documents) irrevocably authorize the Collateral Agent, at its option and in its discretion, to release or subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Loan Document if permitted, approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 9.08, or pursuant to Section 9.18 or if required by the Intercreditor Agreement. Upon request by the Collateral Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing the Collateral Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property in accordance with this Section. The Lenders (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits of the Loan Documents) irrevocably agree that (x) the Collateral Agent may, without any further consent of any Lender or any other Secured Party, enter into or amend the Intercreditor Agreement or any other intercreditor agreement with the collateral agent or other representatives of the holders of Indebtedness that is permitted to be secured by a Senior Lien or a Junior Lien on the Collateral that is permitted under this Agreement; provided that any amendment of the Intercreditor Agreement or such other intercreditor agreement that is materially adverse to the interests of the Secured Parties shall require the consent of the Required Lenders, (y) the Collateral Agent may rely exclusively on a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Dutch Borrower as to whether any such other Liens are permitted and (z) any such intercreditor agreement or amendment thereto referred to in clause (x) above, entered into by the Collateral Agent, shall be binding on the Secured Parties.

SECTION 8.14 Arrangers.

None of the Arrangers shall have any duties or responsibilities hereunder in its capacity as such, but shall be entitled to the indemnities and exculpatory provisions of the Administrative Agent set forth in Section 8.04, 8.07, 8.08 and 8.09 as if such provisions referred to the Arrangers mutatis mutandis. The Arrangers are express third party beneficiaries of the Loan Documents to the extent applicable.

SECTION 8.15 Intercreditor Agreements and Collateral Matters.

The Lenders (and each other Secured Party by its acceptance of the benefits of the Loan Documents) hereby (a) authorize and instruct the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to enter into the Intercreditor Agreement and any other intercreditor agreement contemplated herein, (b) agree not to assert any claim (including as a result of any conflict of interest) against the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent arising from the role of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent under the Intercreditor Agreement or such other intercreditor agreement so long as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent is either acting in accordance with the express terms of such documents or otherwise has not engaged in gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction and (c) acknowledge that each of the Intercreditor Agreement and such other intercreditor agreement is binding upon them and agree that they will take no actions contrary to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement or such other inter-creditor agreement.

SECTION 8.16 Withholding Taxes.

To the extent required by any applicable law (as determined in good faith by the Administrative Agent), the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender or under any Loan Document an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. Without limiting or expanding the provisions of Section 2.18, each Lender shall, and does hereby, indemnify the Administrative Agent against, and shall make payable in respect thereof within 30 days after demand therefor, any and all Taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Administrative Agent) incurred by or asserted against the Administrative Agent by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority as a result of the failure of the Administrative Agent to properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender or for any reason (including because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective). A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender or by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender or under this Agreement or any other Loan Document against any amount due the Administrative Agent under this Section 8.16. The agreements in this Section 8.16 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender or, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 9.01 Notices; Communications.

(a) Except in the case of notices and other communications expressly permitted to be given by telephone (and except as provided in Section 9.01(b) below), all notices and other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or overnight courier service, mailed by certified or registered mail or sent by facsimile or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif") as follows, and all notices and other communications expressly permitted hereunder to be given by telephone shall be made to the applicable telephone number, as follows:

(i) if to any Loan Party, the Administrative Agent to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such person on Schedule 9.01; and

(ii) if to any other Lender, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified in its Administrative Questionnaire.

(b) Each Loan Party hereby agrees that it will provide to the Administrative Agent all information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders pursuant to this Agreement and any other Loan Document, including all notices, requests, financial statements, financial and other reports, certificates and other information materials (the "Communications"), by transmitting them in an electronic medium in a format reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent at such e-mail address(es) provided to the Dutch Borrower from time to time or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall require. In addition, each Loan Party agrees to continue to provide the Communications to the Administrative Agent in the manner specified in this Agreement or any other Loan Document or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably require. Nothing in this Section 9.01 shall prejudice the right of the Agents, any Lender or any Loan Party to give any notice or other communication pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document in any other manner specified in this Agreement or any other Loan Document or as any such Agent shall reasonably require.

(c) Unless the Administrative Agent otherwise prescribes, (i) notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement); provided that if such notice or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient, and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(d) To the extent consented to by the Administrative Agent in writing from time to time, the Administrative Agent agrees that receipt of the Communications (other than any such Communication that (i) relates to a request for a new, or a conversion of an existing, Borrowing or other extension of credit (including any election of an interest rate or interest period relating thereto), (ii) relates to the payment of any principal or other amount due under this Agreement prior to the scheduled date therefor, (iii) provides notice of any Default or Event of Default under this Agreement or (iv) is required to be delivered to satisfy any condition precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement and/or any borrowing or other extension of credit hereunder) by the Administrative Agent at its e-mail address(es) set forth above shall constitute effective delivery of the Communications to the Administrative Agent for purposes of the Loan Documents.

(e) Notices sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when received. Notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient). Notices or communications (i) sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received when delivered and (ii) posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefore.

(f) Any party hereto may change its address or facsimile number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto. In addition, each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent from time to time to ensure that the Administrative Agent has on record (i) an effective address, contact name, telephone number, facsimile number and electronic mail address to which notices and other communications may be sent and (ii) accurate wire instructions for such Lender.

(g) Documents required to be delivered pursuant to Section 5.04 may be delivered electronically (including as set forth in Section 9.17) and if so delivered, shall be deemed to have been delivered on the date (i) on which Holdings posts such documents, or provides a link thereto on Holdings' or the Borrowers' website on the Internet at the website address listed on Schedule 9.01, or (ii) on which such documents are posted on Holdings' or the Borrowers' behalf on an Internet or intranet website, if any, to which each Lender and the Administrative Agent have access (whether a commercial, third-party website or whether sponsored by the Administrative Agent); provided that (A) Holdings shall deliver paper copies of such documents to the Administrative Agent or any Lender that requests Parent to deliver such paper copies until a written request to cease delivering paper copies is given by the Administrative Agent or such Lender, and (B) the Dutch Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent (by facsimile or electronic mail) of the posting of any such documents and provide to the Administrative Agent by electronic mail electronic versions (i.e., soft copies) of such documents. Except for certificates required by Section 5.04(c), the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to request the delivery or to maintain copies of the documents referred to above, and in any event shall have no responsibility to monitor compliance by Holdings or the Borrowers with any such request for delivery, and each Lender shall be solely responsible for requesting delivery to it or maintaining its copies of such documents.

SECTION 9.02 Survival of Agreement.

All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties herein, in the other Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments prepared or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the Lenders and shall survive the making by the Lenders of the Loans, the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents, regardless of any investigation made by such persons or on their behalf, and shall continue in full force and effect as long as the principal of or any accrued interest on any Loan or any Fee or any other amount payable under this Agreement or any other Loan Document is outstanding and unpaid and so long as the Commitments have not been terminated. Without prejudice to the survival of any other agreements contained herein, indemnification and reimbursement obligations contained herein (including pursuant to Sections 2.16, 2.18, 2.19, 8.07 and 9.05) shall survive the payment in full of the principal and interest hereunder, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender and the termination of the Commitments or this Agreement.

SECTION 9.03 Binding Effect.

This Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by Holdings, Parent, the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received copies hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Holdings, Parent, the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each Lender and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

SECTION 9.04 Successors and Assigns.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (i) the Borrowers may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrowers without such consent shall be null and void and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 9.04. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants (to the extent provided in clause (c) of this Section 9.04), and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Agents and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in clause (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more assignees (each, an "Assignee") all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Administrative Agent; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment of all or any portion of a Term Loan to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to a Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitments or Loans under any Facility, the amount of the Commitments or Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent (the "Trade Date")) shall not be less than $1.0 million (and shall be in an amount of an integral multiple thereof), unless each of the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent otherwise consent; provided that (1) no such consent of the Borrowers shall be required if an Event of Default under Section 7.01(b), (c), (h) or (i) has occurred and is continuing and (2) such amounts shall be aggregated in respect of each Lender and its Affiliates or Approved Funds (with simultaneous assignments to or by two or more Related Funds shall be treated as one assignment), if any;

(B) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if required by the Administrative Agent, manually), and shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced in the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent);

(C) the Assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire and any Tax forms required to be delivered pursuant to Section 2.18;

(D) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitment assigned;

(E) no assignment to Parent, Holdings or any of the Subsidiaries or to a natural person shall be permitted; and

(F) notwithstanding the foregoing, assignment of Loans with respect to a Dutch Borrower pursuant to this Section 9.04 shall only be permitted if the person to whom such Loans are transferred is a Non-Public Lender.

For the purposes of this Section 9.04, "Approved Fund" means any person (other than a natural person) that is engaged in making, purchasing, holding or investing in bank loans and similar extensions of credit in the ordinary course of its activities and that is administered or managed by (a) a Lender, (b) an Affiliate of a Lender or (c) an entity or an Affiliate of an entity that administers or manages a Lender. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, no Lender shall be permitted to assign or transfer any portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to (A) any Ineligible Institution, (B) any Defaulting Lender or any of its Subsidiaries, or any person who, upon becoming a Lender hereunder, would constitute any of the foregoing persons described in this clause (B), or (C) a natural person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Loan Party and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Administrative Agent shall not have any responsibility or obligation to determine whether any Lender or potential Lender is an Ineligible Institution and the Administrative Agent shall have no liability with respect to any assignment made to an Ineligible Institution.

(ii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to paragraph (b)(v) below, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption the Assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.16, 2.17, 2.18 and 9.05 (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections)). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 9.04 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) of this Section 9.04.

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, shall maintain at one of its offices a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amount (and related interest amounts) of the Loans owing to each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive (absent manifest error), and the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers and any Lender (solely with respect to its own entry and not the entry of any other Lender), at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Assumption executed by an assigning Lender and an Assignee, the Assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the Assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), all applicable Tax forms, the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b) of this Section and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b) of this Section, the Administrative Agent promptly shall accept such Assignment and Assumption and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment, whether or not evidenced by a promissory note, shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (b)(v).

(c) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than Parent, Holdings, any of the Subsidiaries or any Ineligible Institution, to the extent that the list of Ineligible Institutions has been made available to all Lenders) (a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (C) the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and the other Loan Documents and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents; provided that (x) such agreement may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver that (1) requires the consent of each Lender directly affected thereby pursuant to clause (i), (ii), (iii) or (vi) of the first proviso to Section 9.08(b) and (2) directly affects such Participant (but, for the avoidance of doubt, not any waiver of any Default or Event of Default) and (y) no other agreement with respect to amendment, modification or waiver may exist between such Lender and such Participant. Subject to paragraph (c)(ii) of this Section 9.04, the Borrowers agree that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.16, 2.17 and 2.18 (subject to the limitations and requirements of those Sections and Section 2.20 and it being understood that the documentation required under Section 2.18(e) shall be delivered solely to the participating Lender) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 9.04. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 9.06 as though it were a Lender, provided such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.19(c) as though it were a Lender. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers', maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal and interest amounts with respect to such Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any commitments, loans, letters of credit or its other obligations under any Loan Document) to any Person except to the extent that such disclosure is necessary in connection with a Tax audit or proceeding to establish that such commitment, loan, letter of credit or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and the Borrowers and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such Loan or other obligation hereunder as the owner thereof for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Loan Party and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Administrative Agent shall not have any responsibility or obligation to determine whether any Participant or potential Participant is an Ineligible Institution and the Administrative Agent shall have no liability with respect to any participation made to an Ineligible Institution.

(i) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.16, 2.17 or 2.18 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant, except to the extent the entitlement to a greater payment results from a Change in Law occurring after such Participant becomes a Participant.

(ii) Subject to paragraph (c)(i) and (ii) of this Section 9.04, voting rights of Participants shall be limited to matters in respect of (A) increases to all or a portion of their respective Commitments, (B) reductions of principal, interest or fees payable to such Participants, (C) extensions of final maturity or amortization of the Loans or Commitments in which such Participants participate, (D) releases of all or substantially all of the Collateral or of all or substantially all of the value of the guarantees by Parent or the Subsidiary Loan Parties except as required by the Intercreditor Agreement and (E) modification of voting percentages (or any of the applicable definitions related thereto).

(d) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement to secure obligations of such Lender, including any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank and in the case of any Lender that is an Approved Fund, any pledge or assignment to any holders of obligations owed, or securities issued, by such Lender, including to any trustee for, or any other representative of, such holders, and this Section 9.04 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or Assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(e) The Borrowers, at their expense and upon receipt of written notice from the relevant Lender, agree to issue Notes to any Lender requiring Notes to facilitate transactions of the type described in paragraph (d) above.

(f) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Conduit Lender may assign any or all of the Loans it may have funded hereunder to its designating Lender without the consent of the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent. Each of the Borrowers, each Lender and the Administrative Agent hereby confirms that it will not institute against a Conduit Lender or join any other person in instituting against a Conduit Lender any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceeding under any state bankruptcy or similar law, for one year and one day after the payment in full of the latest maturing commercial paper note issued by such Conduit Lender; provided, however, that each Lender designating any Conduit Lender hereby agrees to indemnify, save and hold harmless each other party hereto and each Loan Party for any loss, cost, damage or expense arising out of its inability to institute such a proceeding against such Conduit Lender during such period of forbearance.

(g) If the Borrowers wish to replace the Loans or Commitments in full under any Facility with ones having different terms, it shall have the option, with the consent of the Administrative Agent and subject to at least three (3) Business Days' advance notice to the Lenders under such Facility, instead of prepaying the Loans or reducing or terminating the Commitments to be replaced, to (i) require the Lenders under such Facility to assign such Loans or Commitments to the Administrative Agent or its designees and (ii) amend the terms thereof in accordance with Section 9.08 (with such replacement, if applicable, being deemed to have been made pursuant to Section 9.08(d)). Pursuant to any such assignment, all Loans and Commitments to be replaced shall be purchased at par (plus any applicable premium) by the lenders providing any such replacement facility (allocated among the Lenders under such Facility in the same manner as would be required if such Loans were being optionally prepaid or such Commitments were being optionally reduced or terminated by the Borrowers), accompanied by payment of any accrued interest and fees thereon and any amounts owing pursuant to Section 9.05(a). By receiving such purchase price, the Lenders under such Facility shall automatically be deemed to have assigned the Loans or Commitments under such Facility pursuant to the terms of the form of Assignment and Assumption attached hereto as Exhibit A, and accordingly no other action by such Lenders shall be required in connection therewith. The provisions of this paragraph (g) are intended to facilitate the maintenance of the perfection and priority of existing security interests in the Collateral during any such replacement.

(h) If any assignment or participation is made to any Ineligible Institution without the Borrowers' prior written consent in violation of clause (i) above, or if any Person becomes an Ineligible Institution after the applicable Trade Date, the Borrowers may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice to the applicable Ineligible Institution and the Administrative Agent, (A) in the case of outstanding Term Loans held by Ineligible Institutions, purchase or prepay such Term Loan by paying the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Ineligible Institution paid to acquire such Term Loans, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder and/or (B) require such Ineligible Institution to assign, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in this Section 9.04), all of its interest, rights and obligations under this Agreement to one or more Assignees at the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Ineligible Institution paid to acquire such interests, rights and obligations, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Ineligible Institutions (A) will not (x) have the right to receive information, reports or other materials provided to Lenders by the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent or any other Lender, (y) be permitted to attend or participate in meetings attended by the Lenders and the Administrative Agent, or (z) be permitted to access any electronic site established for the Lenders or confidential communications from counsel to or financial advisors of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders and (B) (x) for purposes of any consent to any amendment, waiver or modification of, or any action under, and for the purpose of any direction to the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) under this Agreement or any other Loan Document, each Ineligible Institution will be deemed to have consented in the same proportion as the Lenders that are not Ineligible Institutions consented to such matter and (y) for purposes of voting on any Debtor Relief Plan, each Ineligible Institution party hereto hereby agrees (1) not to vote on such Debtor Relief Plan, (2) if such Ineligible Institution does vote on such Debtor Relief Plan notwithstanding the restriction in the foregoing clause (1), such vote will be deemed not to be in good faith and shall be "designated" pursuant to Section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws), and such vote shall not be counted in determining whether the applicable class has accepted or rejected such Debtor Relief Plan in accordance with Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws) and (3) not to contest any request by any party for a determination by the Bankruptcy Court (or other applicable court of competent jurisdiction) effectuating the foregoing clause (2).

SECTION 9.05 Expenses; Indemnity.

(a) If the Closing Date occurs, the Borrowers jointly and severally agree to pay all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Arrangers in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution, delivery and administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, or, with respect to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, in connection with the syndication of commitments (including the obtaining and maintaining of CUSIP numbers for the Loans) or administration of this Agreement and any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions hereof or thereof, including (i) in connection with post-closing searches to confirm that security filings and recordations have been properly made and including any costs and expenses of the service provider referred to in Section 8.03, (ii) expenses incurred in connection with due diligence, (iii) the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP, counsel for the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Arrangers, and the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of one local counsel per jurisdiction, and (iv) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Arrangers, Agents or any Lender in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents in connection with the Loans made hereunder, including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of counsel for the Agents and the Lenders; provided that legal fees pursuant to this Section 9.05(a) shall be limited to the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP, counsel for the Agents and the Arrangers, and, if reasonably necessary or advisable, the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of one local counsel per jurisdiction and one additional counsel for each group of affected persons, taken as a whole, to the extent of any actual or perceived conflict of interest.

The Borrowers jointly and severally agree to indemnify the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Arrangers, each Lender, each of their respective Affiliates and each of their respective successors and assigns and their respective directors, partners, controlling persons, officers, employees, agents, trustees, advisors and members of the foregoing (each such person being called an "Indemnitee") against, and to hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses, including reasonable counsel fees, charges and disbursements (limited to one counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties and one local counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties in each applicable jurisdiction and, solely in the event of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each applicable material jurisdiction to the other Indemnitees) (except the allocated costs of in-house counsel), incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance by the parties hereto and thereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of or otherwise relating to the Transactions and the other transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) the use of the proceeds of the Loans or (iii) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by Parent or any of the Subsidiaries, Affiliates or equity holders; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from (1) the gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of such Indemnitee, (2) a material breach of obligations by such Indemnitee or (3) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding that does not involve an act or omission of any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates and that is brought by an Indemnitee against any other Indemnitee (other than any claim, actions, suits, inquiries, litigation, investigation or proceeding against the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any Arranger or any other agent in its capacity as such with respect to any of the Loan Documents or arising out of any act or omission on the part of the Borrowers or their Subsidiaries or Affiliates). Subject to and without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, the Borrowers jointly and severally agree to indemnify each Indemnitee against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses, including reasonable counsel or consultant fees, charges and disbursements (limited to one counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties and one local counsel to the Agents and their Related Parties in each applicable jurisdiction and, solely in the event of an actual or perceived conflict of interest, one additional counsel in each applicable material jurisdiction to the other Indemnitees) (except the allocated costs of in-house counsel), incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in any way connected with, or as a result of (A) any claim or liability arising under Environmental Laws and related to Parent or any of the Subsidiaries, or (B) any actual or alleged presence, Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Materials at, under, on, from or to any property currently or formerly owned, operated or leased by any of them; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from (1) the gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of such Indemnitee or any of its Related Parties, (2) a material breach of Obligations by such Indemnitee or (3) any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding that does not involve an act or omission of any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates and that is brought by an Indemnitee against any other Indemnitee (other than any claim, actions, suits, inquiries, litigation, investigation or proceeding against the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any Arranger or any other agent in its capacity as such with respect to any of the Loan Documents or arising out of any act or omission on the part of the Borrowers or their Subsidiaries or Affiliates). None of the Indemnitees (or any of their respective Affiliates) shall be responsible or liable to the Parent, Holdings or any of the Subsidiaries, Affiliates or stockholders or any other person or entity for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages, which may be alleged as a result of the Facilities or the Transactions. None of the Parent, Holdings or any of the Subsidiaries, Affiliates or stockholders shall be responsible or liable to the Indemnitees (or any of their respective Affiliates) or any other person or entity for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages, which may be alleged by an Indemnitee in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as an administrative agent or arranger or any similar role under this Agreement (other than in respect of any such damages incurred or paid by an Indemnitee to a third party for which such Indemnitee is otherwise entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Section 9.05). The provisions of this Section 9.05 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of any of the Obligations, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, any Arranger or any Lender. All amounts due under this Section 9.05 shall be payable within 30 days following written demand therefor accompanied by reasonable documentation with respect to any reimbursement, indemnification or other amount requested.

(b) Except as expressly provided in Section 9.05(a) with respect to Other Taxes, which shall not be duplicative of any amounts paid pursuant to Section 2.18, this Section 9.05 shall not apply to Taxes, except Taxes that represent damages or losses resulting from a non-Tax claim.

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, none of Parent, Holdings or the Subsidiaries shall assert, and hereby waive, any claim against any Indemnitee, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, any Loan or the use of the proceeds thereof. No Indemnitee shall be liable for any damages arising from the use by unintended recipients of any information or other materials distributed by it through telecommunications, electronic or other information transmission systems in connection with this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(d) The agreements in this Section 9.05 shall survive the resignation of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the replacement of any Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all the other Obligations and the termination of this Agreement.

SECTION 9.06 Right of Set-off.

If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, each Lender is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other indebtedness at any time owing by such Lender to or for the credit or the account of Parent, the Borrowers or any Subsidiary against any of and all the obligations of Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any Subsidiary now or hereafter existing under this Agreement or any other Loan Document held by such Lender or, irrespective of whether or not such Lender shall have made any demand under this Agreement or such other Loan Document and although the obligations may be contingent or unmatured or are owed to a branch or office of such Lender different from the branch or office holding such deposit or obligated on such indebtedness; provided that in the event that any Defaulting Lender shall exercise any such right of set-off, (x) all amounts so set off shall be paid over immediately to the Administrative Agent for further application in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.26 and, pending such payment, shall be segregated by such Defaulting Lender from its other funds and deemed held in trust for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, and (y) the Defaulting Lender shall provide promptly to the Administrative Agent a statement describing in reasonable detail the Obligations owing to such Defaulting Lender as to which it exercised such right of set-off. Each Lender that exercises such right of set-off shall give prompt notice to the Dutch Borrower; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application. The rights of each Lender under this Section 9.06 are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of set-off) that such Lender may have.

SECTION 9.07 Applicable Law.

THIS AGREEMENT (INCLUDING SECTION 9.15 AND ARTICLE X BUT EXCLUDING SECTION 8.01(C)) AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 9.08 Waivers; Amendment.

(a) No failure or delay of the Administrative Agent or any Lender in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereunder and under the other Loan Documents are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document or consent to any departure by Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by clause (b) below, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party in any case shall entitle such person to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified except (x) as provided in Sections 2.22, 2.23 and 2.24, (y) in the case of this Agreement, as may be required by the Intercreditor Agreement or pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by Holdings, Parent, the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent (and consented to by the Required Lenders, and (z) in the case of any other Loan Document, as may be required by the Intercreditor Agreement or pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each party thereto and consented to by the Required Lenders; provided, however, that no such agreement shall:

(i) decrease or forgive the principal amount of, or extend the final maturity of, or decrease the rate of interest on, or decrease any prepayment premium on, or decrease any fees or reimbursement obligations payable on any Loan, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly adversely affected thereby (which, notwithstanding the foregoing, such consent of such Lender directly adversely affected thereby shall be the only consent required hereunder to make such modification); provided that a non-payment default waiver, waiver of default interest under Section 2.14(c) hereof, change to a financial covenant ratio or modification to Section 2.22(b)(iv) hereof shall not constitute a reduction in the rate of interest for purposes of this clause (i),

(ii) increase or extend the Commitment of any Lender (it being understood that waivers or modifications of conditions precedent, covenants, Defaults or Events of Default shall not constitute an increase of the Commitments of any Lender),

(iii) extend any date on which payment of interest on any Loan or any Fees are due or increase the maximum duration of any Interest Period permitted hereunder, in each case, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly adversely affected thereby (which, notwithstanding the foregoing, such consent of such Lender directly adversely affected thereby shall be the only consent required hereunder to make such modification),

(iv) amend the provisions of Section 2.19(b), Section 2.19(c) or Section 7.03, or any analogous provision of any Security Document, in a manner that would by its terms alter the pro rata sharing of payments required thereby, without the prior written consent of each Lender adversely affected thereby,

(v) reduce the voting rights of any Lender under this Section 9.08 or any other provision hereof specifying the number or percentage of Lenders required to waive, amend or modify any rights hereunder or make any determination or grant any consent hereunder, without the prior written consent of such Lender (it being understood that, with the consent of the Required Lenders, additional extensions of credit pursuant to this Agreement may be included in the determination of the Required Lenders on substantially the same basis as the Loans and Commitments are included on the Closing Date),

(vi) release all or substantially all of the Collateral or release all or substantially all of the value of the guarantees by Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or the Subsidiary Loan Parties, unless, in each case, to the extent sold or otherwise disposed of in a transaction permitted by this Agreement or the other Loan Documents or required by the Intercreditor Agreement, without the prior written consent of each Lender;

(vii) effect any waiver, amendment or modification that by its terms adversely affects the rights in respect of payments or collateral of Lenders participating in any Facility differently from those of Lenders participating in another Facility, without the consent of the Majority Lenders participating in the adversely affected Facility (it being agreed that the Required Lenders may waive, in whole or in part, any prepayment required by Section 2.12 so long as the application of any prepayment still required to be made is not changed); provided, further, that no such amendment shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent acting as such at the effective date of such amendment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no consent of any Defaulting Lender shall be required for any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender, except that (x) the Commitment of any Defaulting Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender and (y) any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each directly and adversely affected Lender that by its terms materially and adversely affects any Defaulting Lender to a greater extent than other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender. Each Lender shall be bound by any waiver, amendment or modification authorized by this Section 9.08 and any consent by any Lender pursuant to this Section 9.08 shall bind any successor or assignee of such Lender.

(c) Without the consent of any Lender, the Loan Parties and the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent may (in their respective sole discretion, or shall, to the extent required by any Loan Document) enter into any amendment, modification or waiver of any Loan Document, or enter into any new agreement or instrument, to effect the granting, perfection, protection, expansion or enhancement of any security interest in any Collateral or additional property to become Collateral for the benefit of the Secured Parties, or as required by local law to give effect to, or protect any security interest for the benefit of the Secured Parties, in any property or so that the security interests therein comply with applicable law or this Agreement or in each case to otherwise enhance the rights or benefits of any Lender under any Loan Document.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be amended (or amended and restated) with the written consent of the Required Lenders, the Administrative Agent, Parent, the Holdings and the Borrowers (i) to add one or more additional credit or debit facilities to this Agreement and to permit the extensions of credit from time to time outstanding thereunder and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof to share ratably in the benefits of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents with the Term Loans and the accrued interest and fees in respect thereof and (ii) to include appropriately the Lenders holding such credit or debit facilities in any determination of the Required Lenders or Majority Lenders.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, technical and conforming modifications to the Loan Documents may be made with the consent of Parent, the Holdings, the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent to the extent necessary (A) to integrate any Incremental Term Loans, any Refinancing Term Loans or any Modified Term Loans on substantially the same basis as the Term Loans, or (B) to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency.

SECTION 9.09 Interest Rate Limitation.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the applicable interest rate, together with all fees and charges that are treated as interest under applicable law (collectively, the "Charges"), as provided for herein or in any other document executed in connection herewith, or otherwise contracted for, charged, received, taken or reserved by any Lender, shall exceed the maximum lawful rate (the "Maximum Rate") that may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by such Lender in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable hereunder, together with all Charges payable to such Lender, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate; provided that such excess amount shall be paid to such Lender on subsequent payment dates to the extent not exceeding the legal limitation.

SECTION 9.10 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement, the other Loan Documents and the agreements regarding certain Fees referred to herein constitute the entire contract between the parties relative to the subject matter hereof. Any previous agreement among or representations from the parties or their Affiliates with respect to the subject matter hereof is superseded by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Engagement Letter shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect. Nothing in this Agreement or in the other Loan Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto and thereto any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

SECTION 9.11 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS, AS APPLICABLE, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

SECTION 9.12 Severability.

In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 9.13 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original but all of which, when taken together, shall constitute but one contract, and shall become effective as provided in Section 9.03. Delivery of an executed counterpart to this Agreement by facsimile transmission (or other electronic transmission pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent) shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed original.

SECTION 9.14 Headings.

Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 9.15 Jurisdiction: Consent to Service of Process.

(a) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or federal court of the United States sitting in New York City in the borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof (collectively, "New York Courts"), in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement (including Article X) or the other Loan Documents (other than as expressly set forth in other Loan Documents), or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment, and each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such federal court. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect any right that any party may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents in the courts of any jurisdiction, except that each of the Loan Parties agrees that (a) it will not bring any such action or proceeding in any court other than New York Courts (it being acknowledged and agreed by the parties hereto that any other forum would be inconvenient and inappropriate in view of the fact that more of the Lenders who would be affected by any such action or proceeding have contacts with the State of

New York than any other jurisdiction), and (b) in any such action or proceeding brought against any Loan Party in any other court, it will not assert any cross-claim, counterclaim or set-off, or seek any other affirmative relief, except to the extent that the failure to assert the same will preclude such Loan Party from asserting or seeking the same in the New York Courts.

(b) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the other Loan Documents in any New York State or federal court. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) By the execution and delivery of this Agreement, each Loan Party agrees that service of process upon such Loan Party and written notice of said service to any Loan Party in accordance with the manner provided for notices in Section 9.01 shall be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon such Loan Party, in any such suit or proceeding. To the extent that any Loan Party has or hereafter may acquire any immunity from jurisdiction of any court of (i) any jurisdiction in which it owns or leases property or assets, or (ii) the United States or the State of New York or any political subdivision thereof or from any legal process (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution, execution or otherwise) with respect to itself or its property and assets or this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents or actions to enforce judgments in respect of any thereof, such Loan Party hereby irrevocably waives such immunity in respect of its obligations under the above-referenced documents, to the extent permitted by law. Nothing in this Agreement or any other Loan Document will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

(d) Each of the Parent, Holdings and each Borrower hereby irrevocably and unconditionally appoints Corporation Service Company, with an office on the date hereof at 1180 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 210, New York, NY 10036-8401 and its successors hereunder (the "Process Agent"), as its agent to receive on behalf of the Parent, Holdings and such Borrower and their respective property all writs, claims, process and summonses in any action or proceeding brought against it in the State of New York. Such service may be made by mailing or delivering a copy of such process to the Parent, Holdings or the respective Borrower (as applicable) in care of the Process Agent at the address specified above for the Process Agent, and each of the Parent, Holdings and each Borrower irrevocably authorizes and directs the Process Agent to accept such service on its behalf. Failure by the Process Agent to give notice to the Parent, Holdings or either or both Borrowers or failure of the Parent, Holdings or either or both Borrowers to receive notice of such service of process shall not impair or affect the validity of such service on the Process Agent or the Parent, Holdings or either Borrower, or of any judgment based thereon. The Parent, Holdings and each Borrower each covenant and agree that it shall take any and all reasonable action, including the execution and filing of any and all documents, that may be necessary to continue the delegation of the Process Agent above in full force and effect, and to cause the Process Agent to act as such. Nothing herein shall in any way be deemed to limit the ability to serve any such writs, process or summonses in any other manner permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 9.16 Confidentiality.

Each of the Lenders and each of the Agents agrees that it shall maintain in confidence any Information (as defined below) relating to Parent, Holdings and any Subsidiary furnished to it by or on behalf of Parent, Holdings or any Subsidiary and shall not reveal the same to anyone other than to its Affiliates, officers, members, directors, trustees, officers, agents, employees and advisors with a need to know or to any person that approves or administers the Loans on behalf of such Lender (so long as each such person shall have been instructed to keep the same confidential), except (A) information that has become available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by such party in breach of this Section 9.16, (B) information that has been independently developed by such Lender or such Agent without violating this Section 9.16, (C) information that was or becomes available to such Lender or such Agent from a third party which, to such person's knowledge, had not breached an obligation of confidentiality to Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party), (D) to the extent necessary to comply with law, subpoena or any legal process or the requirements of any Governmental Authority, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or of any securities exchange on which securities of the disclosing party or any Affiliate of the disclosing party are listed or traded, (E) as part of normal reporting or review procedures to, or examinations by, Governmental Authorities or self-regulatory authorities, including the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, (F) in order to enforce its rights under any Loan Document in a legal proceeding, (G) to any pledgee under Section 9.04(d) or any other prospective assignee of, or prospective Participant in, any of its rights under this Agreement (so long as such person shall have been instructed to keep the same confidential in accordance with this Section 9.16 or terms substantially similar to this Section), (H) to any direct or indirect contractual counterparty in Swap Agreements or such contractual counterparty's professional advisor (so long as such contractual counterparty or professional advisor to such contractual counterparty agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.16 or terms substantially similar to this Section), (I) to any rating agency for the purpose of obtaining a credit rating applicable to any Lender (so long as such disclosure is limited to the material terms of the Facilities and such agency agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 9.16 or terms substantially similar to this Section) and (J) with the consent of Borrowers. For purposes of this Section only, "Information" means all information received from the Borrowers or any of the Subsidiaries relating to Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any of the Subsidiaries or any of their respective businesses. Any person required to maintain the confidentiality of Information as provided in this Section shall be considered to have complied with its obligation to do so if such person has exercised the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of such Information as such person would accord information to its own confidential information.

SECTION 9.17 Platform; Borrower Materials.

The Borrowers hereby acknowledge that (a) the Administrative Agent and/or the Arrangers will make available to the Lenders materials and/or information provided by or on behalf of the Borrowers hereunder (collectively, "Borrower Materials") by posting the Borrower Materials on IntraLinks, SyndTrak or another similar electronic system (the "Platform"), and (b) certain of the Lenders may be "public-side" Lenders (i.e., Lenders that do not wish to receive material non-public information with respect to the Borrowers or its securities) (each, a "Public Lender"). The Borrowers hereby agree that they will use commercially reasonable efforts to identify that portion of the Borrower Materials that may be distributed to the Public Lenders and that (i) all such Borrower Materials shall be clearly and conspicuously marked "PUBLIC" which, at a minimum, shall mean that the word "PUBLIC" shall appear prominently on the first page thereof, (ii) by marking Borrower Materials "PUBLIC," the Borrowers shall be deemed to have authorized the Administrative Agent, the Arrangers and the Lenders to treat such Borrower Materials as either publicly available information or not material information (although it may be sensitive and proprietary) with respect to the Borrowers or its securities for purposes of United States Federal and state securities laws, (iii) all Borrower Materials marked "PUBLIC" are permitted to be made available through a portion of the Platform designated "Public Investor" and (iv) the Administrative Agent and the Arrangers shall be entitled to treat any Borrower Materials that are not marked "PUBLIC" as being suitable only for posting on a portion of the Platform not designated "Public Investor."

THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND

EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH THE BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties") have any liability to the Borrowers, any Lender or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrowers' or the Administrative Agent's transmission of Borrower Materials through the Internet.

Each Lender acknowledges that United States federal and state securities laws prohibit any person from purchasing or selling securities on the basis of material, non-public information concerning the issuer of such securities or, subject to certain limited exceptions, from communicating such information to any other person. Each Lender confirms that it has developed procedures designed to ensure compliance with these securities laws.

Each Lender acknowledges that circumstances may arise that require it to refer to Information that may contain material non-public Information (such Information, "Private Side Information"). Accordingly, each Lender agrees that it will use commercially reasonable efforts to designate at least one individual to receive Private Side Information on its behalf in compliance with its procedures and applicable law and identify such designee (including such designee's contact information) on such Lender's Administrative Questionnaire. Each Lender agrees to notify the Administrative Agent in writing from time to time of such Lender's designee's e-mail address to which notice of the availability of Private Side Information may be sent by electronic transmission.

Each Lender that elects not to be given access to Private Side Information does so voluntarily and, by such election, (i) acknowledges and agrees that the Agents and other Lenders may have access to Private Side Information that such electing Lender does not have and (ii) takes sole responsibility for the consequences of, and waives any and all claims based on or arising out of, not having access to Private Side Information.

SECTION 9.18 Release of Liens, Guarantees and Pledges.

In the event that any Loan Party conveys, sells, leases, assigns, transfers or otherwise disposes of all or any portion of any Equity Interests or assets to a person that is not (and is not required to become) a Loan Party in a transaction not prohibited by this Agreement or to the extent such release may be required by the Intercreditor Agreement, any Liens created by any Loan Document in respect of such Equity Interests or assets shall be automatically released (provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any disposal consisting of an operating lease or license, the underlying property retained by such Loan Party will not be so released) and the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall promptly (and the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to) take such action and execute any such documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent or the Borrowers and at the Borrowers' expense in connection with the release of any Liens created by any Loan Document in respect of such Equity Interests or assets, and, in the case of a disposition of the Equity Interests of any Subsidiary Loan Party in a transaction not prohibited by this Agreement and as a result of which such Subsidiary Loan Party would cease to be a Subsidiary, such Subsidiary Loan Party's obligations under the Loan Documents shall be automatically terminated and the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall promptly (and the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to) take such action and execute any such documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent, the Holdings or the Dutch Borrower to terminate such Subsidiary Loan Party's obligations under the Loan

Documents in each case, subject to the receipt of a certification by the Borrowers and such Subsidiary Loan Party stating that such transaction is in compliance with the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents and as to such other matters as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent may reasonably request. In addition, the Administrative Agent agrees to take such actions as are reasonably requested by Parent, the Holdings or the Dutch Borrower and at the Borrowers' expense to terminate the Liens and security interests created by the Loan Documents when all the Obligations (other than contingent indemnification Obligations and expense reimbursement claims to the extent no claim therefor has been made) are paid in full and all Commitments are terminated.

SECTION 9.19 Judgment Currency.

If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder or any other Loan Document in one currency into another currency, the rate of exchange used shall be that at which in accordance with normal banking procedures the Administrative Agent could purchase the first currency with such other currency on the Business Day preceding that on which final judgment is given. The obligation of the Borrowers in respect of any such sum due from it to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders hereunder or under the other Loan Documents shall, notwithstanding any judgment in a currency (the "Judgment Currency") other than that in which such sum is denominated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement (the "Agreement Currency"), be discharged only to the extent that on the Business Day following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Judgment Currency, the Administrative Agent may in accordance with normal banking procedures purchase the Agreement Currency with the Judgment Currency. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent from the Borrowers in the Agreement Currency, such Borrower agrees, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any such judgment, to indemnify the Administrative Agent or the person to whom such obligation was owing against such loss. If the amount of the Agreement Currency so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to the Administrative Agent in such currency, the Administrative Agent agrees to return the amount of any excess to such Borrowers (or to any other person who may be entitled thereto under applicable law).

SECTION 9.20 USA PATRIOT Act Notice.

Each Lender that is subject to the USA PATRIOT Act and the Administrative Agent (for itself and not on behalf of any Lender) hereby notifies the Borrowers that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act, it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each Loan Party, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to identify each Loan Party in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act.

SECTION 9.21 No Advisory or Fiduciary Responsibility.

In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated hereby, Parent, Holdings and the Borrowers acknowledge and agree that: (i) the credit facilities provided for hereunder and any related arranging or other services in connection therewith (including in connection with any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document) are an arm's-length commercial transaction between the Borrowers, the other Loan Parties and their respective Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders, on the other hand, and Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties are capable of evaluating and understanding and understand and accept the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby and by the other Loan Documents (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or thereof); (ii) in connection with the process leading to such transaction, each Agent, each Arranger and each Lender is and has been acting solely as a principal and is not the financial advisor, agent or fiduciary, for Parent, the Borrowers, any Loan Party or any of their respective Affiliates, stockholders, creditors or employees or any other person; (iii) none of the Agents, any Arranger or any Lender has assumed or will assume an advisory, agency or fiduciary responsibility in favor of Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby or the process leading thereto, including with respect to any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document (irrespective of whether any Agent, any Arranger or any Lender has advised or is currently advising Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers or any other Loan Party or their respective Affiliates on other matters) and none of the Agents, any Arranger or any Lender has any obligation to the Borrowers, the other Loan Parties or their respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents; (iv) the Agents, the Arrangers, the Lenders and their respective Affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from those of Parent, Holdings, the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties and their respective Affiliates, and none of the Agents, any Arranger or any Lender has any obligation to disclose any of such interests by virtue of any advisory, agency or fiduciary relationship; and (v) the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders have not provided and will not provide any legal, accounting, regulatory or tax advice with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby (including any amendment, waiver or other modification hereof or of any other Loan Document) and the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties have consulted their own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent they deemed appropriate. Parent, Holdings and the Borrowers each hereby waives and releases, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims that it may have against the Agents, the Arrangers and the Lenders with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty.

SECTION 9.22 Application of Gaming Laws.

(a) This Agreement and the other Loan Documents are subject to Gaming Laws. Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding anything herein or in any other Loan Document to the contrary, the Lenders, Agents and Secured Parties acknowledge that (i) they are subject to the jurisdiction of the Gaming Authorities, in their discretion, for licensing, qualification or findings of suitability or to file or provide other information, and (ii) all rights, remedies and powers in or under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, including with respect to the Collateral (including the pledge and delivery of the Pledged Collateral (as defined in the applicable Security Documents)), any Mortgaged Property and the ownership and operation of facilities, are, in each case, subject to the jurisdiction of the Gaming Authorities, and may be exercised only to the extent that the exercise thereof does not violate any applicable provisions of the Gaming Laws and only to the extent that required approvals (including prior approvals) are obtained from the relevant Gaming Authorities.

(b) The Lenders, Agents and Secured Parties agree to cooperate with all Gaming Authorities in connection with the provision in a timely manner of such documents or other information as may be requested by such Gaming Authorities relating to the Loan or Loan Documents.

(c) The Lenders acknowledge and agree that if the Borrower receives a notice from any applicable Gaming Authority that any Lender is a Disqualified holder (and such Lender is notified by the Borrower in writing of such Disqualification), the Borrower shall, following any available appeal of such determination by such Gaming Authority (unless the rules of the applicable Gaming Authority do not permit such Lender to retain its Loans or Commitments pending appeal of such determination), have the right to (i) cause such Disqualified holder to transfer and assign, without recourse all of its interests, rights and obligations in its Loans and Commitments or (ii) in the event that (A) the Borrower is unable to assign such Loan or Commitments after using its best efforts to cause such an assignment and (B) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, prepay such Disqualified holder’s Loan and terminate such Disqualified holder’s Commitments, as applicable. Notice to such Disqualified holder shall be given ten days prior to the required date of assignment or prepayment, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by evidence demonstrating that such transfer or prepayment is required pursuant to Gaming Laws. If reasonably requested by any Disqualified holder, the Borrower will use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with any such holder that is seeking to appeal such determination and to afford such holder an opportunity to participate in any proceedings relating thereto. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any prepayment of a Loan shall be at a price that, unless otherwise directed by a Gaming Authority, shall be equal to the sum of the principal amount of such Loan and interest to the date on which such Lender or holder became a Disqualified holder (plus any fees and other amounts accrued for the account of such Disqualified holder to the date such Lender or holder became a Disqualified holder).

(d) If during the existence of an Event of Default hereunder or any of the other Loan Documents, it shall become necessary or, in the opinion of the Administrative Agent, advisable for an agent, supervisor, receiver or other representative of the Lenders to become licensed or found qualified under any Gaming Law as a condition to receiving the benefit of any Collateral encumbered by the Loan Documents or to otherwise enforce the rights of the Agents, Secured Parties and the Lenders under the Loan Documents, the Borrower hereby agrees to consent to the application for such license or qualification and to execute such further documents as may be required in connection with the evidencing of such consent.

SECTION 9.23 Enforcement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Loan Documents against the Loan Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent in accordance with Section 7.01 for the benefit of Secured Parties; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (a) the Administrative Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (b) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with Section 9.06 (subject to the terms of Section 2.19(c)), or (c) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Loan Party under any Debtor Relief Law; and provided, further, that if at any time there is no Person acting as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, then (i) the Required Lenders shall have the rights otherwise ascribed to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 7.01 and (ii) in addition to the matters set forth in clauses (b) and (c) of the preceding proviso and subject to Section 2.19(c), any Lender may, with the consent of the Required Lenders, enforce any rights and remedies available to it and as authorized by the Required Lenders. In the event of a foreclosure by the Collateral Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private sale (including pursuant to any sale conducted under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code), the Collateral Agent or any Lender may be the purchaser (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) of any or all of such Collateral at any such sale and the Collateral Agent, as agent for and representative of the Secured Parties (but not any Lender or Lenders, or any other Secured Party or Secured Parties, in its or their respective individual capacities unless the Required Lenders shall otherwise agree in writing) shall be entitled, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such public sale, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by the Collateral Agent at such sale.

SECTION 9.24 Co-Borrower.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree that the Co-Borrower shall be a co-borrower with respect to all Loans and other Obligations of the Dutch Borrower hereunder, and each reference herein to "the Dutch Borrower" or to the "Borrower" with respect to any Loans or Obligations of the Dutch Borrower hereunder shall be deemed to be a reference to each of the Dutch Borrower and the Co-Borrower, jointly and severally. Each of the Dutch Borrower and the Co-Borrower shall be jointly and severally liable for all such Loans and other Obligations, regardless of which Borrower actually receives the benefit thereof or the manner in which they account for such Loans and Obligations on their books and records. Upon the commencement and during the continuation of any Event of Default, the Agents and the applicable Lenders may (in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents) proceed directly and at once, without notice, against either the Dutch Borrower or the Co-Borrower, or both, to collect and recover the full amount, or any portion of; such Obligations, without first proceeding against the other Borrower or any other person, or any security or collateral for such Obligations. Each of the Dutch Borrower and the Co-Borrower consents and agrees that neither the Agents nor the Lenders shall be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Borrower or against or in payment of any or all of such Obligations.

SECTION 9.25 Electronic Signatures.

The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in any Loan Document shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable Requirement of Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 9.26 Representation of a Dutch Loan Party.

If, in respect of a Dutch Loan Party, this Agreement or any other Transaction Document is signed or executed by another Person (a "Dutch Attorney-in-Fact") acting on behalf of such Dutch Loan Party pursuant to a power of attorney executed and delivered by such Dutch Loan Party, it is hereby expressly acknowledged and accepted in accordance with article 14 of the Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Agency of 14 March 1978 by the other parties to this Agreement or any other Transaction Document that the existence and extent of such Dutch Attorney-in-Fact's authority and the effects of such Dutch Attorney-in-Fact's exercise or purported exercise of his or her authority shall be governed by the laws of the Netherlands.

SECTION 9.27 INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT,

EACH LENDER HEREUNDER (A) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED A COPY OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, (B) CONSENTS TO THE SUBORDINATION OF LIENS PROVIDED FOR IN THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, (C) AGREES THAT IT WILL BE BOUND BY AND WILL TAKE NO ACTIONS CONTRARY TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AND (D) AUTHORIZES AND INSTRUCTS THE COLLATERAL AGENT TO ENTER INTO THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT AS COLLATERAL AGENT AND ON BEHALF OF SUCH LENDER. THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS ARE INTENDED AS AN INDUCEMENT TO THE LENDERS UNDER THE FIRST LIEN CREDIT AGREEMENT TO EXTEND CREDIT TO THE BORROWERS AND SUCH LENDERS ARE INTENDED THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES OF SUCH PROVISIONS. TO THE EXTENT OF ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE TERMS AND PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT, THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT SHALL GOVERN. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING HEREIN OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT TO THE CONTRARY, IF THE DISCHARGE OF FIRST LIEN OBLIGATIONS (AS DEFINED IN THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT) HAS NOT OCCURRED, TO THE EXTENT ANY LOAN PARTY IS REQUIRED HEREUNDER OR UNDER ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT TO DELIVER COLLATERAL (INCLUDING ANY CERTIFICATES, INSTRUMENTS OR OTHER DOCUMENTS EVIDENCING COLLATERAL) TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT OR COLLATERAL AGENT FOR PURPOSES OF PERFECTION, POSSESSION AND/OR CONTROL AND IS UNABLE TO DO SO AS A RESULT OF HAVING PREVIOUSLY DELIVERED SUCH COLLATERAL TO THE FIRST LIEN COLLATERAL AGENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS OF THE FIRST LIEN LOAN DOCUMENTS, SUCH LOAN PARTY'S OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER AND UNDER ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT WITH RESPECT TO SUCH DELIVERY SHALL BE DEEMED SATISFIED BY THE DELIVERY TO THE FIRST LIEN COLLATERAL AGENT, ACTING AS GRATUITOUS BAILEE OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT PURSUANT TO THE INTERCREDITOR AGREEMENT.

ARTICLE X

PARENT AND HOLDINGS GUARANTEE

SECTION 10.01 Parent and Holdings Guarantee.

Parent and Holdings hereby guarantee to each Secured Party as hereinafter provided, as primary obligors and not as surety, the payment of the Obligations in full in cash when due (whether at stated maturity, as a mandatory prepayment, by acceleration, as a mandatory cash collateralization or otherwise) strictly in accordance with the terms thereof. Parent and Holdings hereby further agree that if any of the Obligations are not paid in full in cash when due (whether at stated maturity, as a mandatory prepayment, by acceleration, as a mandatory cash collateralization or otherwise), Parent or Holdings will promptly pay the same, without any demand or notice whatsoever, and that in the case of any extension of time of payment or renewal of any of the Obligations, the same will be promptly paid in full in cash when due (whether at extended maturity, as a mandatory prepayment, by acceleration, as a mandatory cash collateralization or otherwise) in accordance with the terms of such extension or renewal.

SECTION 10.02 Obligations Unconditional.

(a) The obligations of Parent and Holdings under Section 10.01 are absolute and unconditional, irrespective of the value, genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations, or any substitution, release, impairment or exchange of any other guarantee of or security for any of the Obligations, and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, irrespective of any other circumstance whatsoever which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a surety or guarantor (other than payment in full in cash of the Obligations, other than contingent indemnification, tax gross up, expense reimbursement or yield protection obligations, in each case, for which no claim has been made), it being the intent of this Section 10.02 that the obligations of Parent and Holdings hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional under any and all circumstances. Parent and Holdings agree that either shall have no right of subrogation, indemnity, reimbursement or contribution against a Borrower or any other Guarantor for amounts paid under this Article X until such time as the Obligations have been paid in full in cash and the Commitments have expired or terminated.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is agreed that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the occurrence of any one or more of the following shall not alter or impair the liability of Parent or Holdings hereunder, which shall remain absolute and unconditional as described above:

(i) at any time or from time to time, without notice to Parent or Holdings, the time for any performance of or compliance with any of the Obligations shall be extended, or such performance or compliance shall be waived;

(ii) any of the acts mentioned in any of the provisions of any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations shall be done or omitted;

(iii) the maturity of any of the Obligations shall be accelerated, or any of the Obligations shall be modified, supplemented or amended in any respect, or any right under any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations shall be waived or any other guarantee of any of the Obligations or any security therefor shall be released, impaired or exchanged in whole or in part or otherwise dealt with;

(iv) any Lien granted to, or in favor of, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other holder of the Obligations as security for any of the Obligations shall fail to attach or be perfected;

(v) any of the Obligations shall be determined to be void or voidable (including, without limitation, for the benefit of any creditor of the Parent or Holdings) or shall be subordinated to the claims of any person (including, without limitation, any creditor of Parent or Holdings); or

(vi) the lack of enforceability or validity of the Obligations or any part thereof or the genuineness, enforceability or validity of any agreement relating thereto or with respect to any collateral securing the Obligations or any part thereof, or any other invalidity or unenforceability relating to or against Parent, Holdings, any Borrower or any other guarantor of any of the Obligations, for any reason related to this Agreement, any other Loan Document, or any provision of applicable law, decree, order or regulation of any jurisdiction purporting to prohibit the payment by Parent, Holdings, any Borrower or any other guarantor of the Obligations, of any of the Obligations or otherwise affecting any term of any of the Obligations.

(c) With respect to its obligations hereunder, Parent and Holdings hereby expressly waive diligence, presentment, demand of payment, protest and all notices whatsoever, and any requirement that the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other holder of the Obligations exhaust any right, power or remedy or proceed against any person under any of the Loan Documents or other documents relating to the Obligations, or against any other person under any other guarantee of, or security for, any of the Obligations.

SECTION 10.03 Reinstatement.

The obligations of Parent and Holdings under this Article X shall be automatically reinstated if and to the extent that for any reason any payment by or on behalf of any person in respect of the Obligations is rescinded or must be otherwise restored by any holder of any of the Obligations, whether as a result of any proceedings under any Debtor Relief Law, and Parent and Holdings each agree that it will indemnify the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and each holder of the Obligations on demand for all reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, the fees, charges and disbursements of counsel) incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or such holder of the Obligations in connection with such rescission or restoration, including any such costs and expenses incurred in defending against any claim alleging that such payment constituted a preference, fraudulent transfer or similar payment under any proceedings under any Debtor Relief Law.

SECTION 10.04 Certain Additional Waivers.

Parent and Holdings each further agree that it shall have no right of recourse to security for the Obligations, except through the exercise of rights of subrogation pursuant to Section 10.02 and through the exercise of rights of contribution pursuant to Section 10.06.

SECTION 10.05 Remedies.

Parent and Holdings each agree that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as between Parent or Holdings, on the one hand, and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the other holders of the Obligations, on the other hand, the Obligations may be declared to be forthwith due and payable as provided in Article VII (and shall be deemed to have become automatically due and payable in the circumstances provided in said Article VII) for purposes of Section 10.01 notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such declaration (or preventing the Obligations from becoming automatically due and payable) as against any other person and that, in the event of such declaration (or the Obligations being deemed to have become automatically due and payable), the Obligations (whether or not due and payable by any other person) shall forthwith become due and payable by Parent or Holdings for purposes of Section 10.01. Parent and Holdings each acknowledge and agree that its obligations hereunder are secured in accordance with the terms of the Security Documents and that the holders of the Obligations may exercise their remedies thereunder in accordance with the terms thereof.

SECTION 10.06 Rights of Contribution.

Parent and Holdings each agree that, in connection with payments made hereunder, Parent, Holdings and each other Guarantor shall have contribution rights against the other Guarantors as permitted under applicable law. Such contribution rights shall be subordinate and subject in right of payment to the obligations of such Guarantors under the Loan Documents and no Guarantor shall exercise such rights of contribution until all Obligations have been paid in full in cash and the Commitments have terminated.

SECTION 10.07 Guarantee of Payment: Continuing Guarantee.

The guarantee given by Parent and Holdings in this Article X is a guarantee of payment and not of collection, is a continuing guarantee, and shall apply to all Obligations whenever arising.

ARTICLE II
PURCHASE AND SALE OF PURCHASED SHARES

2.1 Purchase and Sale of Purchased Shares. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, at the Closing, Purchaser shall purchase the Purchased Shares from Seller, and Seller shall sell, assign, transfer, convey and deliver the Purchased Shares to Purchaser for the consideration specified in Section 2.2.

2.2 Purchase Price. Subject to the adjustments set forth in this Article II, the aggregate consideration for the Purchased Shares shall comprise the following:

(a) cash in the amount of $370,000,000 (adjusted as follows):

(i) minus, the amount (if any) by which the Minimum Operating Cash exceeds the Estimated Cash;

(ii) plus, the amount (if any) by which the Estimated Cash exceeds the Minimum Operating Cash, which amount (if any) shall in no event exceed $5,000,000;

(iii) minus, the amount (if any) by which the Reference Working Capital exceeds the Estimated Working Capital;

(iv) plus, the amount (if any) by which the Estimated Working Capital exceeds the Reference Working Capital;

(v) minus, the Estimated Transaction Expenses;

(vi) minus, the Estimated Indebtedness

(the result of the calculation in clause (a), the "Cash Consideration"); and

(b) the Seller Note with an initial principal amount of $12,000,000 (as it may be adjusted pursuant to the terms hereto and thereto) (together with the Cash Consideration, the "Purchase Price").

2.3 Estimate of Cash Consideration.

(a) On or prior to the fifth (5th) day prior to the Closing Date, Seller shall prepare and deliver a statement (including reasonable supporting detail) to Purchaser (the "Estimated Closing Statement") setting forth (i) Seller's reasonable, good faith estimate of Cash as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Estimated Cash"), (ii) Seller's reasonable, good faith estimate of the Working Capital as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Estimated Working Capital"), (iii) all Indebtedness of the Genesis Companies as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Estimated Indebtedness"), (iv) Seller's reasonable, good faith estimate of the Transaction Expenses (the "Estimated Transaction Expenses"), including final invoices with respect to all Transaction Expenses to be paid by the Genesis Companies at the Closing, (v) Seller's calculation of the Cash Consideration in accordance with Section 2.2(a), and (vi) an unaudited, consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Estimated Closing Balance Sheet"). The Estimated Closing Statement (including the Estimated Cash, the Estimated Working Capital, the Estimated Indebtedness, the Estimated Transaction Expenses and the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet) shall be prepared and calculated in accordance with GAAP (and, to the extent not inconsistent with GAAP, the past practices of the Genesis Companies) or as provided in the definitions of this Agreement.

(b) Following receipt of the Estimated Closing Statement, Seller shall permit Purchaser and its Representatives at all reasonable times and upon reasonable notice to review Seller's and the Genesis Companies' working papers relating to the calculation and preparation of the Estimated Cash, the Estimated Working Capital, the Estimated Indebtedness, Estimated Transaction Expenses and the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet, as well as the Genesis Companies' accounting books and records relating thereto, and Seller shall make reasonably available its Representatives (if any) responsible for the preparation of the Estimated Closing Statement in order to respond to the inquiries of Purchaser and its Representatives. Prior to the Closing, the parties shall reasonably attempt to resolve any disagreements concerning the computation of any of the items included in the Estimated Closing Statement (including the calculations of the Estimated Cash, the Estimated Working Capital, the Estimated Indebtedness, Estimated Transaction Expenses and the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet); provided, that it is acknowledged and agreed that if any disagreements cannot be resolved, then the Closing shall occur on the basis of the Estimated Closing Statement provided by Seller, and that any unresolved disagreements shall be deferred for resolution pursuant to the post-closing cash consideration adjustment process described in Section 2.4.

2.4 Post-Closing Cash Consideration Adjustment.

(a) As soon as practicable but in no event more than sixty (60) days following the Closing Date, Purchaser shall prepare and deliver a statement (the "Initial Closing Statement") setting forth (i) Purchaser's determination of Cash as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Closing Date Cash"), (ii) Purchaser's determination of the Working Capital as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Closing Date Working Capital"), (iii) all Indebtedness of the Genesis Companies as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Closing Date Indebtedness"), (iv) all Transaction Expenses (the "Closing Date Transaction Expenses"), (v) Purchaser's calculation of the Cash Consideration in accordance with Section 2.2(a) and (vi) an unaudited, consolidated balance sheet of Company as of the close of business on the Closing Date (the "Closing Balance Sheet"). The Initial Closing Statement (including the Closing Date Cash, the Closing Date Working Capital, the Closing Date Indebtedness, the Closing Date Transaction Expenses and the Closing Balance Sheet) shall be prepared and calculated in accordance with GAAP (and, to the extent not inconsistent with GAAP, the past practices of the Genesis Companies) or as provided in the definitions of this Agreement.

(b) Seller and its accountants shall complete their review of the Initial Closing Statement within forty (40) days after Purchaser's delivery thereof to Seller. During such review period, Purchaser shall provide Seller with reasonable access to all books and records reasonably requested by Seller to review the Initial Closing Statement (including the calculation and preparation of the Closing Date Cash, the Closing Date Working Capital, the Closing Date Indebtedness, the Closing Date Transaction Expenses and the Closing Balance Sheet), any work papers prepared by Purchaser or its accountants in connection with such calculations, and Purchaser shall make available its Representatives responsible for the preparation of the Initial Closing Statement in order to respond to the inquiries of Seller. If Seller objects to the contents of the Initial Closing Statement for any reason, Seller shall, on or before the last day of such 40-day period, so inform Purchaser in writing (a "Seller's Objection"), setting forth a specific description of the basis of its determination and the adjustments to the Initial Closing Statement that Seller believes should be made. To the extent any disagreement therewith is not described in a Seller's Objection received by Purchaser on or before the last day of such 40-day period, then all items described in the Initial Closing Statement delivered by Purchaser to Seller with respect to any such disagreement shall be deemed agreed, final and binding on the parties.

(c) If Seller timely delivers a Seller's Objection to Purchaser, and Seller and Purchaser are unable to resolve all of their disagreements with respect to the proposed adjustments set forth in Seller's Objection within twenty-five (25) days following Purchaser's receipt of Seller's Objection, then they shall jointly retain the CPA Firm, which, acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator, shall determine, on the basis set forth in and in accordance with this Section 2.4, and only with respect to those items specifically described in Seller's Objection on which Purchaser and Seller have not agreed, whether and to what extent, if any, the Cash Consideration requires adjustment. Purchaser and Seller shall instruct the CPA Firm to deliver its written determination to Purchaser and Seller no later than thirty (30) days after submitting the matter to it for resolution. At the time of retention of the CPA Firm, Purchaser shall specify in writing to the CPA Firm and Seller the amount of Purchaser's computation of the Cash Consideration ("Purchaser's Position"), and Seller shall specify in writing to the CPA Firm and to Purchaser the amount of its computation of the Cash Consideration ("Seller's Position"). The CPA Firm's determination shall be conclusive and binding upon Purchaser and Seller. In resolving any disputed item, the CPA Firm may not assign a value to any disputed item that is greater than the greatest value claimed by Purchaser or Seller at the time the CPA Firm is retained or less than the smallest value claimed for the item by Purchaser or Seller at such time. The scope of the dispute(s) to be resolved by the CPA Firm is limited to whether the preparation of the Closing Balance Sheet and the calculation of the Closing Date Cash, the Closing Date Working Capital, the Closing Date Indebtedness, the Closing Date Transaction Expenses and Purchaser's calculation of the Cash Consideration were done in a manner consistent with the provisions and definitions of this Agreement and mathematically accurate, and the CPA Firm is not to make any other determination unless jointly requested in writing by Seller and Purchaser. The fees and disbursements of the CPA Firm (collectively, the "Cash Consideration Dispute Expenses") shall be borne (i) by Seller in that proportion equal to a fraction (expressed as a percentage) the numerator of which is equal to Seller's Position minus the Cash Consideration determined by the CPA Firm, and the denominator of which is equal to Seller's Position minus Purchaser's Position and (ii) by Purchaser in that proportion equal to a fraction (expressed as a percentage) equal to one (1) minus the fraction described in clause (i). For example, if Seller's Position is that the Cash Consideration should be $150,000 and Purchaser's Position is that the Cash Consideration should be $100,000, the CPA Firm determines that the Cash Consideration should be $130,000 and the Cash Consideration Dispute Expenses are $10,000, then (i) Seller shall pay $4,000 (40%) of the Cash Consideration Dispute Expenses and (ii) Purchaser shall pay $6,000 (60%) of the Cash Consideration Dispute Expenses. Purchaser, the Company and Seller shall cooperate with the CPA Firm during its resolution of the disagreement and make readily available to the CPA Firm all relevant personnel and Representatives, books and records and any work papers (including those of the parties' respective accountants, to the extent permitted by such accountants) relating to amounts set forth in the Initial Closing Statement and Seller's Objection and all other items reasonably requested by the CPA Firm in connection therewith.

(d) The Initial Closing Statement, including the Closing Balance Sheet, the Closing Date Cash, the Closing Date Indebtedness, the Closing Date Transaction Expenses and the Closing Date Working Capital, as agreed to (or deemed to have been agreed to) between Purchaser and Seller or as determined by the CPA Firm, as applicable, shall be conclusive and binding on all of the parties hereto and shall be deemed the "Actual Closing Balance Sheet", "Actual Cash", "Actual Indebtedness", "Actual Transaction Expenses" and "Actual Working Capital" respectively, for all purposes herein.

(e) Upon completion of the calculation of the Actual Closing Balance Sheet, Actual Cash, Actual Indebtedness, Actual Transaction Expenses and Actual Working Capital in accordance with this Section 2.4, the Cash Consideration shall be recalculated in accordance with Section 2.2(a) (substituting the estimated amounts set forth therein with the actual amounts as determined in accordance with Section 2.4(d)), and the following adjustments (the "Cash Consideration Adjustment") made:

(i) If the Cash Consideration calculated in accordance with Section 2.2(a) using the Actual Cash, Actual Indebtedness, Actual Transaction Expenses and Actual Working Capital is greater than the Cash Consideration calculated in accordance with Section 2.2(a) using Estimated Cash, Estimated Indebtedness, Estimated Transaction Expenses and Estimated Working Capital, then Purchaser shall promptly (but in no event later than three (3) Business Days after the final determination) pay such difference to Seller.

(ii) If the Cash Consideration calculated in accordance with Section 2.2(a) using the Actual Cash, Actual Indebtedness, Actual Transaction Expenses and Actual Working Capital is less than the Cash Consideration calculated in accordance with Section 2.2(a) using Estimated Cash, Estimated Indebtedness, Estimated Transaction Expenses and Estimated Working Capital, then Seller shall promptly (but in no event later than three (3) Business Days after the final determination) pay such difference to Purchaser.

(f) Any amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.4(e) shall be treated by Purchaser and Seller as adjustments to the Purchase Price for all federal, state, provincial, local and foreign Tax purposes, and the parties agree to file their Tax Returns accordingly, except as otherwise required by a change in applicable Law or a final determination.

2.5 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the purchase and sale of the Purchased Shares contemplated by this Agreement shall take place at a closing (the "Closing") to be held at the offices of Greenberg Traurig, P.A., 333 Avenue of the Americas (333 S.E. 2nd Avenue), Miami, Florida 33131 at 10:00 a.m. (local time) (or pursuant to the electronic or other remote exchange of all executed documents and other closing deliverables required by Section 2.6) on or prior to the third (3rd) Business Day following the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to the obligations of the parties set forth in Article VI (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or, if permissible, waiver of such conditions), or at such other time and place as Purchaser and Seller may mutually agree upon in writing; provided, that if the Marketing Period has not ended at the time of the satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions set forth in Article VI (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or, if permissible, waiver of such conditions), notwithstanding the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions, Purchaser shall not be required to effect the Closing until the earlier of (a) a date during the Marketing Period specified by Purchaser on not less than three (3) Business Days' notice to Seller, and (b) the third (3rd) Business Day immediately following the final day of the Marketing Period (subject, in each case, to the satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions set forth in Article VI as of the date determined pursuant to this proviso). The date on which the Closing takes place is referred to herein as the "Closing Date."

(iii) on behalf of Seller and the Genesis Companies, wire or cause to be wired funds to the respective payees of the Transaction Expenses in amounts equal to such payees' respective portion of the Transaction Expenses; and

(iv) deliver or cause to be delivered to Seller:

1) a certificate of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of Purchaser, dated as of the Closing Date, certifying the: (i) resolutions of the sole member of Purchaser approving the purchase of the Purchased Shares and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions; and (ii) incumbency and signature of the officers of Purchaser executing this Agreement and any other certificate or document delivered by Purchaser in connection with this Agreement; and

2) a certificate, dated as of the Closing Date and signed by a duly authorized officer of Purchaser, that each of the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a) and Section 6.3(b) has been satisfied.

(c) Any amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.7(a) and the Purchase Price Advance Amount shall be treated by Purchaser and Seller as Purchase Price for all federal, state, provincial, local and foreign Tax purposes, and the parties agree to file their Tax Returns accordingly, except as required by a change in applicable Law or a final determination.

2.8 Deactivated Machine Credit.

(a) If an Installed Base Gaming Machine that was in Operation in Mexico as of October 31, 2014 (a "Covered Machine"), a true, correct and complete list of which is set forth on Schedule 3.23(b)), is not in Operation (or is otherwise prohibited from being operated pursuant to an Order or under applicable Laws) at the expiration of the Adjustment Period as a result of a Regulatory Triggering Event that has occurred during the Measurement Period (each a "Deactivated Machine"), then Seller shall pay to Purchaser, in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.8(b), an amount equal to the product of $15,000 multiplied by the aggregate number Deactivated Machines (such product, the "Deactivated Machine Credit"); provided, that the Deactivated Machine Credit shall in no event exceed an amount equal to $25,000,000.

(i) As used herein, "Regulatory Triggering Event" means:

1) a change in applicable Law (including the enactment of a new Law) (a "Change in Law");

2) a revocation or suspension of a Permit held or used by any Genesis Company or an Applicable Customer as a direct or indirect result of a Change in Law or a violation of applicable Law;

3) a prohibition pursuant to an Order or under applicable Laws against any Genesis Company or an Applicable Customer, which, in the case of an Applicable Customer, is related to such Applicable Customer's Gaming Activities; or

4) a verifiable notification to Purchaser or one or more Purchaser Affiliated Parties by one or more U.S. Gaming Authorities identified in Schedule 2.8(a)(i)4) that continued operations in Mexico (including the operation of Covered Machines) by any Genesis Company or an Applicable Customer would result in a violation of applicable Laws or the revocation, suspension or denial of a U.S. Gaming Approval used by Purchaser or one or more Purchaser Affiliated Parties.

(b) Within forty-five (45) days following the end of the Adjustment Period, Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to Seller a certificate executed by an executive officer of Purchaser (the "Deactivated Machine Credit Statement") setting forth Purchaser's computation and determination of the Deactivated Machine Credit (if any), together with any supporting documentation. Subject to Section 2.8(c), if the Finally Determined Deactivated Machine Credit (as defined below) is greater than zero, then Seller and Purchaser shall as promptly as practicable amend the terms of the Seller Note such that the amount of the Seller Note shall be reduced by such Finally Determined Deactivated Machine Credit; provided, that if the then outstanding principal amount of the Seller Note is insufficient to satisfy such Finally Determined Deactivated Machine Credit, then the outstanding principal amount of the Seller Note shall be reduced to zero and cancelled, and Purchaser shall satisfy such shortfall amount (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall equal the difference between such Finally Determined Deactivated Machine Credit and the then outstanding principal amount of the Seller Note immediately prior to reduction of the Seller Note to zero) from Seller directly, which shall pay such shortfall amount in cash by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated in writing by Purchaser. Any adjustments made, or amounts payable, pursuant to Section 2.8(b) shall be treated by Purchaser and Seller as adjustments to the Purchase Price for all federal, state, provincial, local and foreign Tax purposes, and the parties agree to file their Tax Returns accordingly, except as otherwise required by a change in applicable law or a final determination.

(c) Dispute Resolution.

(i) Within forty (40) days after Seller's receipt of the Deactivated Machine Credit Statement, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser a written statement either accepting the Deactivated Machine Credit Statement or specifying any objections thereto in reasonable detail (a "Deactivated Machine Credit Objections Statement"), which objections shall be limited to objections that the Deactivated Machine Credit Statement was not prepared or delivered in accordance with this Agreement. If Seller does not deliver a Deactivated Machine Credit Objections Statement within such forty (40)-day period, then the Deactivated Machine Credit Statement shall become final and binding upon all parties. If Seller delivers a Deactivated Machine Credit Objections Statement within such forty (40)-day period, then Seller and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith for fifteen (15) days following Purchaser's receipt of such Deactivated Machine Credit Objections Statement to resolve such objections. Any such objections that Purchaser and Seller are unable to resolve during such fifteen (15)-day period is referred to as a "Deactivated Machine Credit Dispute". After such fifteen (15)-day period, any matter set forth in the Deactivated Machine Credit Statement that is not a Deactivated Machine Credit Dispute shall become final and binding upon all parties. If Purchaser and Seller are unable to resolve all objections during such fifteen (15)-day period, then any Deactivated Machine Credit Dispute, and only such Deactivated Machine Credit Disputes, shall be resolved by the CPA Firm. The CPA Firm shall be instructed to resolve any Deactivated Machine Credit Disputes in accordance with the terms of this Agreement within thirty (30) days after its appointment. The resolution of such Deactivated Machine Credit Disputes by such CPA Firm (i) shall be set forth in writing, (ii) shall be within the range of dispute between Purchaser and Seller, (iii) shall constitute an arbitral award and (iv) shall be conclusive and binding upon all the parties upon which a judgment may be rendered by a court having proper jurisdiction thereover. Upon delivery of such resolution, the Deactivated Machine Credit Statement, as modified in accordance with such resolution, shall become final and binding upon all parties.

(ii) The fees, costs and expenses of such CPA Firm shall be allocated between Purchaser, on the one hand, and Seller, on the other hand, based upon the percentage which the portion of the Deactivated Machine Credit Disputes not awarded to each party bears to the amount actually contested by such party. For example, if Seller claims that the appropriate Deactivated Machine Credit is $1,000 greater than the amount determined by Purchaser and if such CPA Firm ultimately resolves the Deactivated Machine Credit Dispute by awarding to Seller $300 of the $1,000 contested, then the fees, costs and expenses of such CPA Firm will be allocated 30% (i.e., 300 ÷ 1,000) to Purchaser and 70% (i.e., 700 ÷ 1,000) to Seller.

(d) As used herein, "Finally Determined Deactivated Machine Credit" means (i) if Seller does not deliver a Deactivated Machine Credit Objections Statement in accordance with Section 2.8(c), the Deactivated Machine Credit as set forth in the Deactivated Machine Credit Statement or (ii) if the Deactivated Machine Credit is resolved by Purchaser and Seller or by submission of any Deactivated Machine Credit Dispute to the CPA Firm, as contemplated by Section 2.8(c), the Deactivated Machine Credit as so resolved.

(e) Following the Closing and during the Adjustment Period, Purchaser shall act in good faith and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to minimize the number of Covered Machines removed from Operation as a result of a Regulatory Triggering Event, in each case in accordance with applicable Laws and any applicable obligations of Purchaser and its Purchaser Affiliated Parties thereunder. For the avoidance of doubt, the obligations contained in this Section 2.8(e) apply only to the Covered Machines and shall in no event apply to any other gaming machines, and Purchaser shall have no obligation or liability to Seller with respect to the activation, de-activation or operation of such other gaming machines.

2.9 Section 338 Election. Purchaser and its Affiliates (a) will not cause or permit the Genesis Companies or any corporation in which the Genesis Companies own an equity interest, directly or indirectly (each, a "Target Company"), to make any election pursuant to Section 338 of the Code or any provision of state, local, non-U.S. or other Tax Law that is similar to, or has any Tax consequence for Seller or its Affiliates that is comparable to any consequence for Seller or its Affiliates of, an election pursuant to Section 338 of the Code (each, a "338 Election") and (b) shall take any and all actions necessary and appropriate to prevent any 338 Election being made for any Target Company.

2.10 Method of Cash Payments. All cash payments made under this Agreement shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to one or more accounts designated by the recipient in writing no fewer than two (2) Business Days immediately preceding the scheduled payment date.

2.11 Withholding Rights. Upon not less than five days' prior notice to Seller, Purchaser or the Company, as applicable, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable by Purchaser or the Company pursuant to this Agreement such amounts as Purchaser or the Company is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law. To the extent that any amounts are so deducted and withheld by Purchaser or the Company and are remitted to the appropriate Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable law, such withheld and deducted amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such withholding was made.

2.12 Purchase Price Allocation. Unless otherwise required by applicable Tax Law, Purchaser shall not take a position with a Governmental Authority with the power to impose and collect Taxes that is inconsistent with the allocation of the Purchase Price made by Seller, as set forth on Schedule 2.12.

(f) No Genesis Company (or any its Subsidiaries or Affiliates) nor, to the Company's Knowledge, any director, officer, employee, or agent of any Genesis Company (or of any its Subsidiaries or Affiliates) is an individual or entity that is a Person that is, or is acting under the direction of, on behalf of or for the benefit of a Person that is, or is owned or controlled by a Person that is (i) a Prohibited Party, (ii) the target of any Sanctions Laws, or identified on any Sanctions Lists, or (iii) located, organized or a resident in a country or territory that is, or whose government is, the target of comprehensive trade sanctions under Sanctions Laws, including, as of the date of this Agreement, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan and Syria (collectively, the "Sanctioned Countries").

(g) No Genesis Company (or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates) does business with or sponsors or provides direct assistance or support to, the government of, or any other Person located in, any country, or with any other Person, which, to the Company's Knowledge, is targeted by any of the Sanctions Laws, including the Sanctioned Countries.

(h) For purposes of this Section 3.25 only, "Affiliates" means only those Affiliates that act (and only to the extent they so act) on behalf of or for the benefit of the properties, assets or business of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(i) During the Pre-Ownership Period, to the Company's Knowledge, and since November 5, 2012, none of the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates has engaged in, or is now engaged in, any prohibited dealings or transactions with any Person, or in any country or territory, that at the time of the dealing or transaction is or was, or whose government is or was the subject of Sanctions Laws.

3.26 Compliance with Gaming Laws.

(a) Except as set forth on Schedule 3.26, (i) during the Pre-Ownership Period, to the Company's Knowledge, and since November 5, 2012, there have been no adversarial proceedings to revoke, rescind or suspend the Gaming Approvals of any of the Genesis Companies or any of the Genesis Companies' shareholders, directors, officers, key executives or Persons performing management functions similar to an officer of any Genesis Company, (ii) no Genesis Company, or any shareholder, director, officer or key executive of any Genesis Company has received any written claim, correspondence, demand, notice, complaint or Order

(b) Since November 5, 2012, neither the Seller nor any of the Genesis Companies (including any of their respective officers, directors, managers, equity-owners or employees) has been notified or informed in writing by any Governmental Authority that any of the Genesis Companies or any of their respective officers or directors has any relationship, business or non-business, direct or indirect, with any Person which a Gaming Authority has found to be unsuitable to hold a gaming Permit.

ARTICLE IV
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PURCHASER

Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to Seller as follows:

4.1 Organization. Purchaser is a limited liability company (i) duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of Delaware (ii) with all requisite power (corporate or otherwise) and authority to own and operate its properties and to carry on its business as presently conducted, (iii) duly qualified and in good standing as a foreign limited liability company authorized to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its activities or the character of the properties it owns or leases make such qualification necessary.

4.2 Authority; Binding Nature. Purchaser has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder and to consummate the Contemplated Transactions. The execution and delivery by Purchaser of this Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Purchaser and no other proceedings

(corporate or otherwise) on the part of Purchaser or its board of managers or members are necessary to authorize this Agreement or the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Purchaser and constitutes and, when executed and delivered by Purchaser, will constitute (in each case assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by Seller) legal, valid and binding obligations of Purchaser enforceable against Purchaser in accordance with its terms, subject to the effect of any applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, moratorium, restructuring or other Laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally and general equitable principles regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a Proceeding at law or in equity.

4.3 No Conflict. The execution, delivery and performance by Purchaser of this Agreement and the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions do not (a) assuming receipt of the Required Gaming Approvals, conflict with or violate any Law applicable to Purchaser, (b) conflict with, or result in a breach of or default under, any terms or conditions of Purchaser's Charter Documents, (c) result in a breach or violation of, or a default under, or give rise to a right for any third-party to terminate or any prepayment penalty under any Contract to which Purchaser is a party or by which it or its assets are bound, or (d) require any action by (including any authorization, consent or approval) or in respect of (including notice to), any Person under any Contract to which Purchaser is a party or by which it or its assets are bound.

4.4 Consents and Approvals. Except for the Required Gaming Approvals and as required by the HSR Act, no consent, approval, authorization or other action by, or filing with or notification to, any Person or any Governmental Authority on the part of Purchaser is required in connection with the execution, delivery and performance by Seller of this Agreement or the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

4.5 Ability to Obtain Licenses. Neither Purchaser nor any of its current Representatives, Affiliates, key executives, partners, creditors or shareholders (or other equity owner) (collectively the "Purchaser Related Persons") has ever been denied, or had revoked, a gaming license or related finding of suitability by a Governmental Authority, which in each such case resulted in an uncured failure of a particular gaming license to be granted. Purchaser and each of the Purchaser Related Persons are in good standing in each of the jurisdictions in which Purchaser or any Purchaser Related Person owns or operates gaming facilities. There are no facts, which if known to any Governmental Authority would (a) be reasonably likely to result in the denial, revocation, limitation or suspension of a gaming license currently held or other Gaming Approval, or (b) result in a negative outcome to any finding of suitability Proceedings currently pending, or under the suitability Proceedings necessary for the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

4.6 Litigation.

(a) There is no Proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of Purchaser, threatened against Purchaser, which, if determined adversely, would reasonably be expected to have a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect, or would make illegal, restrict or delay, prevent or prohibit the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

(b) There is no Order outstanding against Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries, or their respective businesses that would reasonably be expected to have a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect, or would make illegal, materially restrict or delay, prevent or prohibit the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

4.7 Financing. Purchaser has provided to Seller a true, complete and correct copy of (i) executed and binding commitment letters dated as of the date hereof (in each case, as the same may be amended or replaced in accordance with Section 5.11(a) and including any executed commitment letter or similar agreement for alternate financing, in each case, in accordance with Section 5.11(a), including all exhibits, schedules and annexes thereto, collectively, the "Debt Commitment Letters"), relating to the commitment of the Debt Financing Sources to provide, or cause to be provided, and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, the amount of the debt financing stated therein (collectively, the "Debt Financing"), and (ii) an executed and binding commitment letter dated as of the date hereof (the "Equity Commitment Letter" and, together with the Debt Commitment Letters, the "Commitment Letters") from AP Gaming Holdco, Inc. (the "Equity Investor"), relating to the commitment of the Equity Investor, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, to invest, directly or indirectly, in Purchaser the amount of the cash equity financing stated therein (the "Equity Financing" and, together with the Debt Financing, the "Financing"). The Commitment Letters are valid, binding and enforceable against the applicable Purchaser Entity and, to the knowledge of Purchaser, each of the other parties thereto, in accordance with their respective terms, except as such enforceability may be (1) limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws of general application relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and (2) subject to general equitable principles (whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law). None of the Commitment Letters has been amended or modified prior to the date of this Agreement, and, as of the date hereof, the respective commitments contained in the Commitment Letters have not been withdrawn or rescinded in any respect. There are no conditions precedent to the obligations of the Debt Financing Sources or the Equity Investor to provide the Financing, other than as set forth in or contemplated by the Commitment Letters. As of the date of this Agreement, assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Seller in Article III and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions contained in Section 6.1 and Section 6.2 and Seller's compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, no event has occurred which, with or without notice, lapse of time or both, would reasonably be expected to constitute a default or breach on the part of the applicable Purchaser Entities, and to the knowledge of Purchaser, any other parties thereto, under the Commitment Letters. Purchaser will provide to Seller any amendments to the Commitment Letters as promptly as possible after execution and delivery thereof. Other than as expressly set forth in the Commitment Letters, there are no agreements, side letters, arrangements or understandings (including any fee letters associated with the Debt Financing) that would, or would reasonably be expected to, (A) impair the enforceability of the Commitment Letters, (B) reduce the aggregate amount of the Financing required to fund the Required Payment Amount, (C) impose new or additional conditions precedent to the Financing, or (D) otherwise adversely expand, amend or modify any of the conditions precedent to the Financing, or otherwise expand, amend or modify any other provision of the Commitment Letters, in the case of clauses (C) and (D), in a manner that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay the ability of Purchaser to consummate the Closing. As of the date of this Agreement, assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Seller in Article III and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions contained in Section 6.1 and Section 6.2 and Seller's compliance with its obligations under this Agreement, Purchaser does not have any reason to believe that any of the conditions precedent to the Financing set forth in the Commitment Letters will not be satisfied or that the aggregate proceeds from the Financing, together with any available cash of Purchaser or the Genesis Companies, will not constitute all the funds necessary for the satisfaction of all of Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement and the payment of the Cash Consideration (the "Required Payment Amount") on the Closing Date (provided, that Purchaser makes no representation regarding the satisfaction of conditions to the extent relating to Seller or the Company). The applicable Purchaser Entity has fully paid or caused to be fully paid all commitment fees or other fees that are required pursuant to the Commitment Letters to be paid prior to the date of this Agreement.

4.8 Brokers. No broker, finder or investment banker is entitled to any brokerage, finder's or other fee or commission in connection with this Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Purchaser or any of its Representatives or their respective directors, officers or employees, for which Seller may become liable.

4.9 Independent Investigation; Purchaser's Diligence. Purchaser acknowledges that it is familiar with the Genesis Companies and the Business and has had the opportunity, directly or through its Representatives to inspect the Genesis Companies and the Business and conduct a thorough due diligence investigation of the Genesis Companies and the Business. Without limiting the foregoing, Purchaser acknowledges that the Purchase Price has been negotiated based on Purchaser's express agreement that there would be no representations or warranties except as expressly contained in Article III, as qualified by the Disclosure Schedules, or in any certificates delivered by Seller in connection with the Closing, nor any conditions to Closing other than those set forth in Article VI, and, for the avoidance of doubt, Purchaser acknowledges that it has waived and hereby waives as a condition to the Closing any further due diligence reviews, inspections or examinations with respect to the Genesis Companies or the Business. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, including this Section 4.9, nothing contained in this Agreement shall constitute a limitation on, or a waiver of, Purchaser to any claims for fraud or any remedies in respect thereof.

4.10 No Knowledge of Breach. To Purchaser's Knowledge, as of the date of this Agreement, (i) there is no breach of, or inaccuracy in, any representation or warranty made by Seller or any Genesis Company under this Agreement, and (ii) there is no breach of any covenant or agreement of Seller or any Genesis Company under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything set forth in this Agreement, including the foregoing, under no circumstances shall Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries be required, and Seller and the Company and its Subsidiaries shall not be permitted (without Purchaser's written consent in its sole discretion), to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, involving Purchaser, the Company or their respective Subsidiaries pursuant to this Section 5.2 or otherwise in connection with obtaining the foregoing actions or nonactions, waivers, clearances, permits, consents, approvals, expirations, terminations and authorizations of any third party or Governmental Authority (including under the HSR Act and from all applicable Gaming Authorities), that (x) is not conditioned on the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions or (y) would have or would reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on (i) Purchaser and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole (before giving effect to the Contemplated Transactions), (ii) the Genesis Companies, or (iii) Purchaser and its Subsidiaries (including the Genesis Companies) after giving effect to the Contemplated Transactions, taken as a whole, but measured for purposes of this clause (iii) on a scale relative to the Genesis Companies before giving effect to the Contemplated Transactions (a "Materially Burdensome Condition"); provided, that, if requested by Purchaser, Seller will cause the Company and its Subsidiaries to take or commit to take any such action, or agree to any such condition or restriction, so long as such action, commitment, agreement, condition or restriction is binding on the Genesis Companies only in the event the Closing occurs.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, (i) each of Seller and Purchaser shall use its reasonable best efforts to make an appropriate filing of a complete and correct Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the Contemplated Transactions (the "HSR Filing") as promptly as practicable and in any event within five (5) Business Days immediately following the date hereof and any other required submissions under the HSR Act which Seller or Purchaser determines should be made, in each case with respect to the Contemplated Transactions, and, subject to Sections 5.2(a) and Section 5.2(e), to take all other actions necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act as soon as practicable and (ii) Seller and Purchaser shall cooperate with one another (A) in promptly making any such filings, furnishing information required in connection therewith and seeking to obtain timely any such consents, permits, authorizations, approvals or waivers, and (B) in keeping the other party reasonably informed, including by providing the other party with a copy of any communication received by such party from, or given by such party to, the Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC"), the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice ("DOJ") or any other Governmental Authority, except for Item 4(c) and 4(d) documents or as restricted by Antitrust Law, of any communication received or given in connection with any Proceeding by a private party, in each case regarding any of the Contemplated Transactions. If any party receives any request for additional information from the FTC, the DOJ or any other Governmental Authority with respect to the HSR Filing, then such party shall, as promptly as practicable, respond, completely and correctly, to such request.

(c) In addition to and without limitation of the foregoing, Purchaser shall use its reasonable best efforts to, as promptly as practicable but in any event within thirty (30) calendar days of the date hereof, file, or cause to be filed, with the applicable Gaming Authorities all applications, submissions for suitability review and other appropriate, necessary and requested documentation in connection with all Required Gaming Approvals. Purchaser shall bear its own costs for the preparation of such filings and responding to any inquiries or information requests, if applicable, and Purchaser shall be responsible for the payment of any applicable filing fees. Purchaser and Seller shall reasonably cooperate with each other (A) in promptly making any such filings, furnishing information required in connection therewith and seeking to obtain timely any such approval or exemption, and (B) in keeping the other party reasonably informed of the status of any communications with, and any inquiries or requests for additional information from, any Gaming Authorities regarding any of the Contemplated Transactions.

(d) No party hereto shall independently participate in any substantive meeting or discussion, either in person or by telephone, with any Governmental Authority in respect of any Required Gaming Approval or Antitrust Law matter without, to the extent practicable, giving the other party hereto prior notice of the meeting or discussion and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Authority, the opportunity to attend and/or participate. Subject to applicable Law, the parties hereto will consult and cooperate with one another in connection with any analyses, appearances, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions and proposals made or submitted by or on behalf of any party hereto relating to a Proceeding under the HSR Act or any Law relating to the Required Gaming Approvals. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser shall, on behalf of the parties, control and lead all communications and strategy relating to any investigation under the HSR Act and the Required Gaming Approvals.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, including Section 5.2(a), in no event shall Purchaser or any of its Affiliates be required to (x) commence (or threaten to commence) or defend any litigation, arbitration or other similar process; (y) agree to hold separate, divest, license or cause a third party to purchase, any of the assets or businesses of any of Purchaser's Affiliates (other than Purchaser and its Subsidiaries); or (z) otherwise agree to any restrictions on the businesses of Purchaser's Affiliates (other than Purchaser and its Subsidiaries) in connection with avoiding the entry of, or effecting the dissolution of, any Order, injunction, temporary restraining order, or other Order in any Proceeding, which would otherwise have the effect of preventing or materially delaying the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions.

(f) Seller and Purchaser shall split evenly the filing fees required under the HSR Act.

5.3 Access; Confidentiality.

(a) Subject to applicable Gaming Laws, from the date hereof to the Closing Date, Seller shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, (i) afford Purchaser's Representatives, upon reasonable prior notice, reasonable access during normal business hours to the officers, employees, representatives, agents (including outside accountants), properties, offices and other facilities, books and records of the Genesis Companies and (ii) furnish to Purchaser and its representatives such financial and operating data and other information as such Persons may reasonably request subject, however, to Antitrust Laws. Prior to the Closing, without the prior written consent of Seller, which shall not unreasonably be withheld, conditioned or delayed, Purchaser shall not contact any suppliers to, or customers of, any Genesis Company (except in the event that such supplier or customer is also a customer or supplier of Purchaser and its Affiliates), and Purchaser shall have no right to perform invasive or subsurface investigations of any real property leased by any Genesis Company without the prior written approval of Seller, which may be withheld for any reason. Purchaser and its Representatives shall conduct their investigations pursuant to this provision in such a manner so as not to interfere with the normal operations of the Business, and in a manner so as to minimize any disruption of the Business.

(b) Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Confidentiality Agreement remains in full force and effect and, in addition, covenants and agrees to keep confidential, in accordance with the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, information provided to Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the Contemplated Transactions. If this Agreement is, for any reason, terminated prior to the Closing, the Confidentiality Agreement and the provisions of this Section 5.3(b) shall nonetheless continue in full force and effect.

(c) No investigation pursuant to this Section 5.3 shall affect any representation or warranty in this Agreement of any party hereto or any condition to the obligations of the parties hereto.

5.4 Notification. Each of Seller, on the one hand, and Purchaser, on the other, shall promptly (and in any event within three (3) Business Days after becoming aware of any such occurrence) notify the other party in writing (i) if it believes that such party has breached any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement that might reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a failure of a condition set forth in Section 6.2 or Section 6.3 if continuing on the Closing Date; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect any of the representations, warranties, covenants, rights and remedies, or the conditions to the obligations of, the parties hereunder, or (ii) of any fact, change, condition, circumstance or occurrence or nonoccurrence of any event of which it is aware that will or is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions set forth in Article VI of this Agreement becoming incapable of being satisfied.

5.5 Public Announcements. Seller and Purchaser shall consult with each other before issuing any press release (including any initial press release announcing the execution of this Agreement) or otherwise making any public statements with respect to this Agreement or any of the Contemplated Transactions and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior written consent of the other party, issue such press release or make such public statement or filing as may be required by Law or Order, or pursuant to the rules of any stock exchange or automated quotation system on which such party's securities are listed or quoted (after using commercially reasonable efforts to consult with the other party).

5.6 No Control of the Genesis Companies. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Purchaser, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of any Genesis Company prior to the Closing Date. Prior to the Closing Date, each of Seller and Purchaser shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

5.7 Employee Benefit Matters.

(a) From and after the Closing Date, Purchaser shall cause the Genesis Companies to honor, in accordance with their respective terms, (i) all Employee Benefit Plans set forth, and identified as such, in the Disclosure Schedules (including, without limitation, employment, retirement or severance agreements between any Genesis Company and Persons who are or had been employees of such Genesis Company at or prior to the Closing Date), and (ii) all other agreements or arrangements set forth in the Disclosure Schedules providing for payments by the Genesis Companies to Persons who are or had been employees of the Genesis Companies at or prior to the Closing Date, in each case, subject to Purchaser's rights under Section 5.7(e)(iii).

(b) Purchaser shall ensure that, as of the Closing Date, each employee of any Genesis Company who continues to be employed by such Genesis Company or is otherwise employed by Purchaser or one of its Subsidiaries after the Closing Date (each such person, a "Continuing Employee") receives full credit (for all purposes, including eligibility to participate, vesting, vacation entitlement and severance benefits, but excluding benefit accrual under any defined benefit plan or post-retirement health or life insurance arrangement) for service with a Genesis Company (or predecessor service credit under its employee benefit plans) under each of the comparable employee benefit plans, programs and policies of Purchaser or the relevant Subsidiary, as applicable, in which such Continuing Employee becomes or may become a participant; provided, however, that no such service recognition shall result in any duplication of benefits. As of the Closing Date, Purchaser shall, or shall cause the relevant Subsidiary to, credit to Continuing Employees the amount of vacation time that such employees had accrued and not yet taken under any applicable Employee Benefit Plan as of the Closing Date. With respect to each health or welfare benefit plan maintained by Purchaser or the relevant Subsidiary for the benefit of any Continuing Employees, Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) cause to be waived any eligibility waiting periods, any evidence of insurability requirements and the application of any pre-existing condition limitations under such plan; and (ii) cause each Continuing Employee to be given credit under such plan for all amounts paid by such Continuing Employee under any similar Employee Benefit Plan for the plan year that includes the Closing Date for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable plan maintained by Purchaser or the relevant Subsidiary, as applicable, for the plan year in which the Closing Date occurs.

(c) Prior to the Closing, Seller shall take all actions necessary (i) except as set forth on Schedule 5.7(c), to cause all outstanding stock options issued to Employees under the Amaya Gaming Group Inc. Stock Option Plan that are part of the tranche of options vesting in November 2015 (the "Relevant Unvested Options") to survive Closing (assuming the Closing Date precedes the November 2015 vesting date of such options (the "November 2015 Vesting Date")) and to become fully vested and exercisable on the November 2015 Vesting Date (and not earlier than such date) and remain exercisable in accordance with their respective terms, in each case as if such Employees were still employed by an Affiliate of Seller, subject to the applicable Employee's continued employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries through the November 2015 Vesting Date, and (ii) to ensure that any Relevant Unvested Options held by Employees whose employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries is terminated for any reason prior to the November 2015 Vesting Date shall not become vested or exercisable upon or following such termination of employment. For the avoidance of doubt, except as set forth on Schedule 5.7(c) or as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, all other options granted to Employees under the Amaya Gaming Group Inc. Stock Option Plan that are not vested on or prior to the Closing Date shall terminate.

(d) Prior to the Closing Date, Seller shall: (i) effective at Closing, cause the Genesis Companies to terminate all qualified retirement plans with a 401(k) deferral feature, including the Cadillac Jack, Inc. 401(k) Plan (all such plans, the "Company 401(k) Plans"); and

(ii) provide evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Purchaser of such termination no fewer than three Business Days prior to the Closing; and (iii) in connection with such termination, cause all of the account balances of the participants to become fully vested and non-forfeitable; and (iv) cause the Genesis Companies to make all necessary contributions to the Company 401(k) Plans related to services performed prior to such termination. Purchaser shall take all steps reasonably necessary to permit each employee of the Genesis Companies who receives an eligible rollover distribution (as defined in Section 402(c)(4) of the Code), including any rollovers of any outstanding loans from the Company 401(k) Plans, if any, to roll over such eligible rollover distribution as part of any lump sum distribution, to the extent permitted by the Company 401(k) Plans, into an account under a plan maintained by Purchaser that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code.

(e) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall (i) amend, or be deemed to amend, any Employee Benefit Plan, (ii) create any third party beneficiary rights in any Person or otherwise provide any Person not a party to this Agreement with any right, benefit or remedy with regard to any Employee Benefit Plan or a right to enforce any provision of this Agreement, or (iii) limit in any way Purchaser's ability to amend or terminate any Employee Benefit Plan at any time, subject to applicable Laws.

5.8 No Solicitation of Transaction. Prior to the Closing Date, Seller shall not, and shall cause the Genesis Companies not to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or facilitate any inquiries with respect to, or the making of, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) enter into or engage in negotiations or discussions with, or furnish any information to, any third party relating to an Acquisition Proposal; or (iv) enter into any agreement in principle, arrangement, understanding, contract or agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal. Upon execution of this Agreement Seller shall immediately cease any discussions, negotiations or communications with any Person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and instruct to be returned or destroyed all nonpublic information provided by or on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to such Person; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 5.8 shall preclude Seller or its Representatives from contacting any such party or parties solely for the purpose of complying with the provisions of the first clause of this sentence. The Company and Seller shall promptly notify Purchaser upon receipt of any proposal, offer or indication of interest from any third party with respect to a potential Acquisition Proposal, which notice shall include the identity of any person or entity making such Acquisition Proposal.

5.9 Non-Competition and Non-Solicitation. For a period of eighteen (18) months following the Closing Date, Seller agrees not to, and to cause each of its Affiliates not to, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, including, either individually or in association with any other Person, or through beneficial ownership of any equity interests in any Person:

(a) engage or participate in the Business (which, for purposes of this Section 5.9(a), shall not include clause (ii) of such definition); provided, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (i) such engagement or participation in the businesses currently engaged in by the Persons set forth on Schedule 5.9(a), (ii) any investment (other than any investment that results in Seller and its Affiliates, taken as a whole, holding a controlling interest) in the outstanding voting or non-voting equity interests of any Person that are listed on a public securities exchange or (iii) performance of the Game Content License Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; or

(b) solicit, influence, entice or encourage, or attempt to solicit, influence, entice or encourage, any employee of a Genesis Company to cease his or her employment with such Genesis Company or otherwise hire, employ, engage or contract any such employee to perform services other than for the benefit of the Genesis Companies; provided, that this Section 5.9(b) does not prohibit (i) general media advertising or solicitations for employment not specifically directed at employees of a Genesis Company or (ii) the hiring, employment, engagement or contracting for any reason of any such employees who respond to such general media advertising or solicitations for employment.

5.10 Release. Effective as of the Closing, Seller hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waives any claims that Seller, solely in its capacity as an equity holder of Americas, has or may have in the future against Americas and releases, on its own behalf and on behalf of its successors and assigns, Americas and its Affiliates, directors and officers and their respective successors and assigns from any and all Proceedings with respect to such claims, it being understood that such release shall not apply to any rights of Seller under any Transaction Document.

5.11 Financing.

(a) Purchaser shall use its commercially reasonable efforts (taking into account the expected timing of the Marketing Period) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the Financing on the terms and conditions described in the Commitment Letters to the extent necessary to consummate the Contemplated Transactions, including using commercially reasonable efforts to (i) negotiate and enter into definitive agreements with respect thereto on the terms and conditions contained therein or on other terms not materially less favorable, taken as a whole, with respect to the applicable Purchaser Entity as to conditionality than the terms provided in the Commitment Letters and (ii) to satisfy on a timely basis all conditions, and otherwise comply with all terms, applicable to the applicable Purchaser Entity in the Commitment Letters that are within its control (or, if deemed advisable by Purchaser, seek the waiver of conditions applicable to the applicable Purchaser Entity contained in such Commitment Letters). In the event any portion of the Financing necessary to consummate the Contemplated Transactions becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Commitment Letters, Purchaser shall promptly notify Seller and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to arrange to obtain any such portion from alternative sources on terms and conditions not materially less favorable to the applicable Purchaser Entity as those contained in the Debt Commitment Letters as promptly as practicable following the occurrence of such event. Purchaser shall deliver to Seller true and complete copies of all agreements pursuant to which any such alternative source shall have committed to provide Purchaser with any portion of the Financing and promptly provide Seller with such information it may reasonably request regarding any alternative financing arrangements or plans. Purchaser shall give Seller prompt notice of any material breach by any party to the Commitment Letters of which Purchaser has become aware or any termination of the Commitment Letters. Upon request from Seller, Purchaser shall keep Seller informed on a reasonably current basis of material developments relating to the Financing. Purchaser may agree to or permit any amendment, supplement or other modification to be made to, or any waiver of any provision or remedy under, the Commitment Letters or the definitive agreements relating to the Financing and may obtain financing in substitution of all or a portion of the Financing so long as (x) Purchaser promptly provides Seller with such information as it may reasonably request in connection with any alternative financing arrangements or plans and (y) such amendment, supplement, modification or waiver (i) does not reduce the aggregate amount of the Financing below an amount, together with any available cash of Purchaser or the Genesis Companies, required to pay the Required Payment Amount (including by increasing the amount of fees to be paid or original issue discount as compared to such fees and original issue discount contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter and related fee letters in effect on the date hereof unless the Debt Financing or the Equity Financing is increased by such amount and/or cash is otherwise available to fund such amount); (ii) does not (A) impose new or additional conditions precedent to the Financing, or (B) otherwise adversely expand, amend or modify any of the conditions precedent to the Financing, in the case of clauses (A) and (B), in a manner that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay the ability of Purchaser to consummate the Closing; or (iii) would not materially adversely impact the ability of Purchaser to enforce its rights against other parties to the Commitment Letters or otherwise to timely consummate the Contemplated Transactions. For purposes of this Agreement, references to "Financing" or "Debt Financing," as applicable, shall include the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letters as permitted to be amended, modified, waived or replaced by this Section 5.11(a), and references to "Debt Commitment Letters" shall include such documents as permitted to be amended, modified, waived or replaced by this Section 5.11(a).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, nothing contained in this Section 5.11 shall require, and in no event shall the commercially reasonable efforts of Purchaser be deemed or construed to require, Purchaser or any Affiliate thereof to (i) seek the Equity Financing from any source other than those counterparty to, or in any amount in excess of that contemplated by, the Equity Commitment Letter, or (ii) pay any fees materially in excess of those contemplated by the Equity Commitment Letter or the Debt Commitment Letters.

(b) Prior to the Closing, or as expressly provided in clause (iv) below, after the Closing, Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to, and shall cause Seller's and the Company's respective Representatives to, provide to Purchaser (which for all purposes of clauses (i) – (xi) of this Section 5.11(b) shall also be deemed to include each applicable Purchaser Entity) such cooperation as is reasonably requested by Purchaser and the Debt Financing Sources, other than as expressly provided in clause (iv) below, in connection with the Debt Financing (in each case at Purchaser's sole cost and expense and provided, that such requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of Seller and its Subsidiaries), including:

(i) assisting in preparation for and participation in marketing efforts (including a reasonable number of lender meetings and calls), and participating in a reasonable number of meetings, drafting sessions, rating agency presentations, road shows and due diligence sessions (including accounting due diligence sessions) and sessions with existing and prospective lenders, investors and ratings agencies and assisting Purchaser in obtaining ratings as contemplated by the Debt Financing;

(ii) assisting Purchaser and the Debt Financing Sources in the preparation of (A) a bank information memorandum, lender presentations and similar marketing documents for any of the Debt Financing, including the execution and delivery of customary representation letters in connection with bank information memoranda and reviewing and commenting on Purchaser's draft of a business description and "Management's Discussion and Analysis" of the Company's financial statements to be included in marketing materials contemplated by the Debt Financing; and (B) materials for rating agency presentations;

(iii) as promptly as reasonably practicable (A) furnishing Purchaser and the Debt Financing Sources and their respective Representatives with (x) the Required Financial Information and (y) such pertinent and customary (as compared to other transactions of this size and nature) information, to the extent reasonably available to Seller, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries, regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries as may be reasonably requested by Purchaser in order to consummate the Debt Financing and (B) informing Purchaser if Seller, the Company or their Subsidiaries shall have knowledge of any facts that would likely require the restatement of such financial statements for such financial statements to comply with GAAP;

(iv) both before the Closing and, to the extent reasonably necessary to allow Purchaser or any of its Affiliates to comply with SEC requirements or consummate a securities offering after the Closing, Seller shall provide Purchaser and its representatives access to the books and records of the Genesis Companies and provide appropriate representations in connection with the preparation of financial statements and other financial data of the Company and Seller shall request accountants' consents in connection with the use of the Company's financial statements in offering documents, prospectuses, Current Reports on Form 8-K and other documents to be filed with the SEC;

(v) using commercially reasonable efforts to assist Purchaser in connection with the preparation of pro forma financial information and financial statements to the extent reasonably required by the Debt Financing Sources to be included in any marketing documents related to the Financing; provided, that neither Seller nor any of its Subsidiaries or Representatives shall be responsible in any manner for information relating to the proposed debt and equity capitalization that is required for such pro forma financial information;

(vi) using commercially reasonable efforts to provide (x) monthly financial reports consistent with past practice, (y) within forty-five (45) days of the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters of the fiscal year, unaudited consolidated quarterly financial statements of the Company which have been "reviewed" by auditors in accordance with Statements on Auditing Standards 100, and (z) within ninety (90) days of the end of each fiscal year, audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for such fiscal year;

(vii) executing and delivering as of (but not before) the Closing any pledge and security documents, other definitive financing documents, or other certificates, customary (e.g., local counsel) legal opinions or documents as may be reasonably requested by Purchaser and otherwise facilitating the pledging of collateral (including cooperation in connection with the pay-off of existing Indebtedness to the extent contemplated by this Agreement and the release of related Financing Liens and termination of security interest, including obtaining customary and otherwise mutually acceptable pay-off letters, liens releases and instruments of discharge or releases to be delivered at the Closing);

(viii) assisting Purchaser to obtain waivers, consents, estoppels and approvals from other parties to material licenses, leases, encumbrances and Contracts relating to the Company and to arrange discussions among Purchaser, the providers of the Debt Financing and their respective Representatives with other parties to material licenses, leases, encumbrances and Contracts as of the Closing;

(ix) taking all reasonable actions necessary to (A) permit the Debt Financing Sources to evaluate the Company's current assets, cash management and accounting systems, policies and procedures relating thereto for the purposes of establishing collateral arrangements as of the Closing and to assist with other collateral audits and due diligence examinations and (B) establish bank and other accounts and blocked account agreements and lock box arrangements to the extent necessary in connection with the Debt Financing;

(x) taking all corporate actions, subject to the occurrence of the Closing, reasonably requested by Purchaser and within the reasonable control of the Genesis Companies that are necessary or customary to permit the consummation of the Debt Financing, and to permit any proceeds thereof to be made available on the Closing Date to consummate the Contemplated Transactions; and

(xi) providing all documentation and other information about the Company and its Subsidiaries, as reasonably requested by the Debt Financing Sources or Purchaser in connection with "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations including the USA PATRIOT Act; provided, that: notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, (X) neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates shall be required to (a) pay any commitment or other similar fee prior to the Closing, (b) incur any Liability of any kind (or cause their respective Representatives to incur any Liability of any kind) in connection with the Financing (in the case of the Genesis Companies, prior to the Closing), (c) enter into any agreement or commitment in connection with the Debt Financing that is not conditioned on the occurrence of the Closing and does not terminate without liability to the Company and its Subsidiaries upon failure of the Closing to occur in accordance with this Agreement, or (d) take any action that would (1) cause any representation or warranty in this Agreement to be breached, (2) cause any director, manager, agent, officer or employee of Seller, the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives to incur any personal liability or (3) require Seller, the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives to provide access to or disclose information that any of them determines would jeopardize any attorney-client privilege and (Y) no director or officer of Seller or any Subsidiary of Seller shall be required to execute any agreement, certificate, document or instrument with respect to the Financing that would be effective prior to the Closing.

Purchaser shall promptly, upon request by Seller, reimburse Seller for all documented out-of-pocket costs or expenses incurred by Seller, any of its Affiliates, Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives in complying with their respective covenants pursuant to Section 5.11(d), Section 5.11(e) and this Section 5.11(b). Further, Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller, its Subsidiaries and its and their respective directors, officers and other Representatives from and against any and all Liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs, expenses interest, awards, judgments and penalties suffered or incurred by any of them in connection with the Financing or any alternative financing and any information utilized in connection therewith (other than any information provided in writing by or on behalf of Seller or any of its Subsidiaries specifically for use in connection with the Financing), in each case other than to the extent any of the foregoing arises from the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of, or material breach of this Agreement by, Seller or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective Affiliates and Representatives. The foregoing indemnification obligation shall survive Closing and any termination of this Agreement.

(c) Seller hereby consents to the use of the logos of the Company solely in connection with the Debt Financing; provided, that such logos are used solely in a manner that is not intended to or reasonably likely to harm or disparage Seller or Seller's reputation or goodwill and will comply with Seller's usage requirements to the extent made available to Purchaser prior to the date on which the Marketing Period commences.

(d) Seller shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use commercially reasonable efforts to periodically update any Required Financial Information provided to Purchaser and each applicable Purchaser Entity as may be necessary so that such Required Financial Information is (i) Compliant, (ii) meets the applicable requirements set forth in the definition of "Required Financial Information" and (iii) would not, after giving effect to such update(s), result in the Marketing Period to cease to be deemed to have commenced. For the avoidance of doubt, Purchaser and each applicable Purchaser Entity may, to most effectively consummate the Financing, require the cooperation of Seller and its Subsidiaries under this Section 5.11 at any time, and from time to time and on multiple occasions, between the date hereof and the Closing (upon reasonable advance notice and, for meetings and discussions, at mutually convenient times); provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the Marketing Period shall not be applicable as to each attempt to access the markets. Seller shall timely file documents and other materials with SEDAR in accordance with applicable Law, to the extent such documents and other materials relate to the Company (Seller shall be deemed to have "timely" filed any such documents or other materials if the Company makes such filing on or prior to the fifth (5^{th}) Business Day following the date such filing would otherwise have been due under applicable Law). If, in connection with any reasonable marketing effort contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letters, Purchaser reasonably determines to include in a customary marketing document information about the Company, which information would also comprise material non-public information with respect to Seller, then Purchaser may reasonably request that Seller issue a press release containing such information, and Seller shall, promptly following such reasonable request, issue such press release containing such material non-public information and concurrently file such press release on SEDAR.

(e) Prior to the Closing, Seller shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause their independent auditors to provide, consistent with customary practice, (i) consent to offering memoranda that include or incorporate the Company's consolidated financial information and their reports thereon, in each case, to the extent such consent is required, customary auditors reports and customary comfort letters (including "negative assurance" comfort) with respect to financial information relating to the Company, (ii) reasonable assistance in the preparation of pro forma financial statements by Purchaser or the applicable Purchaser Entity and (iii) reasonable assistance and cooperation to Purchaser or the applicable Purchaser Entity, including attending accounting due diligence sessions.

(f) Both before the Closing and, to the extent applicable, after the Closing, Seller shall use its reasonable best efforts to (i) assist Purchaser or AP Gaming in requesting approval and/or "pre-clearance" from the Office of the Chief Accountant of the Division of Corporation Finance of Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") to permit AP Gaming to use the financial statements of the Company and its Subsidiaries for purposes of complying with Rule 3-05 of Regulation S-X with respect to the financial statements and financial information of the Genesis Companies and their Subsidiaries and (ii) to the extent that the SEC does not provide Purchaser or AP Gaming with approval and/or "pre-clearance" as contemplated in clause (i) within six (6) weeks after the date of this Agreement, provide as soon as practicable (and no later than 20 Business Days prior to the Closing Date) (x) audited consolidated financial statements of the Genesis Companies as of December 31, 2014 and 2013 and for the three years then ended and (y) within forty-five (45) days of the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters of the 2015 fiscal year unaudited consolidated quarterly financial statements of the Genesis Companies for such quarter and for the then-elapsed portion of such fiscal year, together with comparative financial statements for the prior fiscal year, which have been "reviewed" by auditors in accordance with Statements on Auditing Standards 100 (in each case solely to the extent required by Rule 3-05 of Regulation S-X). It is understood and agreed that the assistance contemplated by this clause shall include, but not be limited to, providing any reasonable information with respect to the Genesis Companies that Purchaser or AP Gaming deems necessary to submit a "pre-clearance" letter to the SEC, which letter will request the staff of the SEC to accept the filing of financial statements of the Company for purposes of complying with Rule 3-05 of Regulation S-X in lieu of those of the Genesis Companies (the "Pre-Clearance Letter"), providing Purchaser and AP Gaming and their representatives reasonable access to the books and records of the Genesis Companies and their Subsidiaries, providing appropriate and customary representations in connection with the preparation of financial statements and other financial data of the Genesis Companies, and requesting accountants' consents, as applicable, in connection with the use of the Genesis Companies' financial statements in offering documents, prospectuses, Current Reports on Form 8-K and other documents to be filed with the SEC. If Purchaser or AP Gaming do not receive the approval and/or "pre-clearance" from the SEC contemplated in clause (i) above within six (6) weeks after the date of this Agreement, the parties agree that all references to the Company in Section 5.11 and related sections and the definitions of "Compliant", "Marketing Period" and "Required Financial Information" shall be deemed to also refer to the Genesis Companies, and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Seller shall be solely responsible for and bear all incremental costs and expenses associated with the cooperation and compliance of Seller contemplated by such provisions. Purchaser or AP Gaming shall submit the Pre-Clearance Letter to the SEC on or prior to the tenth (10th) Business Day following the date of this Agreement.

(g) Promptly after the date of this Agreement, Seller shall use its best efforts to obtain amendments to and/or other payoff mechanics with respect to each of the Existing Credit Agreement and Existing Mezzanine Credit Agreement that permit the Indebtedness outstanding under each such credit agreement to be prepaid and cancelled on the Closing Date.

5.12 Termination of Related Party Transactions. On or prior to the Closing Date, all (a) Liabilities between any Genesis Company, on the one hand, and one or more of its Affiliates (including Seller, but not including any other Genesis Company), on the other hand, and (b) Related Party Transactions (other than the Game Content License Agreements), in each case, shall be terminated in full, without any Liability to Purchaser, any Genesis Company or any of their respective Affiliates following the Closing other than Liabilities and Related Party Transactions relating to a person's employment relationship with a Genesis Company (the "Related Party Transactions Terminations").

5.13 Loan Repayments and Contributions; Redemption. Subject to Purchaser making the Purchase Price Advance, on or prior to the Closing Date, Seller shall cause the consummation of the Loan Repayments and Contributions and the Redemption, in the order set forth in the definitions thereof and the Loan Repayments and Contributions and the Redemptions will eliminate any "excess loss accounts" of any of the Genesis Companies or any similar amount under a comparable state, local or foreign Tax law.

5.14 Transaction Expenses. Prior to or at the Closing, Seller shall cause all Transaction Expenses to have been discharged, satisfied and paid.

5.15 Transition Team. Following execution of this Agreement, each of the Company and Purchaser shall cooperate with the other to assist Purchaser's development of compliance and educational programs necessary and suitable for the combined businesses and an action plan for the implementation of such programs immediately following the Closing and the combination and integration of the businesses and operations of the Company and Purchaser at and following the Closing. In furtherance of and to carry out the foregoing, promptly following execution of this Agreement, the parties shall establish a transition planning team, which team shall be composed of one person from the Company selected by Seller, who shall have appropriate seniority and knowledge of the Company operations to assist with Purchaser's transition planning (the "Seller Transition Team Designee"), and one or more persons from Purchaser (each, a "Purchaser Transition Team Designee"). Upon reasonable advance notice (including via email or telephone) by a Purchaser Transition Team Designee to the Seller Transition Team Designee, the Seller Transition Team Designee shall meet with the Purchaser Transition Team Designees at a reasonable location selected by the Seller Transition Team Designee no less than three (3) Business Days prior to the intended date of any such meeting; provided, that (a) the Seller Transition Team Designee shall not be required to meet with the Purchaser Transition Team Designees on more than three (3) occasions per month and (b) such meetings shall not disrupt in any material respect the performance of the Seller Transition Team Designee's duties within the Company. Purchaser shall promptly, upon request by Seller, reimburse Seller for all reasonable documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Company and the Seller Transition Team Designee in complying with its covenants pursuant to this Section 5.15.

ARTICLE VI

(b) No Adverse Proceedings. No Proceeding by any Governmental Authority shall be pending or shall have been threatened, asserted, instituted or entered which seeks to directly or indirectly challenge or make illegal or otherwise restrain, prohibit or enjoin any of the parties hereto from entering into, or performing any of the Contemplated Transactions.

Each of the remaining representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement (in each case read for purposes of this Section 6.2(a) without giving effect to any "material," "material adverse effect," "Material Adverse Effect," or other materiality qualifications contained therein, except that the definition of Material Contracts and the use of such defined term herein shall be read without excluding such qualifications for purposes of this Section 6.2(a)) shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date (except with respect to representations and warranties which speak to an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), except where the failure to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Compliance with Obligations. Seller and the Company shall each have performed and complied in all material respects with all of its covenants contained in this Agreement which are required to be performed or complied with prior to or at the Closing.

6.3 Conditions to Seller's Obligations. Seller's obligation to consummate the Contemplated Transactions shall be subject to the fulfillment prior to or at the Closing of the following conditions, any or all of which may be waived in whole or in part by Seller:

(a) Accuracy of Representations and Warranties. Each of the representations and warranties of Purchaser contained in this Agreement (in each case read for purposes of this Section 6.3(a) without giving effect to any "material," "material adverse effect," "Purchaser Material Adverse Effect," or other materiality qualifications contained therein) shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date (except with respect to representations and warranties which speak to an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date), except where the failure to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, has not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a Purchaser Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Compliance with Obligations. Purchaser shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all of its covenants contained in this Agreement which are required to be performed or complied with prior to or at the Closing.

(c) Deliverables. Each of the documents, certificates and items required to be delivered by or on behalf of Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.7(a) shall have been delivered.

(d) Purchase Price Advance. Purchaser shall have made the Purchase Price Advance.

ARTICLE VII
INDEMNIFICATION

7.1 Indemnification by Seller. Subject to Section 7.3 and Section 7.4, from and after Closing, Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser and its directors, employees, officers, Representatives and Affiliates (including the Genesis Companies) and their respective successors and permitted assigns (collectively, the "Purchaser Indemnified Parties") from, against and in respect of any and all Losses which Purchaser suffers arising out of or incurred as a result of any of the following:

(a) the breach of, or any inaccuracy in, any representation or warranty, as of the date hereof or as of the Closing Date, other than the representations and warranties set forth in Section 3.10 of this Agreement (collectively, the "Tax Representations") (or, with respect to any representation and warranty made as of an earlier date, as of such earlier date), of Seller contained herein (or in any certificate provided by Seller pursuant to this Agreement);

(b) the breach or violation of any covenant, obligation or agreement of Seller or the Company in this Agreement (and, with respect to the Company, required to be performed prior to Closing), other than any covenant, obligation or agreement of the Seller in this Agreement relating to Taxes (collectively, the "Tax Covenants");

(c) any Transaction Expenses not discharged on or prior to the Closing;

(d) any ERISA Affiliate Liability;

(e) failure to properly treat the employees of the Genesis Companies as employees of a single employer (with Seller and its other ERISA Affiliates) when applicable for purposes of Section 414 of the Code (including for purposes of nondiscrimination testing under the Company 401(k) Plans);

(f) the Loan Repayments and Contributions or the Redemption; or

(g) (i) any Liabilities of Enterprises and (ii) any Liabilities of Americas or Holdings, which were incurred by Americas or Holdings prior to the Closing or which relate to any transactions, actions or inactions of, or any events, facts or circumstances relating to, Americas or Holdings, which, in each case, occurred or arose prior to the Closing.

7.2 Indemnification by Purchaser. Subject to Section 7.3 and Section 7.4, Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller, its Representatives and Affiliates and their respective successors and assigns (collectively, the "Seller Indemnified Parties") from, against and in respect of any and all Losses which Seller suffers based upon, arising out of or incurred as a result of any of the following:

(a) the breach of, or any inaccuracy in, any representation or warranty, as of the date hereof or as of the Closing Date (or, with respect to any representation and warranty made as of an earlier date, as of such earlier date), of Purchaser contained herein (or in any certificate provided by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement); or

(b) the breach or violation of any covenant, obligation or agreement of Purchaser in this Agreement.

7.3 Limitations on Liability.

(a) Time Limitations and Survival. Following the Closing, Seller will have no liability for Seller's indemnification obligations pursuant to Section 7.1(a), unless on or before the earlier of (x) March 30, 2017 and (y) the sixtieth (60th) day following delivery by the applicable accounting firm to Purchaser or the Company of the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2016, Purchaser notifies Seller of a claim specifying the factual basis of such claim in reasonable detail to the extent then known by Purchaser; provided, that (i) a claim with respect to Fundamental Representations may be made at any time until sixty (60) days following the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations, (ii) the Tax Representations shall survive in the manner provided in Section 8.1 (Survival of Tax Representations and Warranties), (iii) a claim with respect to Section 3.16 (Environmental Matters) may be made at any time prior to the second (2nd) anniversary of the Closing Date, (iv) a claim with respect to Section 3.18 (Employee Benefit Matters) may be made at any time prior to the third (3rd) anniversary of the Closing Date and (v) a claim with respect to Section 3.25 (Certain Conduct; Sanctions) may be made at any time prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Closing Date. Purchaser will have no liability (for indemnification or otherwise) with respect to any representation or warranty, unless on or before the earlier of (x) March 30, 2017 and (y) the sixtieth (60th) day following delivery by the applicable accounting firm to Purchaser or the Company of the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2016, Seller notifies Purchaser of a claim specifying the factual basis of that claim in reasonable detail to the extent then known by Seller; provided, that (i) a claim with respect to Purchaser Fundamental Representations may be made at any time until sixty (60) days following the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

(b) Limitations on Seller's Indemnification. Seller will have no obligation to indemnify the Purchaser Indemnified Parties for any Losses pursuant to Section 7.1(a) until such time as such Losses, in the aggregate, exceed three million seven hundred thousand dollars ($3,700,000) (the "Threshold Amount") at which point Seller shall be liable for the amount of such Losses in excess of such amount; provided, that no Loss may be claimed by the Purchaser Indemnified Parties or shall be reimbursable by Seller or shall be included in calculating the aggregate Losses set forth above other than Losses in excess of thirty-seven thousand dollars ($37,000) resulting from any single claim or an aggregated series of related claims arising out of the same facts, events or circumstances. The maximum amount of indemnifiable Losses for which Seller shall be liable pursuant to Section 7.1(a) shall be thirty-seven million dollars ($37,000,000) (the "Indemnity Cap"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the limitations contained in this Section 7.3(b) shall not apply to (i) any inaccuracy in, or breach of, any Fundamental Representation or any Tax Representation or (ii) claims arising from fraud by Seller. For the avoidance of doubt, any and all breaches and inaccuracies in Fundamental Representations and Tax Representations and indemnification pursuant to Section 7.1(b), Section 7.1(c), Section 7.1(d), Section 7.1(e), Section 7.1(f), Section 7.1(g) or Article VIII shall not be subject to the Indemnity Cap or other limitations set forth in this Section 7.3(b) and instead shall be recoverable from "dollar one."

(c) Limitations on Purchaser's Indemnification. Purchaser will have no obligation to indemnify the Seller Indemnified Parties for any Losses pursuant to Section 7.2(a) until such time as such Losses, in the aggregate, exceed the Threshold Amount at which point

Purchaser shall be liable for the amount of such Losses in excess of such amount; provided, that no Loss may be claimed by the Seller Indemnified Parties or shall be reimbursable by Purchaser or shall be included in calculating the aggregate Losses set forth above other than Losses in excess of thirty-seven thousand dollars ($37,000) resulting from any single claim or an aggregated series of related claims arising out of the same facts, events or circumstances. The maximum amount of indemnifiable Losses for which Purchaser shall be liable pursuant to Section 7.2(a) shall be the Indemnity Cap. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the limitations contained in this Section 7.3(c) shall not apply to (i) any inaccuracy in, or breach of, any Purchaser Fundamental Representation or (ii) claims arising from fraud by Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, any and all breaches and inaccuracies in Purchaser Fundamental Representations shall not be subject to the Indemnity Cap or other limitations set forth in this Section 7.3(c) and instead shall be recoverable from "dollar one."

(d) Other Limitations; No Multiple Recovery. Any payment by an indemnifying party pursuant to this Article VII shall be reduced by the amount of insurance proceeds actually recovered by the indemnitee under insurance policies with respect thereto (it being understood that indemnification payments shall be made before any related insurance, indemnity, contribution or other similar claims are ultimately settled or resolved). No indemnified party shall be entitled to recover from an indemnifying party more than once for any particular Loss, nor shall any indemnifying party be liable or otherwise obligated to indemnify any indemnified party for the same Loss more than once.

(e) Recourse Against Seller Note. The Purchaser Indemnified Parties shall have recourse for claims for any Losses pursuant to Section 7.1 against Seller directly or, at Purchaser's election, for so long as the Seller Note is held by Seller, by reducing the principal amount (including any accrued interest) outstanding under the Seller Note by the amount of such Losses.

(f) Mitigation. Each Person entitled to indemnification under this Article VII shall take commercially reasonable steps to mitigate all Losses after becoming aware of any event which could reasonably be expected to give rise to any Losses that are indemnifiable or recoverable pursuant to this Agreement.

7.4 Third Party Indemnification Procedure.

(a) Promptly after receipt by any indemnified party of notice of the commencement of any action, Proceeding or claim by a third party (a "Third Party Claim") in respect of which the indemnified party intends to seek indemnification pursuant to Section 7.1 or Section 7.2, the indemnified party shall notify the indemnifying party in writing; provided, that the omission to so notify shall not relieve the indemnifying party of its indemnification obligations except to the extent the indemnifying party is materially prejudiced thereby. The indemnifying party shall be entitled to assume control of the defense of such Third Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party; provided, that:

(i) the indemnifying party shall not be entitled to assume or continue control of the defense of any such Third Party Claim if (i) the indemnified party has been advised by counsel that an actual conflict of interest exists that cannot be waived between the indemnifying party and the indemnified party in connection with the defense of such Third Party Claim, (ii) the Third Party Claim relates to or arises in connection with any criminal Proceeding, (iii) the Third Party Claim seeks an injunction or equitable relief against any indemnified party, (iv) based on a reasonably likely estimate of Losses relating to such Third Party Claim, after giving effect to any applicable limitations on indemnification in Section 7.3, the indemnified party would be responsible for more of the Losses than the indemnifying party in the event such Third Party Claim were determined in an adverse manner to the indemnified party, (v) the indemnifying party has failed or is failing to defend in good faith the Third Party Claim or (vi) the indemnifying party has not acknowledged that such Third Party Claim is subject to indemnification pursuant to this Article VII;

(ii) if the indemnifying party is entitled to and assumes the defense of any Third Party Claim, the indemnified party shall be entitled to participate in the defense of such claim and to employ counsel at its own expense to assist in the handling of such claim;

(iii) if the indemnifying party is entitled to and assumes the defense of any Third Party Claim, the indemnifying party shall not consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by each claimant or plaintiff to the indemnified party of a release from all liability in respect of such claim or if, pursuant to or as a result of such consent or settlement, injunctive or other equitable relief would be imposed against the indemnified party or such judgment or settlement could materially interfere with the business, operations or assets of the indemnified party; and

(iv) after written notice by the indemnifying party to the indemnified party of its election to assume control of the defense of any Third Party Claim in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the indemnifying party shall not be liable to such indemnified party hereunder for any legal fees, costs and expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof.

(b) If the indemnifying party does not assume control of the defense of a Third Party Claim in a reasonable period of time following its receipt of notice of such claim in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the indemnified party shall have the right to defend such claim in such manner as it may deem appropriate at the reasonable cost and expense of the indemnifying party, and the indemnifying party will promptly reimburse the indemnified party therefor in accordance with this Section 7.4; provided, that the indemnified party shall not be entitled to consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement of such claim without the prior written consent of the indemnifying party (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

7.5 Exclusive Remedies. Subject to Section 10.10, following the Closing, the remedies provided in this Article VII and Article VIII shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedies with respect to all claims for breach of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement, except with respect to claims arising from fraud or claims for equitable relief. For purposes of further clarification of the preceding sentence, the parties acknowledge and agree that the purpose of this Section 7.5 is to make it clear that no party shall have any liability whatsoever to another party in connection with the Contemplated Transactions except as set forth in this Article VII and Article VIII, and accordingly agree that this Section 7.5 is to be construed broadly. The parties acknowledge that this Section 7.5 has been negotiated fully and that Seller would not have entered into this Agreement but for the inclusion of this Section 7.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Article VII shall not affect the rights of any party hereto against any third party (including a third party whose claim against a party hereto is the basis of a claim for indemnification) and shall not inure to the benefit of any third party.

7.6 Effect of Knowledge or Waiver of Condition.

(a) The right to indemnification, payment of Losses or other remedies based on any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement or in any certificate delivered with respect hereto will not be affected by any investigation conducted with respect to, or any knowledge or information acquired (or capable of being acquired) at any time, whether before or after the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Closing Date, with respect to the accuracy or inaccuracy of or compliance with, any such representation, warranty, covenant or agreement. The waiver of any condition based on the accuracy of any representation or warranty, or on the performance of or compliance with any covenant or agreement, will not affect the right to indemnification, payment of Losses, or other remedy based on such representations, warranties, covenants or agreements.

(b) Any breach by Purchaser of Section 4.10 or Section 5.4 (i) shall not, in and of itself, (x) be considered for purposes of determining the satisfaction of the closing conditions set forth in Article VI, (y) give rise to a right of termination under Article IX or (z) give rise to any independent Liability of Purchaser or independent claim by Seller for Losses hereunder and (ii) may only be claimed by Seller to offset (to the extent of the Losses resulting from such breach) any Losses otherwise recoverable by Purchaser pursuant to Article VII in respect of the underlying breach or breaches by Seller that are the subject of the breach by Purchaser of Section 4.10 or Section 5.4 (which offset shall be Seller's sole remedy for such breach by Purchaser), provided, that in the case of this clause (ii) the underlying breach or breaches by Seller were not also known by the Seller at the time of Purchaser's breach of Section 4.10 or Section 5.4.

7.7 Additional Matters. For purposes of calculating the amount of Losses that are the subject matter of such claim for indemnification pursuant to Sections 7.1 or 7.2, the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to have been made without any qualifications as to "materiality," "material adverse effect," "Material Adverse Effect," "knowledge," "Company's Knowledge" or any other materiality qualifications (except that (x) the representations and warranties contained in the second sentence of Section 3.9 and (y) the definition of Material Contracts, and the use of such defined term herein, shall be read without excluding such qualifications). Any amounts payable under this Article VII shall be treated by Purchaser and Seller as adjustments to the Purchase Price.

7.8 Conflicts. This Article VII shall not apply to Taxes, which shall be governed exclusively by Article VIII. In the event of a conflict between Article VII and Article VIII, Article VIII shall govern with respect to Taxes.

ARTICLE VIII
TAX INDEMNIFICATION; TAX MATTERS

8.1 Survival of Tax Representations and Warranties. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each of (i) the indemnity set forth in Section 8.2, (ii) the Tax Covenants and (iii) the Tax Representations shall survive the Closing and remain in full force and effect with respect to any claim based on such indemnification, Tax Covenants, or Tax Representations, as applicable, until the date which is 60 days after the date upon which the liability to which any such claim may relate is barred by all applicable statutes of limitations (including all periods of extension, whether automatic or permissive).

8.2 Tax Indemnification. From and after the Closing Date, Seller shall indemnify Purchaser, the Genesis Companies and their respective Affiliates (each a "Tax Indemnified Buyer Party" and collectively, the "Tax Indemnified Buyer Parties") against and hold harmless from any and all Losses which Purchaser suffers or incurs arising out of:

(a) Taxes of the Genesis Companies for periods or portions thereof ending on or before the Closing Date ("Pre-Closing Taxes");

(b) Taxes for which any Genesis Company is or becomes liable pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.1502-6, Treasury Regulation § 1.1502-78 or any comparable provision of foreign, state, provincial or local Tax law by reason of being or having been a member of an affiliated, consolidated, combined or unitary group on or prior to the Closing Date;

(c) without duplication, Taxes imposed on a Tax Indemnified Buyer Party as a result of a breach of a Tax Representation or Tax Covenant; provided, that for purposes of calculating the amount of Losses that are the subject matter of such claim for indemnification pursuant to this Section 8.2, the Tax Representations contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to have been made without any qualifications as to "materiality," "material adverse effect," "Material Adverse Effect," "knowledge," "Company's Knowledge" or any other materiality qualifications;

(d) Seller's portion of Taxes arising out of any transactions contemplated by this Agreement as determined pursuant to Section 10.12;

(e) Taxes or other payments required to be paid after the Closing Date by any Genesis Company to any party under any Tax Sharing Agreement (whether written or not) or by reason of being a successor-in-interest or transferee of another entity;

(f) Taxes attributable to or arising out of the Loan Repayment and Contributions or the Redemption;

(g) Taxes of or attributable to Enterprises;

(h) Taxes attributable to transactions entered into on or prior to the Closing Date governed by Section 367(d) of the Code;

(i) Taxes attributable to a breach of the covenant in Section 5.13; and

(j) Taxes attributable to (1) any "excess loss accounts" or any similar amount under a comparable state, local or foreign Tax law of or (2) any "deferred gains" with respect to any "deferred intercompany transactions" or any similar amount under any comparable state, local of foreign Tax law, within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-19 and 1.1502-13 respectively, or any comparable state, local or foreign Tax law, in each case, existing on the Closing Date.

8.3 Tax Indemnification Procedures.

(a) After the Closing, Purchaser shall promptly notify Seller in writing of any demand, claim or notice of the commencement of an audit received by a Tax Indemnified Buyer Party from any Governmental Authority or any other Person with respect to Taxes for which Seller is liable pursuant to Section 8.2 of this Agreement; provided, however, that a failure to give such notice will not affect the Tax Indemnified Buyer Parties' rights to indemnification under this Article VIII, except to the extent that Seller is prejudiced thereby. Such notice shall contain factual information (to the extent known) describing the asserted Tax liability and shall include copies of the relevant portion of any notice or other document received from any Governmental Authority or any other Person in respect of any such asserted Tax liability.

(b) Payment by Seller of any amount due to a Tax Indemnified Buyer Party under Article VIII of this Agreement shall be made within ten (10) days following written notice by the Tax Indemnified Buyer Party that payment of such amounts to the appropriate Governmental Authority or other applicable third party is due by Seller, provided that Seller shall not be required to make any payment earlier than five (5) Business Days before it is due to the appropriate Governmental Authority or applicable third party. In the case of a Tax that is contested in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.4 of this Agreement, payment of such contested Tax will not be considered due earlier than the date a "final determination" to such effect is made by such Governmental Authority or a court. For this purpose, a "final determination" shall mean a settlement, compromise, or other agreement with the relevant Governmental Authority, whether contained in an Internal Revenue Service Form 870 or other comparable form, or otherwise, or such procedurally later event, such as a closing agreement with the relevant Governmental Authority, an agreement contained in Internal Revenue Service Form 870-AD or other comparable form, an agreement that constitutes a "determination" under Section 1313(a)(4) of the Code, a deficiency notice with respect to which the period for filing a petition with the Tax Court or the relevant state, local or foreign tribunal has expired or a decision of any court of competent jurisdiction that is not subject to appeal or as to which the time for appeal has expired.

(c) All amounts required to be paid pursuant to this Article VIII shall be paid promptly in immediately available funds by wire transfer to a bank account designated by the indemnified party.

(d) Any payments required pursuant to this Article VIII that are not made within the time period specified in this Section 8.3 shall bear interest at a rate and in the manner provided in the Code for interest on underpayments of federal income Tax.

8.4 Tax Audits and Contests; Cooperation.

(a) After the Closing Date, except as provided in Sections 8.4(b) and 8.4(c), Purchaser shall control the conduct, through counsel of its own choosing, of any audit, claim for refund, or administrative or judicial Proceeding involving any asserted Tax liability or refund with respect to any Genesis Company (any such audit, claim for refund, or Proceeding relating to an asserted Tax liability referred to herein as a "Contest").

(b) In the case of a Contest after the Closing Date that relates solely to Taxes for which Purchaser is indemnified under Section 8.2, Seller shall control the conduct of such Contest, but Purchaser shall have the right to participate in such Contest at its own expense, and Seller shall not be able to settle, compromise and/or concede any portion of such Contest that is reasonably likely to affect the Tax liability of any Genesis Company for any taxable year (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date without the consent of Purchaser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned; provided, that if Seller fails to assume control of the conduct of any such Contest within a reasonable period following the receipt by Seller of notice of such Contest, Purchaser shall have the right to assume control of such Contest and shall be able to settle, compromise and/or concede such Contest in its sole discretion.

(c) In the case of a Contest after the Closing Date that relates both to Taxes for which Purchaser is indemnified under Section 8.2 and Taxes for which Purchaser is not indemnified under Section 8.2, Purchaser shall control the conduct of such Contest, but Seller shall have the right to participate in such Contest at its own expense, and Purchaser shall not settle, compromise and/or concede such Contest without the consent of Seller, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned.

(d) Seller and Purchaser agree to furnish or cause to be furnished to each other, upon request, as promptly as practicable, such information (including access to books and records) and assistance relating to the Genesis Companies as is reasonably requested for the filing of any Tax Returns and the preparation, prosecution, defense or conduct of any Contest. Seller and Purchaser shall reasonably cooperate with each other in the conduct of any Contest or other Proceeding involving or otherwise relating to any Genesis Company (or their income or assets) with respect to any Tax and each shall execute and deliver such powers of attorney and other documents as are necessary to carry out the intent of this Section 8.4(d). Any information obtained under this Section 8.4(d) shall be kept confidential, except as may be otherwise necessary in connection with the filing of Tax Returns or in the conduct of a Contest or other Tax Proceeding.

(e) Each of Purchaser and the Genesis Companies shall (a) use its reasonable best efforts to properly retain and maintain the Tax and accounting records of the Genesis Companies that relate to Pre-Closing Taxable Periods for 7 years and shall thereafter provide Seller with written notice prior to any destruction, abandonment or disposition of all or any portions of such records, (b) transfer such records to Seller upon its written request prior to any such destruction, abandonment or disposition and (c) allow Seller and its agents and representatives, at times and dates reasonably and mutually acceptable to the parties, to from time to time inspect and review such records; provided, however, that in all cases, such activities are to be conducted by Seller during normal business hours and at Seller's sole expense. Any information obtained under this Section 8.4(e) shall be kept confidential, except as may be otherwise necessary in connection with the filing of Tax Returns or in the conduct of a Contest or other Tax Proceeding.

8.5 Preparation of Tax Returns and Payment of Taxes.

(a) Purchaser shall prepare (or cause to be prepared), and timely file all Tax Returns of the Genesis Companies required to be filed with any Governmental Authority after the Closing Date, and shall pay (or cause to be paid) any Taxes due in respect of such Tax Returns. With respect to any Tax Returns filed with respect to any taxable periods (or portions thereof) ending on or before the Closing Date ("Pre-Closing Taxable Periods") Seller shall be responsible for the Pre-Closing Taxes due in respect of such Tax Returns. Purchaser shall notify Seller of any amounts due from Seller in respect of any such Tax Return no later than ten (10) Business Days prior to the date on which such Tax Return is due, and Seller shall remit such payment to Purchaser no later than five (5) Business Days prior to the date such Tax Return is due.

(b) In the case of Tax Returns that are filed with respect to a taxable period that ends on or prior to the Closing Date, Purchaser shall prepare such Tax Return in a manner consistent with past practice, except as otherwise required by applicable law, and shall deliver any such Tax Return to Seller for its review at least thirty (30) days prior to the date such Tax Return is required to be filed. If Seller disputes any item on such Tax Return, it shall notify Purchaser of such disputed item (or items) and the basis for its objection. The parties shall act in good faith to resolve any such dispute prior to the date on which the relevant Tax Return is required to be filed. If the parties cannot resolve any disputed item, the item in question shall be resolved by an independent accounting firm mutually acceptable to Seller and Purchaser. The fees and expenses of such accounting firm shall be borne equally by Seller and Purchaser.

(c) In the case of Tax Returns that are filed with respect to Straddle Periods (as defined in Section 8.6 below), Purchaser shall prepare such Tax Return in a manner consistent with past practice, except as otherwise required by applicable law.

8.6 Straddle Periods. For purposes of this Agreement, in the case of any Taxes of any Genesis Company that are payable with respect to any Tax period that begins before and ends after the Closing Date (a "Straddle Period"), the portion of any such Taxes that constitutes Pre-Closing Taxes shall: (i) in the case of Taxes that are either (x) based upon or related to income or receipts, or (y) imposed in connection with any sale, transfer or assignment or any deemed sale, transfer or assignment of property (real or personal, tangible or intangible), be deemed equal to the amount that would be payable if the Tax year or period ended on the Closing Date; and (ii) in the case of Taxes (other than those described in clause (i) above) that are imposed on a periodic basis with respect to the business or assets of any Genesis Company or otherwise measured by the level of any item, be deemed to be the amount of such Taxes for the entire Straddle Period (or, in the case of such Taxes determined on an arrears basis, the amount of such Taxes for the immediately preceding Tax period) multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of calendar days in the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of calendar days in the entire Straddle Period. For purposes of clause (i) of the preceding sentence, any exemption, deduction, credit or other item (including, without limitation, the effect of any graduated rates of Tax) that is calculated on an annual basis shall be allocated to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date on a pro rata basis determined by multiplying the total amount of such item allocated to the Straddle Period times a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days in the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of calendar days in the entire Straddle Period. In the case of any Tax based upon or measured by capital (including net worth or long-term debt) or intangibles, any amount thereof required to be allocated under this Section 8.6 shall be computed by reference to the level of such items on the Closing Date. All determinations necessary to give effect to the foregoing allocations shall be made in a manner consistent with past practice of the Genesis Companies. The parties hereto will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, elect with the relevant Governmental Authority to treat a portion of any Straddle Period as a short taxable period ending as of the close of business on the Closing Date.

8.7 Tax Treatment of Indemnity Payments. It is the intention of the parties to treat any indemnity payment made under this Agreement as an adjustment to the Purchase Price for all federal, state, provincial local and foreign Tax purposes, and the parties agree to file their Tax Returns accordingly, except as otherwise required by a change in applicable law or a final determination.

ARTICLE IX
TERMINATION

9.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing:

(a) by the mutual written consent of Seller and Purchaser;

(b) by either Seller or Purchaser if the Closing shall not have occurred on or before September 30, 2015 (the "Outside Date") (which date may be extended (i) for an additional ninety (90) days by written request of either Seller or Purchaser, in their respective sole discretion, and (ii) at the expiration of such extension, for an additional ninety (90) days by written request of Purchaser, in its sole discretion, in each case of clauses (i) and (ii) if the sale of the Purchased Shares shall not have been consummated solely as a result of the failure to satisfy the conditions set forth in Section 6.1(c) or Section 6.1(d); provided, that, as a condition precedent to any request by Purchaser to extend the Outside Date, (i) the Commitment Letters must be valid through the expiration of the Outside Date, as requested to be extended or (ii) the definitive documents with respect to the Debt Financing shall have been executed and delivered by all parties thereto, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Debt Financing Sources, as of the date of such extension); provided, that, the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose breach of this Agreement shall have been the cause of, or shall have resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur on or prior to such date;

(c) by either Seller or Purchaser, in the event of a material breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained this Agreement, which breach (i)(A) cannot be cured prior to the Outside Date or (B) has not been cured within ten (10) Business Days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach and (ii) which breach or breaches would result in a failure to satisfy any condition to Purchaser's or Seller's obligations set forth in Section 6.2 or Section 6.3, respectively; provided, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(c) if such party is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement;

(d) by either Purchaser or Seller if any Governmental Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any Law, or final non-appealable judgment, including an injunction, which has the effect of making illegal or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions;

(e) by Seller if (i) the conditions to Closing set forth in Section 6.1 and Section 6.2 have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing and that would be capable of being satisfied if there were a Closing) and (ii) Purchaser fails to consummate the Contemplated Transactions by the time set forth in Section 2.5 and (iii) after such failure to consummate the Contemplated Transactions, Seller has given Purchaser written notice at least two (2) Business Days prior to such termination that it (A) stands and will stand ready, willing and able to consummate the Contemplated Transactions until such termination, and (B) is Seller's intention to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(e) at the expiration of the period set forth in the notice in the event the Closing does not occur on or prior to such date; or 9.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by a party pursuant to Section 9.1, written notice thereof specifying the provision pursuant to which this Agreement is being terminated shall promptly be given to the other party hereto, and upon such notice this Agreement shall terminate. Except as provided under this Section 9.2 or otherwise expressly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and of no further force and effect, there shall be no liability on the part of any party hereto to the other party, and all rights and obligations of any party hereto shall cease and the parties shall be released from any and all obligations hereunder; provided, that (i) the provisions of Article I, Section 5.3(b), Section 5.5, Article IX and this Section 9.2 shall survive any such termination; and (ii) subject to the limitations in Section 9.2(c) and Section 10.10, nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for damages resulting from fraud or willful and material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything else to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in no event shall Purchaser or any of its Affiliates have liability for monetary damages (including monetary damages in lieu of specific performance) in the aggregate in excess of the amount of the Termination Fee, and the amount of the Termination Fee shall be the maximum aggregate liability of Purchaser hereunder, including for any breach (whether willful, intentional, unintentional or otherwise) or failure to perform hereunder or otherwise (whether at law, in equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise). Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in no event shall Purchaser be obligated to pay an amount equal to, or cause to be paid, or shall Seller be entitled to collect more than an amount equal to, the Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

(b) (i) if this Agreement is terminated by Seller pursuant to Section 9.1(b) at a time when the remaining conditions to Closing set forth in Section 6.1 and Section 6.2 (other than the condition to Closing set forth in Section 6.1(d)) have been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing and that would be capable of being satisfied if there were a Closing) and the failure to satisfy the condition set forth in Section 6.1(d) is not the result of formal written notice from a Gaming Authority whose consent to the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions constitutes a Required Gaming Approval, indicating that the failure of such Gaming Authority to grant such Required Gaming Approval resulted from a determination that the applicable Genesis Company is not suitable to hold an applicable Permit; (ii) if this Agreement is terminated by Purchaser pursuant to Section 9.1(b) at a time when Seller would have been permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1(b) and collect a Termination Fee pursuant to the immediately preceding clause (i) of this Section 9.2(b); (iii) if this Agreement is terminated by Seller pursuant to Section 9.1(c) at the time when the condition to Closing set forth in Section 6.1(d), absent a material breach by Purchaser, would have been capable of being satisfied at the Closing if there were a Closing at such time and the material breach by Purchaser is a material factor in the failure of the Contemplated Transactions to be consummated (provided, that a material breach of Purchaser's obligations contained in (x) Section 5.11(a) (at a time when the Debt Financing is not, but is capable (absent a breach hereunder) of being, available to Purchaser) or (y) Section 5.2(c) (at a time when all of the Required Gaming Approvals have not been, but are capable (absent a breach hereunder) of being, obtained) shall be deemed a material factor in the failure of the Contemplated Transactions to be consummated for purposes of this clause (iii) of this Section 9.2(b)); or (iv) if this Agreement is terminated by Seller pursuant to Section 9.1(e), then Purchaser shall pay to Seller a termination fee equal to twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) (the "Termination Fee") promptly, and in any event within two (2) Business Days after termination of this Agreement, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Seller.

(c) Subject to Seller's right to specific performance set forth in Section 10.10, (i) Seller's right to receive the Termination Fee from Purchaser pursuant to Section 9.2(b) shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of Seller (whether at law, in equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise) against Purchaser, its Affiliates and Representatives for any breaches (whether willful, intentional, unintentional or otherwise), Losses and damages suffered as a result of the failure of the Contemplated Transactions to be consummated, and (ii) upon payment of the Termination Fee, no Person shall have any rights or claims against Purchaser, its Affiliates and Representatives under this Agreement, the Equity Commitment Letter or otherwise, whether at law or equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise, and none of Purchaser, its Affiliates or Representatives shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions. Subject to Section 10.10, in no event shall Seller be entitled to seek the remedy of specific performance of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section 9.2(c) shall limit in any way the parties' agreements in Section 10.14.

(d) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that (i) the agreements contained in this Section 9.2, are an integral part of the Contemplated Transactions, (ii) without these agreements, the parties would not have entered into this Agreement and (iii) any amount payable pursuant to this Section 9.2 is not a penalty. Accordingly, if Purchaser fails to pay any amount due to Seller in accordance with this Section 9.2, then Purchaser shall also pay all costs and expenses actually incurred by Seller in connection with any action to enforce this Agreement, together with interest on the aggregate of all such unpaid amounts (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Termination Fee in the case of Purchaser's failure to pay such fee in accordance with this Section 9.2), plus such costs and expenses at the rate of five percent (5%) per annum from (i) the date such fee (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Termination Fee in the case of Purchaser's failure to pay such fee in accordance with this Section 9.2) was required to be paid in accordance with this Section 9.2 and (ii) the date on which such costs and expenses were incurred, in each case to (but excluding) the payment date.

Amaya announces closure of acquisition of Diamond Game Enterprises

Amaya increases lottery footprint in North America

MONTREAL, Feb. 14, 2014 /CNW/ - Amaya Gaming Group Inc. ("Amaya" or the "Corporation") (TSX: AYA), an entertainment solutions provider for the regulated gaming industry, announced today that it has closed its previously announced acquisition of 100% of the issued and outstanding securities (the "Transaction") of the private, arms-length company Diamond Game Enterprises ("Diamond Game"), a designer and manufacturer of gaming related products for the global casino gaming and lottery industries. The purchase price was US$25 million, subject to customary post-closing purchase price adjustments, to acquire 100% of the equity of Diamond Game and retire its debt. Amaya paid US$18 million on closing of the Transaction from cash on hand with a US$7 million holdback for certain contingent liabilities and other items.

Diamond Game recorded revenues and adjusted EBITDA[1] of approximately US$17.8 million and US$3.9 million respectively in 2012. Its revenues and adjusted EBITDA were approximately US$14.0 and $2.8 million in 2011. The majority of the company's revenues are recurring and are primarily generated from fixed fee or revenue sharing arrangements that it has in place for its gaming machines.

"We're pleased to have completed the purchase of Diamond Game, an innovator in lottery technology with multiple patents, and excited to have the company's staff become part of Amaya's global team," said David Baazov, CEO of Amaya. "Placements of Diamond Game's latest lottery product, the LT-3, have grown substantially over the past year and we foresee that growth continuing, including in new jurisdictions. We anticipate integrating games from Amaya's extensive library of titles into Diamond Game's lottery technology. Additionally, we plan to leverage our network of relationships to provide new revenue opportunities for Diamond Game while leveraging Diamond Game's U.S. lottery relationships to potentially expand deployment of Amaya's gaming solutions. We anticipate this acquisition will be immediately accretive to adjusted EBITDA."

Diamond Game has approximately 2,000 machines in 100 locations across 10 jurisdictions. The Company offers over 60 game titles. It holds licences/approvals in approximately 10 states/provinces/territories and more than 20 U.S. Native American jurisdictions.

Diamond Game has two primary business units: its Casino Products division develops products for the VLT, Class II bingo, Class III commercial casino and racetrack markets; its Lottery Products division creates innovative products for the public gaming and charity markets, most notably its LT-3 instant ticket vending machine (ITVM), which dispenses pull tab/break open or scratch tickets while simultaneously displaying the results of each ticket on a touchscreen video monitor in an entertaining fashion.

Diamond Game's industry-leading development of ITVMs with video display has resulted in the recognition of numerous product patents. The LT-3 is Diamond Game's most recent iteration of its patented functionality and advanced array of features. The LT-3 is designed for 'stay and play' use, thereby creating longer play sessions and higher sales volumes and enabling lotteries to expand their existing retailer base into less traditional venues where traditional slot machines may not be permitted, such as bingo halls, social clubs, veterans offices, bars and taverns. The LT-3 can be customized to serve varying market needs, offering different cabinet types, display types, ticket types and other additional features. Diamond Game currently has LT-3 machines placed in veterans clubs and bingo halls in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, bingo halls in Ontario, Canada, fraternal and veteran's clubs across Missouri, and bingo and fraternal halls in New Mexico.

Maryland Lottery Awards 5-Year ITLM Contract to Amaya's Diamond Game Enterprises

MONTREAL, Feb. 19, 2014 /CNW/ - Amaya Gaming Group (TSX: AYA) ("Amaya) is pleased to announce its subsidiary Diamond Game Enterprises ("Diamond Game") has been awarded a 5-year contract with the Maryland Lottery and Gaming Control Agency (the "Lottery"), with the Lottery holding a five year renewal option, to provide Veterans' Organizations (VOs) in the state with Instant Ticket Lottery Machines (ITLM) and related services (the "Contract"). The Contract is a result of a Request for Proposals issued in August 2013 pursuant to a 2012 Act by the Maryland Legislature.

The Contract allows for the placement of up to five ITLMs at each qualified VO meeting hall in Maryland. The Lottery estimates there are currently 150 qualified organizations that may apply for the ITLMs. Diamond Game anticipates deployment of ITLMs to commence by the end of 2014 throughout the state. Under the Contract, Diamond Game will receive a firm-fixed percentage of the ITLM proceeds ("net win"). The Contract amount is estimated by the Lottery at up to US$57 million over the original five year term and an additional amount of up to US$60 million for the renewal option (the "Award Amount") based upon its projected number of ITLMs placed at VO meeting halls and the projected win for those ITLMs.

"We are pleased and proud to expand our relationship with the Maryland Lottery and our presence in Maryland," said Jim Breslo, Diamond Game's President and CEO. "Our unique style of ticket dispensers have been in operation in bingo, fraternal, and veteran halls in Anne Arundel County, Maryland since 2006. We have also had our VLTs at the Maryland Live! and Ocean Downs casinos through the Maryland Lottery since 2011."

The ITLMs provided under the Contract are modernized instant ticket vending machines, with video animation of the game result to enhance entertainment and bring excitement to the player experience. Diamond Game holds 16 patents related to the unique devices and is recognized in the industry as a true innovator in the field of ticket dispensers. The machines dispense pre-printed, scratch-off lottery tickets and are linked between locations to a robust central system that provides accounting records to the VO meeting halls and Lottery on par with state-of-the-art lottery and casino central systems. Diamond Game is providing a turnkey solution to the Lottery, including the machines, tickets, central system, and service.

This contract comes on the heels of recent deployments of similar Diamond Game ITLMs in veteran and fraternal clubs in Missouri by the Missouri Lottery, charitable bingo halls in Ontario, Canada by the Ontario Lottery & Gaming Corporation, and charitable bingo halls and clubs in New Mexico as authorized by the New Mexico Gaming Control Board.

"The award of this Contract validates our efforts to provide a true next generation ticket dispenser designed to keep up with the modernization that is taking place in other areas of the gaming industry. Further, it demonstrates a trend of states permitting non-profit organizations to provide entertaining and profitable games for its members. We're proud to be part of this effort, and especially proud to be supporting Maryland's veterans," said Mr. Breslo.

Recent Highlights

- On February 14, 2014, Amaya announced that it had closed its previously announced acquisition of 100% of the issued and outstanding securities of the private, arms-length company Diamond Game Enterprises (“Diamond Game”), a designer and manufacturer of gaming related products for the global casino gaming and lottery industries. The purchase price was US$25 million, subject to customary post-closing purchase price adjustments, to acquire 100% of the equity of Diamond Game and retire its debt. Amaya paid US$18 million on closing of the Transaction from cash on hand with a US$7 million holdback for certain contingent liabilities and other items. Diamond Game has two primary business units: its Casino Products division develops products for the VLT, Class II bingo, Class III commercial casino and racetrack markets; its Lottery Products division creates innovative products for the public gaming and charity markets, most notably its LT-3 instant ticket vending machine (ITVM), which dispenses pull tab/break open or scratch tickets while simultaneously displaying the results of each ticket on a touchscreen video monitor in an entertaining fashion.

- On February 19, 2014, Amaya announced that Diamond Game had been awarded a 5-year contract with the Maryland Lottery and Gaming Control Agency (the “Lottery”), with the Lottery holding a five year renewal option, to provide Veterans’ Organizations (VOs) in the state with Instant Ticket Lottery Machines (ITLM) and related services. The Contract allows for the placement of up to five ITLMs at each qualified VO meeting hall in Maryland. The Lottery estimates there are currently 150 qualified organizations that may apply for the ITLMs. Diamond Game anticipates deployment of ITLMs to commence by the end of 2014 throughout the state. Under the Contract, Diamond Game will receive a firm-fixed percentage of the ITLM proceeds. The Contract amount is estimated by the Lottery at up to US$57 million over the original five year term and an additional amount of up to US$60 million for the renewal option based upon its projected number of ITLMs placed at VO meeting halls and the projected win for those ITLMs

- During the fourth quarter, the Corporation classified certain of its assets and liabilities as held for sale, including (i) interest in proprietary trademarks and other intellectual property and (ii) its subsidiary WagerLogic Malta Holdings Ltd. (“WagerLogic”). Regarding the former, the Corporation anticipates their sale by the end of 2014. Regarding the latter, Amaya announced on February 11, 2014 that it had completed the previously announced sale of all of the issued and outstanding shares of WagerLogic to Goldstar Acquisitionco Inc. (“Goldstar”) for $70 million (the “Purchase Price”), less a closing working capital adjustment of $7.5 million, satisfied through cash consideration of $52.5 million and a vendor take-back in the form of a promissory note of $10 million, bearing interest at 6.0% per annum payable semi-annually in arrears starting in the second year following the closing date and due on the fourth anniversary of the closing date. The Purchase Price is subject to customary post-closing adjustments. WagerLogic, through a subsidiary, is an online casino operator through its “Inter” brand consisting of InterCasino™, InterPoker™ and InterBingo™, amongst other online names (the “InterCasino Business”). Subsidiaries of Amaya (the “Service Providers”) will continue to supply WagerLogic with software, services and content to power the InterCasino Business pursuant to services agreements.

- On March 7, 2014, Amaya announced that it has acquired in aggregate beneficial ownership and control of 1.9 million common shares of WagerLogic’s parent company The Intertain Group Ltd. (TSX: IT) (“Intertain”) (the outstanding securities of Goldstar were exchanged for securities of Intertain in February, 2014) representing 13.97% of the issued and outstanding Intertain common shares. Amaya also owns $3.85 million aggregate principal amount of 5.0% unsecured subordinate convertible debentures of Intertain maturing on December 31, 2018 (TSX: IT.DB), which are convertible at the option of the holder into common shares of Intertain at a price of $6.00 per common share, as well as 353,000 Intertain common share purchase warrants, with each whole warrant being exercisable by the holder for one Intertain common share at an exercise price of $5.00 per share until December 31, 2015. The securities were acquired for investment purposes. Amaya has no current plan or proposal, which relates to, or would result in, acquiring additional ownership or control over the securities of IT.

- Amaya and various subsidiaries received transactional waivers from the New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement in 2013 to supply technology for real money online gaming websites operated by licensed permit holders in New Jersey. In late November 2013, real money online gaming went live in New Jersey, the third and thus far most populous U.S. state to have approved it, following Nevada and Delaware. Amaya has to date announced agreements to supply four of the permit holders licensed to operate real money online gaming websites within the state of New Jersey.

- On December 20, Amaya announced that its subsidiary Cadillac Jack Inc. (“Cadillac Jack”) had entered into an agreement for the refinancing of its credit facilities. Under this agreement, Cadillac Jack will have access to term loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $160 million (the “Credit Facilities”). The Credit Facilities have replaced the existing $110 million non-convertible senior term loan secured by Cadillac Jack’s assets that was made available to Amaya to finance the acquisition of Cadillac Jack by Amaya, as of November 5, 2012 (the “2012 Loan”). The Credit Facilities will be used to fully repay the outstanding balance on the 2012 Loan, as well as related fees and expenses and to fund the ongoing working capital and other general corporate purposes of Cadillac Jack.

- During the quarter, Amaya announced agreements to aggregate high quality third party games on its Casino Gaming System from Leander Games and Betsoft Gaming. The move will allow operators powered by Amaya’s CGS to access Betsoft’s games along with the portfolio of content on Leander’s LeGa Platform including games from Blueprint, Genesis and Quickspin, without the need for any additional integration.

- On October 1, Amaya’s common shares, common share purchase warrants and unsecured non-convertible subordinated debentures were listed for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX). Amaya had previously announced its graduation to the TSX from the TSX Venture Exchange.

“We’re pleased with the development of our business in 2013, specifically the growth of our land-based gaming solutions, the launch of our interactive gaming solutions into the emerging U.S. market, and the bolstering of our lottery solutions through the acquisition of Diamond Game,” said David Baazov, President and CEO of Amaya.

“Specific to land-based solutions, we were already a leader in the provision of gaming machines to the Class II Tribal and Mexican gaming markets and we maintained that strong position,” continued Mr. Baazov. “During the year, we also began executing on our strategy to expand into the much larger Class III gaming market and placed machines in various jurisdictions. Looking ahead, we intend to expand our addressable Class III market by securing licenses in more jurisdictions, and we will continue to invest in technology to enhance the competitiveness of our Class III solutions.”

“Regarding our interactive gaming solutions, we increased the number of licensing agreements we have to supply online gaming operators in 2013,” Mr. Baazov said. “In 2014, we will continue to look to expand the reach of customers using our Casino Gaming System as well as increase revenues from existing licensees through a strong focus on providing operators with new and innovative gaming content, mobile versions of popular games from our extensive library, and online and mobile versions of top performing games already on our land-based gaming machines. We will also examine potential transactions that will improve our solutions offering and position us to be a leader in the growing global iGaming market.”

“Finally, we anticipate our lottery solutions will be a more significant revenue generator for us following the acquisition of Diamond Game, which is a leader in providing lotteries with innovative products that enhance the entertainment value of traditional games. The company already has agreements in place to supply four jurisdictions with its instant ticket vending machines, notably Maryland and Ontario, and we intend to market these solutions to lottery operators in other jurisdictions,” concluded Mr. Baazov.

Financial Results

Revenue for the three month period ended December 31, 2013 was $39.01 million compared to $37.19 million for the three month period ended December 31, 2012, representing an increase of 5%. The increase is primarily attributable to consolidating a full period of revenue from Cadillac Jack, which was acquired in November, 2012. Revenue for the year ended December 31, 2013 was $154.53 million compared to $76.44 million for 2012, representing an increase of 102%. The increase is primarily attributable to consolidating a full period of revenues from CryptoLogic Limited (“CryptoLogic”), Ongame Network Limited (“Ongame”), and Cadillac Jack, which were acquired in 2012. On a regional basis, revenue in 2013 was primarily concentrated in North America, Europe, and Latin America and the Caribbean.

Total expenses, comprised of cost of goods sold, sales and marketing, general and administrative, and financial expenses as well as acquisition-related costs, were $45.97 million for the three month period ended December 31, 2013, compared to $40.77 million for the three month period ended December 31, 2012, an increase of 13%. The percentage increase was driven by higher cost of goods related primarily to increased sales of gaming machines in Q4 2013 vs Q4 2012; increased interest and bank charges; consolidating a full period of expenses related to Ongame and Cadillac Jack; as well as investments to prepare the Corporation for entry into the newly regulated real money online gaming market in the United States in the fourth quarter of 2013. Total expenses for the year ended December 31, 2013 were $176.04 million compared to $87.43 million for 2012, an increase of 101%. The percentage increase was driven by higher expenses primarily due to consolidating a full period of expenses related to CryptoLogic, Ongame and Cadillac Jack as well as investments to prepare the Corporation for entry into the newly regulated real money online gaming market in the United States.

Net loss was $7.28 million, or $(0.08) per basic and diluted common share, in the fourth quarter of 2013 versus net loss of $0.71 million, or $(0.00) per basic and diluted common share, in the same quarter of 2012. The increased loss in the fourth quarter of 2013 is primarily due to the provision recorded in income taxes. Net loss for the year ended December 31, 2013 was $29.62 million, or $(0.33) per basic and diluted common share, compared to $7.11 million, or $ (0.11) per basic and diluted common share, in 2012. The increased loss was driven by the provision recorded in income taxes along with general and administrative expenses growing at a faster pace than revenues.

2013 FULL YEAR FINANCIAL GUIDANCE

Below is a review of how the Corporation performed relative to its full year 2013 guidance, which was first provided in its Q1 2013 quarterly results press release on May 28, 2013 and subsequently reaffirmed, most recently in the Q3 2013 quarterly results press release on November 28, 2013:

2013 Full Year Guidance

	Actual	Guidance
Revenue	$154.5 million	$156-167 million
Adjusted EBITDA	$ 58.0 million	$55-64 million

“The Corporation’s revenue was slightly below guidance primarily due to the decline in our hosted casino revenues from WagerLogic, which we sold subsequent to year end. Adjusted EBITDA from our current business, excluding assets and liabilities held for sale, was in line with our expectations,” commented Mr. Baazov.

The Corporation intends to provide its 2014 full year financial guidance in its Q1 2014 quarterly results release, consistent with the timeline it used for 2013.

(“Cadillac Jack”) obtained credit facilities from FS Investment Corporation and FS Investment Corporation II for the purpose of financing working capital expenses and general corporate purposes of the Amaya group. These lending entities are advised by FB Income Advisor, LLC and FSIC II Advisor, LLC, respectively, and sub-advised by an affiliate of GSO Capital Partners LP, Blackstone’s credit business. The credit facilities provide for (1) an incremental USD$80 million term loan to Cadillac Jack’s existing USD$160 million senior term loan, with the new aggregate principal amount of USD$240 million bearing interest at a per annum rate equal to LIBOR plus 8.50% with a 1% LIBOR floor (the “Senior Facility”); and (2) mezzanine debt in the form of a subordinated term loan in the aggregate principal amount of USD$100 million, bearing interest at a per annum rate equal to 13%; provided, at the option of Cadillac Jack, interest accruing at a per annum rate of 7% may instead be paid in-kind in lieu of cash (the “Mezzanine Facility”, and collectively with the Senior Facility, the “New Facilities”). The Senior Facility will mature over a 5-year term and the Mezzanine Facility will mature over a 6-year term from the closing date. The Senior Facility is secured by the assets of Cadillac Jack and its subsidiaries. The Mezzanine Facility is unsecured. Amaya has provided an unsecured guarantee of the obligations under the New Facilities of Cadillac Jack in favour of the lenders. The New Facilities contain customary covenants, including, without limitation, maintenance and incurrence covenants based on certain agreed-upon leverage and coverage ratios. Amaya has agreed to grant the lenders, in relation to the Mezzanine Facility, with 4 million common share purchase warrants, entitling the holders thereof to acquire one common share of Amaya at a price per common share equal to CAD$15 at any time up to a period ending 10 years after the closing date. The grant of the share purchase warrants is subject to the final approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange.
- On May 2, 2014, Amaya announced that its subsidiary Cadillac Jack had received approval from New Jersey’s Division of Gaming Enforcement to utilize its Genesis DV1 slot machine platform and associated hardware and software, including top performing game titles Fire Wolf, Siberian Siren, and Legend of White Buffalo, in the state. - On April 16, 2014, Amaya announced that Cadillac Jack has entered into multiple agreements to ship approximately 1,100 gaming machines to existing and new customers in the United States, with installation of the machines anticipated to occur in the second quarter of 2014. The shipments are primarily comprised of outright sales of gaming machines, but also include the upgrading of some existing revenue share generating gaming machines. The majority of units shipped will be Class II machines, but will also include some sales of Class III machines including into Oklahoma and California.
- On April 16, 2014, Amaya also announced that Cadillac Jack had received a license to provide its land-based solutions to Class III gaming operations in Wisconsin.
- On April 1, 2014, Amaya announced that one of its subsidiaries has entered into a licensing agreement with Fertitta Acquisitions Co, LLC, d/b/a Ultimate Gaming (“Ultimate Gaming”), a majority-owned subsidiary of Station Casinos LLC, to provide online casino gaming content to Ultimate Gaming in New Jersey, subject to all applicable jurisdictional licensing requirements and regulatory approvals. Under the Agreement, the online gaming website ucasino.com, operated by Ultimate Gaming for its licensed gaming partner Trump Taj Mahal Associates, LLC, in New Jersey, will offer a wide selection of Amaya’s proprietary games that are available on its Casino Gaming System (“CGS”) platform. The Agreement allows for the potential integration of other gaming websites operated by Ultimate Gaming to CGS in the future.
- On March 7, 2014, Amaya announced that it has acquired in aggregate beneficial ownership and control of 1.9 million common shares of WagerLogic’s parent company The Intertain Group Ltd. (TSX: IT) (“Intertain”) (the outstanding securities of Goldstar were exchanged for securities of Intertain in February, 2014) representing 13.97% of the issued and outstanding Intertain common shares. Amaya also owns $3.85 million aggregate principal amount of 5.0% unsecured subordinate convertible debentures of Intertain maturing on December 31, 2018 (TSX: IT.DB), which are convertible at the option of the holder into common shares of Intertain at a price of $6.00 per common share, as well as 353,000 Intertain common share purchase warrants, with each whole warrant being exercisable by the holder for one Intertain common share at an exercise price of $5.00 per share until December 31, 2015. The securities were acquired for investment purposes. Amaya has no current plan or proposal, which relates to, or would result in, acquiring additional ownership or control over the securities of IT.
- On February 19, 2014, Amaya announced that its subsidiary Diamond Game Enterprises (“Diamond Game”) had been awarded a 5-year contract with the Maryland Lottery and Gaming Control Agency (the “Lottery”), with the Lottery holding a five year renewal option, to provide Veterans’ Organizations (VOs) in the state with Instant Ticket Lottery Machines (ITLM) and related services. The Contract allows for the placement of up to five ITLMs at each qualified VO meeting hall in Maryland. The Lottery estimates there are currently 150 qualified organizations that may apply for the ITLMs. Diamond Game anticipates deployment of ITLMs to commence by the end of 2014 throughout the state. Under the Contract, Diamond Game will receive a firm-fixed percentage of the ITLM proceeds. The Contract amount is estimated by the Lottery at up to USD$57 million over the original five year term and an additional amount of up to USD$60 million for the renewal option based upon its projected number of ITLMs placed at VO meeting halls and the projected win for those ITLMs.

- On February 14, 2014, Amaya announced that it had closed its previously announced acquisition of 100% of the issued and outstanding securities of the private, arms-length company Diamond Game, a designer and manufacturer of gaming related products for the global casino gaming and lottery industries. The purchase price was USD$25 million, subject to customary post-closing purchase price adjustments, to acquire 100% of the equity of Diamond Game and retire its debt. Amaya paid USD$18 million on closing of the Transaction from cash on hand with a USD$7 million holdback for certain contingent liabilities and other items. During the first quarter of 2014 and subsequent to the date of acquisition, Diamond Game recorded USD$2.5 million and USD$0.7 million in revenues and adjusted EBITDA respectively.
- On February 11, 2014, Amaya announced that pursuant to a share purchase agreement dated November 27, 2013, one of its subsidiaries had completed the previously announced sale to Goldstar Acquisitionco Inc. ("Goldstar") of all of the issued and outstanding shares of WagerLogic Malta Holdings Ltd. ("WagerLogic") for $70 million (the "Purchase Price"), less a closing working capital adjustment of $7.5 million, satisfied through cash consideration of $52.5 million and a vendor take-back in the form of a promissory note of $10 million, bearing interest at 6.0% per annum payable semi-annually in arrears starting in the second year following the closing date and due on the fourth anniversary of the closing date (the "WagerLogic Sale"). The Purchase Price is subject to customary post-closing adjustments. WagerLogic, through a subsidiary, is an online casino operator through its "Inter" brand consisting of InterCasino™, InterPoker™ and InterBingo™, amongst other online names (the "InterCasino Business"). The InterCasino business was acquired by Amaya through its acquisition of CryptoLogic. Subsidiaries of Amaya (the "Service Providers") will continue to supply WagerLogic with software, services and content to power the InterCasino Business pursuant to services agreements. The Share Purchase Agreement provides for a bonus payment of USD $10 million if CryptoLogic Operations Limited ("CryptoLogic Operations"), the wholly-owned operating subsidiary of WagerLogic, achieves a net revenue target of USD $30 million during the second year following closing (payable in 12 monthly instalments during the third year following closing), and a bonus payment of USD $10 million if CryptoLogic Operations achieves a net revenue target of USD $40 million during the third year following closing (payable in 12 monthly instalments during the fourth year following closing). Amaya and its Service Providers have entered into a revenue guarantee agreement (the "WagerLogic Revenue Guarantee"), under which they jointly and severally guarantee the financial obligations of the Service Providers under the service agreements, including an obligation to pay CryptoLogic Operations, during the next two years, an amount equal to the shortfall between CryptoLogic Operation's quarterly net revenue and a pre-established quarterly net revenue target of USD $4.75 million. Amaya has estimated a provision for the minimum revenue guarantee to be approximately $11.05 million.

"We are very pleased with the progression of our business in the first quarter of 2014," said David Baazov, President and CEO of Amaya. "The acquisition of Diamond Game has significantly bolstered our Lottery solutions and has provided us with an attractive offering for the large public gaming market. Soon after the acquisition was completed, Diamond Game was awarded a significant contract by Maryland for its instant ticket vending machines. We anticipate rollout of those machines to begin in the third quarter of this year.

"We recorded strong year-over-year growth in revenues from our land-based solutions, through both our installed base of recurring revenue generating leased machines and via sales of gaming machines in the United States and Latin America."

"Within our interactive solutions, during the quarter and subsequently, we completed the integration of games from numerous leading third party games suppliers onto our Casino Gaming System, for the benefit of our operator partners in Europe and New Jersey. This is a process that is continuing as we execute on our strategy of being a leading aggregator of games content for online casinos.

"To increase our market share within existing customers and to attract new customers, we have also been actively developing new and innovative online and mobile games content through our proprietary games studios. During the first quarter, we launched approximately a half dozen games, including jackpot slots featuring Superman and Wonder Woman. We expect to roll out more games in the second quarter including multiple mobile slots. Additionally, we are continuing the development of more new branded content featuring DC Comics-inspired characters pursuant to the licensing agreement we extended with Warner Bros. last year.

"Our bottom line was boosted during the quarter by our sale of WagerLogic, which was one of two assets we classified as held for sale during the fourth quarter of 2013. We anticipate announcing further details on an agreement to sell the other during the second quarter. The sale of WagerLogic has resulted in us having a very strong cash balance. Combined with the refinancing of Cadillac Jack's debt completed yesterday, our balance sheet is positioned to support both our organic growth and potential strategic acquisitions, particularly those that would bolster our current solutions offering significantly and/or enable us to compete more significantly in new verticals," Mr. Baazov concluded.

FINANCIAL RESULTS

Revenue for the three month period ended March 31, 2014 was $41.20 million compared to $38.05 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2013, representing an increase of 8%. This was driven by an increase in gaming machines sold outright and under finance lease. On a regional basis, revenue in Q1 2014 was primarily concentrated in North America, Latin America and the Caribbean, and Europe.

Total expenses, comprised of cost of goods sold, selling, general and administrative, and financial expenses as well as acquisition-related costs, were $49.59 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2014, compared to $44.74 million for the three month period ended March 31, 2013, an increase of 11%. The percentage increase was driven by non-recurring acquisition related costs related primarily to the acquisition of Diamond Game and the sale of WagerLogic during Q1 2014; higher cost of products expense reflecting the increased sales of gaming machines in Q1 2014 vs Q1 2013; increased general and administrative expense driven by increased salaries and maintenance and repairs expenses due to the addition of Diamond Game, as well as higher depreciation and amortization expenses; partially offset by lower interest and bank charges and a positive impact from foreign exchange.

Net income in the first quarter of 2014 was $39.64 million, or $0.42 per basic share and $0.38 per diluted share. Net loss in Q1 2013 was $7.44 million, or $(0.09) per basic and diluted common share. Net income in Q1 2014 was driven by the gain on sale of WagerLogic as well as income from investments.

("Rational Group"), the world's largest poker business and owner and operator of the PokerStars and Full Tilt Poker brands, announced today they have entered into a definitive agreement (the "Agreement") for the Corporation to acquire 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of Oldford Group in an all-cash transaction for an aggregate purchase price of $4.9 billion (the "Purchase Price"), including certain deferred payments and subject to certain other customary adjustments (the "Transaction"). All $ figures are in US dollars unless noted otherwise.

KEY TRANSACTION HIGHLIGHTS

- The Transaction will result in Amaya becoming the world's largest publicly-traded online gaming company. The online poker platforms PokerStars and Full Tilt Poker are collectively the world's most popular and profitable online poker brands with more than 85 million registered players on desktop and mobile devices.
- For calendar year 2013, pro forma combined revenue, EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA[1] of Amaya and Oldford Group were $1.3 billion, $474.8 million and $473.8 million, respectively. For 2014, the Corporation is projecting pro forma adjusted EBITDA, assuming the Transaction had been completed as of January 1, 2014, of between $600 and $640 million.
- The Transaction combines complementary businesses with minimal overlap: Isle of Man-headquartered Rational Group's B2C poker business including PokerStars, Full Tilt Poker, live poker tours and events, and online and TV poker programming; and Montreal-headquartered Amaya's B2B interactive and physical casino and lottery gaming solutions.
- Under the terms of the Transaction, Oldford Group shareholders led by Mark Scheinberg, founder and Chief Executive Officer, will dispose of their shares to a wholly-owned subsidiary of Amaya. Mr. Scheinberg and other principals of OIdford Group will resign from all positions with Oldford Group and its subsidiaries on completion of the Transaction.
- Rational Group's executive management team will be retained and online poker services provided by PokerStars and Full Tilt Poker will be unaffected by the Transaction, with players continuing to enjoy uninterrupted access to their gaming experience.
- The boards of directors of both Amaya and Oldford Group unanimously approved the Agreement.
- The Transaction will be financed through a combination of cash on hand, new debt, a private placement of subscription receipts, a private placement of common shares and a private placement of non-voting convertible preferred shares.
- Affiliates of GSO Capital Partners LP ("GSO"), the credit division of The Blackstone Group (NYSE: BX), have agreed to participate in the debt financing, to subscribe for $600 million in convertible preferred shares, and to purchase $55 million of common shares of the Corporation with each common share priced at C$20 upon closing of the Transaction.
- An investment manager (the "Investment Manager"), on behalf of its clients, has agreed to participate in the debt financing, to subscribe for approximately $270 million in convertible preferred shares, and to purchase approximately $55 million of subscription receipts.
- No change related to this Transaction is contemplated for Amaya's Board of Directors.

[1] Adjusted EBITDA as used by the Corporation means earnings before interest and financing costs (net of interest income), income taxes, depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation, restructuring and other non-recurring costs, and non-controlling interests. Adjusted EBITDA is a non-IFRS measure. Amaya believes this non-IFRS financial measure provides useful information to both management and investors in measuring financial performance, the ability to fund future working capital needs, to service outstanding debt, and to fund future capital expenditures. This measure does not have a standard meaning prescribed by IFRS and therefore may not be comparable to similarly titled measurers presented by other publicly traded companies, and should not be construed as an alternative to other financial measures determined in accordance with IFRS. Other issuers may calculate adjusted EBITDA differently.

"This is a transformative acquisition for Amaya, strengthening our core B2B operations with a consumer online powerhouse that creates a scalable global platform for growth," said David Baazov, CEO of Amaya. "Mark Scheinberg pioneered the online poker industry, building a remarkable business and earning the trust of millions of poker players by delivering the industry's best game experiences, customer service and online security. Working with the experienced executive team at Rational Group, Amaya will continue that tradition of excellence and accelerate growth into new markets and verticals."

Rational Group Founder and CEO Mark Scheinberg said: "I am incredibly proud of the business Isai and I have built over the last 14 years, creating the world's biggest poker company and a leader in the iGaming space. Our achievements and this transaction are an affirmation of the hard work, expertise and dedication of our staff, which I am confident will continue to drive the company's success. The values and integrity which have shaped this company are deeply ingrained in its DNA. David Baazov has a strong vision for the future of the Rational Group which will lead the company to new heights."

Amaya believes the Transaction will expedite the entry of PokerStars and Full Tilt Poker into regulated markets in which Amaya already holds a footprint, particularly the U.S.A. Additionally, Amaya will provide an extensive selection of its online casino games to expand the nascent Full Tilt Poker casino platform. Amaya intends to strongly support Rational Group's growth initiatives in new gaming verticals, including casino, sportsbook and social gaming, and new geographies.

In recent years, Amaya has experienced rapid growth, partly through strategic acquisitions that have strengthened its core offering of B2B technology-based gaming solutions. Amaya has an expansive footprint in regulated markets in the U.S.A., Canada and Europe through the provision of its online, land-based and lottery solutions to licensed commercial, tribal and charitable gaming operations as well as government lotteries and gaming control agencies.

Rational Group's core business is PokerStars, launched in 2001. Since then, PokerStars has become the world's largest online poker site: hosting the most players, offering the largest prize pools and the greatest variety of poker games to millions of players.

PokerStars set a Guinness World Record in June 2013 when 225,000 players competed in a single online poker tournament. Together with Full Tilt Poker, Rational Group holds a majority of the global market share in real money online poker and is a leader in almost every regulated market in which it operates. Rational Group holds online poker licenses in 10 jurisdictions- more than any other gaming company - including the major European markets of France, Italy and Spain. Rational Group is also the world's largest producer of live poker events and poker programming for television and online audiences.

Rational Group employs more than 1,700 people globally and is consistently selected as one of the “Best Workplaces” in the UK, Ireland and Costa Rica by the Great Places to Work Institute.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

In calendar years 2012 and 2013, Oldford Group recorded revenues of $976 million and $1.1 billion, respectively, and adjusted EBITDA of $342 million and $420 million, respectively. Its cash flow from operations in 2012 and 2013 was $267 million and $317 million, respectively. The Transaction is expected to be immediately accretive to earnings and provide strong cash flow from operations for Amaya.

TRANSACTION DETAILS AND CLOSING CONDITIONS

Under the terms of the Agreement, a wholly owned subsidiary of Amaya will pay $4.9 billion to the holders of Oldford Group securities, which amount will be satisfied by a $50 million deposit made on the date hereof and a cash payment of $4.45 billion at closing of the Transaction, as adjusted in accordance with debt and working capital provisions set out in the Agreement, and with a deferred payment of $400 million which shall be subject to adjustment, payable upon the earlier of (i) July 31, 2017, and (ii) 30 months following closing of the Transaction, based upon the occurrence of certain events. If the Agreement is terminated prior to closing of the Transaction, under certain circumstances Oldford Group will be entitled to retain the $50 million deposit, which amount may be increased by increments of $10 million under certain circumstances.

In connection with the Transaction, and as consideration for GSO's and the Investment Manager's significant role in the financing of the Transaction, the Corporation has granted 11 million common share purchase warrants to GSO (the "GSO Warrants") and 1.75 million common share purchase warrants to the Investment Manager (the "Investment Manager Warrants", collectively with the GSO Warrants, the "Warrants"), each with an exercise price of C$0.01 and exercisable for a term of 10 years, as payment for a portion of the fees payable to the two parties.

Completion of the Transaction will be subject to the approval by Amaya's shareholders and to customary closing conditions, including receipt of all regulatory approvals and that of the TSX regarding the Transaction and the listing of the common shares issuable in connection with the Transaction, including those underlying the Warrants, the subscription receipts and the convertible preferred shares. Amaya and Oldford Group anticipate that the Transaction will be completed on or about September 30, 2014.

David Baazov, Amaya's founder, chairman and CEO, along with several other Amaya shareholders, which combined own approximately 28% of Amaya's existing common shares as of yesterday, have entered into voting agreements in support of the resolutions relating to the Transaction to be passed at the upcoming shareholder meeting.

PURCHASE PRICE FINANCING DETAILS

The Purchase Price will be paid using a combination of cash on hand, new credit facilities and equity financing, allocated as follows:

- $2.1 billion senior secured credit facilities, consisting of a $2.0 billion first lien term loan and a $100 million revolving credit facility fully underwritten by Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch ("Deutsche Bank"), Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays"), and Macquarie Capital (USA) Inc. ("Macquarie Capital").
- $800 million senior secured second lien term loan fully underwritten by Deutsche Bank, Barclays, and Macquarie Capital, with participation from GSO and the Investment Manager.
- $1 billion to be raised through the issuance of convertible preferred shares on a private-placement basis at an initial conversion price of C$24 per convertible preferred share.
- C$500 million to be raised through the issuance of subscription receipts convertible on a one-to-one basis into common shares upon completion of the Transaction on a bought-deal private-placement basis, and an Underwriters' Option to purchase subscription receipts for additional gross proceeds of up to C$140 million and a commitment from GSO to purchase common shares for additional gross proceeds of up to $55 million.
- Remainder of the balance payable in cash.

The combined company's significant cash flow should allow for rapid debt repayment and provide Amaya with sufficient liquidity and flexibility to support ongoing growth prospects.

Subscription Receipt Offering

Amaya has entered into an agreement with a syndicate of underwriters led by Canaccord Genuity Corp. ("Canaccord Genuity"), Cormark Securities Inc. ("Cormark") and Desjardins Capital Markets ("Desjardins") (collectively, the "Lead Underwriters"), and Clarus Securities pursuant to which the Lead Underwriters and Clarus Securities have agreed to purchase from treasury, on a bought-deal private placement basis, 25 million subscription receipts of the Corporation (the "Subscription Receipts") at a price of C$20 per Subscription Receipt (the "Subscription Price"), for aggregate gross proceeds to Amaya of C$500 million. Amaya has also granted the Lead Underwriters an option to purchase up to an additional 7 million Subscription Receipts at the Subscription Price for additional gross proceeds of up to C$140 million, exercisable at any time up to 48 hours prior to the closing date of the Subscription Receipt offering (the "Underwriters' Option").

The Subscription Receipts will be automatically converted, without additional payment, into common shares of the Corporation on a one-to-one basis upon completion of the Transaction. If the Transaction is not completed within six months from the closing date of the Subscription Receipt offering, then the Subscription Receipts shall be automatically terminated and cancelled and the principal amount subscribed plus accrued interest will be returned to the holders of the Subscription Receipts in accordance with the terms of the subscription receipt agreement.

The Subscription Receipt offering is expected to close on or about July 7, 2014. Completion of the Subscription Receipt offering is subject to certain conditions, including receipt of the approval of the TSX and all other necessary regulatory approvals.

Net proceeds from the Subscription Receipt offering will be used by the Corporation to partially fund the Purchase Price payable in connection with the Transaction.

25 million common shares of the Corporation will be issued upon conversion of the Subscription Receipts to be sold under the Subscription Receipt offering, representing 21% of the Corporation's concurrently issued and outstanding common shares on a non-diluted basis. If the Underwriters' Option is exercised, 7 million common shares of the Corporation will be issued upon conversion of these Subscription Receipts representing 6% of the Corporation's concurrently issued and outstanding common shares on a non-diluted basis.

The Subscription Price represents a premium of approximately 66.4% to the closing price of C$12.02 per common share on the TSX on June 11, 2014 and a premium of approximately 108.5% over the 30-trading day volume-weighted average price of C$9.59 per common share on the TSX, up to and including June 11, 2014.

Convertible Preferred Share Offering

Amaya has entered into an agreement with Canaccord Genuity pursuant to which Canaccord Genuity has agreed to purchase from treasury, on an underwritten bought-deal private placement basis, $130 million of convertible preferred shares of the Corporation (the "Convertible Preferred Shares").

The Corporation has also entered into Commitment Letters, pursuant to which (a) GSO has agreed to purchase $600 million of Convertible Preferred Shares, and (b) the Investment Manager has agreed to purchase approximately $271 million of Convertible Preferred Shares.

The Convertible Preferred Shares will not be listed on any exchange but, subject to legal limitations, will be freely transferable at the option of a holder.

Each Convertible Preferred Share has an initial principal amount of C$1,000 and is convertible, at the holder's option, initially into approximately 41.67 common shares of the Corporation based on the conversion price of C$24 per common share, in each case, subject to adjustments including 6% accretion to the conversion ratio, compounded semi-annually.

The Corporation may, at any time after the first three (3) years of issuance, give notice of its election to cause all of the outstanding Convertible Preferred Shares to be automatically converted, subject to certain conditions.

The Corporation expects the delivery of the Convertible Preferred Shares to occur concurrently with the closing of the Transaction.

The Corporation expects to receive aggregate net proceeds from this offering of approximately $944.25 million, after deducting applicable underwriting and other fees. The Corporation intends to use the net proceeds to partially fund the Purchase Price payable in connection with the Transaction.

It is currently anticipated that the completion of the Convertible Preferred Share offering, the Subscription Receipt offering, the common share purchase commitment and the issuance of Warrants may result in GSO beneficially owning, or having control or direction over, more than 20% of the common shares on a fully-diluted basis.

SHAREHOLDER MEETING

In light of the need for certain matters to be approved by shareholders in connection with the Transaction, the Corporation has postponed its annual and special meeting of shareholders previously announced as June 17, 2014. The annual and special meeting of the Corporation's shareholders (the "Shareholder Meeting") will now be held on July 30, 2014 with a record date of June 11, 2014. The Corporation has received approval from the TSX in connection with the postponement of the annual meeting of shareholders and will file an amended notice of record date and meeting date on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

At the Shareholder Meeting, shareholders of Amaya will be asked to consider, and if deemed advisable, pass a resolution to approve the creation of the new class of Convertible Preferred Shares. The creation of the Convertible Preferred Shares will require the approval of two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Shareholder Meeting.

The TSX requires that the issuance of the Warrants and certain terms of the Convertible Preferred Shares also be approved by a majority of the votes cast by shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Shareholder Meeting.

The board of directors of the Corporation (the "Board") has, following consultation with its financial and legal advisors, determined that the Transaction is in the best interests of the Corporation, and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the resolutions to be passed at the Shareholder Meeting in connection with the Transaction.

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., in its capacity as one of Amaya's financial advisors, has provided an opinion to the Board that, subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions set forth therein, the $4.9 billion cash consideration to be paid by Amaya for the acquisition of Oldford Group is fair, from a financial point of view, to Amaya. Canaccord Genuity has also provided an opinion to the Board that, subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions set forth therein, the $4.9 billion cash consideration to be paid by Amaya for the acquisition of Oldford Group is fair, from a financial point of view, to Amaya. Copies of the fairness opinions will be included in the management information circular to be mailed to shareholders in anticipation of the Shareholder Meeting.

The Corporation intends to mail a proxy circular in the upcoming weeks to its shareholders in anticipation of the Shareholder Meeting. Details of the Transaction and the matters to be approved by shareholders, including the terms of the Transaction as set out in the Agreement and the rationale for the Board's decision to enter into the Transaction, will be set out in the proxy circular which will be available on SEDAR under the Corporation's profile at www.sedar.com once mailed. Shareholders registered on the books of Amaya at the close of business on June 11, 2014 will be entitled to receive notice of, and vote at, the Shareholder Meeting.

Amaya announces closing of Subscription Receipt Offering including exercise of Underwriters' option for gross proceeds of $640 million

/NOT FOR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES OR TO U.S. NEWSWIRE SERVICES/

MONTREAL, July 7, 2014 /CNW/ - Amaya Gaming Group Inc. (TSX: AYA) ("Amaya" or the "Corporation") announced today the completion of its previously announced offering, on an underwritten bought-deal private-placement basis, of 25 million subscription receipts priced at $20 per subscription receipt (the "Subscription Receipts"), and that the underwriters of the offering have exercised in full the option granted to them to purchase an additional seven million Subscription Receipts (the "Subscription Receipt Offering"). Total gross proceeds to Amaya from the Subscription Receipt Offering are $640 million. All $ figures are Canadian dollars unless noted otherwise.

The proceeds of the Subscription Receipt Offering, less 50% of the commission payable to the Underwriters (as defined below) and Underwriters' expenses, will be held in escrow and will be released, and the Subscription Receipts automatically converted, without additional payment, into common shares of the Corporation issued from treasury on a one-to-one basis upon completion of the previously announced transaction (the "Transaction") whereby Amaya has agreed to acquire the Rational Group, owner and operator of the PokerStars and Full Tilt Poker brands, for an aggregate purchase price of US$4.9 billion (the "Purchase Price"). The proceeds of the Subscription Receipt Offering will be used to partially fund the payment of the Purchase Price.

The Subscription Receipt Offering was underwritten by a syndicate led by Canaccord Genuity Corp., Cormark Securities Inc. and Desjardins Capital Markets (collectively, the "Lead Underwriters"), and including Clarus Securities Inc. (together with the Lead Underwriters, the "Underwriters"). Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP acted as legal counsel to Amaya and McCarthy Tétrault LLP acted as legal advisor to the Underwriters in connection with this offering.

The Subscription Receipt Offering was originally announced June 12, 2014. The price of the Subscription Receipts represented a premium of approximately 66.4% to the closing price of $12.02 per Amaya common share on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") on June 11, 2014 and a premium of approximately 108.5% over the 30-trading day volume-weighted average price of C$9.59 per Amaya common share on the TSX, up to and including June 11, 2014.

If the Transaction is not completed within six months from the closing date of the Subscription Receipt Offering, then the Subscription Receipts shall, unless Amaya and the holders of the Subscription Receipts agree to an extension, be automatically terminated and cancelled and the principal amount subscribed plus accrued interest will be returned to the holders of the Subscription Receipts in accordance with the terms of the subscription receipt agreement. The Subscription Receipts are transferable, subject to the terms of the subscription receipt agreement. The Subscription Receipts will not be listed on any exchange. However, the Corporation has agreed to use its best efforts to seek a stock exchange listing for the Subscription Receipts if the Transaction has not closed within four months from the closing of the Subscription Receipt Offering.

- An ordinary resolution to approve and ratify an Advance Notice By-Law which, among other things, sets a deadline by which Shareholders must submit a notice of director nominations to the Corporation prior to any annual or special meeting of Shareholders where directors are to be elected and furthermore sets forth the information that a Shareholder must include in the notice for it to be valid. The Advance Notice By-law is similar to the advance notice by-laws adopted by many other Canadian public companies and will help to ensure that all Shareholders receive adequate notice of the nominations to be considered at a meeting and can thereby exercise their voting rights in an informed manner. Under the Advance Notice By-Law, advance notice of nominations must be given to the Corporation:

    a) In the case of an annual meeting of Shareholders, no less than 30 nor more than 65 days prior to the date of the annual meeting provided, however, that in the event that the annual meeting is to be held on a date that is less than 50 days after the date on which the first public announcement of the date of the annual meeting was made, notice may be given no later than the close of business on the 10th day following such public announcement.

    b) In the case of a special meeting of Shareholders (which is not also an annual meeting), no later than the close of business on the 15th day following the day on which the first public announcement of the date of the special meeting was made.

The resolutions were described in more detail in the Corporation's Management Information Circular dated June 30, 2014, which is filed on SEDAR.

In addition to operating two of the largest online poker sites where it has dealt more than 100 billion poker hands and held over 800 million online tournaments, the group is the largest producer of live poker events around the world. Oldford Group recorded consolidated revenues of approximately USD$1.133 billion (2012 - USD$976 million) and net income of USD$422 million (2012 - USD$314 million) in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013. Oldford Group recorded consolidated revenues of approximately USD$487 million (2013 - USD$464 million) and net income of USD$193 million (2012 - USD$167 million) in the five months ended May 31, 2014.
- On May 2, 2014, Amaya announced that its subsidiary Cadillac Jack had received approval from New Jersey's Division of Gaming Enforcement to utilize its Genesis DV1 slot machine platform and associated hardware and software, including top performing game titles Fire Wolf, Siberian Siren, and Legend of White Buffalo, in the state. Cadillac Jack has subsequently obtained multiple transactional waivers to begin supplying machines to Atlantic City casinos and completed its first installations in the state during the quarter.
- In addition to New Jersey, Cadillac Jack obtained approvals to market its gaming machines in both Wisconsin and Louisiana with shipments anticipated to begin in the second half of 2014.
- On April 16, 2014, Amaya announced that Cadillac Jack had entered into multiple agreements to ship approximately 1,100 gaming machines to existing and new customers in the United States. The shipments were primarily comprised of outright sales of gaming machines, but also included the upgrading of some existing revenue share generating gaming machines. The majority of units shipped were Class II machines, but also included some sales of Class III machines including into Oklahoma and California. All machines were manufactured and shipped by the last week of June.
- During and subsequent to the quarter, Amaya completed the integration of its Casino Gaming System for websites of several major online casino operators including bwin.party's websites in Europe, Cherry AB's websites, Ultimate Gaming in New Jersey, and Rational Group's Full Tilt Poker. Amaya also launched new online and mobile casino games for its customers and completed the integration of new games from multiple third-party suppliers onto Amaya's Casino Gaming System including IGT, Bally Technologies and SHFL, and Leander.

"The second quarter was a transformative period for Amaya as we announced and completed well ahead of schedule our acquisition of PokerStars and Full Tilt Poker, which collectively hold a healthy majority of the market share in online poker," said David Baazov, CEO of Amaya. "Led by its highly experienced management team, Rational Group provides Amaya with a strong platform for growth in revenues and profitability and will be significantly accretive to our earnings.

"The company has a loyal and recurring customer base which has been driven by its dedication to player protection and game integrity as well as innovative tournaments, game formats and software technology. We are strongly committed to Rational maintaining this focus in order for the game experience to remain as enjoyable and exciting as ever for online poker players," Mr. Baazov added.

"The worldwide recognition of the PokerStars and Full Tilt brands, bolstered by being the largest producer of live poker tours and events across the globe and producer of televised and online poker programming, also provides Rational with an enormous opportunity to take advantage of adjacency opportunities in online casino and sportsbook, in jurisdictions where they can be offered -while growing in new geographies," Mr. Baazov continued. "Amaya is committed to supporting these growth initiatives. However, with respect to the new verticals, we are determined that they not provide any disruption to the core poker offering and that the new vertical offerings are as robust and enjoyable as Rational's online poker. After reviewing progress in its new initiatives following our acquisition on August 1, we expect growth in 2014 in these initiatives, notably in online casino, as the company continues to develop its technology platforms up to its high standards and works with various regulators to certify its solution. The company is continuing to see growth in its core poker business and the outlook for its entry into new verticals and geographies is strong. We look forward to updating this outlook in our third quarter financial results, the first quarter for which Rational will report under Amaya.

"Regarding Amaya's B2B business, the company established and expanded upon a number of new relationships during the year to date," Mr. Baazov concluded. "Cadillac Jack continues to execute on its expansion into Class III gaming in the United States and has developed a number of online facsimiles of its popular land-based game titles. Diamond Game is preparing for the third quarter launch of its instant ticket vending machines in veterans halls in Maryland. Within our B2B online gaming business, due to the development and launch of new proprietary and third-party games and the integration of our Casino Gaming System into new online casinos, we expect an increase in our online casino revenues in the back half of 2014."

New poker product launches on PokerStars.com and FullTilt.com

Following successful launches in Spain, France and Italy, PokerStars launched an exciting new poker variant called "Spin & Go's" to players on its global .com network on September 29. UK Gambling Commission Awards Licenses to Amaya, PokerStars and Full Tilt

MONTREAL, Oct. 31, 2014 /CNW/ - Amaya Gaming Group Inc. (TSX: AYA) ("Amaya" or the "Corporation") announced today that its gaming brands including PokerStars and Full Tilt have obtained a continuation license to allow uninterrupted service to consumer and business customers in the United Kingdom. The continuation license for PokerStars and Full Tilt was awarded by the UK Gambling Commission in recognition of the existing licenses held in the Isle of Man. PokerStars and Full Tilt have operated in the United Kingdom as a "white-listed" company approved to do business throughout the country on the basis of the existing Isle of Man licensing. Amaya's B2B online business has also received the necessary continuation licenses to continue supplying UK-facing online gaming operators with Amaya's online gaming content and technology.

New Client Available from Monday

The new PokerStars and Full Tilt UK software will be available to players from 14:00 GMT on November 3. This will be downloaded and activated automatically after that time – players simply need to load the software and login as normal. The log-in details, account balance and history of UK players will not be affected by the change, and UK players will still be able to enjoy the same range of games with players from around the world.

Top Level of Player Fund Protection

The UK Gambling Commission has introduced a rating system for player fund protection. PokerStars and Full Tilt have volunteered to apply the very highest standards of player fund protection, with the use of independent trust accounts that PokerStars and Full Tilt have pioneered on the Isle of Man.

This license from the UK Gambling Commission underscores the strengths of the PokerStars and Full Tilt platforms and provides further confidence that customers can rely on the integrity and security of the sites. Poker is a very popular game in the United Kingdom, with some of the worlds' leading poker players based in the UK. These include Team PokerStars Pro Victoria Coren Mitchell, the first two-time winner of the European Poker Tour.

With the UK continuation license, PokerStars and Full Tilt add another jurisdiction to their industry-leading portfolio of 12 locally licensed jurisdictions, which already includes major European nations including France, Italy and Spain.

FINANCIAL RESULTS

Revenue for the three month period ended September 30, 2014, was $238.96 million compared to $38.58 million for the three month period ended September 30, 2013. Total expenses, comprised of cost of goods sold, selling, general and administrative ("G&A"), and financial expenses as well as acquisition-related costs, were $214.41 million for the three month period ended September 30, 2014, compared to $34.04 million for the three month period ended September 30, 2013. The increase was driven by higher: G&A and selling expenses resulting from the consolidation of the B2C Business and Diamond Game; non-recurring acquisition-related expenses related to the acquisition of Oldford Group; and financial expenses related to debt incurred to pay a portion of the purchase price for Oldford Group and a refinancing of Cadillac Jack's debt.

Net earnings from continuing operations increased to $26.42 million, or $0.16 per diluted share, in the third quarter of 2014 compared to $1.64 million, or $0.02, in the third quarter of 2013, with the increase driven by the consolidation of the B2C Business.

Q3 AND SUBSEQUENT OPERATIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Following successful launches in Spain, France and Italy, PokerStars launched “Spin & Go’s” to players on its global .com network on September 29. Full Tilt rolled out its version, Jackpot Sit and Go’s, on its global .com site earlier in the summer of 2014. The speedy, mobile-friendly poker variant has proven to be an instant hit, demonstrating that product innovation can attract new poker players and increase the amount of play from existing customers.
- Mobile represents more than half of new customer acquisition for PokerStars, compared to approximately 40% in the same quarter of 2013.
- Since the acquisition in August, Amaya has supported the B2C Business’s initiative to expand PokerStars and Full Tilt into adjacent gaming verticals. Full Tilt has continued to expand its casino offering (launched earlier this year) and during the third quarter and subsequently it has bolstered its offering through the integration of games from multiple providers including Amaya’s B2B online casino business. More than 30% of eligible poker players played casino games on Full Tilt in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, PokerStars added blackjack and roulette to its player base in Spain, with the rollout of additional games anticipated in 2015. The Corporation anticipates the launch of casino on web and mobile in 2015. Combined with the long-planned launch of an online sportsbook offering in 2015, Amaya anticipates these growth initiatives will help attract new players and reactivate players while resulting in strong, profitable growth in 2016 and beyond.”
- On October 31, Amaya announced that its gaming brands including PokerStars and Full Tilt had obtained continuation licenses to allow uninterrupted service to consumer and business customers in the United Kingdom. Amaya’s B2B online business also received the necessary continuation licenses to continue supplying UK-facing online gaming operators with Amaya’s online gaming content and technology.
- Amaya was added to the S&P/TSX Composite Index, effective at the market open on September 22. Amaya joins Canada’s other leading corporations on the approximately 250-company index, which represents the largest businesses on the Toronto Stock Exchange. The S&P/TSX Composite is the headline index for the Canadian equity market. It is the broadest in the S&P/TSX family and is the basis for multiple sub-indices.
- On October 20, Amaya announced that it had initiated a strategic review process to explore alternatives for Amaya’s B2B land-based gaming solutions business, Cadillac Jack Inc. (“Cadillac Jack”). The strategic review will consider various alternatives for the company identified by Amaya’s and Cadillac Jack’s executive management, with the fundamental objective of expediting Cadillac Jack’s growth strategy and maximizing value for Amaya’s shareholders. Amaya has engaged Macquarie Capital and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. as co-financial advisors to assist the Corporation with the strategic review of Cadillac Jack. There can be no assurance that the Corporation’s strategic review process will result in the consummation of any specific action. There is no defined timeline for the strategic review and the Corporation does not intend to disclose additional information or further developments with respect to this process unless and until Amaya’s Board of Directors reviews and approves a specific action or otherwise deems further disclosure is appropriate or required.
- On November 11, Amaya announced that the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians had agreed to join the existing business agreement between the Morongo Band of Mission Indians, California’s three largest card clubs - the Commerce Club, the Hawaiian Gardens Casino and the Bicycle Casino - and Amaya. These gaming operators will join together to operate a licensed online poker site in California once legislation is enacted to authorize iPoker. This coalition will also work together to advocate for legislation that extends California’s tough, long-established gaming regulations to include intrastate online poker.
- As the company focuses on its consumer poker business, Amaya announced today that it has reached a definitive agreement (the “Agreement”) to divest Ongame, its B2B poker and platform provider, to NYX Gaming Group Ltd. (“NYX Gaming Group”). Pursuant to the Agreement, NYX Gaming Group would acquire ownership of the Gibraltar-based Ongame Network Limited and Ongame’s Stockholm-based subsidiaries, which own and operate the B2B online poker business (“Ongame poker”) and B2B player management system (the “AGO platform”), with the transaction consideration being equivalent to a multiple of eight times Ongame’s 2015 EBITDA, less any required working capital.

  Amaya and NYX will also expand their existing partnership with:

  - Amaya making a strategic investment in NYX Gaming Group via a subscription of a $10 million unsecured convertible debenture, which matures two years after the date of issuance and bears interest at 6.00% per annum, payable at maturity. Interest and principal are payable in kind in NYX Gaming Group common shares at Amaya’s option.
  - Amaya and NYX subsidiary NextGen Gaming Pty Ltd (“NextGen”), a leading supplier of innovative games to the gambling industry, will expand their existing agreement under which NextGen supplies innovative online slot content to Amaya.

Closing of the Transaction is subject to customary regulatory approvals and is anticipated to occur by the end of November, 2014.

PokerStars to Launch Sports Betting and Table Games Globally

Blackjack and roulette available in coming weeks, additional games in 2015 to support poker offering

ONCHAN, Isle of Man, Nov. 21, 2014 /CNW/ - TSX: AYA - PokerStars, the world's largest poker brand, announced today that it will launch sports betting and casino table games globally on PokerStars.com.

The first offerings – blackjack and roulette – will roll out on a market-by-market basis beginning this month with completion anticipated by the end of 2014 reaching nearly half PokerStars' current player base. PokerStars will add sports betting and other popular casino games in 2015. It also plans to launch a full-featured casino on mobile and web in 2015.

The launch of sports betting and casino games on PokerStars.com leverages the expertise and experience that has been gained from the launch of casino games earlier this year on PokerStars.es in Spain and on Full Tilt in January 2014.

"We are taking the same principles, practices and integrity that make PokerStars such a successful and beloved brand and applying them to new verticals," said Eric Hollreiser, Head of Corporate Communications. "These new products will also support the development of poker and grow the overall business."

The rollout of casino on Full Tilt and PokerStars.ES has been greeted well by poker players with approximately 30% of poker customers playing casino monthly, where those games are available. Moreover, 50% of Full Tilt casino players say that the site is the only online casino at which they play.

"We thoroughly researched the opportunity and spent a lot of time talking to players and analysing the behavior of our customers on PokerStars.ES and Full Tilt," Hollreiser said. "Those launches have been successful in reactivating dormant customers, and extending the value of our existing poker customers. The experience on our poker platforms to-date also shows increases in net player deposits following the addition of casino games and a negligible impact on poker spend. We are confident these games will create more value to our PokerStars site and bolster the core poker offering."

Recognizing that some poker players prefer a poker-only environment, PokerStars has enabled features that will allow customers to remove the additional games from their view and to opt out of direct marketing and promotions of the casino games.

"We are committed to extending our leadership in poker and will continue to serve the passionate online poker player, while expanding our reach into new audiences and new gaming opportunities," Hollreiser said.

The blackjack and roulette games being launched have been built with poker-playing consumers in mind. The company has devoted resources to develop unique multiplayer games, with social and betting features that will appeal to poker-loving audiences. Combined with some of the lowest blackjack margins in the industry and micro stakes starting from 0.10c, these games have demonstrated early success in appealing to a mass market poker-playing audience.

Amaya Announces Normal Course Issuer Bid and Provides Corporate Update

MONTREAL, Jan. 12, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. (“Amaya” or the “Corporation”) (TSX: AYA) today announced a share buyback program and also provided a corporate update.

NORMAL COURSE ISSUER BID

Amaya announced it intends to make a normal course issuer bid (“NCIB”) to purchase and cancel up to 5,399,631 common shares over a one-year period, representing up to approximately 5% of the public float of Amaya’s common shares as of January 9, 2015. The Corporation intends to fund such purchases through proceeds of certain divestments and cash on hand.

Amaya believes that its current share price does not reflect the underlying value of the Corporation, and that purchasing shares for cancellation will increase the proportionate interest of, and be advantageous to, all remaining shareholders.

The Corporation intends to buy back common shares for cancellation from time to time when it determines the price at which they are trading is undervalued and that such purchases provide the best use of available cash. The NCIB is subject to acceptance by the Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”) and, if accepted, will be made in accordance with the applicable rules and policies of the TSX applicable.

Common shares will be purchased through the facilities of the TSX at prevailing market prices at the time of purchase. In accordance with the applicable TSX rules, the maximum amount of daily purchases may not exceed 25% of the average daily trading volume of the common shares, and the Corporation may make, once per calendar week, a block purchase of common shares not owned, directly or indirectly, by insiders of Amaya that exceeds the daily repurchase restriction.

CORPORATE UPDATE

Cadillac Jack Strategic Review

Further to Amaya’s previously announced strategic review of its B2B land-based gaming solutions business, Cadillac Jack Inc., Amaya has received and is evaluating non-binding proposals from certain persons. While discussions are ongoing, there can be no assurance that the Corporation’s strategic review process will result in the consummation of any specific action. There is no defined timeline for the strategic review. Further developments with respect to this process will be provided when, and if, Amaya’s Board of Directors approves a specific action or otherwise deems further disclosure appropriate or required. If a specific action is consummated that results in a divestiture, the Corporation intends to use the proceeds of such transaction to primarily facilitate the repayment of indebtedness.

Ongame Divestiture and NYX Investment

In the fourth calendar quarter of 2014, Amaya completed the divestiture of Ongame Network Limited, its B2B poker and platform provider, to NYX Gaming Group Ltd. (“NYX Gaming Group”), as discussed in the Corporation’s November 14, 2014 earnings release. In connection with the divestiture, Amaya made a strategic investment in NYX Gaming Group via a subscription of an unsecured convertible debenture, which matures two years after the date of issuance and bears interest at 6.00% per annum, payable at maturity. Interest and principal are payable in kind in NYX Gaming Group common shares at Amaya’s option. On December 30, 2014, NYX Gaming Group announced that it had completed its initial public offering and its shares have started trading on the TSX Venture Exchange under the symbol NYX.

B2B Assets Review

The Corporation intends to explore various strategic opportunities to divest its other B2B assets. The intention is to examine strategic alternatives for these B2B assets that will maximize shareholder value by facilitating the repayment of indebtedness and/or the repurchase and cancellation of the Corporation’s common shares. There is no timeline for this process. The Corporation will provide further updates if and when they are required or as appropriate.

Amaya Provides PokerStars Business Update

MONTREAL, Jan. 15, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. ("Amaya" or the "Corporation") (TSX: AYA) today provided an update on its PokerStars online gaming consumer business and that Chairman and CEO David Baazov will make a speech at an investment conference in Toronto.

BUSINESS UPDATE

Successful completion of Casino Rollout

In December 2014 PokerStars completed the rollout of casino table games to players in eligible markets on PokerStars.com and certain domains sharing liquidity on the global network. The table games are available through the new PokerStars 7 platform, which is currently an optional download to players but which will become the sole poker client in the future. PokerStars will also launch web and mobile versions of its casino in 2015, supported by an aggressive consumer marketing campaign. PokerStars announced the planned rollout of table games on its .com network in November, following a successful launch on PokerStars.es, the brand's website in Spain.

PokerStars estimates it has achieved a significant double-digit share of Spain's regulated online casino market despite not yet launching external marketing. PokerStars saw a 30% cross sell of casino table games to its active player base on PokerStars 7 in Spain, which was above expectations and represented a faster cross-sell ramp up than was experienced on Full Tilt despite table games being the only casino games available. A majority of daily active users were playing multi-player games. The casino games were withdrawn from PokerStars.es in late 2014 in order to modify the offering to allow players to download their hand histories. It is aiming to re-launch them within a matter of weeks. This did not impact the rollout of casino table games globally.

Update on Sportsbook Rollout

Amaya announced that it anticipates PokerStars' planned launch of sports betting will launch in the first quarter of 2015, ahead of schedule. The sports betting product will launch within the PokerStars poker client in certain markets and PokerStars will gradually add more markets as well as web and mobile versions throughout the year.

Developments in Asia

PokerStars has opened its newest branded PokerStars LIVE poker room at the City of Dreams Manila. The new integrated casino resort is anticipated to become a premier leisure and entertainment destination in the Philippines, which has a thriving poker community, much like its regional neighbour Macau. PokerStars also has branded, live poker rooms at major casinos in multiple major cities including London, Macau, and Madrid. Rational Group, parent company of PokerStars, is also the largest producer of live poker events around the world.

PokerStars also announced the signing of the site's first Team Pros from India and Japan, highlighting the ongoing growth of poker around the world. Aditya Agarwal is the first Indian Team Pro while Kosei Ichinose is the first Japanese Team Pro. The signings are an important step in helping promote the game in countries where poker is only just coming to the fore.

Industry Recognition & Awards

PokerStars and Full Tilt have recently won awards for app innovation and customer service excellence. Full Tilt took top honours at the IGA Gaming App Awards for 'Best Poker App', while PokerStars PLAY was judged to be 'Best Social Poker App'.

"These awards recognize the spirit of innovation and service that make PokerStars and Full Tilt stand out in any industry," said Eric Hollreiser, Head of Corporate Communications for Rational Group, parent of PokerStars and Full Tilt. "As more and more consumers are introduced to poker through social and mobile platforms, it is especially important that we lead the poker industry in these areas."

The Full Tilt app, which allows real money online poker, is available to download on iOS and Android devices. PokerStars PLAY is a fun free-to-play game, accessible through Facebook, and also available on iOS and Android devices globally.

Additionally, PokerStars recently collected two awards, including 'Best Poker Operator', at the EGR Awards.

Cantech Investment Conference and Cantech Letter Awards

Amaya Chairman and CEO David Baazov will provide a speech at the 2015 Cantech Investment Conference at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre in downtown Toronto on Thursday, January 15 at 11 a.m. Details are available at cambridgehouse.com/event/39/cantech-investment-conference-2015/agenda

Amaya is a finalist for 2014 TSX Technology Stock of the Year and Mr. Baazov is a finalist for 2014 TSX Technology Executive of the Year at the Cantech Letter Awards dinner later in the evening.

Inside PokerStars Videos

The most recent video includes a look at the significant network infrastructure supporting its online business. MONTREAL, Feb. 13, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. (“Amaya” or the “Corporation”) (TSX: AYA) announced today that the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) has approved its notice of intention to make a normal course issuer bid (“NCIB”) to purchase for cancellation up to 6,644,737 common shares (“Common Shares”), representing approximately 5% of Amaya’s 132,894,750 Common Shares issued and outstanding as of January 26, 2015. The Corporation may purchase the Common Shares at prevailing market prices and by means of open market transactions through the facilities of the TSX or by such other means as may be permitted by the TSX rules and policies. Amaya comments on media report regarding Italian operation

MONTREAL, March 11, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. (“Amaya” or the “Corporation”) (TSX: AYA) today provided clarification to a media report regarding a tax dispute involving the Italian operations of PokerStars.

The tax dispute relates to operations of PokerStars dating from before the acquisition of the company by Amaya in August, 2014. The merger agreement related to that transaction provides remedies to address certain income tax and other liabilities that might occur post-closing but stemming from operations prior to the date of acquisition, including monies held in escrow as initial sources for indemnification. The current tax dispute is something Amaya was aware of prior to the transaction. Amaya does not anticipate that these tax issues would apply to future fiscal periods. The company’s operations continue as usual on www.pokerstars.it and it remains focused on delivering the most popular online poker service in the Italian market.

Amaya announces cross currency swap agreements

MONTREAL, March 16, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. ("Amaya" or the "Corporation") (TSX: AYA) today announced a subsidiary of the Corporation (the "Subsidiary") has entered into cross currency swap agreements (the "Swap Agreements") that it anticipates will result in lower interest payments on existing debt and mitigate the impact of fluctuations in the Euro to US Dollar ("USD") exchange rate.

The Swap Agreements allow the Subsidiary to create synthetic Euro-denominated debt with fixed Euro interest payments at an average rate of 4.6016%[1] in place of USD interest payments bearing a minimum floating interest rate of 5.0%[2] related to the USD$1.75 billion seven-year first lien term loan secured by the Subsidiary on August 1, 2014. The interest and principal payments for the Swap Agreements, which mature in five years, will be made at a Euro/USD FX Rate of 1.1102 on USD notional amount[3] of $1.74125 billion.

The Euro/USD spot rate at market close on March 13, 2015 was 1.0465 (simple average).

The Swap Agreements are designed to:

- improve matching of the currency denomination of the assets and liabilities of Amaya's Rational Group B2C business, and;
- hedge[4] the exposure of Amaya's equity holders to movements of both interest rates and the Euro to USD rate of exchange.

ABOUT AMAYA

3 The notional amounts of the cross currency swap represent the amount to which a Euro/USD rate is applied in order to calculate the amount of cash that must be exchanged under the contract. Notional amounts do not represent assets or liabilities and therefore are not recorded in Amaya's Consolidated Statement of Financial Position.

4 In order for a derivative to qualify as an accounting hedge, the hedging relationship must be designated and formally documented at its inception, detailing the particular risk management objective and strategy for the hedge and the specific asset, liability or cash flow being hedged, as well as how its effectiveness is being assessed. Changes in the fair value of the derivative must be highly effective in offsetting either changes in the fair value of on-balance sheet items caused by the risk being hedged or changes in the amount of future cash flows. Hedge effectiveness is evaluated at the inception of the hedging relationship and on an ongoing basis, retrospectively and prospectively, primarily using quantitative statistical measures of correlation.

Amaya Granted UK Gaming Licenses for PokerStars, Full Tilt and B2B Businesses

MONTREAL, March 20, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. (TSX: AYA) announced today that it has received licenses from the UK Gambling Commission for PokerStars and Full Tilt to operate online poker and other gaming within the United Kingdom. Since late 2014, the brands had been operating under temporary continuation licenses. Previously, they were white-listed under their Isle of Man gaming licenses. Amaya's B2B online casino business has also received licenses to continue supplying UK-facing online gaming operators with online gaming content and technology.

"We are very pleased to receive operating licenses in the UK, which is a large and growing market for us," said Eric Hollreiser, Head of Corporate Communications for Amaya and PokerStars. "We continue to build upon PokerStars' leadership in poker in the UK and intend to leverage our scale and expertise to become market leaders in casino and sports betting."

The issuance of the UK gaming licenses follows a thorough review including, but not limited to:

- financial stability and history
- corporate and business unit management structure
- technology
- game integrity
- payment processing and security
- anti-crime and anti-money laundering protections
- responsible gaming policies and practices
- regulatory approach to various geographic operations

The UK Gambling Commission has introduced a rating system for player fund protection. PokerStars and Full Tilt have voluntarily applied the very highest standards of player fund protection whereby UK player funds are held separately by a trustee, consistent with the approach PokerStars pioneered on the Isle of Man.

"We believe the UK licenses illustrate the strength of our platforms, our regulatory approach, and our commitment to integrity, security, and consumer protection," Hollreiser said. "PokerStars and Full Tilt now hold licenses from a dozen European jurisdictions."

Rational Group was recently recognized for its stringent and ethical responsible gaming policies by being awarded the 'Socially Responsible Operator of the Year Online'.

Adjusted Net Earnings (loss) is a non-IFRS measure. Reconciliation to Net Income from continuing operations is included in this release.

2 Adjusted EBITDA as defined by the Corporation means net earnings (loss) from continuing operations before interest and financing costs (net of interest income), income taxes, depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation, restructuring and other non-recurring costs. “We completed our transformation into an online consumer technology leader in 2014 with the successful integration of PokerStars and Full Tilt into Amaya,” said Amaya’s Chairman and CEO, David Baazov. “The strength and vitality of the platforms supported strong growth and innovation, highlighted by the launch of Spin & Go’s on PokerStars, and delivered strong customer growth, with more than two million new customers registered during the fourth quarter. Additionally, we continued to expand our casino offerings, while making investments in IT and R&D to prepare for geographic and product growth.

“Thus far in 2015, we have introduced initiatives to grow the poker sector in key European markets, including the UK, as well as in Asia. PokerStars intends to continue to grow its core poker business through geographic expansion, new and innovative marketing campaigns, including exciting global celebrity endorsements and promotions, and continued innovation in games and technology to improve the consumer experience and attract new players to the game and our other offerings.

“Additionally, we have further developed our casino offering through the introduction of live dealer games and table games on mobile, with slots anticipated to roll out on PokerStars through the first half of 2015. Thus far, we have seen cross-sell rates and revenue yields above our expectations, with a significant majority of the casino spend coming from new deposits to the platforms. We anticipate the launch of sports betting in certain markets in the coming days with an expansion across the network to take place through the first half of 2015.

“Going forward, Amaya intends to acquire new customers and gain online gaming market share through the continued expansion of the B2C business in other verticals, including sportsbetting, casino, social gaming and daily fantasy sports, which we expect will supplement our current growth plans for our core poker business. Amaya currently anticipates executing on this strategic direction through both organic development and strategic M&A.

“As our B2C business is Amaya’s core growth platform, we have initiated a process to identify opportunities to divest our B2B assets, with the aim of facilitating their future growth and maximizing value for Amaya shareholders. Our recent announcements about the planned divestiture of Cadillac Jack and spinoff of Diamond Game is in line with this strategy, and we anticipate providing updates on plans for our other B2B assets in the near future.

“Finally, to further our position as a leading global, online consumer technology company, we recently applied to list our common shares on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, and currently anticipate providing an update on the status of such application in the near future.”

FINANCIAL RESULTS

Revenue for the three-month period ended December 31, 2014 was $368.64 million as compared to $37.08 million for the comparable prior year period. This increase is primarily attributable to (i) consolidating B2C revenue, primarily generated by PokerStars, with B2B revenue and (ii) consolidating Diamond Game revenue, partially offset by significant finance lease revenue earned during 2013. Revenue for the year ended December 31, 2014 was $688.22 million as compared to $145.89 million for the year ended December 31, 2013. This increase is primarily attributable to (i) consolidating B2C revenue, primarily generated by PokerStars, with B2B revenue, and (ii) consolidating Diamond Game revenue, partially offset by (a) significant finance lease revenue earned during 2013, (b) WagerLogic hosted casino revenue earned during 2013 and (c) significant upfront software licensing fees earned during 2013.

Sales and marketing expenses increased from $2.84 million for the three-month period ended December 31, 2013 to $62.96 million for the three-month period ended December 31, 2014, and increased from $13.73 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 to $101.49 million for the year ended December 31, 2014. The increase in both periods was primarily the result of advertising expenses incurred by the B2C business during such periods.

General and administrative expenses increased from $29.69 million for the three-month period ended December 31, 2013 to $207.69 million for the three-month period ended December 31, 2014, and increased from $109.55 million for the year ended December 31, 2013, to $430.10 million for the year ended December 31, 2014. The increase in both periods was primarily the result of (i) a growing employee base due to the acquisitions of Diamond Game and Rational Group, (ii) gaming duty and processing costs incurred by the B2C business in connection with generating B2C revenues, (iii) impairments and losses on B2B redundant assets and (iv) increased amortization of purchase price allocated intangibles. During these periods, the Corporation determined that a number of B2B-related intangible and tangible assets are redundant to its core operations, which is its B2C business. Impairment losses of approximately $6.13 million and a loss on disposal of assets of approximately $1.40 million were recognized in the fourth quarter of 2014, while impairment losses of approximately $15.17 million and a loss on disposal of assets of approximately $5.76 million were recognized in the year ended December 31, 2014.

Financial expenses increased from $6.16 million for the three month period ended December 31, 2013 to $72.92 million for the three month period ended December 31, 2014, and increased from $20.53 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 to $98.57 million for the year ended December 31, 2014. The increase in both periods was primarily the result of interest on debt during such periods.

Acquisition related expenses increased from $1.33 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 to $22.39 million for the year ended December 31, 2014. This increase was primarily the result of an increase in underwriter fees and professional fees incurred in connection with the acquisitions of Diamond Game and Rational Group during the year ended December 31, 2014.

Current income taxes decreased from $10.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 to $8.64 million for the year ended December 31, 2014. This decrease was primarily the result of to the Corporation being less taxable in a number of tax jurisdictions in which it operates.

For the three month period ended December 31, 2014, the Corporation recognized deferred income tax expense of $26.33 million as compared to recognized deferred income tax expense of $2.86 million for the comparable prior year period. This increase was primarily attributable to movements in the valuation allowance in respect of deferred tax assets during the year.

Actual full year 2014 revenues were $688.2 million and Adjusted EBITDA of $292.7 million

2015 FULL YEAR FINANCIAL GUIDANCE

- Revenues of $1.620 billion to $1.740 billion. Assumptions include:
  - USD/CAD exchange rate of 1.26, as at close on March 27, 2015
  - A full year of revenues from both Amaya's B2C business (~90% of revenues) and B2B business (~10% of revenues)
  - Growth in revenues driven by an increase in B2C poker, casino and sportsbook business revenues
- Adjusted EBITDA of $670 million to $715 million. Assumptions include:
  - USD/CAD exchange rate of 1.26, as at close on March 27, 2015
  - A full year of Adjusted EBITDA from both the B2C business (~90% of Adjusted EBITDA) and B2B business (~10% of Adjusted EBITDA)
  - Growth driven by B2C casino, sportsbook and the core poker business, offsetting:
    - approximately $45 million in new Value Added Taxes (VAT) and UK point of consumption (POC) taxes on the core poker business (net of VAT and POC on casino and sportsbook)
    - an impact from the reduction in purchasing power of global depositing currencies relative to US dollar-denominated games
- Pro Forma Adjusted Net Earnings[3] of $367 million to $415 million (or $1.77 to $2.00 per diluted share)
- An Adjusted Net Leverage Ratio[4] of 4.0 to 4.5 at December 31, 2015

[3] Pro Forma Adjusted Net Earnings is a non-IFRS measure and is pro forma as if the divestiture of the entire B2B business occurred at December 31, 2014

[4] Adjusted Net leverage Ratio is a non-IFRS measure defined as Adjusted Net Debt/ Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted Net Debt means total financial leverage minus cash (with cash including funds in excess of working capital requirements set aside for the deferred payment, as outlined in the Restricted Cash note in the Corporation's 2014 Financial Statements), and after giving effect to the anticipated divestitures of our B2B assets. This does not assume potential cash from the exercise of warrants with maturity dates extending beyond 2015.

Corporate Highlights

- On December 11, 2014, Amaya announced that the Corporation and its officers were cooperating with the Autorité des marchés financiers (the "AMF"), the securities regulatory authority in the Province of Quebec, in an investigation with regards to trading activities in Amaya securities surrounding the Corporation's acquisition of Oldford Group in 2014. The investigation has had no impact on Amaya's business operations, employees or companies. Amaya thoroughly reviewed the relevant internal activities around the Oldford Group acquisition and has found no evidence of any violation of Canadian securities laws or regulations. Nor has the Corporation been provided with any evidence that any executives, directors or employees violated any securities regulations.
- On January 21, 2015, Amaya announced that it had appointed former Commissioner of the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP), Chris D. Lewis, as an advisor to its board of directors. Mr. Lewis became Commissioner of the OPP on August 1, 2010, assuming leadership of one of North America's largest deployed police services. During almost 36 years as a police officer and leader, he amassed a wealth of operational policing experience, particularly in front-line service delivery, various investigative disciplines and tactical operations.

- On February 13, 2015, Amaya announced that the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) had approved Amaya's notice of intention to make a normal course issuer bid (NCIB) to purchase for cancellation up to 6,644,737 common shares, representing approximately 5% of Amaya's 132,894,750 common shares issued and outstanding as of January 26, 2015. Amaya may purchase the common shares at prevailing market prices and by means of open market transactions through the facilities of the TSX or by such other means as may be permitted by the TSX rules and policies. The actual number of common shares that may be purchased and the timing of any such purchases will be determined by Amaya. The NCIB period will remain in effect until the earlier of February 17, 2016 or the date on which Amaya has purchased the maximum number of common shares permitted under the NCIB. Amaya has not yet purchased any common shares pursuant to the NCIB to date. The Corporation has been under its routine quarterly blackout period since the NCIB period began.
- On March 11, 2015, Amaya commented on a tax dispute between a subsidiary of Rational Group and Italian tax authorities related to operations of such subsidiary, particularly under the PokerStars brand, in Italy prior to the Rational Group acquisition. Amaya was aware of the dispute prior to the acquisition, but believes Rational Group has operated in compliance with the applicable local tax regulations and has paid €120 million in local taxes during the period subject to the dispute. The merger agreement related to the transaction provides remedies to address certain income tax and other liabilities that might occur post-closing but stemming from operations prior to the date of acquisition, including monies held in escrow as initial sources for indemnification. Amaya does not anticipate that these tax issues would apply to future fiscal periods.
- On March 16, 2015, Amaya announced a subsidiary had entered into cross currency swap agreements (the "Swap Agreements") designed to improve matching of the currency denomination of the assets and liabilities of Amaya's B2C business, and hedge the exposure of Amaya's equity holders to movements of both interest rates and the Euro to USD rate of exchange. The Swap Agreements result in the creation of synthetic Euro-denominated debt with fixed Euro interest payments at an average rate of 4.6016% in place of USD interest payments bearing a minimum floating interest rate of 5.0% (Libor plus 4.0% with a Libor floor of 1.0%), related to the USD$1.75 billion seven-year first lien term loan secured by the subsidiary on August 1, 2014. The interest and principal payments for the Swap Agreements, which have a stated termination date of five years, will be made at a Euro/USD FX Rate of 1.1102 on USD notional amount of $1.74125 billion.

B2B Assets Divestitures

- Concurrently with the completion of the sale of Ongame, Amaya entered into a right of first offer agreement with NYX Gaming Group (the "Right of First Offer") pursuant to which Amaya granted NYX Gaming Group a right of first offer to purchase Amaya's B2B online casino business operated by each of Cryptologic Ltd. and Amaya (Alberta) Inc. (formerly Chartwell Technology Inc.). The Right of First Offer expires on December 30, 2015.
- On January 12, 2015, Amaya announced that it intended to explore various strategic opportunities to divest B2B assets, which currently include Diamond Game and Amaya's B2B online casino business, with the intention to examine strategic alternatives for these B2B assets that will maximize shareholder value by facilitating the repayment of indebtedness and/or the repurchase and cancellation of the Corporation's common shares pursuant to the NCIB. Further to this strategic review, on March 26, 2015, Amaya announced its intention to spin off Diamond Game.
- On March 30, 2015, Amaya announced that it entered into a definitive agreement to sell Cadillac Jack for approximately $476 million comprising cash consideration of $461 million, subject to adjustment, and a $15 million payment-in-kind note, bearing interest at 5.0% per annum and due on the eighth anniversary of the closing date. Amaya Provides Update on AMF Investigation

MONTREAL, April 8, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. provided the following statement in response to a Quebec court's decision today to lift the publication ban on the redacted warrant and supporting affidavit for the search of various entities, including Amaya, in mid-December 2014 by Quebec's securities regulator, related to its investigation into trading in Amaya securities leading up to the announcement of Amaya's USD$4.9B acquisition of Oldford Group in 2014:

The release of the redacted documents presents nothing new to Amaya. Amaya has previously received the redacted affidavit and reviewed its limited contents and did not contest the court's decision today. It will wait to see the actual unredacted affidavit, but it does not believe there is a reasonable basis for proceedings against Amaya or its employees.

Ben Soave, retired Chief Superintendent of the RCMP, a member of Amaya's Compliance Committee and an advisor to the Board of Directors since 2012, said: "We have thoroughly reviewed the relevant internal activities around its acquisition of Oldford Group and have found no evidence of any violation of Canadian securities laws or regulations including tipping and insider trading by CEO David Baazov and CFO Daniel Sebag. Additionally, the company has not been provided with any evidence that any executives, directors, or employees violated any securities laws or regulations."

The AMF investigation has not resulted in any proceedings and no charges have been filed. The company is confident that at the end of the investigation the AMF will come to the same conclusion as Amaya has — that if there were violations of Canadian securities laws, they were not committed by the Company, officers or directors.

Certain documentation related to the investigation are and have been sealed by court order and Amaya has not been able to discuss the details of their contents without risking being in contempt of court. This means Amaya has not been and is still not permitted by the court to comment on individuals named in the investigation documents.

Amaya has also yet to obtain an unredacted version of the affidavit since the investigation was first announced. A court ordered seal remains in place related to details of the warrant and the redacted contents of the affidavit.

Upon request, the company has provided regulators with a large amount of publicly accessible information that occurred in the time period leading up to the transaction, including the following:

- The Oldford Group transaction was of significant magnitude and scale, with a long list of external bodies necessarily apprised of the transaction prior to its announcement including government agencies, justice officials, gaming regulators, the stock exchange, banks, funds, law firms and consultants.
- From the day before Amaya signed a letter of intent in January, 2014 to acquire Oldford Group until May 15, 2014, while the company conducted due diligence and worked with external bodies, the price of Amaya's stock declined. The stock price rose considerably in the week following Amaya's Q1 2014 press release on May 15, in which the corporation stated it had secured new debt that gave it access to $300 million which could be used to support organic growth and/or a strategic acquisition. Additionally, the corporation provided its 2014 financial guidance and announced that it had provided common share purchase warrants to the lender of the new debt which were priced at $15, approximately double Amaya's stock price at that time.
- Analysts published reports subsequently that noted Amaya's history of acquisitions and anticipated Amaya was pursuing a transformative acquisition, with one notably speculating we were looking to buy a poker company to replace the one we had put up for sale.

Due to this run up, fuelled by speculation from a media report and a post on a stock chatroom, Amaya anticipated an investigation and has been fully cooperating with regulators since approximately one week after it announced its acquisition of Oldford Group on June 12, 2014, and has been required to maintain strict confidentiality during the process. Amaya will continue to cooperate with the regulatory authorities.

Amaya provides update on B2B divestitures and Q1 earnings release date and revenue expectations

MONTREAL, May 1, 2015 /CNW/—Amaya Inc. (“Amaya” or the “Corporation”) (TSX: AYA) today provided an update on its B2B asset divestitures and announced the date of its Q1 2015 earnings release and conference call, while providing revenue expectations for such period. All dollar ($) figures in this release are Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.

Update on B2B Asset Divestitures

Amaya announced that it anticipates the estimated gross proceeds from the sale of approximately 60% of its interest in Diamond Game Enterprises (“Diamond Game”), its land-based B2B lottery and gaming business, through the initial public offering of Innova Gaming Group Inc. (“Innova”), to be approximately $34 million, excluding the exercise of the underwriters’ overallotment option or any portion thereof. Innova has filed its final prospectus with Canadian securities regulators, and estimates gross proceeds of its IPO to be approximately $49 million.

As previously announced in the first quarter of 2015, Amaya entered into definitive agreements to sell its other B2B businesses including its land-based gaming machine supplier Cadillac Jack, Inc. (“Cadillac Jack”) for US$382 million, and its online casino business Amaya (Alberta) Inc. (formerly Chartwell Technology Inc.) (“Chartwell”) and Cryptologic Limited (Cryptologic”) for $150 million. Closing of each of these transactions is subject to various approvals and closing conditions as noted in the respective announcements.

The Corporation intends to use the net proceeds from the divestitures of its B2B businesses to repay certain indebtedness, which it expects to help reduce its anticipated Adjusted Net Leverage Ratio[1] to the range of 4.0 to 4.5 by December 31, 2015, and to fund, in part, the repurchase of the Corporation’s common shares pursuant to its previously announced and Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”)-approved normal course issuer bid.

[1] Adjusted Net Leverage Ratio is a non-IFRS measure defined as Adjusted Net Debt divided by Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted Net Debt means total financial leverage minus cash (with cash including funds in excess of working capital requirements that are being set aside for the deferred payment, as outlined in the Restricted Cash note in the Corporation’s 2014 Financial Statements, as filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com), and after giving effect to the anticipated divestitures of Amaya’s B2B assets. This does not assume potential cash from the exercise of warrants with maturity dates extending beyond 2015. Adjusted EBITDA as defined by the Corporation means net earnings (loss) from continuing operations before interest and financing costs (net of interest income), income taxes, depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation, restructuring and other non-recurring costs.

Q1 2015 Earnings Release Date and Revenue Expectations

The Corporation intends to release its Q1 2015 results on Thursday, May 14 at 7:00 a.m. ET, with a conference call to follow at 8:30 a.m. ET. Conference call and webcast details are provided below.

Amaya anticipates the financial results of Cadillac Jack and Diamond Game will be included as discontinued operations on the income statement in the Corporation’s Q1 2015 unaudited consolidated financial statements. As such, Amaya anticipates its International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) revenues to exclude the contribution from those businesses.

As a result, for the quarter ending March 31, 2015, Amaya anticipates:

- IFRS revenues in the range of $336-342 million, including approximately $333-337 million from Amaya’s core B2C business, namely PokerStars and Full Tilt
- If Diamond Game and Cadillac Jack revenues were included, the Corporation would have expected revenues in the range of $363-374 million

Early in the second quarter of 2015, Amaya also announced a definitive agreement for the sale of its B2B online casino business, Chartwell and Cryptologic. The Corporation therefore anticipates that this business will be discontinued operations as of the second quarter of 2015.

Conference Call and Webcast Details

Amaya will host a conference call on Thursday, May 14, 2015 at 8:30 a.m. ET to discuss its financial results for the first quarter of 2015. David Baazov, CEO of Amaya, will chair the call. The Corporation plans to release its financial results on Thursday, May 14, 2015 at 7:00 a.m. ET.

To access via tele-conference, please dial +1.888.231.8191 or +1.647.427.7450 ten minutes prior to the scheduled start of the call. Amaya Reports First Quarter 2015 Results

MONTREAL, May 14, 2015 /CNW/ - Amaya Inc. ("Amaya" or the "Corporation") (TSX: AYA) today reported its financial results for the three month period ended March 31, 2015. The Corporation also provided updates to its share buyback program and its 2015 full year financial guidance. All dollar ($) figures are in Canadian dollars (CAD) unless otherwise noted.

During the first quarter, Amaya's continuing operations included its core B2C business, primarily the PokerStars and Full Tilt brands, and its B2B online casino business. As a result of the announced sale of Cadillac Jack, Inc. ("Cadillac Jack") for US$382 million and the completed spin-off of 60% of Amaya's interest in Diamond Game Enterprises ("Diamond Game") for $34 million in gross proceeds through the initial public offering of Innova Gaming Group ("Innova"), Cadillac Jack and Diamond Game were classified as discontinued operations and their assets and liabilities as held for sale.

Key financial highlights for Q1 2015:

- International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") revenues from continuing operations of $340 million;
- Revenues from discontinued operations of $30 million;
    - Total revenues including from discontinued operations was $370 million in Q1
- Adjusted Net Earnings (Loss)[1] of $82 million as compared to $(1) million in Q1 2014;
    - Adjusted Net Earnings (Loss)[1] per Diluted Share of 41 cents, respectively, as compared to (1) cent in Q1 2014;
- Adjusted EBITDA[2] from continuing operations of $140 million as compared to $2 million in Q1 2014;
- Adjusted EBITDA from discontinued operations of $14 million;
    - Total Adjusted EBITDA including from discontinued operations was $154 million in Q1
- IFRS cash flow from operating activities of $79 million, of which $73 million was from continuing operations, as compared to approximately $(0.4) million in Q1 2014; and
- Net debt of US$2.541 billion at March 31, 2015, as compared to net debt at August 1, 2014, as of the completion of the acquisition of Amaya's B2C business, of US$3.081 billion, resulting primarily from liabilities classified as held for sale, principal repayments on the first lien term loan related to the B2C business acquisition, and an increase in cash and investments net of restricted cash and customer deposits.

1 Adjusted Net Earnings (Loss), and Adjusted Net Earnings (Loss) per Diluted share, each as defined by the Corporation means net earnings (loss) from continuing operations before interest accretion, amortization of intangible assets resulting from purchase price allocation following acquisitions, stock-based compensation, foreign exchange, and other non-recurring costs. Adjusted Net Earnings (Loss) is a non-IFRS measure. Reconciliation to net income from continuing operations is included in this release.

2 Adjusted EBITDA as defined by the Corporation means net earnings (loss) from continuing operations before interest and financing costs (net of interest income), income taxes, depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation, restructuring and other non-recurring costs. Adjusted EBITDA is a non-IFRS measure. Reconciliation to net Income from continuing operations is included in this release.

"We saw continued strength in our core consumer online gaming business in the first quarter with gross deposits at PokerStars increasing approximately 9% on a domestic currency basis and PokerStars estimating an increase in its share of the global online poker market," said David Baazov, CEO of Amaya. "We believe that this healthy engagement helped counter new sales taxes and gaming duties in certain major European jurisdictions as well as a significant decrease in the purchasing power of our consumer base stemming from a sharp decline in the value of their local currencies versus the U.S. dollar (USD), which is the predominant currency of gameplay.

"PokerStars recently made multiple strategic marketing investments to help grow the global poker sector, including the sponsorship of new poker pros, celebrities and athletes, notably football megastar Neymar Jr, who we anticipate will help attract new players to the game," said Baazov. "These investments were in part driven by our expansion into adjacent gaming verticals including casino and sports betting, which have provided new revenue streams since their introduction. We ended the quarter with more than 93 million cumulative customer registrations, an increase of nearly 2.5 million during the quarter.

"We continue to execute on our strategy to divest our B2B assets and have completed the spin-off of Diamond Game through the IPO of Innova, and announced strategic transactions to sell Cadillac Jack to AGS, and sell Chartwell and CryptoLogic to NYX Gaming Group. We anticipate these divestitures will substantially reduce our indebtedness and fund a portion of the buyback of our common shares. We also expect the continued strong cash flow generated from our B2C business to allow us to delever throughout the remainder of 2015, support the buy-back of our common shares and allow us to pursue, among other things, potential strategic investments or acquisitions."

FINANCIAL RESULTS FROM CONTINUING OPERATIONS

Revenue for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015 was $340.1 million as compared to $12.8 million for the comparable prior year period. This increase was primarily attributable to consolidating B2C revenue, primarily generated by PokerStars, with B2B revenue.

Sales and marketing expenses increased from $3.0 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 to $59.0 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015. The increase was primarily the result of advertising and marketing expenses incurred by the B2C business during the three month period ended December 31, 2014.

General and administrative expenses increased from $12.8 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 to $193.8 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015. The increase was primarily the result of (i) a growing employee base due to the acquisition of the B2C business, (ii) gaming duty and processing costs incurred by the B2C business in connection with generating B2C revenues and (iii) increased amortization of purchase price allocated intangibles.

Financial expenses increased from $(0.7) million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 to $65.8 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015. This increase was primarily the result of interest incurred on the U.S. dollar denominated long term debt during the three-month period ended March 31, 2015, as offset by unrealized gain on the re-valuation of the Euro denominated long-term debt during the same period.

Acquisition related expenses increased from $2.6 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 to $2.8 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015. This increase was primarily the result of fees incurred during the three-month period ended March 31, 2015 in connection with the anticipated sale of Cadillac Jack and the spin-off of Diamond Game as compared to underwriter fees and professional fees incurred in connection with the acquisition of Diamond Game during the three-month period ended March 31, 2014.

Current income taxes increased from $1.0 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2014 to $2.9 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2015. This increase was primarily the result of the acquisition of the B2C business and the taxable revenues generated by such business.

For the three-month period ended March 31, 2015, the Corporation recognized deferred income tax recovery of $2.5 million as compared to recognized deferred income tax recovery of $0.9 million for the comparable prior year period. For the three month period ended March 31, 2014, the Corporation recognized deferred income tax recovery resulting primarily by differences between accounting and tax treatment of purchase price allocated intangibles.

Q1 2015 AND SUBSEQUENT HIGHLIGHTS

B2C Financial Highlights[3]

- Revenues of approximately $337 million, comprised of approximately 94% from the poker and approximately 6% from the new casino offering. Revenues are net of approximately $9 million in VAT introduced in various European Union jurisdictions in Q1 2015. On a year-over-year basis, revenues in Q1 2015 were approximately the same as Q1 2014, with revenue from the new casino offering offsetting a decline in poker revenue. This decline was partially due to the decline in purchasing power of our consumer base as a result of an average 18% decline in the value of our consumers' local currency relative to the U.S. dollar, which was partially offset by the translation into our Canadian dollar reporting currency. On a constant currency basis and removing the impact of VAT, growth in poker revenue was approximately 8%.
- Adjusted EBITDA of approximately $142 million which is net of VAT and recently introduced gaming duties in the U.K. and Bulgaria (combined, approximately $13.4 million) that were not imposed during Q1 2014. On a year-over-year basis, Adjusted EBITDA in Q1 2015 was approximately the same as in Q1 2014.

3 Amaya did not start consolidating financial results from its B2C business until it completed the acquisition of the business on August 1, 2014. Therefore, Amaya's 2014 consolidated financial statements do not include contributions from the B2C business for the first seven months of 2014.

B2C Operational Highlights

Poker

- PokerStars announced the sponsorship of football megastar Neymar Jr. and PokerStars.net announced the sponsorship of Japanese model and actress Yuiko Matsukawa as a new celebrity brand ambassador. Neymar Jr and Matsukawa will join a roster of PokerStars sponsored celebrities including Spanish tennis superstar Rafael Nadal, Brazilian soccer legend Ronaldo, and poker professional Daniel Negreanu. In addition, PokerStars announced the signing of its first Team Pros from India, Aditya Agarwal, and Japan, Kosei Ichinose. The various sponsorships are part of the company's strategy to promote the growth of poker around the world.
- Eight poker players have now become millionaires, four online and four in live events, through the PokerStars Makes Millionaires promotion, taking place in April and May of 2015, with at least one more to come in PokerStars' Spring Championship of Online Poker High Main Event on May 24, 2015. The 'Millionaires' campaign is reminiscent of the feat accomplished by Chris Moneymaker, an American accountant and casual poker player, who rose to fame in 2003 when he won $2.5 million at the World Series of Poker after qualifying via a low-stakes satellite tournament on PokerStars.
- PokerStars has launched a new PokerStars LIVE poker room in Northern Italy at "Casino de la Vallée", which is part of a new leisure destination, the Saint-Vincent Resort & Casino. Saint-Vincent is an alpine town not far from the international airports of Turin and Milan Malpensa, near the Italian border with France and Switzerland.

PokerStars Online Poker KPIs

- PokerStars estimates it increased its share of the online poker market, based on cash game and tournament players, to approximately 66% in Q1 2015 from 62% in Q1 2014, with the increase driven primarily by its increasing share of tournament player activity and the popularity of its Spin & Go tournaments. PokerStars compiles its estimates based on industry data sources including PokerScout, Sharkscope and information provided by certain gaming regulators.
- The number of online poker tournaments PokerStars held in Q1 2015 doubled from Q1 2014, with player activity shifting from ring/cash games to tournaments including Spin & Go's. Tournaments now generate a significant majority of PokerStars' online poker gross gaming revenue, with ring/cash games declining as a percentage of total revenues.
- Gross deposits on PokerStars increased approximately 9% on a domestic currency basis in Q1 2015 as compared to Q1 2014
- Real money online poker signups increased 2% and reactivations of inactive players increased 5% as compared to Q1 2014
- Mobile represented more than 60% of new account registrations
- The number of unique players who made a deposit during Q1 2015 increased 1.3% as compared to Q1 2014
- The average number of days a customer played online poker during Q1 2015 was stable at over 8.7 times per month
- The number of real money unique players who played online poker in the quarter declined approximately 2.6% in Q1 2015 as compared to Q1 2014, partially due to the decline in purchasing power of our consumer base as a result of declines in the value of our consumers' local currency relative to USD. As gameplay takes place predominantly in USD on the .com shared liquidity network, devaluation in local currencies versus USD has a negative impact on the purchasing power of our customers, resulting in certain customers playing less frequently. The number of unique players in April 2015 is in line with April 2014, and the business is making investments in marketing, including celebrity sponsors, and in development of new and innovative games that it anticipates will result in growth in real money unique players beginning in the late third quarter of 2015

B2C Casino

- Casino provided approximately 6% of total B2C revenues in the quarter, despite PokerStars only providing two games, Blackjack and Roulette, on the desktop client
    - PokerStars has subsequently bolstered its online casino with the offering of additional casino games, including live dealer games, more table games and slots, to its desktop client
    - Both Blackjack and Roulette are being rolled out on the PokerStars mobile apps for the Android and iOS platforms, and on the desktop client in the segregated market of Italy
    - More than 20% of eligible players on the PokerStars.com global network played casino in March, 2015, despite slots not yet being available and live dealer games only recently launched
    - Full Tilt, which had a more fulsome offering of table games, live dealer and slots, averaged greater than 33% cross sell in Q1 2015
- Casino revenues in Q1 2015 grew sequentially from Q4 2014 by approximately 75%, with the recent run rate also approximately 75% above the Q1 2015 run rate
- The B2C business anticipates that its casino offering, with even more games, will continue to be rolled out across all platforms – web, mobile and on the downloadable poker client – over Q2 and Q3 of 2015

Sports Betting

- PokerStars launched its sportsbook beta offering at the end of Q1 and it is being rolled out in various jurisdictions on the .com shared network, with completion anticipated by the end of the second quarter, with rollout in the segregated markets of Spain and Italy by the end of Q3 2015
- For the first time, our customers are able to access their account and the sportsbook directly from the PokerStars website, as well as on the downloadable poker client and via PokerStars' mobile apps
- Our customers can now deposit, withdraw and play on all three of our gaming verticals, poker, casino and sportsbook, directly from one account

Regulatory

- On May 13, 2015, Full Tilt announced that it had received a license and has launched poker and casino games in Denmark as the newest licensed gaming operator in that country. PokerStars already had a license in Denmark.
- During the first quarter, Amaya also announced that both PokerStars and Full Tilt received licenses from the UK Gambling Commission to operate online poker and other gaming within the United Kingdom.

2015 FULL YEAR FINANCIAL GUIDANCE

As noted above, Cadillac Jack and Diamond Game have been classified as discontinued operations and their assets and liabilities as held for sale. As such, Amaya's IFRS revenues and non-IFRS Adjusted EBITDA will exclude the contribution from those businesses. In the second quarter of 2015, Amaya also announced a definitive agreement for the sale of its B2B online casino business, Amaya (Alberta) Inc. (formerly Chartwell Technology Inc.) and CryptoLogic Ltd., and anticipates that such business will be identified as discontinued operations and its assets and liabilities held for sale as of and for the second quarter of 2015. The Corporation is therefore updating its full-year 2015 guidance, as announced on March 31, 2015, to reflect these changes. There are no material changes to the assumptions used to determine the previously provided guidance. As a result, such guidance will exclude Amaya's B2B businesses and only include its B2C business.

- Revenues for the B2C business of $1.446 billion to $1.564 billion, as compared to previous guidance of revenues for the B2C and B2B business of $1.620 billion to $1.740 billion (which consisted of approximately 90% revenue contribution from Amaya's B2C business and approximately 10% revenue contribution from Amaya's B2B businesses). Assumptions include:
    - USD/CAD exchange rate of 1.26, as at close on March 27, 2015
    - Excludes any potential revenues that may come from new verticals
    - The revenue guidance is net of approximately $45 million in new value added taxes (VAT)
    - The revenue guidance is net of the negative impact from the reduction in purchasing power of global depositing currencies relative to US dollar-denominated games
    - Casino and sportsbook revenues to account for more than 13% of total B2C revenues
    - The poker business to grow on a CAD basis
- Adjusted EBITDA for the B2C business of $600 million to $650 million as compared to previous guidance of Adjusted EBITDA from the B2C business and the B2B business of $670 million to $715 million (which consisted of approximately 90% Adjusted EBITDA from Amaya's B2C business and approximately 10% Adjusted EBITDA from Amaya's B2B businesses). Assumptions include:
    - USD/CAD exchange rate of 1.26, as at close on March 27, 2015
    - Growth driven by casino, sportsbook and the core poker business
    - The Adjusted EBITDA guidance is net of:
        - approximately $45 million in new Value Added Taxes (VAT) and UK point of consumption (POC) taxes on the core poker business (net of VAT and POC on casino and sportsbook)
        - the negative impact from the reduction in purchasing power of global depositing currencies relative to US dollar-denominated games
- Pro Forma Adjusted Net Earnings[4] consistent with previous guidance at $367 million to $415 million, or $1.77 to $2.00 per diluted share. Assumptions include:
    - A diluted share count of approximately 208 million, assuming conversion of all convertible preferred shares, options and warrants and not taking into account any share buyback
    - No change to existing debt at the B2C business (such as principal payments on or refinancing of the business's second lien term loan)
    - Pro forma as if the divestiture of the entire B2B business occurred at December 31, 2014
    - Before interest accretion, amortization of intangible assets resulting from purchase price allocation following acquisitions, stock-based compensation, foreign exchange, and other non-recurring costs.
- Adjusted Net Leverage Ratio[5] consistent with previous guidance at 4.0 to 4.5 at December 31, 2015.

4 Pro Forma Adjusted Net Earnings is a non-IFRS measure and is pro forma as if the divestiture of the entire B2B business occurred at December 31, 2014.

5 Adjusted Net Leverage Ratio is a non-IFRS measure defined as Adjusted Net Debt divided by Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted Net Debt means total financial leverage minus cash (with cash including funds in excess of working capital requirements set aside for the deferred payment that is in Restricted Cash in the Corporation's Financial Statements), and after giving effect to the anticipated divestitures of our B2B assets. This does not assume potential cash from the exercise of warrants with maturity dates extending beyond 2015.

SHARE BUYBACK

Further to Amaya's press release of February 13, 2015 announcing TSX approval of a normal course issuer bid ("NCIB") allowing Amaya to purchase for cancellation up to a certain percentage of its common shares ("Common Shares"), Amaya currently intends to enter into an automatic share purchase plan (the "Automatic Purchase Plan") with a broker to facilitate repurchases of its Common Shares under its NCIB. Subject to certain TSX restrictions, as generally described in the February 13 press release, and the terms and conditions of the Automatic Purchase Plan, once Amaya enters into the Automatic Purchase Plan, the broker will be able to repurchase Common Shares under the Automatic Purchase Plan at any time, provided that the broker is not in possession of material, non-public information about Amaya, its subsidiaries or its business. The Corporation has been under its routine quarterly blackout periods since the NCIB period began and has not yet purchased any Common Shares under the NCIB. Following the expiration of the Corporation's current blackout period and subject to TSX clearance, Amaya intends to enter into the Automatic Purchase Plan.

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

Every employee, officer and director of Amaya Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries occupies a position of trust. In varying measure, such individuals, as well as certain contractors and agents, represent the Company in its relations with others – whether with customers, suppliers, employees, competitors, governments, investors or the general public. Whatever the area of activity and whatever the degree of responsibility, such persons are expected to act honestly, ethically, with integrity and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

This Code of Business Conduct (this "Code") was adopted by the board of directors of the Company (the "Board") as a guide that is intended to sensitize such individuals to significant legal and ethical issues that arise frequently and to the mechanisms available to report illegal or unethical conduct. It is not, however, a comprehensive document that addresses every legal or ethical issue that may be encountered, nor is it a summary of all laws and policies that may apply. In fact, the specific requirements of applicable law in certain jurisdictions where we currently operate or may operate in the future may impose a higher standard than is specifically set forth in this Code. Ultimately, no code of conduct can replace the thoughtful behavior of a person acting honestly, ethically and with integrity.

This Code affirms the commitment of the Company to uphold high ethical standards and to specify the basic norms of behavior for the Company and employees, officers and directors, contractors, agents and other representatives of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Board and management have carefully considered the requirement of ethical dealing and have put in place this Code to, among other things, ensure that they become aware of and take prompt action against any questionable behavior. This Code is further intended to provide assurance that reporting of questionable behavior is protected and encouraged, and fosters an atmosphere of self-awareness and prudent conduct.

Compliance with the provisions of this Code is mandatory for all employees, officers and directors of the Company. Certain contractors, agents and other representatives of the Company may also be required to comply with this Code. Failure to comply with this Code, including a failure to report a violation of this Code, can have severe consequences. Conduct that violates this Code may violate foreign, federal, provincial, state or local law and can subject both the Company and its employees, officers and directors to prosecution and legal sanctions. The Company may discipline those who violate this Code, up to and including discharge from office or termination of employment or engagement with the Company, and, to the extent the Company believes any violation or other action is illegal, must report the same to the appropriate authorities.

The Company has set forth in writing numerous policies, procedures, rules and standards of employee performance which continue in force, and the Company may create additional policies, procedures, rules and standards in the future. This Code is intended to supplement and, in some cases summarize, these policies, procedures, rules and standards, but does not replace them. It continues to be the responsibility of all employees, officers and directors to comply with all such policies, rules and performance standards. Copies of these written policies, procedures, rules and standards of employee performance may be obtained from the Legal Department.

Employees, officers or directors with questions about this Code or any policies, rules and employee performance standards should consult their supervisor (if applicable) or the Legal Department. Any employee, officer or director that is concerned about conduct that they believe may violate this Code, such policies, rules and employee performance standards or applicable law, should consult with their supervisor (if applicable), any member of management or the Legal Department. Procedures for reporting of suspected violations of this Code are set out under "Compliance" below.

NO RETALIATION

The Company will not permit any form of retaliation, (including discharge, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment or any other form of discrimination) against an employee who has truthfully and in good faith:

(a) reported violations of this Code;

(b) lawfully provided information or assistance in an investigation regarding any conduct which the employee reasonably believes constitutes a violation of applicable securities laws or applicable federal laws relating to fraud against shareholders;

(c) filed, caused to be filed, testified, participated in or otherwise assisted in a proceeding related to a violation of applicable securities laws or applicable federal laws relating to fraud against shareholders; or

(d) provided a law enforcement officer with truthful information regarding the commission or possible commission of an offense, unless the individual reporting is one of the violators.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND DISCLOSURE ISSUES

Conflicts of Interest

Employees, officers and directors must avoid all situations in which their personal interests conflict, might conflict or could be perceived to conflict with their duties to the Company. Employees, officers and directors should seek to avoid acquiring any interests or participating in any activities that would tend to:

(a) deprive the Company of the time or attention required to perform their duties properly; or

(b) create an obligation or distraction which would affect their judgement or ability to act solely in the Company's best interest.

Employees charged with executive, managerial or supervisory responsibility are required to see that actions taken and decisions made within their jurisdiction are free from the influence of any interests that might reasonably be regarded as conflicting with those of the Company.

Employees, officers and directors owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises and to refrain from activities which could hinder their ability to act in the Company's best interest or have the potential or could be perceived as doing so. Employees are required to disclose in writing to the Company all business, commercial or financial interests or activities that might reasonably be regarded or perceived as creating an actual or potential conflict with such duties. In addition, directors and officers are required under corporate law and the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to disclose any interest in and refrain from voting on any material contracts or transactions relating to the Company in which they are a party or have a material interest. The Legal Department must be contacted in advance to co-ordinate such approval.

Employees, officers and directors must do more than merely act within the law. They must act in such a manner that their conduct will bear the closest scrutiny should circumstances demand that it be examined. Employees, officers and directors must act in a manner that not only avoids actual conflicts of interest, but in a manner that avoids even the appearance or perception of an actual or potential conflict.

Outside Employment and Business Activities

Employees are free to take on employment and engage in business ventures, partnerships or enterprises, but only outside their working hours and subject to supervisor or other management approval, as applicable. However, employees must avoid outside employment, businesses and other activities which would impair their effective performance as a Company employee, either due to, among other things, excessive demands on their time or because such employment, businesses and other activities may be contrary to their obligations to the Company or which have an adverse impact on the business or reputation of the Company.

In certain instances, employment in, ownership of or other participation in a competing or complementary business venture, partnership or enterprise might create or appear to create a conflict with the best interests of the Company. For these reasons, it is important to the performance of these standards for there to be a current and complete disclosure of any such outside employment or business ventures, partnerships or enterprises that any employee, officer or director may have. Such disclosure should be made promptly to a supervisor (if applicable) or to the Legal Department and should also be listed in any acknowledgement of this Code requested by the Company. This section should be read in conjunction with each of the "Personal Gain", "Company Confidential Information", "Intellectual Property", "Use of Company Assets" and "Use of Technology" sections set forth below.

Community Activities

Employees, officers and directors may, and are encouraged to, engage in community and volunteer work and activities outside their working hours, and to uphold a commitment to community in all of their activities. Requests for donation or sponsorship by the Company or from company assets, including employee work time, must be made only in accordance with the Company's established policies and procedures regarding the same and within any established budget therefor or, alternatively, may be submitted to the Legal Department and, in such case, may only be approved by the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or other officer, manager or senior employee designated by the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer for such purpose. See also "Political and Charitable Contributions" below.

Board Appointments

An employee may not sit on the board of a publicly-traded company or other entity (other than the Company and its affiliates) without the permission of his or her supervisor, or in the case of senior officers, the President and Chief Executive Officer. Membership on charitable or community boards does not require pre-approval but such activity must not interfere with duties and obligations to the Company and must not reflect negatively on the Company.

An employee who sits on the board of a company or other entity (other than the Company and its affiliates) must abstain from voting on any matter that directly or indirectly concerns the Company, is likely to go against the interests of the Company or would otherwise cause a conflict of interest or the appearance or perception of a conflict of interest of the Company in respect of the relevant matter.

Personal Gain

Employees, officers and directors shall not use their status or position with the Company to obtain personal gain in any manner, including from those doing or seeking to do business with the Company. Applicable law provides that if personal financial benefit is improperly gained by an employee, officer or director directly or indirectly, through a spouse or child or a relative sharing the same residence as the individual, as a result of his employment or position or by the use or misuse of the Company's property or of information that is confidential to the Company's business, then the employee, officer or director must account to the Company for any benefit received.

Company Confidential Information

Employees, officers and directors must safeguard the Company's Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" includes, but is not limited to, trade secrets, know how, records, data, plans, strategies, processes, business opportunities and ideas relating to present and contemplated products and services and financial affairs of the Company, its customers, its suppliers and/or other employees. Confidential Information is information which is not generally known to the public.

Employees, officers and directors are prohibited from disclosing Confidential Information or other information which might impair the Company's competitive position or which might violate the private rights of individuals, enterprises or institutions without appropriate authorization in accordance with the Company's Disclosure, Confidentiality and Trading Policy. If in doubt about whether information is Confidential Information or whether any other information may be disclosed, it should be assumed that the information is confidential and may not be disclosed without appropriate authorization. The above rules also apply to information which the Company has obtained from a customer or supplier (or prospective customer or supplier) on condition of confidentiality, particularly as a failure to protect such information may damage relationships with customers, suppliers or others and may result in legal liability for the Company. These confidentiality obligations continue even after an individual's service as an employee, officer or director of the Company has ceased.

If the decision is made to disclose Confidential Information to any person or entity outside of the Company (such as a potential vendor or business partner), it should be done only after appropriate confidentiality agreements are executed. These agreements must document the need to maintain confidentiality of the Confidential Information that is disclosed and copies of all confidentiality agreements must be forwarded to the Legal Department. The amount of Confidential Information shared with any person or entity outside of the Company should, in any case, be kept to the minimum necessary to address the applicable business need. Notwithstanding, the foregoing shall not derogate from the policies, procedures and protections set forth and provided in the Company's Whistleblower Policy. A copy of such policy is available from the Legal Department.

All employees, officers and directors are responsible and accountable for the integrity and protection of the Company's business information (including electronic mail and voice mail) and must take the appropriate steps to protect such information. Employees, officers and directors should always be alert to and seek to prevent inadvertent disclosures which may arise in either social conversations or in normal business relations with suppliers and customers. Documents containing sensitive data and Confidential Information should be handled carefully during working hours and must be properly secured at the end of the business day.

Securities laws contain prohibitions against trading in securities of the Company while in possession of material information regarding the Company that has not been generally disclosed to the public and against informing others of such undisclosed material information.

All employees, officers and directors must also adhere to the Company's procedures and practices on confidentiality, disclosure and insider trading as set out in the Company's Disclosure, Confidentiality and Trading Policy. A copy of such policy is available from the Legal Department.

Intellectual Property

All information, technology and intellectual property, including, but not limited to all creative materials, programs, designs, inventions, developments, strategies, trademarks, copyrights, patents or similar information, technology or intellectual property, developed by an employee during the course of employment with the Company belong to the Company and all employees assign to the Company all rights the employee may have in such information, technology and intellectual property. Such materials shall remain with the Company following termination of employment and employees shall take such reasonable steps as requested by the Company to confirm ownership of such materials in the Company, and to enable the Company to perfect and maintain its title to such information, technology and intellectual property. All employees waive all authors' and moral rights which they may have in such information, technology and intellectual property.

Use of Company Assets

Each employee, officer and director has a responsibility to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized destruction or damage or theft of the Company's assets. Reasonable precautions should be taken to secure the Company premises and assets.

The Company assets should be used solely for the benefit of the Company. Use of the Company's funds or assets for any unlawful or improper purpose is prohibited. Claims for business expenses must be made consistent with the Company's expense polices. Excessive, fictitious or unnecessary claims are prohibited.

Use of Technology

The Company makes available to its employees a variety of technology and electronic communications resources to enable employees to more effectively perform their jobs. However, these resources should generally be used for business purposes only and the improper use of these resources can create potential legal liability, may compromise the Company's confidential and/or proprietary business information, including Confidential Information, or otherwise have a negative effect on the Company's business.

Information transmitted through Company resources implies affiliation with the Company and should therefore reflect positively upon the Company. Sending, receiving, displaying, printing, or otherwise engaging in any communications that are in violation of applicable law or this Code, or any other the Company policy, including, but not limited to, communications that are unlawful, libellous, invasive of another's privacy, threatening, fraudulent, harassing, sexually explicit, defamatory, or otherwise objectionable, or that infringe or may infringe the intellectual property or other rights of another person or company, are prohibited. Employees are expected to discourage others from transmitting such information. Employees must also comply with all applicable laws, including those in respect to all forms of intellectual property rights, trademarks, copyrights and harassment.

Subject to applicable laws, all information of any kind (including without limitation voice communications and electronic messages) stored or transmitted on Company systems is the property of the Company and the Company has the right to monitor, inspect and/or audit any communication or material stored, downloaded, accessed, posted, transmitted or distributed on an employee's computer, phone or voicemail at any time for any purpose, without prior notice to the employee. Communications of any nature on these systems should not be considered private communications.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

Discrimination- and Harassment-Free Work Environment

The Company strives to maintain a work environment free of discrimination against and harassment of employees or non-employees with whom the Company has a business service or professional relationship and in which individuals are accorded equality of employment opportunity based upon merit and ability. Discriminatory practices based on race, ancestry, place of origin, color, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, religion, marital status, family status, same-sex partnership status, age, record of offenses, disability or other prohibited grounds of discrimination under applicable law will not be tolerated. This applies to any and every interaction where an employee, officer or director represents the Company.

It is the responsibility of each employee, officer and director of the Company to help the Company provide a work atmosphere free of harassing, abusive, disrespectful, disorderly, disruptive or other non-professional conduct. Harassment in any form, verbal or physical, by any employee, will not be tolerated. The Company requires every person to show sound judgment and respect for the feelings and sensibilities of all other employees.

If an employee feels that another employee's conduct is discriminatory, harassing, improper or offensive, the offended employee should promptly and firmly tell the offender that his or her behavior is unwelcome. Doing so places the offender on notice that his or her conduct is inappropriate. However, any employee who believes he or she has been subject to harassment or offensive conduct, or who believes he or she has been a witness to such conduct, may report the offense to the Human Resources Department or pursuant to the mechanisms for reporting suspected violations of this Code set out in "Compliance—Duty to Report". The Company will promptly investigate every complaint of harassment or improper or offensive conduct.

Equal Opportunity

The Company is committed to fair employment practices, including equal treatment in hiring, promotion, training and compensation, termination, and disciplinary action.

Employee Privacy and Personal Information

The Company believes in taking steps to protect the privacy of its employees, officers, directors, contractors, agents and other representatives. The Company will not interfere in the personal lives of such individuals unless their conduct impairs their work performance or adversely affects the work environment or business or reputation of the Company or is otherwise a violation of this Code.

The Company limits the collection of personal information to that which is necessary for business, legal, security or contractual purposes and collection of personal information is to be conducted by fair and lawful means with the knowledge and consent of the individual from whom the information is being collected. Access to employee personnel and medical records and the information contained therein shall be limited to those with a need to know for a legitimate business purpose. All employees have the right to see their own personnel record. Personal information shall not be used or disclosed for purposes other than those for which it was collected, except with the knowledge and consent of the individual or as required by law. Personal information shall be retained only as long as necessary for the fulfilment of those purposes and shall be kept sufficiently accurate, complete and up-to-date to minimize the possibility that inappropriate information may be used or disclosed. The Company and its employees will observe obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure of personal information, including information of its employees and customers, with the same degree of diligence that employees are expected to use in protecting Confidential Information. All employees shall adhere to the Company's policies and procedures in place to protect personal information against loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification of personal information of others, as the Company is responsible for all personal information in its possession or custody. The Company and all employees shall also comply with all applicable laws regulating the disclosure of personal information.

Substance and Alcohol Abuse

The use, possession, sale, purchase and the negotiation for sale or purchase of illegal substances or alcohol in the workplace or on or through Company property is prohibited unless otherwise authorized. The abuse or improper use of prescription or over-the-counter drugs while in the workplace or on or through Company property is also prohibited. Employees are prohibited against using drugs or alcohol in a manner, whether before, during or after work hours, which adversely affects job performance or customer or supplier relations or compromises the safety of other persons.

HEALTH, SAFETY & THE ENVIRONMENT

The Company is committed to the protection of the environment. The Company's policy is to comply with all applicable governmental requirements regarding environmental matters and the Company and its employees are expected to take steps to conserve energy resources to the fullest extent possible consistent with sound business operations.

The Company is committed and strives to provide a workplace free of preventable safety and health hazards which complies with all applicable laws and regulations governing workplace health and safety. Each employee must be proactive and follow all of the Company's safety and health rules and report possible safety and health issues and concerns to appropriate management personnel. In keeping with the Company's commitment to safety, the Company will not tolerate workplace violence.

ETHICAL BUSINESS PRACTICES

Compliance with Laws

The Company conducts business in jurisdictions where laws, customs and social requirements vary considerably. It is the Company's policy to operate in material compliance with all applicable domestic and foreign laws. Any employee, officer or director becoming aware of a conflict between foreign laws, customs or social requirements and applicable domestic or other laws should consult the Legal Department promptly.

Gifts, Benefits and Entertainment

Except as set forth herein and in accordance herewith, employees, officers and directors shall not furnish or provide, directly or indirectly on behalf of the Company, gifts, entertainment or benefits to other persons. Similarly, employees, officers and directors shall not accept or give anything that will compromise, or be seen to compromise their judgement or inappropriately influence others. It is useful to remember that appearances, as well as reality, are important considerations. The guiding principle in this area is good judgement and whether the matter, if disclosed, is reasonably likely to cause personal embarrassment for the individual or embarrassment to the Company.

Those individuals whose duties permit them to do so may furnish or accept certain gifts, favors and entertainment to or from persons, other than public officials, if all of the following tests are met:

(a) the gift or other benefit is not cash, a gift certificate or other negotiable instrument;

(b) the gift or other benefit cannot reasonably be interpreted as an improper payment or inducement and is of nominal value;

(c) the gift or other benefit does not contravene any law and, in addition, is made in accordance with generally-accepted local ethical practices;

(d) the gift, other benefit or entertainment occurs or is given or accepted infrequently;

(e) the entertainment arises out of the ordinary course of business;

(f) the entertainment involves reasonable expenditures; and

(g) if subsequently disclosed to the public, the provision or acceptance of the relevant gift, favor or entertainment would not in any way embarrass the Company, its employees, officers or directors or the recipient.

For the avoidance of doubt, this section is not intended to apply to planned promotional or other similar activities of the Company, including the offering of incentives to customers of the Company, which have been approved in accordance with the Company's applicable policies and procedures. Any questions regarding the interpretation of this section and its requirements should be directed to the Legal Department prior to accepting or giving the gift or other benefit to the extent reasonably practicable.

Recording of Transactions and Reporting of Financial Information

The integrity of the Company's record-keeping and reporting systems shall be maintained at all times, as these systems are required for the Company to meet its financial, legal and other business obligations. For example, the dissemination of financial statements by the Company that contain materially misleading information, or the failure of the Company's books and records to fully and fairly disclose, in an accurate, timely, complete and understandable manner, all transactions and acquisitions and dispositions of the Company, could create legal liability for the Company and, potentially, for certain employees, officers and directors of the Company.

Employees must therefore document and record all transactions in accordance with the Company's internal control procedures and in compliance with all applicable accounting principles, laws, rules and regulations, and employees with responsibility for reporting financial information shall provide information that is accurate, complete, objective, timely and understandable and that complies with all applicable laws relating to the recording and disclosure of financial information. Employees and managers are forbidden to use, authorize, or condone the use of "off-the-books" record-keeping or any other device that could be utilized to distort records or reports of the Company's true operating results and financial conditions. Maintenance of falsified, inaccurate or incomplete records can subject the offending individual and the Company to civil and criminal penalties. No employee shall fraudulently influence, coerce, manipulate or mislead any independent public or certified accountant engaged in the performance of an audit of the financial statements for the purpose of rendering such financial statements materially misleading.

Use of Written Agreements; No Side Deals or Side Letters

It is the Company's policy to document business transactions with full and complete written agreements that set out the terms and conditions of the agreement and understandings between the parties, including the Company's rights, obligations and liabilities, and no new agreement can be created, or an existing agreement modified, without approval of the Legal Department. All new agreements should also be reviewed by the relevant functional areas, including finance, as the terms and conditions of the agreement may affect how the Company records and reports the transaction for accounting or other purposes. Therefore, no oral contracts, informal letters of understanding or intent, "handshake deals" or side letters are permitted. Where the Company has developed standard written agreements and other provisions, schedules, riders and appendices, Company employees should use these standard forms except to the extent that changes are authorized either by appropriate management personnel or the Legal Department.

Records Retention and Destruction

Certain records received or generated at the Company must be retained for specified periods of time; other records should be purged on a regular basis. Legal and regulatory practice requires the retention of certain records for various periods of time, particularly in the tax, personnel, health and safety, environmental and financial areas. Failure to retain documents for such minimum periods may, among other things, subject the Company to penalties and fines or place the Company at a serious disadvantage in litigation. In addition, when litigation or a governmental investigation or audit is pending or immiment, relevant records must not be altered or destroyed until the matter is closed. Alteration or destruction of records in a legal or governmental proceeding may constitute a criminal offense.

The Company has established controls to retention for required periods and timely destruction of records which no longer need to be retained. The retention of records beyond their useful or legally required lives is costly both from a record storage standpoint and legal fees for time spent combing through old records that may be responsive to an open-ended discovery request in a lawsuit. However, the Company may, from time to time, need to retain records beyond the period they would normally be retained, whether for legal or other matters. In that situation, the Legal Department will notify the employees responsible for maintaining the affected records that those records have been placed on “legal hold”, meaning that those records cannot be altered, destroyed, deleted or modified in any manner for the duration of such hold. Questions regarding records retention should be addressed to the Legal Department, particularly if any litigation, investigation, inquiry or administrative action involving the Company or any of its employees, suppliers or customers is pending or threatened.

Ethical Competitive Practices and Third Party Intellectual Property

The Company shall compete vigorously and creatively in its business activities, but its efforts in the marketplace shall be conducted in a fair and ethical manner in strict compliance with applicable competition and trade practice laws and regulations. Although these laws and regulations vary across the jurisdictions in which the Company operates, certain activities, such as price fixing, are almost always prohibited. The Company’s employees will not use improper or illegal means of gathering information about competitors or other third parties, nor will employees exchange information or agree with competitors in connection with pricing or other matters that are prohibited by applicable law. Theft or illegal entry and electronic eavesdropping are unacceptable means of searching for competitive intelligence. Employees must neither offer a bribe or a gift in exchange for a competitor’s information nor otherwise solicit information from current or former employees of a competitor. Employees, officers and directors of the Company must also not knowingly use intellectual property belonging to third parties without the applicable third party’s consent, a license or other legal right.

Crime and Money-Laundering Prevention

The Company is committed to comply fully with all applicable anti-money laundering laws, both domestically and internationally. The Company will conduct business only with reputable customers who are involved in legitimate business activities and whose funds are derived from legitimate sources. All employees are to take reasonable steps to ensure that the Company does not aid or take part in any illegal activities or accept forms of payment that have been identified as a means of laundering money.

DEALINGS WITH PERSONS OUTSIDE THE COMPANY

The honesty and integrity of those who represent the Company must underlie all of the Company’s relationships, including those with shareholders, customers, suppliers, governments, regulators, professional service providers and others.

Dealing with Public Officials; Lobbying

Dealing with public officials and the governments which they represent pose unique considerations for employees, officers and directors of the Company as there are a number of applicable laws and regulations that must be complied with when dealing with such persons. As a general matter, all dealings between employees, officers and directors of the Company and public officials are to be conducted in a manner that will not compromise the integrity or impugn the reputation of the Company, its employees, officers or directors or any public official. The Company specifically prohibits bribery of public officials and third parties anywhere in the world and requires compliance with all applicable laws in the countries in which the Company does business, including, without limitation, the anti-bribery provisions of the Canada’s Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act (“CFPOA”), the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (“FCPA”), the UK’s Bribery Act (2010) (the “UK Bribery Act”) and the Isle of Man’s Bribery Act (2013) (the “IOM Bribery Act”). This legislation also requires the Company to keep accurate books and records and maintain effective internal controls. The CFPOA, the FCPA, the UK Bribery Act and IOM Bribery Act each have a broad scope, and apply to the activities of the Company and activities carried out through its subsidiaries and affiliates anywhere in the world.

Even the appearance of impropriety in dealing with public officials is improper and unacceptable. Any participation, whether directly or indirectly, in any bribes, kickbacks, improper profit-sharing arrangements, illegal gratuities, indirect contributions, improper inducements or similar payments to any public official is expressly forbidden, notwithstanding that they might further the business interests of the Company. Applicable laws make it an offense to make or offer a payment, gift or benefit to a foreign government official in order to induce favorable business treatment, such as obtaining or retaining business or some other advantage in the course of business. This principle applies to the Company's operations around the world, even where such practices may be considered to be a way of "doing business" or necessary in a particular country in question, including where the making small "facilitation payments" to foreign public officials to secure a routine business service or have routine administrative actions performed by public officials is local custom. Furthermore, certain laws, such as the CFPOA, apply to dealings with foreign public officials in Canada and in the official's own state.

It is the Company's policy that no payments or offers to make payments whatsoever, regardless of amount or purpose, shall be made either directly or through third parties to officials or employees of government agencies or instrumentalities (including government monopolies) without an express authorization from the Legal Department following consultation with the appropriate compliance personnel. Any approved arrangements must be documented in accordance with the Company legal and accounting requirements and ethical business practices.

The Company may hire former public officials from time to time, but because of the restrictions that applicable laws can place on such arrangements in certain circumstances, employees, officers and directors must first consult with the Legal Department prior to hiring a current or former public official, and the Company will not hire any such official if he or she is participating in a matter reasonably regarded as involving the Company's interests.

For purposes of this Code, a "public official" should be interpreted broadly and includes any official or employee of a government or of a department, organization or agency of a government (or any department, organization or agency thereof); any employee of any company owned or controlled by a government; any official who holds a legislative or judicial position; any official of a public international organization; any political party or official of a political party; any candidate for political office; and any person or firm acting in an official capacity, including for, or on behalf of, any of the following: a government, a department or agency of a government, a company owned or controlled by a government, a legislator, a judicial officer, a public international organization, or any political party.

The Company and its representatives will not engage in or undertake lobbying activities as defined under applicable laws unless all requirements under such applicable laws have been satisfied and the prior express approval of the Legal Department has been obtained following consultation with appropriate compliance personnel.

Dealing with the Media and Communications Generally

The Company is committed to providing, as appropriate, full and prompt disclosure to the public of material developments and events. However, all media, public and investor relations and communications are to be co-ordinated through the Legal Department and the Investor Relations or Public Relations Departments, as applicable, in accordance with the Company's Disclosure, Confidentiality and Trading Policy, and with applicable laws. Employees should not comment on any inquiry from the media, no matter how innocuous the inquiry may appear. Any employee who is asked by the media or otherwise for a statement or to give a presentation should explain that he or she is subject to this Code and the Disclosure, Confidentiality and Trading Policy and refer the matter to the Legal Department.

Dealings with Suppliers, Agents and Representatives

Selection of suppliers to the Company will be based on merit after due consideration of alternatives. The Company will only deal with suppliers who comply with applicable legal requirements (including any applicable regulations requiring, for example, the conduct of background checks) and the Company's standards relating to, among other things, labor, environment, health and safety, intellectual property rights and refraining from improper payments. Confidential information received from a supplier shall be treated as if it were the Company's Confidential Information (see "Conflicts of Interest and Disclosure Issues – Company Confidential Information").

The Company will enter into representation agreements only with companies or persons believed to have a record of and commitment to integrity. Efforts will be taken by the Company and its employees to ensure that agents, consultants, independent contractors and representatives are aware of this Code. The Legal Department should be contacted prior to retaining any individual who is to act as an agent, consultant, independent contractor or representative, and such individual should be retained only pursuant to a written contract that has been approved by the Legal Department.

In cases where an agent, consultant, independent contractor, or a representative is engaged to provide services to the Company and that individual deals on behalf of the Company with public officials, has access to Confidential Information or where the Company otherwise determines it is necessary or advisable, such person will be provided with a copy of this Code and be required to acknowledge the same and be bound by its terms.

Political and Charitable Contributions

The use of the Company's funds, goods or services as contributions to political parties, candidates, campaigns or charities is forbidden, unless authorized by the Legal Department, and the contribution is in accordance with any approved political donations or charitable donations budget. Contributions include money or anything having value, such as loans, services, entertainment, trips, employee work time and the use of the Company's facilities or assets.

No corporate action, direct or indirect, will be allowed that infringes on the right of any employee individually to decide whether, to whom, and in what amount, he or she will make personal political or charitable contributions. The same is true of volunteer political or charitable donations of personal service time, so long as it does not interfere with the working status of employees and is not during employee work time. Employees, officers and directors who participate in political or charitable activities on their own behalf and on their own time must not purport to speak or act for the Company or in any way use Company property or assets. It is illegal for the Company to reimburse an employee for a contribution in the nature of those listed above.

Investigations

It is the policy of the Company to fully cooperate with any appropriate governmental or regulatory investigation. A condition of such cooperation, however, is that the Company be adequately represented in such investigations by its own legal counsel. Accordingly, any time an employee, officer or director receives information about a new government, regulatory or other investigation or inquiry, this information should be communicated immediately to the Legal Department.

Employees, officers and directors should never, under any circumstances:

(a) destroy or alter any the Company documents or records in anticipation of a request for those documents from any government agency or a court;

(b) lie or make any misleading statements to any governmental investigator (including routine as well as non-routine investigations); or

(c) attempt to cause the Company, any employee or any other person, to fail to provide information to any government investigator or to provide any false or misleading information.

Should any governmental, regulatory or other inquiry be made through the issuance of a written or oral request for information, such request should immediately, and before any action is taken or promised, be submitted to the Legal Department.

COMPLIANCE

This Code will be posted to the Company's website and each Company employee will be provided with a copy. To ensure a proper understanding of this Code, any questions pertaining to its application to the area of responsibility and jurisdiction of the employee, will be explained by the employee's supervisor. A copy of this Code will also be provided to each director as part of his or her orientation materials.

At the commencement of employment or other service with the Company, and from time to time as may be requested by the Company, each employee, officer and director, as applicable, shall complete an acknowledgement and disclosure statement attesting to that individual's compliance with this Code. All such acknowledgements will be retained by the Human Resources Department for purposes of confirming that each employee, officer and director has acknowledged this Code.

The Company reserves the right to audit compliance with this Code. Accordingly, all employees, officers and directors shall afford any external or internal auditors full, free and unrestricted access to all the Company operations, records, facilities and personnel and will take appropriate measures to safeguard information obtained through the audit process.

Every employee, officer and director has a duty to report any violations of this Code as promptly as possible. Managers, officers and directors may also be subject to disciplinary action if they condone misconduct or do not demonstrate the appropriate leadership to ensure compliance with this Code.

An employee, officer or director who becomes aware of a violation or possible violation of this Code or any of the Company's statements and policies must report that information immediately to his or her supervisor (if applicable) or a senior officer or director of the Company. An employee may report questionable accounting or auditing matters, on an anonymous basis, by sending a letter to "The Board of Directors of Amaya Inc. c/o Chair, Audit Committee, 7600 TransCanada Highway, Pointe-Claire, Quebec, M9R 1C8". Employees, officers and directors must cooperate fully in any Company investigation and must take all reasonably steps necessary to safeguard the integrity of the investigation.

Where a concern arises over an officer or director's conduct in relation to this Code, the Legal Department will serve as an independent authority for overseeing the disciplinary process of the involved individual.

WAIVER, AMENDMENTS AND INTERPRETATION OF THIS CODE

The Company retains sole discretion in interpreting and applying this Code. The Company will periodically review this Code and make appropriate additions or changes. This Code may be updated, modified or withdrawn by the Company at any time in its sole discretion. Any waiver of this Code for executive officers or directors may be made only by the Board and will be publicly disclosed, together with the reasons for such waiver, in accordance with all applicable securities laws and stock exchange rules. Any waivers of this Code will only be granted where such waiver is both necessary and appropriate, and it will be qualified in scope so as to protect the Company to the greatest extent practicable. Amendments or other modifications of this Code will also be publicly disclosed in accordance with all applicable securities laws and stock exchange rules.
